FROM ALL OVER NEW BRUNSWICK

GRAND FALLS.

Grand Falls, May 2—Charles Curless intends to appeal his case against the town of Grand Falls, recently tried in the Victoria County Court, to the Supreme Court. The jury awarded the plaintiff $36 damages, and intended in answer to the question submitted to them by the court to find in favor of the plaintiff, but the judge ordered a verdict to be entered for the town.

About 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon the Episcopal church in New Denmark was completely destroyed by fire, entailing a loss exceeding $6,000. The edifice was insured for $700. The manse and Sunday school building adjoining the church were saved undamaged. The energetic pastor, Rev. C. E. Maiman will proceed to form plans for the erection of a new church without delay.

Fred D. Olmstead, of this town, and Miss Eulatia Langer, of South Tilley, were married at McAdam Junction on Saturday morning and arrived here on the express the same evening. The Grand Falls band, of which the groom is a popular member, serenaded the happy couple on Saturday night.

Messrs. Burgess sent a large crew of men up Little River today to commence stream driving operations. Messrs. Burgess cut their usual large quantity of logs last winter, and the present prospect of driving the logs to their mill are not bright.

Wm. Wilson intends to remove the engine, machinery and carriage reparing and painting business across the Suspension bridge to the building on Broadway occupied by his brother, F. B. Wilson.

A. R. Hallett went to Millville last week on a business trip.

The C. P. R. up-express continues to arrive several hours late every afternoon to the great inconvenience of business men and travellers.

Ex-Mayor A. J. Martin went to Hartland yesterday where he expects to return the owner of a celebrated trotter.

Yesterday the weather was intensely cold, and today the weather is again of Artic severity. Judging by the cold weather winter still lingers in the lap of spring.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, N. B., May 2—(Special)—The city council, at a lengthy meeting tonight, gave out the street lighting contract and made a number of appointments. There has been a desire to economize on the lighting bill, and two days ago the lighting superintendent, W. H. McGinn, was told that a change in operators was to be made. He has had the help of a fireman and a lineman and the combined salary list of all three was $1,950 a year. He was asked to put in a tender for the work, and he offered to do it for $1,950, the city to supply all material. W. Allen Staples, of St. John, tendered for $1,600, and Harry D. White, of Fredericton, for $1,580. Mr. White's tender was accepted, and this means practically that Superintendent McGinn is dismissed by the city.

The salary of J. W. McCready, city clerk, was increased from $550 to $650 a year.

Harry T. Rutter, who has been acting chief of the fire department, was appointed chief at $150 a year, and Wm. M. Clark, captain of the hose company, was made assistant chief. John B. Hawthorn and A. H. Wood were also applicants for the latter position.

Ald. Geo. Ross was appointed building and fire inspector at $150 a year. This vacates his seat as St. Ann's ward representative, and an election will be held May 22. Ald. Ross has been three years at the council board.

A. E. Hanson was given the contract to run two water carts at $2 a day.

A grant of $75 was made to the Fredericton Brass Band for open air concerts during the summer.

Robert Hamilton was reappointed caretaker of the old burial ground. R. W. Gregory, who at one time held the position, was again an applicant, but was defeated five votes to four.

J. H. Barry, L. C. McNutt and others petitioned against the establishment of a private hospital in Brunswick street by Mrs. Daniel Richards, and the matter was referred to a special committee.

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Ottawa, secretary of the anti-tuberculosis association, addressed the High School and Normal School students here this afternoon.

The river is rising slowly, has come up about a foot here since Saturday, but the outlook is not good from the lumbermen's viewpoint.

The monthly sitting of the York equity court was held this morning, Judge Barker presiding. Nothing but common motions were heard.

The cathedral congregation last evening elected the following representatives to the Diocesan Synod: Delegates, Sheriff Sterling and Dr. W. H. Steeves; substitutes, G. T. Whelpley and G. Y. Dibblee.

The exhibition executive held a meeting today. The medal won in the equity court suit by Baird & Peters has been received by them. The society's payment of two-thirds of the cost of the suit is $264.42, and it was ordered paid.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, N. B., May 2—The April circuit court opened here today at 2 o'clock, Chief Justice Tuck presiding.

The following is the criminal docket:

King vs. Howard Briggs, charged with assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm, A. B. Copp, M. P. P., for crown; D. I. Welsh, defending.

King vs. James Penny, charged with larceny, A. B. Copp for crown; undefended.

King vs. George Cameron, charged with larceny; Copp for crown; James C. Sherren defending.

In case of King vs. Howard Briggs the grand jury returned a "true bill" on the seven counts in the indictment. The prisoner at once pleaded guilty and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. This is the case of assault with murderous intent on Chief of Police Tingley, Moncton.

The grand jury returned "true bills" in each of the three remaining cases on the docket. In the case of King vs. James Penny, the prisoner pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

In the case of King vs. Joseph Pedro the prisoner entered a plea of guilty and got three months in the county jail. These two cases were in connection with breaking and entering the tool house on the I. C. R. section, and stealing therefrom clothing, etc.

In the final case on the docket the King vs. George Cameron, charged with the larceny of twelve cents from two small boys, the prisoner admitted his guilt and got three months in the county jail. This finished the criminal docket. Some civil cases will be tried tomorrow.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, May 2—(Special)—One smallpox case, which has been concealed, was reported today. All persons with whom any of the infected household had been employed or had otherwise come in intimate contact with have been strictly quarantined.

DIGBY.

Digby, N. S., May 2—(Special)—Word reached here tonight that the body of Captain Thomas Odell, of Smith's Cove, Digby county, was found in the North river (N. Y.), Sunday morning. From the best information that can be obtained the captain fell overboard at 11 p. m. on March 19 last, from his barge Thistle, which was moored at 42nd street, North River, and was drowned. His sister, Mrs. Isaac Smith, resides at Smith's Cove, Digby county.

The contract to build the government breakwater at Freeport has been awarded to Mr. Bigelow, of Canning (N.S.). The contract price is $13,700.

The contract for building the two houses at Westport have been awarded to Westport parties. The contract price is $3,150. The lowest tenders in both these works were accepted.

The municipal council opened its semi-annual session in the court house this afternoon.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, May 2.—The funeral of Mrs. Elisha Peck took place this afternoon and was very largely attended. The services, which were held at the late home of the deceased, were conducted by Rev. Dr. Brown, pastor of the Baptist church, and were of an especially solemn and impressive character. The floral offerings were very beautiful and included a pillow from the members of the family; a wreath from Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewis, and pieces from Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peck and Miss Celia Peck, Mrs. Frank Carney and Mrs. G. M. Russell. In the course of his remarks Dr. Brown referred in touching manner to the quiet, unostentatious Christian life of the deceased, to whom so many from far and near were paying the last tribute of respect. The interment was made in the Peck cemetery.

Miss Emily Cox, of Truro, is visiting Mrs. G. M. Russell.

Capt. C. D. Robinson, of St. John, is spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Enoch Steeves, of Elgin, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles N. O'Regan

GAGETOWN.

Gagetown, N. B., May 3—The Rev. D. Spencer, LL. D., of Ottawa, has just left Gagetown where he has been visiting his brother, Rev. J. Spencer, rector. Dr. Spencer delivered a very interesting lecture on Old London in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, which the audience appreciated very much. J. W. Dickie moved a vote of thanks for the speaker. Dr. Spencer left Wednesday for St. John and other parts.

MONCTON.

Moncton, N. B., May 2—(Special)—The annual meeting of the Adogwoosook Fishing Club was held here this afternoon, and the following officers elected: W. F. Humphrey, president; I. W. Binney, vice-president; H. Wathen, secretary-treasurer; W. F. Humphrey, I. W. Binney, J. W. Y. Smith, L. Higgins, Captain Masters, W. A. D. Stevens, H. Wathen, directors. Letters of condolence were passed and ordered to be sent to Mrs. Bowser, widow of the late Dr. Bowser, of Rexton, and Mrs. Abbott, widow of the late J. H. Abbott. Dr. Bowser and Mr. Abbott both having been members of the club. The latter was president of the club ten years.

Friends here received the intelligence today of the death at Denver (Colo.) of Miss Wilhelmina Snow, daughter of W. C. Snow, insurance agent, of this city. Miss Snow went to Denver two years ago for the benefit of her health, and reports up to a few days ago were favorable. Recently she had paralysis of the throat, and underwent an operation from which she never rallied. Deceased was twenty-four years old, and a trained nurse. She is a sister of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. H. E. Gross, of Moncton. The body will be brought home for interment.

Mrs. D. Hutchinson, who will leave for St. John Thursday, was last night presented with a silver tea service and a piece of cut glass by the Baptist Missionary Aid Society, of which she was formerly president.

Moncton, May 3—Paul Barnett and Andrew Steeves were both severely injured in the I. C. R. tender shop while at work shortly before noon. They were working on a locomotive truck and using an instrument known as a "jack" for tightening bolts. The jack, it is supposed on account of the heavy pressure, suddenly jumped back. Steeves was most severely injured, being struck in the forehead and receiving a severe gash some inches in length. Barnett was also injured. Both men were thrown into a scrap iron heap and sustained cuts about their heads.

Garnet W. Stanley, a former well-known athlete here, but now of Boston, was married April 28th to Marie Agnes Wallace, of Boston.

BLISSVILLE.

Blissville, Sunbury county, May 1.—A concert was held in the hall on Friday evening. The programme consisted of dialogues, recitations, readings, tableaux and several musical selections. The audience was well pleased with the performance. Refreshments were served during the evening. The proceeds, which amounted to more than $27, go to aid the S. B. parsonage fund.

Miss J. R. Smith, of the teaching staff of St. John, who was home for Easter vacation, left this morning for the city.

W. D. Dibblee, of Welsford, spent the day here today.

Mrs M. D. Harris leaves today for Nova Scotia, where she will visit relatives.
