PLATE XIV.

Art.

Incised, Geometric, and Pictographic Characteristic of the Southern Interior of British Columbia.

Fig.

a. Incised pictograph on pipe made of soapstone. Lytton. Collector, C. Hill-Tout. (Cat. No. XI-A-929.

b. Incised pictograph on fragment of pipe made of soapstone. Lytton. Gift of H. M. Maurice, 1899. (Cat. No. XI-A-927.

c. Incised pictograph on pipe made of soapstone. Graves, Lytton. Collector, G. M. Dawson, 1877. (Cat. No. XI-A-928.

d. Incised pictograph on pipe made of soapstone. Lytton. Collector, C. Hill-Tout, 1899. (Cat. No. XI-A-930.

e. Incised pictograph on antler handle of digging stick. From ruins, Lytton. Collector, Harlan I. Smith, on Jesup North Pacific Expedition, 1897. Original [illegible] in the American Museum of Natural History. From cast. (Cat. No. XI-A-930.

f. Incised design on tip of antler. Lytton. Collector, G. M. Dawson, 1877. (Cat. No. XI-A-931.

g. Incised outline and design on wall made of loam. Graves, Lillooet. Collector, G. M. Dawson, 1899. (Cat. No. XI-A-932.

h. Incised design on wall made of loam. Lytton. Collector, G. M. Dawson, 1877. (Cat. No. XI-A-933.

i. Incised design on cap sprouter made of antler. Graves, Lillooet. Collector, G. M. Dawson, 1899. (Cat. No. XI-A-934.