FOOD TENDERS SHOW HIGH COST OF LIVING HITS CITY HOSPITAL

Retailers Blame Increased Prices for Big Jump in Figures.

At the monthly meeting of Victoria Hospital trust last evening tenders for the year to date from September 1 were awarded. Only one change was made from the present holders of contracts, the meat contract being awarded to James Smith, which at present is held by Frank Jackson.

In all cases the contracts are for a higher amount than is the case for the hospital year just ending. This, it is claimed, is due to a necessary advancement on account of increased cost to the retailers.

The following were awarded contracts: Groceries, Willis & Co.; bread, Parnell Company; milk, London Pure Milk Company; meat, James Smith; fish, F. S. Onn; drugs, Cairncross & Lawrence.

No coal tenders were received, and this matter for a time will be left in abeyance.

The superintendent's monthly report showed that 59 males, 126 females and 48 children had been admitted up to July 31, and 63 males, 130 females and 108 children discharged during that period.

Superintendent Heard was authorized to attend the American Hospital Association convention at Cleveland on September 10.

Those present at the meeting were chairman, Col. A. M. Gartshore, F. Screaton, E. C. Mitchell and T. H. Heard.

L.-CPL. JOHN WESTON NEVER LEFT ENGLAND, FOR LACK OF FUNDS

Unable To Secure Money To Come Home.

DELAY CAUSED ANXIETY

Drew $100, But Had Business To Settle Up Before Leaving Old Land.

Fear regarding the safety of Lance-Corp. J. Weston, from whom no word had been received since July 19, was dispelled by the arrival of a letter Wednesday. He is at Buxton, and expects to sail soon for Canada, his immediate departure having been delayed by lack of funds. Arrangements are being made by the local branch of the Soldiers' Aid Commission to obtain transportation for him, and he will still be able to spend some of his twelve weeks furlough at home with his children.

Had Left His Unit.

Mrs. Weston was killed by a train nine weeks ago, and her two children were left in the care of their grandmother. Arrangements were made for the father to come home, and a cable was sent telling him of his wife's death. A subsequent letter containing a fuller account was returned unopened, because, as was learned in his letter on Wednesday, he had left his unit for England, giving instructions that all mail should be forwarded to Canada, where he expected to arrive within a couple of weeks.

No letters explaining this were received by his parents here, and they became much alarmed when queries through military headquarters here failed to locate him.

No Money for Fare.

His letter to the local branch of the Soldiers' Aid Commission was as follows:

"30761 Lance-Corp. J. Weston,
"Empire Hotel, Buxton, Eng.
"August 13, 1917.

"Dear Sir,—On July 8, I received a cablegram from you through Capt. Chester Butler, informing me that my wife had been killed on June 30; on July 10, the officer commanding my unit received a cable from Ottawa granting me three months' furlough. I left France on July 12, for the purpose of proceeding to Canada. I have been here now nearly a month and I find out at the last minute that I cannot get back to Canada, as I have not got any money to pay my fare, which is $60.

"Before I came to this place (Buxton Discharge Depot), I went to the pay office in London to get some money, as I had a little business matter to settle up before I left, which took most of the money I drew (£20). I had no idea then that I would have to pay £12 for my passage, so I approached the paymaster here, but he could do nothing for me.

"I then put in my claim for 50 cents per day, which was taken from me, on January 1, 1916. When the money was taken from us we were offered our discharge. I applied for my discharge, my name came back from the base to my unit that I was entitled to my discharge, and I would be sent away as soon as someone came to fill my place. But in May it was published in our orders that all discharges were cancelled and that our pay would go on the same as previously, to December 31, 1915.

In France 30 Months.

"My rate of pay was $1.60 per diem. If I could get this money it would put me in credit instead of debit, but they will not do anything at the London pay office or at this place. All the information I got today was that the paymaster had received word from London that I am to be returned to my unit in France and I feel quite upset. There is no doubt that you are aware that I have been in France 30 months. I enlisted with the first contingent and went to France with them, and I haven't a crime against me, but there seems to be nobody here that can do anything for me, so I am appealing to you, to see if you can take up my case for me and do anything for me in the way of getting me back.

"I do not know any particulars concerning my wife's death, for I have not received a word from Canada, only your cable. Of course, when I left France I told them to send all my mail back to Canada, because I thought I was being sent right away. I do not know how my babies are or who has them. They tell me that my assigned pay is not stopped, because I explained to the paymaster here that my three months' assigned pay (period of furlough), would pay my fare, but he said as far as he was concerned somebody was still drawing it, so, dear sir, if you can make inquiries and do anything to help get me back I would be greatly obliged to you. I am, yours sincerely,

"LANCE-CORP. WESTON."

INGERSOLL EXTENDED WARM WELCOME TO RETURNED SOLDIERS

Party of 150 From London Had Best Outing Yet.

With every factory whistle in the town screeching and more than 2,000 people in the streets, Ingersoll extended its welcome to 150 returned soldiers from the Central Military Convalescent Hospital at London Wednesday afternoon. The reception was the culmination of a twenty-mile automobile trip from the city and was without doubt the greatest ovation given to London returned soldiers yet. More men than ever before were taken on the trip, 27 automobiles being required to transport them.

Two miles from Ingersoll the cars were met by a delegation of Ingersoll returned soldiers in automobiles, headed by Mayor Buchanan. With these in the lead the town was entered amid the cheers of hundreds of citizens. Local factories allowed their hands to leave work for a few moments and these served to augment the already large crowds. After the procession had passed down the principal streets it drew up at the school, where an address of welcome was made by Mayor Buchanan.

A Fine Program.

Supper was served in the Methodist Church at 5 o'clock and was followed by a pleasing musical program.

Rev. Ronald Macleod, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and formerly chaplain of the 168th Battalion, presided. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Enright, Mrs. (Rev.) Janes and Mrs. (Rev.) Perkins, of Ingersoll, and by Pte. Carter, Pte. White, Corp. Griffith and Pte. Edwards from London. Trench choruses and marching songs were also included in the entertainment. A vote of thanks to the Three Thousand Club and the Red Cross Society, the two organizations upon whom the necessary work for the occasion devolved, was tendered by Corp. Griffith.

Many of the autoists commenced the return trip immediately, but many remained for an excellent band concert provided by the 1st Hussars band.

Those who loaned cars for the trip were: J. C. Beemer, W. W. Gammage, A. Talbot, W. Crackendale, W. Orchard, W. Mara, T. Baker, J. C. McGuffin, Sir George Gibbons, G. M. Kernohan, B. H. Gillies, Sir Adam Beck, A. McMahen, W. Jarvis, J. Fenlin, F. Willis, H. Hyatt, J. Brownlee, J. Chira, Lieut.-Col. Millligan, C. R. Hunt, C. Webber, R. Lawson, F. Fontain, J. Rowatt, Draper and R. J. Webster.

The trip was in charge of R. J. Webster.

Peasant Yields Girl to Rival on Wedding Day.

Depths of love for a girl rarely attained is shown by the Russian peasant who, on the day set for his wedding, releases the girl who is bound to him by an oath she will not break, and places her hand in that of his rival. No less impressive is the resignation of the girl, who crosses oceans to keep her oath, and offers her life as the price of release. This, in brief, is the story of "Chains of an Oath," the Favorite Film feature, which will appear in the Unique Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Coming to America to make her fortune, the girl loses her heart, but renounces this, her first love, and steals back to her native land at the command of her father to marry the man chosen for her by a village matchmaker. Her American sweetheart follows, and she saves him from the knife of the peasant before the final scenes. This powerful picture is featured by G. McDonald, Earl Rivers, N. B.; 566526 J. H.
