JOURNAL OF COMMERCE
Established 1875

SHAREHOLDER
Established 1878

The Journal of Commerce and Shareholder

The Deputy Minister
Labour Dept.
31Dec13

Two of Canada's oldest and most reliable weekly journals, recently amalgamated to strengthen the work previously done by each in the field of COMMERCE, FINANCE AND INSURANCE. Under the new management much attention will also be given to Canadian INDUSTRY. In this department the editors will have the assistance of the combined editorial forces of The Canadian Mining Journal, The Pulp and Paper Magazine of Canada, The Canadian Miller and Cerealist and the Canadian Textile Journal.

Vol LXXVI MONTREAL, SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1913. No. 17

Contents

Salutation .. 611
The Money Market .. 611
Will C.P.R. Segregate its Assets? .. 612
Toronto Street Railway .. 613
British Budget. .. 614
Bankers and High Cost of Living. .. 614
Atlantic Freight Space. .. 615
Is Confederation in Danger? .. 616
New Phase in Panama Toll Dispute .. 617
Scutaris' Significance .. 617
Hoarding in Europe .. 617
Gold Output for 1913 .. 618
Peat Utilization .. 619
Densest Populations .. 619
Railroad Earnings .. 620
Argentine Trade .. 620
German Capital Issues .. 620
The Tent Caterpillars .. 620
The Scarcity of Capital .. 621
Check on Gasoline Evaporation .. 621
British Textile Exports .. 621
Waste Products .. 622
Kerr Lake .. 622
Business Changes .. 622
Business Difficulties .. 623
Financial & Insurance Notes. .. 623
Our Royal Mint .. 624
Fire Record .. 624
A Curious Kind of Philanthropy .. 624
An Expense Account .. 625
Financial Review .. 626
Wholesale Markets. .. 627
Utilizing Sawdust .. 630
Is The World on a Dangerous Joy Ride? .. 633
British Co-operative Society Prosperity .. 633
Crime in Canada .. 633
Beef Exporting Countries .. 633
Growth of Lancashire Cotton Industry .. 633
Dividend Notices .. 633, 634, 635, 636