Fair Balls.

"Jack" Horner is kicking already. The Rochester Union says: "Horner, while away, has shored under the great disadvantage of always having the umpire against him. In some cases he has had to throw straight balls over the plate or see the batters go to first on called balls."

Detroit has offered a handsome sum to Pittsburg to release Galvin, who is wanted to strengthen the Detroit pitching force.

The Rochesters have abandoned all hope of securing Parsons, the pitcher. They, however, think themselves strong with Maul, Bakley and Horner.

Berlin vs. Victoria (Association Football.)

The Berlin Rangers (champions of Canada) visit this city on Saturday afternoon to play a match with the Victoria Football Club on the Rosedale Lacrosse Grounds. These two clubs have played against each other on three different occasions. The first game took place in Berlin, when the Vics. were defeated by two goals, the second in Toronto last season, when after a hard match Berlin won by one goal. The third match was played last Easter Monday, when the Berlin team were again victorious by one goal. As all these matches have been such fine exhibitions of football it will be quite unnecessary to state that the game on Saturday on the Rosedale Grounds promises to be the best game of Association football ever played in Toronto. Play commences at 2.45 p.m.

A Heavy Burden.

—Mr. George Russell, of Aurora, Ont., says he was a great sufferer from a running sore of the worst description, which baffled the best medical skill, and his life was a burden. He was cured by B.B.B., to his great joy and the surprise of his friends. 246

Clarets.

—Journu Freres celebrated clarets in Medoc, St. Estephe, St. Julien, Margaut and Pontet Canet at Mara & Co., grocers and wine merchants, 280 Queen street west, near Beverley street. edx

—Hello! Gus you look happy, what's up? Well, Fred, I'll tell you: That dude that has so much cash called on Jennie the other night, and her mother got him to help her put up some pictures, and he drove the nails in and broke the plaster off their new walls, and she got mad with him and Jennie told me of it. I telephoned R. J. Llecnce & Co., cor. Bay and Adelaide, and they sent a man up and put up room mouldings at my expense (and it only cost six dollars), and now I'm solid with the old lady. She thinks I've a great head. edx

A Wife Don't Know Her Husband!

—A most remarkable case of identification is to hand in Toronto. A gentleman returning home from business was refused admittance by his wife to his home. A simple explanation will show the reason. He had just donned a new summer suit, and it improved his general appearance so much that even his "own wife" didn't know him. Coulter & Gibson, the tailors, 249 Yonge street, surprise every one with their nobby suits. 316x

Patent Applied For.

—A. S. Smith has applied for a patent on the wire brim silk and pull-over hat. The success attending the introduction of this light-weight hat is extraordinary. edx

"HE IS A HOLY TERROR."

A New Mexico Justice's Opinion of a Townsman Who Seeks an Office.

Cor. Chicago Daily News.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 3.—The following unique epistle addressed to Assistant Postmaster-General Stevenson and dated at a New Mexico town was received at the Postoffice Department to-day. It is given verbatim et literatim:

"Respected Sir: Old Tom Radford is circulatin a paper around town askin to be made post master at this place and I have sined it but I dont want it to count and wen it comes in pleas scrach my name off as he is no more fit for post master than I am for a minister of the Holy Gospell. Tom is an awful ruff cuss; drinks, swares, fites, and would belt h——l out of me if he knew of this letter. pleas burn this and dont give me way, and has no educashun nor cany manners, would whip enay republickan in town if he had that offis and I believe would steal U. S. poor in four years. He is a retch of the first water and every one here is afraid of him, and would put on more aires than a french dansing-master and drive every republickan out of town. I write strong because we have a verry refined community and you dont want to giv him that offis unles you want to disorganise this comunity for he is a holy teror and you may deppend on it. We look to the honerable postmaster-general to save us from a horribel doom. Yours respecty,

"Stephen K. Brower, Justist of the Peace.

"P.S.—Others would sine this but are afraid as h——l of Old Tom."

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE.

Result of the Inquest on the Body of Joseph Corriveau.

MONTREAL, May 5.—The inquest on the dead convict Corriveau was resumed at St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary this morning. The Warden was still too weak to give evidence but the coroner decided that enough evidence was in, so the enquiry was closed. The Jury brought in the following verdict:

"That Joseph Corriveau, a prisoner confined in the penitentiary, situated in the Parish of St. Vincent de Paul, in the District of Montreal, being with several other prisoners in a state of mutiny endeavoring to escape from justice, was justifiably and of inevitable necessity killed and slain by Alberic Pare, one of the guardians of the said penitentiary, a duly authorized officer of justice and in the due and lawful execution of his office.

"The jury recommend that a strict investigation be made into the management of the institution before and during the outbreak and seek thoroughly for the cause of the revolt."

Suicide of a Resident of Alexandria.

He died this morning at 3 o'clock. McDonald was a son of the late Angus McDonald. He was about 32 years of age, and leaves a wife and two young children.

Nova Scotia's Ancient Kick.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 5.—In the house of Assembly this evening Provincial Secretary Fielding gave notice of motion virtually amounting to repeal of the Union.

"A Great Actor."

—In the midst of his famous phillipic against the Broadway steal the other day, after a period of extraordinary eloquence and vehemence, when all the audience sat spellbound, and the orator's eyes seemed to emit sparks of righteous indignation, ex-Senator Conkling turned towards Clarence Seward, who sat close to him, and whispered: "Give Grant & Webster $10,000 for their house and lot on Spadina avenue, Toronto. I want it for a summer residence. Sixty King street east. 246x

In Bad Summer.

—"A year ago my head was covered with sores, and the eruption covered my face also, and spread even until the backs of my hands were sore. I became weak and ill. Finding no cure, I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. Two bottles perfectly cured me." Statement of Miss Minnie Stevenson, Cocagne, N.B. 246

Truth.

O holy and eternal Truth! Thou art
An emanation of the Eternal Mind,
A glorious attribute, a noble part
Of uncreated being. Who can find,
By diligent searching—who can find out thee,
The Incomprehensible, the Deity!
The human mind is a reflection caught
From thee, a trembling shadow of thy ray,
The glory beams around us, but the thought
That heavenward wings its daring flight away
Returns to where its flight was first begun.
Blinded and dark beneath the noonday sun,
The soul of man, though sighing after thee,
Hath never known thee, saving as it knows
The stars of Heaven, whose glorious light we see.
The sun, whose radiance dazzles as it glows—
Something that is beyond us, and above
The reach of human power, though not of human love.
Vainly philosophy may strive to teach
The secret of thy being. Its faint ray
Misguides our steps. Beyond the utmost reach
Of its eternal wing the eternal day
Of truth is shining on the longing eye,
Distant, unchanged, changeless, pure, and high.
And yet thou hast no left thyself without
A revelation. All we feel and see
Within us and around forbids to doubt,
Yet speaks so darkly and mysteriously
Of what we are and shall be evermore,
We doubt and yet believe, and tremble and adore.
