MEDICAL WOMEN'S ALUMNAE DINNER

Government Asked to Provide Residence for Girl Students.

Victory year was celebrated by the Medical Women's Alumnae, when a dinner was given at the King Edward on Saturday evening in honor of this year's graduates. This was the first public function of the alumnae since the war and was thoroly enjoyed, the hostess being Dr. Margaret Gordon, president, assisted by Dr. Stowe Gullen, vice-president. The toast of the King was proposed by Dr. Gordon and honored by the singing of the national anthem. Dr. Helen MacMurchy, in proposing the toast of the graduates, coupled with that of the members of the alumnae who had gone overseas, spoke of the fine work of the latter and of the hopes to the profession of the students who were the guests of the evening.

On behalf of the graduates Miss McClure made a charming speech appreciative of the courage of the pioneer women who had blazed the way, making it easy for those who followed. "The Undergraduates" was proposed by Dr. Margaret McAlpine and received a bright response from Miss Burridge. Mrs. McConvey spoke to the toast of "The Medical Women," and Dr. Stowe Gullen in her reply told her audience of women physicians as far back as the time when Egypt flourished and later in Greece and Italy. The doctor also spoke graphically of conditions when women doctors were not recognized as they are today. Dr. Sproule Manson paid tribute to the work of the profession and advocated "honor and courage" as the watchwords necessary to success. Letters of regret at being unable to be present were read from Dr. Nevitt, dean and friends of the alumnae, and Dr. Margaret Johnston. The memory and kindness of Dr. Michael Barrett were gratefully recalled by Dr. Gullen.

Why OXO Cubes sell by the Million; as told by people who use them:—

"Being a constant user of OXO Cubes, I send you some recipes. . . . . Now that beef is so dear I make many dinners without it with the help of OXO Cubes. Some of my friends also use OXO Cubes and find them very convenient."

"OXO Cubes are too well known to need any recommendation; besides being quickly and easily made, OXO is very refreshing, strengthening and appetising."

"My friends ask me what I feed my little girl on, and I tell them OXO. I am convinced that it is OXO Cubes she gets on so well with."

"We have found OXO Cubes a distinct saving. There was never a time when they could be used more than now, seeing the high prices of other foods."

What Does Health Mean to You?

HAVE you ever waited to think out the answer to that question?

Or are you like the great majority, who only appreciate good health after it is lost?

Slowly, but certainly, we are getting round to the idea of preserving health so as to avoid serious disease.

The old way of waiting until you are seriously ill before sending for the doctor is all wrong.

We all know the old saying, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," but we neglect to carry it out in actual practice.

If you are familiar with Dr. Chase's Receipt Book you know that "Dr. Chase's Plan of Health" is built up on this idea of preventing disease, and the same applies to his well-known medicines.

Take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for example. This food cure has established a wonderful record as a cure for nervous prostration, nervous exhaustion, nervous headaches and indigestion, and all forms of nervous disorders. And yet above all it is recommended as a means of keeping the blood rich, the nervous system in good condition and thereby preventing serious nervous disorders.

To most of us our health is our working capital.

We cannot afford time or money for rest cure in a sanitarium or expensive trips down South. For this reason we must seek other means of keeping the health up to high water mark.

So long as the blood is kept rich and pure the nervous system is well nourished, and it is by this means that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food effects such splendid results in the building up of the system when there are signs of exhaustion.

When you cannot sleep and begin to feel tired and irritable it is time to call in the aid of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You may also find your appetite failing and your digestion slow, for as the nerves become exhausted every organ of the human body is bound to lag in its work.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Every box of the genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.

HOME-MADE BREAD

Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body. The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.
