Hagar Shoes a Great Success.

No Humbug About 'Hagar' Fine Footwear

Their "AUTHORS" are J. & T. Bell, whose names are famous in the history of shoe-making. Their assortment is complete, and consists of from 375 to 400 samples in Men's, Women's and Children's High-Grade Footwear, in all the popular styles. Prices (quality considered), 20 per cent less than third-rate American shoe-making, "christened" here (by names taken from the cigar box, instead of giving the name of their makers, this is where the humbug comes in), and sold at extravagant prices. Our large stock consists of Canadian and American Footwear. We can supply your every need.

TAKEN BACK IN CHAINS!

How Scores of German Soldiers Are Returning to Their Homes.

Nearly $1,000,000 Loss Done by a Fire in London---Spectacular Event in China.

Hanover, July 13.—Scores of German soldiers are returning from China with the expeditionary corps, either in chains or closely guarded on board ship. Upon the arrival of each vessel the prisoners are immediately taken to the penitentiary, having been already court-martialed in China.

Despite the rigid secrecy of the authorities it has leaked out that the disgraced men are being punished for atrocities committed during the sacking of Pekin. A member of the expeditionary corps states that the crimes of which these soldiers have been convicted were chiefly those mentioned in the so-called "Hun" letters, out of which the Social Democratic press made so much capital. It is recalled that the government press denied the truth of those letters in a half-hearted manner, convincing the reading public that the alleged atrocities had really been committed.

Among the imprisoned soldiers are many officers, some of whom are in duress owing to their alleged cowardice before the enemy.

SPECTACULAR EVENT IN PEKIN.

Pekin, July 13.—The departure from Pekin of Prince Chun, younger brother of Emperor Kwang Su, who has been selected formally to apologize at Berlin for the murder of Baron Van Ketteler, was a spectacular event. A special train took Prince Chun and his suite from here to Taku, from which port he will proceed by steamer to Shanghai. He sails from Shanghai on July 20 for Genoa, and will proceed directly from there to Berlin by rail. Prince Chun came to the railway station in Pekin on horseback. He was gorgeously attired in the royal yellow, and followed by a long procession, composed of members of his staff, their servants and the luggage. Here he was met by the present German minister to China, Dr. Mumm Von Schwarenstein, a German military band and a guard of honor, and two of his brothers. Two German officers formerly attached to the staff of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee will personally conduct Prince Chun and his party to Berlin.

BIG BLAZE IN LONDON.

London, July 12.—A fire at the West India docks today destroyed a number of huge sheds and their contents. The amount of the damage done is estimated at from £100,000 to £250,000. Sugar and timber warehouses were involved in the conflagration. The custom house was damaged, but the vessels in the docks were removed in safety.

DEATH OF CHILI'S PRESIDENT.

Buenos Ayres, July 13.—Senor Federino Errazuriz, president of Chili, who had been in feeble health for more than a year, is dead. The late Senor Errazuriz was elected president of Chili June 25, 1896, for a term of five years, which began Sept. 18, 1896.

LOOKING FOR THE GIANT SLOTH

London, July 13.—Hesketh Pritchard, scientist, has returned to London from Patagonia, from his expedition in search of the giant sloth, which some picturesque liar said was wandering around in the weeds of that country. During nearly a year spent on the eastern side of the Cordilleras, Pritchard found some remains of the giant sloth, bearing an extraordinary appearance of freshness. He discovered a species of puma new to science, and a new lake in which were many icebergs.

CABLE NOTES.

The government of Jamaica has issued an order against further immigration of Jamaican laborers to Ecuador to work on the Guayaquil-Quito Railroad, which is being constructed by the McDonald syndicate. This action is taken in consequence of the reported ill-treatment of Jamaican laborers at the hands of the American contractors.

Tsi An, China's gentle dowager empress, has ordered Chink diplomats now abroad to report to her the names of young Chinamen in foreign countries who have shown special abilities in the various professions, with a view of bringing them back to China, at government expense, where they will be eligible for office.

The International Socialist Bureau in Brussels has issued an appeal to labor organizations throughout the world, asking them to assist the movement in Russia for the overthrow of the existing government by coughing up spare cash.

A cablegram was received at Montreal from Paris says that Rev. Abee Lebos, superior of the Seminary of Lyons, France, has been elected general superior of the order of St. Sulpice throughout the world.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE GALLOWS

Mother and Children, Returning From Poland, Greet Condemned Man Through Bars in Jail

Chicago, July 13.—Within the shadow of the scaffold, George Dolinski on Thursday met his wife and three little children, whom he had not seen for a year. They had been visiting in Poland, and during their absence Dolinski was arrested for the murder of his brother-in-law, Anton Lisle, was tried and sentenced to death, and once respited by the governor. The date for his execution has been set for Aug. 16.

Wife and children were not allowed to embrace the husband and father. Sad as the greeting was under the circumstances, it was made more so by the enforced communication through a heavy wire screen separating members of the family. The wife broke down when she saw her husband, and the children, seeing their mother in tears, cried in sympathy. The man showed little emotion.

The first report reaching Mrs. Dolinski in Poland was that her husband had been charged with killing her and their children. Knowing this to be untrue, she hurried her return. In New York she learned the truth, but she was detained there several weeks by the illness of a child, who afterwards died and was buried in that city.

The wife and children are staying with relatives at Hawthorne, but Dolinski did not know the address. After their departure from the jail the prisoner seemed more hopeful of a commutation of his sentence. He told his wife he had been forced to plead guilty to the crime by what appeared to be irrefutable circumstantial evidence against him, and he expects much from her efforts in his behalf.
