The Jaeger Sanitary Slippers

KEEP THE FEET WARM AND DRY.
ALLOW EVAPORATION. PREVENT CHILL.

The temperature of the extremities exercise most important influence on that of the whole body.

The Jaeger woollen cloth "upper," lined with porous undyed woollen material, maintains a comfortable, equal temperature, preventing excess of heat and protecting from chill and too rapid cooling.

The foot is, for the first time, enabled to breathe and to throw off those secretions which, when retained by an impervious covering, are a source of discomfort and ailments.

Everyone who desires health and comfort should make a trial of them.

Ladies' "Teck" Style, sizes 2 to 6, $1.75
COLORS—Red, Brown, Royal Blue, Black and Tartan.

Gentlemen's "Alberts," 6 to 10, $1.50.
COLORS—Black, Brown and Checks.

" "Clarence" Boots, 7 to 10, $2.25
COLORS—Black, Brown and Grey.

FOLLY LAKE, COLCHESTER CO.

Dec. 3.—The services Sunday were conducted by Mr. Lade, of Enfield. The evening meeting was especially well attended.

W. A. King, Station Master, spent Sunday, Dec. 2nd, in town. Mr. Simon Geddes spent Sunday at his home, Folly Lake.

Miss Lily McLean, Eastville, has been spending a few days at the Lake, the guest of her cousin, Elsie Slack.

Dec. 14.—The first snow storm of the season visited this place last Thursday.

Mrs. Irving has gone to Sydney to visit her daughter who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stevens, spent Tuesday in town, guests at "The Central."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blair have moved to Springhill for the winter.

Mrs. Will McMasters recently visited her sister at Folly Mountain.

Mr. Ivan J. Slack, Foreman, I. C. R., will spend his well earned vacation with friends in Springhill.

Invitations are soon to be issued for the nuptials of Miss Lila M. Campbell and Mr. James Dorcey, of Athol, Cumberland C., which are to take place on Christmas Day, Dec. 25th. BOBS.

Rheumatic Warped Limbs

Mrs. H. Wills, Chesley, Ont., says:—"My boy was all crippled up with rheumatism. Although we doctored, he was in this way for about one year, and the pain was terrible. Reading of many cases where Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills had cured rheumatism, we got a box. Before they were half gone he began to improve and is now quite well. I am very glad to recommend them to others." One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

A FINE LECTURE.

In the D. J. T. A. Hall, Walker St., on Friday evening, Dec. 21st, J. B. Calkin, Esq., will lecture on "Miles Standish and his Courtship."

SERIOUS UPRISING IN CAPE COLONY.

Boers in Colesburg

MORE Mounted Men FOR KITCHENER.

Heavy British Loss at Nooitgedacht.

There is nothing important that has got beyond the red tape of the War Office, in regard to the serious uprising of the Dutch in Cape Colony to assist the Boers.

Lord Kitchener will not let cables come to London at the will of newspaper correspondents, so the public is in the dark in regard to late events in South Africa.

It appears though, that Knox has given up his chase after the mobile DeWet on account of the rebellion in Cape Colony.

The Government intend sending Lord Kitchener a large and necessary supply of horses and mules.

Our losses at Nooitgedacht, 20 miles or so West of Pretoria, were very serious, 82 killed and wounded, with 44 missing.

It was reported in Cape Colony yesterday, that the Boers have occupied Colesburg, and that the district around that place was very much disturbed.

The cables from Kitchener at Pretoria on the 19th, say that some 500 to 800 Boers had gone South, over the Orange River, into Cape Colony at Rhenoster Hock, and that a smaller band had crossed at Sand Drift. All are being followed, and the Major General hoped they would soon be turned North again.

A large draft of Mounted Troops will leave Aldershot on Jan. 6th for South Africa.

Though the war is said to be virtually ended, yet the dawn of peace, is very, very far away, we fear, and many precious British lives may yet be sacrificed before disturbed South Africa is reduced to a peaceful and prosperous British Colony.

A correspondent from Franklin, Mass., on Dec. 15th, writes: Scarlet fever is still raging in many parts of this town.—Messrs. John Hutchinson and Frank Laurie, started Dec. 9th for Tatamagouche, where they intend to remain for the greater part of the winter.—The Y. M. C. A. was started in this place on last Sabbath evening. Several speakers were present, and the meeting was in every way a grand success.—Mrs. Hood, of California, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cook, of this place.

A NEMESIS.

Nemesis, "The Goddess of Vengeance," constantly overtakes mankind for ill-treating the feet.

Ignorance and carelessness, in this respect, are responsible for a great deal of unnecessary suffering:—consult Phillips' advertisement on first page.

PARLOR CONCERT RECITAL.

A Brilliant Success—Every One Delighted.

A most enjoyable Parlor Concert Recital was given in the large and handsome parlors of Mrs. Hugh McKenzie, Queen street, last evening, by Miss Annie M. Shirreff, Halifax, and Mrs. McKenzie, Mezzo Sopranos; Mrs. T. Starr Pattillo, Contralto, and Miss May Conrad, Soprano; assisted by Miss Elizabeth White, Halifax, of the Symphony Orchestra, Cellist; Miss Jean McKenzie, Violinist, and Mr. Edward Stuart, Accompanist.

Mrs. McKenzie's large parlors were nicely filled, and all the pieces were well received and heartily applauded.

Miss Shirreff showed herself to be a true artiste, and was encored several times. She was in fine voice, and excelled especially in "L'Estasi," by Arditi.

Miss White played with fine expression, and kindly responded to well merited encores.

Our local singers well sustained their already established reputations, all receiving much praise and hearty congratulations for their exceedingly good work.

After the concert, Mrs. McKenzie entertained the musicians and a few of their friends to a most dainty recherche supper.

Following is the programme that was so well carried out:

Quartette—
(a) Old German Shepherd. Kienze.
(b) Sing to me Ever. Cirillo.

Misses Conrad and Shirreff, Mrs. MacKenzie and Mrs. Pattillo.

Song—Jessie's Dream. Brockley.
Miss Shirreff.

Cello—Berceuse. Godard.
Miss White.

Songs—
(a) The Spirit of Spring. Parker.
(b) Husheen. Needham.
Mrs. MacKenzie.

Violin—Cavatina. Raff.
Miss MacKenzie.

Songs—
(a) Bells of Saville. Jude.
(b) Oh Hush Thee, my Baby. Henschel.
Miss Conrad.

Cello—Selected.
Miss White.

Songs—
(a) Sunset. Buck.
(b) Lullaby. Vannah.
Mrs. Pattillo.

Song (with violin obligato)—L'Estasi, Arditi.
Miss Shirreff.

Song—Beauty's Eyes (by request) Tosti.

Voice, Violin, Cello and Quartette.

Xmas Trees, Social Gatherings and Tea Meetings supplied with fruit, confectionery and syrup, at W. H. Snook & Co.'s.

The sale of useful and fancy articles, recently held in Immanuel church, proved a very pleasant as well as successful affair. A large number of people, comprising many from other churches, sat down to tea, and the social feature of this reunion appeared to be enjoyed by all. The sale of fancy work, etc., was satisfactory, so that the ladies hope as the result of their effort, to put $150.00 to their credit towards the payment of the debt on the church.
