Women's Peace-of-Mind

under trying hygienic conditions is assured this NEW way

A DANCE, a sheer gown to be worn; a difficult hygienic situation. You need no longer give this complication a second thought.

The hazards of the old-time sanitary pad have been supplanted with a protection both absolute and exquisite.

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time. Thus ending ALL fear of offending.

You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it for a few cents at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." Women ask for it without hesitancy.

Try Kotex. Comes 12 in a package. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

Don't Diet

Too much—take Marmola

It is hard to reduce by exercise and diet. Often it is harmful. Countless people now are using an easy, pleasant way.

That way is Marmola Prescription Tablets. Just take four a day until the excess fat is gone. No abnormal exercise or diet. The reduction is gradual—rarely more than one pound daily. So the body adjusts itself to the new condition.

Marmola has been used for 18 years. You can see the results in every circle. Your own friends can tell you of them. The fame has spread, until people now are taking a million boxes of Marmola yearly. Excess fat is fast becoming a rarity.

Our book states every ingredient. It tells you just how and why Marmola acts. Your own druggist signs our guarantee that the results will delight you.

Investigate Marmola. Excess fat is a blight to beauty, health and fitness. It has no excuse today. Find out how countless people are now getting the slenderness you envy. Do this in fairness to yourself.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. Send this coupon for our latest book, a 25-ct. sample free, and our guarantee. Clip it now.

The Pleasant Way to Reduce

MARMOLA
2-235 General Motors Bldg.
DETROIT, MICH.

Mail for 25c Sample Free

132 D

Do I Require Glasses?

Ask yourself the following questions. If the answers are "Yes" call and have your eyes carefully examined by F. Steele, Optometrists.

1. Do I have headaches, especially after close work?
2. Do I begin to feel worn out and tired about 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon?
3. Do my eyes ache and burn around the lids?
4. Can I leave the movies without a headache?
5. Does print run together and blur before my eyes?

The above are only a few symptoms of eyestrain that F. Steele can correct by fitting you with the proper glasses. It costs you nothing to find out whether or not glasses will help your case. Mr. Steele has special instruments for the measuring of these very small defects which cause so much trouble. Call today.

F. STEELE

London's Leading Optometrist

Opp Loew's Theatre. b

Miller's WORM Powders

CONTAIN NO NARCOTICS

When your child is restless, peevish, sleepless, or when convulsions threaten, it indicates the ravages of worms and that the little's one's strength is being sapped and undermined. Miller's Worm Powders get promptly at the root of the trouble and restore the digestive organs to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

WOMEN and THE HOME

DEANERY MEETING OPENS TONIGHT

Association For East Middlesex Will Hold Sessions at Cronyn Hall.

TO DISCUSS WORK

Miss Hasell, Van Missionary, and Rev. Spencer Are To Be Speakers.

An interesting conference of the deanery association of East Middlesex opens in the city this evening, when Rev. A. L. G. Clarke, the rural dean, will preside over a meeting of the deanery chapter.

On Thursday morning, following the celebration of holy communion, the women of the deanery will meet to discuss deanery work. It is expected that some 50 members will be present, and Miss E. Bray will preside. Mrs. Davis Williams is to give a paper on "The Dominion Board Meeting."

On Thursday afternoon, with Rev. A. L. G. Clarke in the chair an open meeting will be held, when Rev. V. C. Spencer, missionary from Japan, will speak on his work. Mr. Spencer comes with a message from the district about Nigata. Miss Hasell will be the other speaker of the afternoon. Miss Hasell was a pioneer van missionary in the remote regions of the northwest, where she has done a splendid work in connection with the Sunday school. Archdeacon Sage will also be a speaker in the afternoon.

In the evening it is expected that Bishop Williams will be in the chair. Rev. V. C. Spencer will again speak, as will Miss Hasell, who will give an illustrated talk on her work.

CLUB NEWS

SACRED HEART UNIT.

Mrs. A. Furanna, 732 Wellington street, is lending her home on Friday evening for a bridge and euchre to be held by the Sacred Heart mothers' unit in aid of the organization's funds. The hostess will be assisted by the president, Mrs. James Welch, and her executive.

HARRIET BOOMER CHAPTER.

The members of the Harriet Boomer chapter, I. O. D. E., are entertaining at a bridge tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Purdom, Richmond street north.

RED CROSS COMMITTEE.

Quite the largest and most successful party ever arranged for the men at Byron sanatorium by the visiting committee of the Red Cross, of which Mrs. George Fraser, is convener, was enjoyed last night by some 85 of the patients. A very happy time was spent at whist, and the armistice idea was carried out in the flag decorations on the tables and serviettes. Some 18 tables were in play and at the supper hour a number of other men joined the company and some of the nurses.

The committee includes Mrs. Fraser (convener), Mrs. Ginge, Miss Shaw-Wood, Mrs. J. Ashplant, Mrs. T. Wilkie, Mrs. Rogers and Miss Dorothy Gleason.

MIZPAH COMFORT CLUB.

The members of Mizpah Comfort club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Mercer, Pall Mall street, yesterday afternoon, with the vice-president, Mrs. T. Welch, in the chair.

During the afternoon the president announced that 1,218 articles had been made by the members during the year for the War Memorial hospital and the Thomas Alway Hall home.

The mystery prize, donated by Mrs. Mercer, was won by Miss Saunders. At the conclusion of the afternoon a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. S. Arbuckle and Miss B. Saunders.

NICHOLAS WILSON CHAPTER.

An exceptionally interesting meeting of the Nicholas Wilson chapter, I. O. D. E., was held last evening at the home of Miss M. Taylor, Princess avenue, when Prof. A. G. Dorland of the University of Western Ontario gave a timely address on "The Balkan Situation." His talk was illustrated by maps and many fine slides. At the conclusion of the address Mrs. Fred Whitton moved a vote of thanks to the speaker, which was seconded by Mrs. A. D. Robertson.

A social half-hour concluded the evening, and Mrs. R. LeTouzel assisted the hostess in the tearoom.

TALBOT MOTHERS' CLUB.

At last night's meeting of the Talbot Mothers' club, J. B. Stothers, assistant public school inspector, was the speaker. Mr. Stothers spoke to the mothers in regard to the recent question raised concerning the teaching of morals and manners in the schools. He stated that there was no need for a new subject to be introduced to cover the question as the children have always been taught morals and manners through other subjects, particularly in literature.

There was a shower of forty baby shirts brought in for the child welfare. During the evening, Miss Isabel Mortimore contributed a reading. Mr. Welch, the principal of the school, was a special guest. A social hour concluded the evening and light refreshments were served.

It was announced that the next meeting, which will be held in December, would be a Christmas session, when Rev. A. L. G. Clarke of the Church of St. John the Evangelist would be the speaker. Tis topic will be "Christ as Our Example."

SIR ADAM BECK CHAPTER.

Mrs. Muma, Garfield avenue, was the hostess of last night's meeting of the Sir Adam Beck chapter, I. O. D. E. Mrs. A. T. Barnes, the regent, was in the chair, and during the evening Miss Florence Simpson was elected immigration secretary.

A new member was welcomed into the chapter. She is Miss Gingerich. Miss Norene Floyd was the winner of the mystery package donated by Miss Simpson.

Miss Floyd extended an invitation to the members to be her guests on Nov. 28, when an evening euchre will be held at her home on Wortley road.

UNION MOTHERS' CLUB.

The president of the London union mothers' club, Mrs. Charles Turner, has called a business meeting of the executive for Monday, Nov. 23, which will be held at the technical school at 8 o'clock. Many important items of business will be brought up at this meeting and a full attendance of officers has been requested.

ST. GEORGE'S MOTHERS.

There was a very good attendance at last night's meeting of the St. George's mothers' club, held at the school. Mrs. Alex Calder was present at the session and spoke briefly to the members, urging them to vote in favor of the nurses' home bylaw.

Dr. Turville, of the French department of the university, gave an excellent illustrated lecture on "Famous Chateaus in France," stating that many of them were now being used as museums. The address was one of great interest and beauty.

Mrs. A. D. Robertson contributed a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Helen Clarke.

It was announced that the next meeting would be held on the 15th of December and at that time the entire program would be contributed by children of the school. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the evening and a social time was enjoyed.

EALING MOTHERS' CLUB.

A tea shower was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Wilson, Glenwood avenue, in aid of the bazaar to be given on Dec. 1 by the Ealing mothers' club. A splendid lot of lovely donations were brought in and the parcels were opened by the president, Mrs. Mark Ayr. Tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Webb. During the afternoon Miss Alice Ayr contributed a number of delightful piano solos. The rooms were attractive with mums and ferns.

It was announced that the next shower would be held at the home of Mrs. W. Hill, 42 Huma street, on Tuesday of next week. On Nov. 30 the president is loaning her home for the final shower.

VICTORIA MOTHERS' CLUB.

Dr. E. W. Fuller was the speaker at last night's meeting of the Victoria mothers' club, giving a very instructive address to the mothers on the care of the teeth. Dr. Fuller pointed out that care should be taken of the first teeth if the second set were to be good.

Mrs. John Rose was also a guest of the evening and in a brief address to the mothers she urged them to speak at their meeting that more mothers might be capable of being good public speakers. Mrs. Hallett was another guest and spoke to the members on the nurses' home, urging the women vote for the bylaw.

A short program included vocal numbers by Miss Lillian Hoffman and readings by Miss Helen Baker.

Plans were made during the evening for a home-cooking sale to be held in the school tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. A. W. Morrison and Mrs. W. Archer are the conveners.

LOYAL LADS.

The Loyal Lads' Sunday school class of the Church of Christ (Disciples), and their teacher, Mrs. McKinley, assisted by their mothers, are holding a grocery shower in the Sunday school room this evening. A good program is being arranged and there will be an orchestra in attendance. Mrs. Manning is convener of the program for the evening.

WORTLEY ROAD SHOWER.

A grocery shower was held at the home of Mrs. A. Jenner, Langarth street, last night in aid of the bazaar to be given shortly by the Wortley road mothers' club. Mrs. C. Quick and Mrs. Pleiter were the joint hostesses of the evening and a pleasant time was spent in a social way. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. Mowatt is lending her home at 169 Duchess avenue for an I. O. U. shower in aid of the home-cooking booth on Nov. 27.

TALBOT LADIES' AID.

Mrs. A. R. Kennedy, Sherwood avenue, recently entertained a committee of ladies to arrange for the program of the "Dime Album" meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Talbot Street Baptist church, to be held on Thursday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock, in the schoolroom of the church.

I.O.D.E. Honors Mrs. W. F. Todd

Canadian Press Despatch.

Fredricton, N.B., Nov. 17.—Featuring the semi-annual meeting of the provincial chapter, Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire today, was the presentation of a life membership to Mrs. William F. Todd, wife of the lieutenant-governor. She is honorary president of the provincial chapter.

A.Y.P.A. TO GIVE ITS FIRST PLAY

Young People of Church of Resurrection Are Presenting Clever Comedy-Drama.

The members of the A. Y. P. A. of the new Church of the Resurrection are opening their winter season with the presentation of a play in the schoolroom of the church in the near future.

The production is a delightful three-act comedy-drama based on The Poor Married Man. The plot is full of interest and deals with the problems of married life, which includes many very amusing situations. The play is from the pen of Walter Ben Hare.

The cast has been chosen entirely from the young people of the church and includes Sidney Kiff, Thomas Bennett, George Cartwright, Henry Lavendar, Miss Laura Fletcher, Miss Luella Pickering, Miss Emily Cowman, Miss Enid Olliver, Miss Dorothy Ellis, Miss M. Pearson, Miss Annie Olliver, Jack Cartwright and Will Cartwright.

Social and Personal

Mrs. G. Harry Stein of this city was a week-end guest in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. T.C. Benson, Wellington street, are spending a few days in Toronto.

Miss Marion Coles is entertaining on Sunday afternoon at the tea hour for Miss Doris Belton.

Mrs. Allen McLean has taken over the secretaryship of the Provincial council of girl guides for Ontario.

Mrs. Fred Tullett was a guest of the O. E. S. chapter in Aylmer last evening.

Miss May Clendennan is attending the Women's Institute convention in Toronto.

Miss Gladys Holland of Seaforth is a guest with Mrs. Fred Daly, Wellington street.

Miss L. Maslen of Stratford has been enjoying a visit with her cousin, Miss E. Cornelies, in this city.

Mrs. Kenneth Ingram is entertaining on Tuesday evening of next week for Miss Doris Belton, a November bride-elect.

On Friday evening of next week Miss Katherine Cronyn is entertaining at dinner for the Vining-Belton bridal party.

Miss Elizabeth E. Short and Miss Genevieve K. Creery have left for Toronto, where they will be guests with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bracken.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery of Windsor were recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Tretheway, Hellmuth avenue.

Mrs. Fred Jackson has returned to her home in Hamilton after a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. George N. Brown, Wortley road.

Miss Marjorie Copeland of Hamilton road was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith, South Yarmouth, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dennis, Waterloo street north, left recently for Detroit, whence they will go on to Florida for the winter months.

Mr. W. Delaney, High street, and Messrs. Jack and William Penwarden, Grey street, have returned to their homes following a hunting trip to Burwash.

Complimenting Miss Edythe Copp, a popular bride-elect of this week, the Misses Verna and Minnie Dobbyn entertained recently at a shower at their home in Wortley road.

Mrs. Thomas Mortimore is entertaining informally at a young people's tea tomorrow (Thursday) in honor of Mrs. Arthur Mortimore and Mrs. William Duffield.

Mrs. Waugh, Mrs. Bolton and Mrs. Borland of this city are going to St. Thomas this week for the school of instruction in connection with the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mr. Ernest Seitz, who will be heard in recital here tomorrow night at the central collegiate, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ivey, St. James' street, while in town.

Mrs. Arnold V. Baker, Miss Genevieve Creery and Mr. Edward Mayer of Detroit, were week-end guests with Mr. Reuben E. Short, Beaconsfield avenue.

Col. William Gartshore of this city, with his daughter, Mrs. Cleghorn, and Mr. John Gartshore, were guests this week with Mrs. James Thomson in Hamilton.

Mrs. Osher, wife of Dr. C. H. Osher, left for Los Angeles recently to spend a few months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Rose, former citizens of London.

Mrs. Harold J. Lawson, formerly Miss Alice Gardiner, will receive for the first time since her marriage on Thursday, Nov. 19, from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home, 337 Tecumseh avenue.

Mrs. Fred Todd has returned to her home in the Picton apartments after an enjoyable three months visit in England. She was accompanied to the city by her niece, Miss Mary Tudor.

Mrs. Peter Macdonald and Miss Caroline Macdonald, missionary from Japan, who have been guests for some months with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Laing in Brantford, have returned to this city.

Mrs. Samuel Lewis, Brisbin street, is giving a trousseau tea tomorrow afternoon for her daughter, Miss Ethel Lewis, whose marriage to Mr. George L. Carrothers of Belmont takes place on Saturday.

Pre-Meds '30 are arranging to hold their first party of the year in convocation hall, University of Western Ontario, on the evening of Dec. 4. Plans for the event are now being made under an able committee headed by Mr. Roy Burnett, president of the year.

Mrs. Rawley has returned to her home in Petrolia after spending several days in London in connection with the showing of the paintings of her father, Fotherly Hargitt, at the recent art exhibit at Willow Hall, arranged by the Nicholas Wilson Chapter, I. O. D. E.

The University of Western Ontario will be the scene of several attractive social events during the coming few weeks. Among them will be the first annual Commerce club dance to be held in the assembly hall on Dec. 11, when Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Morrow will be the chaperons.

Miss Betty Lee was the hostess of a delightfully arranged miscellaneous shower this week, when she entertained in honor of Miss Ethel Lewis, a bride-elect of this week. The many lovely gifts were presented in a gaily decorated wagon and a happy evening was spent in music and games.

Miss Marion Beattie has been appointed soloist in the Methodist Episcopal church at Orlando, Florida. Miss Beattie was a former Londoner and prior to her departure for the south was a popular and active member of the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral. She was a pupil of Mr. Harry T. Dickinson.

Mrs. Harry B. White loaned her home on The Ridgeway for a delightful bridge this week, given under the auspices of the Sir George Ross chapter, I. O. D. E., of which Miss Kathleen White is regent. Some fourteen tables were in play, and at each table a prize was given for high score.

Mrs. Lily White, who is leaving shortly for Chicago, was the guest of honor at a bridge and tea arranged at Wong's cafe recently, when some twelve members of the bridge club, of which she is a member, presented her with twelve Madeira serviettes. A pleasant feature of the afternoon was the signing of the presentation card by each of the donors. The winner at cards was Miss Leah Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Smithson arranges a delightful evening at their home on Wharncliffe road recently for Leonard Smithson on the occasion of his 14th birthday. The guests included the Misses Mary Roughly, Marion Orchard, Mildred Steele, Dorothy Durham, Elsie Doyle, Thelma Desand, and Beatrice Smithson, and the Messrs. Billy Young, Harold Betts, Douglas Arbuckle, Andrew Durham, Donald Patrick, and John Dicknoether.

Miss Lillian Moss, Dominion A. Y. P. A. secretary, has returned from Niagara Falls, where she attended the meeting of the Lincoln-Welland district convention. While at the conference, Miss Moss addressed the delegates on "A. Y. P. A. Principles Applied." En route to her home, Miss Moss spent the week-end in St Catharines, a guest with Mr. and Mrs Normal Kalls. During the last week of November Miss Moss will address the meeting of the Oxford deanery, convening in Woodstock.

Rev. J. Bruce Hunter and Mrs. Hunter are lending their home on Wellington street for a guest tea, which is being arranged by the ladies' aid of the Metropolitan United church for Thursday afternoon of this week. Ladies from the whole congregation are being invited to this function, which is one of the most important social events of the year. Mrs. B. H. Robinson, wife of the assistant minister, and Mrs. T. N. Sumner, president of the ladies' aid, will receive with Mrs. Hunter.

Miss Sophie Porter, industrial secretary of the Y. W. C. A., returned yesterday to her home on Wellington road after attending the industrial conference of the Toronto Y. W. C. A. During the conference plans were made for the reception of Miss Dingman, the world Y. W. C. A. industrial secretary, who visits Canada (and London) some time in February. Plans for furthering the work of the industrial department were also discussed at length. Miss Porter was accompanied to the sessions by Miss Florence Bennett of the Merry Maids' club of the industrial department.

A delightful time was spent at St. Peter's parish hall yesterday afternoon, when the 9th and 10th companies of girl guiders entertained at a birthday tea in honor of their first year of service. There were many callers between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock, and the guests were welcomed by Miss Winifred Prendergast, guide captain; Miss Mary Burns and Miss Ruth Wilson, guide lieutenants; Mrs. Charles Wilson, educational vice-president of the Catholic women's league, and Miss Darcey, assistant educational vice-president. A note of smartness was added to the event by the uniformed girls, who assisted in looking after the guests. At a prettily appointed tea table, where a birthday cake was centered with one candle and surrounded by four blue candles in silver holders, Mrs. E. B. Smith and Mrs. Allan McLean poured out coffee and tea. Delightful orchestral music was provided by Percy Lethbridge's orchestra.

Mrs. George A. Young, Beaconsfield avenue, entertained at the tea hour this week for Mrs. J. F. Maine on the occasion of her birthday. The drawing-rooms were softly lighted with rose-shaded bulbs and a cheery grate-fire burned on the hearth. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Young and Mrs. Maine and were invited into the tearoom by Mrs. W. Courtis. The tea-table, over which Mrs. William Orchard presided, was prettily arranged with 'mums in a cut-glass bowl and yellow candles in silver holders. Mrs. L. D. McCamus and Mrs. G. Baker assisted in looking after the guests. During the afternoon, Mrs. J. T. Sturgis contributed delightful readings. Mrs. Maine was showered with a host of best wishes and many lovely gifts, as was the hostess, who was also celebrating her birthday. Among the guests were: Mrs. J. Rowntree, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. J. Bruce Hunter, Mrs. A. Dobbyn, Mrs. Herbert Childs, Mrs. G. Kercher, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. A. Pearson, Mrs. E. Gerry, Mrs. J. M. Wright, Mrs. T. Gerry, Mrs. T. Copp and Mrs. Rowland.

One of the loveliest of late fall weddings will be that of Miss Doris Belton to Mr. Charles Vining, which is taking place in St. Paul's cathedral next week. Among the guests from out-of-town who will be present at the marriage are Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Vining and Miss Vining, Mr. Walter Laidlaw, Mr. Clarence Scandrett, Mr. Gordon McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Winnett Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gooderham, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Atkinson, Mr. George Somerville, Miss Jessie Matthews, Mr and Mrs. Alexander Roberts, Mr. William Le Van, Mr. E. G. Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Torrance, Mr Harold Schantz, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McMillan, Capt. and Mrs. Herbert Scandrett, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scott and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hanna, all of Toronto; Col. and Mrs. Cassius Belton, Ottawa; Mrs. Kurtz Miller, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Howard White, Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Raymore Scott, Peterboro; Mr. Thomas Murphy, Sandwich; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Belton, Sarnia; Mr. and Mrs. Rene Le Pretre, New York; Mr. William Brush, New York; Mr. W. J. McLelland, Hamilton, and Major T. W. McDowell, V.C., Ottawa.

A most enjoyable time was spent at the Highland golf club yesterday when the women's committee arranged a bridge-luncheon. Large 'mums in pastel shades were arranged effectively throughout the rooms and on the tables. Some sixteen tables were in play, and the first prize was won by Mrs. Albert Judd, while Mrs. Greenlees captured the second prize. Those arranging parties included Mrs. A. O. Hunt, Mrs. E. J. Dawson, Mrs. Norman Keene, Miss Lena Emery, Miss Gladys Hortman, Mrs. C. A. Whitwam, Mrs. J. J. Foot, Mrs. W. H. Porter, Mrs. H. E. Boomer, Mrs. B. C. Higgins, Mrs. Walter Shaver, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. F. H. Greenlees and Miss Pauline Fitzgerald. Other members present included Mrs. A. M. Judd, Mrs. J. G. Heaman, Mrs. Gough, Mrs. F. R. Miller, Mrs. Meek, Mrs. E. R. Collyer, Mrs. H. Easton, Mrs. W. E. Davidson, Mrs. S. Pawlitzki, Mrs. J. M. Jones, Mrs. A. Graham, Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. Frank White, Miss Margaret Hamilton, Mrs. Jared Vining, Mrs. W. M. Bruce, Mrs. W. E. Greene, Mrs. Wendall Holmes, Mrs. A. E. Buchanan, Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. E. L. Edy, Mrs. Rowland, Miss Amy Bartram, Mrs. J. M. Dillon, Miss Pope, Mrs. W. E. Turville, Mrs. C. A. Mitchell, Mrs. R. E. Davis, Mrs. A. D. Jordan.

Her Liver Was Bad And She Felt Tired and Depressed

Mrs. M. Siefert, Grosswerder, Sask., writes:—"I was greatly disturbed with pains in my liver, and felt tired and depressed most of the time.

One day I read about

Milburn's

LAXA-LIVER PILLS

and the next time I went to town I bought four vials of them.

I have used them regularly, and after two months' use I feel like an entirely different woman.

Now, I always recommend them to any of my friends who are troubled as I was."

There's only one "Laxa-Liver Pill", and that's the one put up, for the past 32 years, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches, get busy with good old Musterole.

Musterole relieves the congestion and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Rub it on with your finger-tips. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

The Musterole Co. of Canada, Ltd., Montreal.

MUSTEROLE

WILL NOT BLISTER

Better than a mustard plaster.

WEDDINGS

HOSHAL—NETTLETON.

Special to The Advertiser.

Woodstock, Nov. 18.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place in College avenue United church on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Marie Nettleton of Toronto, daughter of Edward Nettleton, Norwich avenue, this city, became the bride of Mr. Ray Hoshal of London, formerly of Woodstock, and son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hoshal of Vienna. The Rev. Dr. Prudham officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a gown of copenhagen blue, with black satin hat and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Imogene Nettleton, sister of the bride, in mauve crepe de chine, black satin hat and also carrying sweet peas, made a pretty bridesmaid, while Mr. Herbert King of this city acted as best man. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Spence, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Wilsdon, a sister of the bride, sang very sweetly, Until.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple left on a short honeymoon to points west, the bride travelling in a becoming brown velvet travelling costume. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hoshal will make their home in London.

GAMMON—HUNTER.

Yarmouth Center, Nov. 18. — The pretty wedding took place at the central parsonage on Saturday evening, Nov. 7, the Rev. R. R. McKay officiating, when Miss Dorothy Ada Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hunter, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Gammon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gammon of Sarnia. The couple were unattended.

The bride looked charming in a gown of black satin trimmed with gold, and hat to match.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gammon left for Toronto, where they will make their home.

SPLENDID VALUES

In Women's and Children's Flannelette Gowns

Ladies' White Flannelette Gowns

o.s. size, made specially for the stout figure, open front, long sleeves, V or high neck, double yoke at back, neatly trimmed with braid, tucks and embroidery,

$1.50, $1.65, $1.95

Mother Hubbard Gowns

of fine white flannelette, V or high neck, long sleeves, double yoke at back, trimmed with tucks, embroidery and fancy stitching,

$1.25, $1.49, $1.65, $1.75, $2.25

Kimono Gowns

of good quality flannelette, warm and comfortable, slipover style, short sleeves, round or V neck, trimmed with lace, fancy stitching and colored pipings,

$1.00, $1.19, $1.49, $2.25

Children's White Flannelette Gowns

Open front, round neck, long sleeves, sizes 6, 8 and 10 years $1.00

Children's White Flannelette Gowns

high neck, long sleeves, embroidery trimmed, sizes 12, 14 and 16 years $1.25

Children's Sleepers

of pink and white striped flannelette, sizes 2, 4 and 6 years. Special at 79c

Children's One-Piece Pyjamas

of good quality flannelette; colors of pink, maize, blue and mauve, sizes 6 to 16 years. Special... $1.49

Flannelette wear in Ready-to-Wear Dept. Third Floor.

Hemstitching and Picoting. Orders Promptly Filled. Fourth Floor.

Gray's, Ltd.

Agents for Butterick Patterns with Deltor. Main Floor.

140 DUNDAS STREET. PHONES 115 and 116.

Children Cry for

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:— Fletcher's Castoria is especially prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and, by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving natural sleep.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Absolutely Harmless—No Opiates. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

A new Lease of Life

YOU can ignore the threats of time—feel young and keep young—by taking Dow Malt Tonic regularly—the most reliable of all tonics.

This famous restorative gives you the blood of youth, the vitality of youth and the strength of youth. In other words, that perfect physical fitness that makes life worth living.

A wineglassful four times daily
Price 35c—3 Bottles for $1.00
Every Drug Store Sells It

Dow Malt Tonic

M 10

THE REAL STRENGTH BUILDER

RED ROSE COFFEE "is good coffee"