OUR AUTO SUIT

is not a luxury; it is made to fill the demand for an all round suit, suitable for all kinds of automobile work, a suit the owner, driver or garage man can carry in his car and be ready to fix a tire, work on his engine or do any other kind of work, without spoiling his clothes.

He can slip on an Auto-Suit over the best suit he has and do the dirtiest kind of work on his car, in garage or on the road and know that his clothes will be clean when he slips off his Auto-Suit. No automobile owner, driver or garage man will be without an Auto-Suit after he sees one and knows its good points.

This Auto-Suit covers a man thoroughly from neck to heels, buttons up the front, buttons being covered by fly front to prevent any scratching of car, and no buttons on sleeves to scratch car.

Our Auto-Suit has two front pockets, one hip pocket, also side openings to allow access to trousers pockets. It is made roomy, giving a surplus room in any position. When polishing his car he need not be afraid of scratching car with buttons. They are covered. When changing a tire, working on engine, he can go right to it. There are no openings to allow dirt to get on his clothes.

Price $2.50 the suit, in blue or khaki. Out-of-town customers please send 20c to cover postage.

RETURNED SOLDIERS IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

Five Injured When Car Hit Stone and Overturned on Kingston Road.

ALL IN THE HOSPITAL

Corp. Chester Whyatt, Who Was Driving, is in Critical Condition.

When the motor car in which they were taking an outing struck a stone near stop 27 on the Kingston road and overturned into the ditch at the roadside yesterday afternoon. Corporal Chester Whyatt, 835 Western avenue, sustained a lacerated lip and internal injuries; John Scanlon, a lacerated right cheek and broken collar bone; Harry Black, a dislocated shoulder; William Yates, a broken collar bone, and Joseph Brown, an abrasion of the right knee. All were returned soldiers, and except Whyatt resided at the convalescent home on College street.

The accident happened at 5.30 about a half mile east of the Halfway House. The road at that point has a steep grade, and the car was moving at moderate speed when suddenly something went wrong with the steering gear. Corporal Whyatt, who was driving the car, was helpless. The car gyrated from one side of the road to the other for a considerable distance, then struck a stone, and toppled over into the ditch, burying its occupants underneath. Men from the neighborhood extricated the soldiers, and four of them were removed to the Western Hospital by Dr. J. Ferguson, 264 College street. The fifth man was taken to hospital by Thomas Brennan, Front street.

The ditch in which the car upset is about five feet deep. Whyatt is in a critical condition, but the others are progressing favorably.

RICKES' CONSCRIPTION IS AGAIN DEMANDED

Labor Wants Large Incomes in Britain More Heavily Taxed.

LONDON, June 30.—The trades unions' congress today passed a resolution, moved by Wm. J. Thorne, labor member of parliament, calling upon the government to take steps for the "conscription of riches" by large increases in the tax on incomes of more than £500 yearly.

SUITS THAT ATTRACT.

Hickey's Are Specialists in Men's Wear, and Prices Are Moderate.

Altho clothes do not make the man they make a good impression on the public. This fact has been pointed out time and time again by men who have succeeded in business. Hickey's at 97 Yonge street have a reputation for dressing their customers in suits which, besides having the necessary style, are of the finest quality. Their suits are priced from $15 to $25.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

north the Germans threw a force across the Niemen east of Novo Grodek and occupied woods east of Ghnessitche.

British headquarters reports that the Germans have withdrawn from the Verdun front the 11th Bavarian division and the 22nd Reserve Corps, and from the Champagne front the 10th Corps, for the purpose of reinforcing Von Hindenburg on the Russian front. It is also probable that three additional divisions have been sent to Russia from the British front. It is said that the 11th Bavarian division refused to attack Verdun again and an order was issued that every tenth man be shot. The king of Bavaria intervened, and Emperor William decided that this division should go to the Russian front.

* * * * * * *

Interest in the fighting round Verdun was revived last night with the announcement of the recapture of the fortified Thiaumont work by the French yesterday morning after the Germans had held it a week. The enemy had captured it in a great burst of its offensive and after the way had been leveled by a lengthy and intensive bombardment with heavy shells. Three forcible bid to get on east of the Meuse, and the loss of this fortified work, needless to say, immediately provoked the Germans to the motive of strong endeavors to regain it. They repeatedly attacked the French, and at one time they did set foot inside the precincts of this work again, but at 4.30 o'clock a final French counter-attack drove them out and restored the work to its former owners, at least for a time.

"Our offensive on the Trentino front continues unchecked," the Italian war office reports in yesterday's communique. The storming columns of General Cadorna have now reached the main line of Austrian resistance between the Adige and the Brenta. They find the enemy strongly entrenched and supported by numerous batteries of machine guns. The Italians are now extending their offensive to other positions on the front. They have captured the Val Morbia line and the southern slope of Monte Spil in the Arsa Valley; they have taken Grisco, the Zara Valley and Monte Calgari and Monte Sogli Bianchi along the Posina line; they have occupied the southern slopes of Monte Civaron in the Sugana Valley, taking 174 prisoners, hundreds of rifles and large quantities of material; they have won considerable successes in other zones, such as the Seiz-Monfalcone. There they have captured Hill 70, west of Monte Cosich, and Hill 104, east of Roca di Monfalcone, taking 660 prisoners. In the upper But they stormed the summit of Zellonkofel. On the upper Fella their infantry has advanced to Leopoldkirchen and Monte Granuda. In other words, it looks as if the Italians are opening the first stages of their general offensive in conjunction with the British army in Flanders.

TORONTO INDIAN WON TRIBE SHOOT

Real War Paint and Tribal Costumes Used at Annual Pow-wow.

NO SOLDIER'S TOBACCO

W.C.T.U. Will Cut Off Their Supply, Claimng It's Injurious to Health.

HAMILTON, Saturday, July 1.—Dressed in their tribal costumes and war paint, members of the Canadian Indians, who are holding their annual tournament and pow-wow at Burlington, presented a picturesque appearance as they participated in the tribe shoot, which was the feature of the day. This shoot was open to Indians only, and was won by T. E. Houghton, of Toronto, who broke 22 birds out of a possible 25. The Jennings special double event was won by Nelson Long of Hamilton, who broke 49 birds out of 50, while he also made the highest amateur score, breaking 146 out of 150.

It was announced yesterday that C. G. Cooper will run in Ward Three to succeed the late Ald. A. M. Roy. Mr. Cooper has been a lifelong resident of this city, and is conceded to be the probable successor to the late Ald. Roy.

Several local men appeared on yesterday's casualty list, five of whom are missing. They are Corp. Herbert Larner, Corp. Robert Abbey, Ptes. Clifford Woolley, G. H. Fuller, John Mitchell. The two who are listed as wounded are Ptes. George Partington and Fred Holt.

Claiming that the supplying of tobacco to the boys in the trenches is injurious to their health, the members of the W.C.T.U. convention here endorsed a resolution that the supply of tobacco be cut off, and that chocolate and other nourishing foods be sent in their stead. A resolution of appreciation was also passed in regard to the passing of the prohibition measure, and it was resolved that the temperance work in Sunday schools should be given more attention.

With one of his ears stabbed and a wound in the face, William Martin was found in the market square last night in a semi-conscious condition, and taken to the City Hospital, where his wounds were dressed. Martin, who is 20 years of age, and conducts a boot store in the market, was unable to give any information as to what had occurred.

A. P. Macallum, the commissioner of works, who is going to Ottawa, attended a private conference with the members of the board yesterday, with regard to the new hydro-radial line that is to run thru this city in the near future. It is believed that the route will pass thru the north end of the city near theh old Canadian Northern line, or by a common entrance with the new highway. The work will not commence until the war is over, tho the commission has been assured of the necessary capital from many sources.

The members of the International Moulders' Union, Local No. 26, elected W. Heims as president, and J. W. Ripley, corresponding secretary. C. Lessard is financial secretary, and H. Trenum is treasurer.

WITHHELD SENTENCE ON KELLY PENDING APPEAL

Hartley Dewart Very Hopeful of Obtaining New Trial.

WINNIPEG, June 30—R. A. Bonnar for the crown, moved this afternoon before Justice Prendergast that sentence be passed on Thomas Kelly, convicted by a jury yesterday of theft, receiving and false pretences in connection with the erection of the Manitoba parliament buildings. H. H. Dewart, K. C., speaking for the accused, asked that sentence be deferred until the court of appeals hears argument on the reserved case which the judge will grant and his lordship agreed to withhold sentence at least during the present appeal. It was decided that on Tuesday morning the form on which the case shall go to the appellate court shall be fixed. Mr. Dewart expressed his desire to secure a speedy decision from the higher court and his readiness to argue the case before it in a short time.

Today's proceedings constitute the first step in the course of procedure which Mr. Keley's counsel hopes will result in a new trial.

SIR IAN HAMILTON'S BROTHER JOINS COLORS

He Will Be Major in Battalion Raised at Whitby.

Special to The Toronto World.

WHITBY, June 30.—Douglas Hamilton, brother of Sir Ian Hamilton of the Gallipoli expedition, who has seen 15 years' service in the imperial army in Egypt and South Africa, has joined the 182nd Battalion, ranking as major. He and Mrs. Hamilton have taken a cottage at Heyden Shore Park, where the 182nd is now going into camp.

Lt.-Col. Cockburn and the staff of the 182nd, together with the citizens of Whitby are delighted that so experienced a soldier is identified with the second Ontario County battalion for overseas service.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S MESSAGE

OTTAWA, June 30.—Sir Robert Borden, the prime minister, tonight issued the following Dominion Day message to the people of Canada:

"The forty-ninth anniversary of confederation finds Canada in accord with all the empire, still inspired with an unflinching determination to her part in maintaining our cause to a triumphant issue. The long of casualties brings its message of sorrow to many Canadian homes; but brings also a proud memory of the conspicuous valor and independence of our Canadian troops who have proven themselves worthy of the highest trust reposed in them.

"During my recent visit to the U. S. I found the warmest admiration of the great part which Canada has taken in this war and intense appreciation of the record which Canadians have established in the fighting line.

"As we approach the conclusion of our second year of war the tidings from all the battlefronts of the vast theatres in which the allied armies meet the enemy are more encouraging than at any time during the past twelve months. We look forward with every hope, to successes even more striking, which will bring still nearer the victory for which we are striving and the ending of this terrible conflict."
