CONSERVATIVES WILL MAKE GAINS IN SASKATCHEWAN

Party There is Well Organized and Ready for a Vigorous Fight--Mr. Haultain Active in Support of Mr. Borden--Young Men Against Reciprocity.

Special Correspondence of The Toronto News and The Standard.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 22.—The forces opposed to reciprocity in Saskatchewan are gaining strength, and will continue to do so during the next month. When the vote is taken on September 21, the returns will show from present indications, gains for the Conservative party instead of loss. This city, government-ridden and all as it is, is the commanding centre of the anti-reciprocity forces, and the nucleus of one of the strongest wing of Conservatism is ensconsed here. So active and earnest has been the work of its leaders that the Conservatives of Saskatchewan have the unique distinction of being organized and ready for the fray before any other province in the Dominion. Strong men have responded quickly to the call for fighters against reciprocity with the United States, and the result is that before the middle of next week, ten standard bearers will be in the field ahead of their Liberal opponents. Eight candidates are now at work, and on Monday and Tuesday Prince Albert and North Battleford will choose the remaining two Conservative candidates to contest their respective ridings. Never before, in spite of the general impression to the contrary in many eastern quarters, was the Conservative party in as good fighting condition as it is at the present time, nor was there ever such a prospect of its gaining ground as in the coming election.

Haultain in the Field.

Mr. F. W. G. Haultain, leader of the Conservative party in the Legislative Assembly, despite any reports made hitherto, will go into the field to support Mr. Borden. He has promised this to Dr. Cowan, the Conservative candidate for Regina, and about August 25, Mr. Haultain will appear in Qu'Appelle district to speak for Mr. R. S. Lake, M. P. The cause against reciprocity is not dead in the central and northern parts of this province, and the enthusiastic Conservative conventions of the past week throughout Saskatchewan have given indisputable evidence of a spirit and animosity which will be a very formidable factor in this campaign. If there are English radicals in the West, there are also English Imperialists of the Joe Wylie type, whose influence just now will over weigh that of their less stable fellow countrymen. The foreigner, too, such as the Ruthenian and other classes from Central Europe, is more kindly disposed towards the National Policy in Canada than he is towards the popular arguments that are being advanced out here in favor of free trade with the United States. The poor immigrant from Europe has come in large numbers to the Canadian West during the past ten years, he has found a home and an estate in this country as compared with the condition of serfdom which he left behind him. The foreign element in the West has tasted of prosperity under purely Canadian auspices, and at heart, these citizens, wherever they understand the trade issue, are enemies of the proposed agreement with the United States. This was the feeling as I found it, through casual conversation with numbers of settlers from different parts of the West who were in attendance at the Dominion exposition during the last two days.

The Exhibition.

Regina, it may be observed just here, today saw the close of its first large industrial exhibition. The fact that it has been a great success, has turned many a Western mind towards a phase of national development that was never seriously considered before. This exhibition has made this city a place of greater importance to the farmer of the surrounding district, because the farmer up till now has never had the same chance of seeing just what the city can produce. To the citizen of Regina his big fair has been a stimulus to further extension along industrial lines; he, more thoroughly than the farmer, sees now that the future of this vast prairie country lies in the building up of cities and towns, not in the exploitation of wheat lands alone.

The fight against reciprocity in the Province of Saskatchewan is being waged by young men. The candidates in most cases are young men, who have had their training in the older provinces, and who have entered the United States, because they believe that with such a policy in vogue, it will not be long before the West would lose her Canadian identity. Put it as you like, but the one word Americanization, implies the process of national transformation, which is in the mind of many a Westerner, when he thinks of reciprocity. Three young Nova Scotians, in particular, have entered the contest, under the leadership of Mr. Borden, with no other impulse that patriotism. They are Mr. Harvey Herne for Humboldt ;Mr. J. C. Livingston for Mackenzie, and Mr. Donald McLean for Saskatoon, all originally from Sydney Cape Breton. The other Conservative candidates in Saskatchewan are C. C. Smith, of Carnduff, for Estevan district; Dr. Cowan for Regina; S. K. Rothwell for Moosejaw; James Nixon for Salt Coats, and R. S. Lake, M. P. for Qu'Appelle Mr. James McKay for Prince Albert and Mr Howell for North Battleford have still to be nominated. With these men fighting solidly, shoulder to shoulder, all recognized as strong citizens and leaders in their respective constituencies, Saskatchewan has never presented such a splendid front in many a day.

"Will you not tell Mr. Taft on September 21 that the tie which binds Canada to the Empire is stronger than ever before, and, please God, it will never be broken."—Mr. Borden at Chatham.

IN THE COURTS

County Court.

Frank Spragg, indicted by the grand jury for breaking and entering and stealing from the house of D. R. Jack at Duck Cove in May last, did not appear in the County Court yesterday morning to answer his name. Judge Forbes on Tuesday issued a bench warrant for his apprehension, but the warrant was returned not served. It is understood that Spragg is now enjoying the liberties of Boston. The bail, Samuel Naves and Henry Love, were called upon to produce the body, but they failed to do so. A. A. Wilson, K. C., for the Crown, moved that the bail be escheated, which was done. Both bondsmen are liable for $750 each and Spragg himself for $1,500.

The criminal appeal case of George Titus, complainant and appellant, vs. George F. Menzies, defendant and respondent, was commenced before Judge Forbes. This is an appeal from the decision of the police magistrate who on July 20 last held that the defendant was guilty of a technical and trivial assault on the complainant and that the same was justified and dismissed the case. The alleged assault took place in White's restaurant, which the defendant manages, on July 18 last, when the defendant ejected the respondent from the store. At yesterday morning's session the appellant and Miss Nettie McKee and Miss Sadie Cady testified for the prosecution. Adjournment was made until Friday at eleven o'clock, when further testimony will be offered for the prosecution. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for Mr. Titus, and G. Earle Logan for Mr. Menzies.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Till Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas, of Sudbury Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes:

"For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back, for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. A dull ache across the kidneys was always present, my urine was thick and cloudy, and passing it caused a burning, scalding pain. Tried medicines, but they failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they had cured my wife years before. A few boxes affected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessings of good health, which is due to this remedy."

Don't neglect kidney trouble—it's too dangerous as well as too painful. That old, reliable family remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, has cured thousands and will cure you. It is equally effective in curing constipation and its attendant evils, biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches, and in purifying the blood. 25c a box at your druggist's. 10
