Hints in Regard to Beautifying The City and Its Surroundings

Meeting of Local Horticultural —Reports of Delegates to Toronto Convention.

A very interesting meeting of the London Horticultural Society was held last evening in the committee room of the city hall. Many members were present to hear the reports of the delegates sent to the Ontario Horticultural Association at Toronto.

Mr. J. S. Pearce was first called upon, and he spoke of his great interest in the meetings, which were well attended, and good papers read by gentlemen thoroughly conversant with the subjects they took up. Mr. Burgoyne, of St. Catharines, the retiring president of the association, who was editor of a newspaper in St. Catharines, stated that in his opinion one great object to be aimed at was to keep in touch with the press, who were always ready to print articles of interest to its readers. Over 1,200 prizes were distributed by them last year; they obtained a grant from the city council, and grants from the municipalities surrounding the city, and their exhibition and fair last year was a great success. Mr. Scott, of Perth, spoke on the best way to expend the funds of the different societies, and advocated having speakers to address the members. Magazines should be provided and monthly meetings held, and he advocated essays from school children, and a prize given. Mr. Snelgrove spoke of the practical way of beautifying the towns and cities. Two of his mottoes were: "Exit Ugliness," "Entrance Beauty." He said every citizen should remember that the exterior of his home and grounds was part and parcel of the general community, and every effort should be put forth to make surroundings attractive. Mr. White spoke largely on peonies, the best kinds and varieties to grow. Mr. Cowan spoke mainly regarding the working of the act, and of some of the amendments to be made. Mr. McNeil, of Ottawa, spoke of the desirability of growing fruits in small lots. Mr. C. C. James, the minister, gave a short address, and stated the Government took a great interest in horticultural societies, and the purpose of the Government grant was to aid in fostering the efforts put forth to beautify towns and cities, and the doing away with of unsightly spots, and the very great desirability of having the grounds of each school kept in better condition than at present.

Mr. Gammage, who next spoke, stated the members of the Ontario Horticultural Association present at the meetings were about 35, from all parts of the Province, and were most enthusiastic, and took a deep interest in all the papers read. He pointed out that the St. Catharines society distributed last year in prizes alone some $2,100, and they obtained a grant from the city council of $350, and also other amounts from the municipalities bordering on the city. The membership of the Ottawa society was very large, and they made it interesting to members during the summer by visiting the grounds of members, where special beds of flowers were grown, and some one of the members would lead in a discussion. He was greatly impressed with the personality of the new president, Mr. Snelgrove, of Belleville, who appeared to be a deep thinker, and who spoke on the way of increasing the memberships of the different societies. Mr. Gammage also stated that it was the intention of Mr. Cowan, secretary of the association, to have some gentleman write a series of articles, which would be sent to the secretary of each horticultural society for publication.

Mr. Moore, who followed, spoke of the great pleasure he had experienced in attending the meetings. He considered it the duty of every society to affiliate with the Ontario Horticultural Association, which was doing a good work. The Province had been mapped out into seven districts, and a director had been appointed from each district, Mr. J. S. Pearce, of the London society, being appointed for this western district. Each director was expected to personally use his influence in the direction of forming new horticultural societies, which would educate the people. He gave a graphic illustration of a gentleman, 82 years of age, who came from Kincardine, where he was secretary, and they had a membership of 138 in that small town. He said our London society should be proud of Delegate J. S. Pearce, who had read a very able paper, which was listened to with a very great deal of attention and very favorably discussed.

A very hearty vote of thanks was atention and very favorably discussed. bers present, after which the meeting dispersed.

OUR COUNTRY COUSINS

Will Not Find Their Names in City Directories Hereafter.

It is understood that the days of city directories, with the names of people who live in the country also published, are at an end.

It was stated today that it was only about twelve years ago that the county names were added to the city directory here, and that then it was through a fight between Foster & Co., of Hamilton, and Morey & Co., of Ingersoll.

The latter company publish county directories only.

Recently another firm bought Foster & Co. out and the feud was buried with the transfer.

Those who desire county names will have to purchase county directories in the future.

KURDISH BUTCHERS ARE AGAIN ACTIVE

Constantinople, Nov. 27.—The lawless activity of the Kurdish tribes in the Arkeno-Kurdish districts of Erzerum, Bitlis, Van Kharput and Diarbekir is causing lively concern at the porte, particularly as the foreign embassies are urging that prompt measures be taken by the government to prevent a possible massacre.

Under the protection of the notorious Abraham Pasha, who is known as the "Despot of Kurdistan," Kurdish horsemen are making raids without discrimination, Turkish villages suffering equally with American homesteads on the plains around Diarbekir, and Jezireh, Ibn-Omar. Sixteen villages have been pillaged and burned within the past month in these districts and eight villages in the Sert district have met with the same fate.

Shaw—Nicholson.

The wedding took place at Strathroy this afternoon of Miss Lottie Nicholson and Mr. A. G. Shaw, both of that place. Miss Flossie Harris, of Strathroy, assisted the bride, while the groom was supported by his brother, Dr. Stanley Shaw, V. S., of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will reside in Strathroy.

An Unsanitary School.

Medical Health Officer Hutchinson is preparing a report on the Talbot street school for the board of education. The doctor says he finds the lower floors to be all right, but there is no ventilation on the upper floors. Chairman Niven of the board of health is giving close personal attention to the matter, and he says that something must be done to improve the sanitary conditions at the school.

Death of George Robertson.

The death occurred at Victoria Hospital last night of Mr. George Robertson, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Londesboro. Mr. Robertson came to Victoria Hospital a short time ago suffering from appendicitis, and was operated upon. He was 40 years of age, and is survived by his wife and four small children. The remains were taken to Londesboro this morning and the funeral will be held from there on Thursday.

Trolley Jumped the Wire.

A broken trolley rope on Oxford street car No. 80 caused some excitement at the corner of York and Richmond streets today about 1 o'clock. The trolley jumped the wire and the rope snapped off rear the pole, having been tied too short at the bottom. The car traveled some distance before being stopped, and the pole was bent almost double. For a moment it looked as though all the wires would be torn down, and spectators made a rush for safer territory. Eventually the car was stopped and the rope attached once more.

The Coming Officers' Ball.

Everything possible is being done at the armories to get the floor in the most perfect condition for the officers' ball, which takes place a week from Friday. A number of men have been at work for several days waxing and leveling the floor, and a most enjoyable time may be expected by those who attend. The work of decorating the messrooms and officers' quarters will be commenced at once, and it is said that when complete the decorations will surpass those of all other years.

Casualty Corner.

Street car men now refer to the corner of Ridout and Dundas streets as "Casualty Corner." No less than three people have been painfully injured at that point within as many weeks, and the people are wondering just how it all comes about. The first of the trio of victims was Mayor Judd, the second a young man named Colyer and the third Mrs. Judd. There is a very sharp turn at that point, and it is held that the motormen take the curve too fast. Manager King will look into the matter.

Police Court.

Alonzo Campbell appeared before Magistrate Love this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly. He was found guilty and remanded to jail for eight days. W. Smith also appeared on a drunk and disorderly charge, only his drunk seemed to affect him in a peculiar manner. Smith is said to have been pretty full and when discovered by a policeman was endeavoring to break one of the benches in the park to pieces. The damage that he did cost him $2. The case against Mr. C. R. Somerville was adjourned for another week.

TRADE WITH AUSTRALIA

Preference for Canada To Be Considered After Revision of the Tariff.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The trade and commerce department has received a report from Trade Commissioner Ross in Melbourne, stating that under the new Australian tariff, there is likely to be a large demand for Canadian butts or oak staves. The new protection to Australian industries will only be given on condition that a fair wage is paid to the operatives. Mr. Ross says that the premier informed him that the question of a trade preference to Canada would be considered after the completion of the parliamentary revision of the general tariff. It was impossible to take the matter up while the tariff debate was going on. Inquiries are being made by importers for Canadian oats and barley. Trade Commissioner Larke says that there is in the new tariff an additional duty of 15 per cent advance on boots and shoes. The preference on rubber tires, tubes, wall paper, gum boots, canvas unbleached and surgical and dental instruments has been struck off. These are the principal changes affecting Canadian trade in the new tariff. Motor cars at first free are now made 20 per cent, and taken off the preferential list. Against these reductions there has been a large extension of the preferential list. The preference is from 5 to 12½ per cent on the larger number of items there is about 10 per cent.

STEEL CARS IN THE LAKE

Trainload of G. T. P. Construction Material Wrecked Near Kenora.

Kenora, Nov. 26.—A collision occurred today a few miles east of Hawk, Ont., when freight No. 718, loaded with G. T. P. steel, crashed into the rear end of freight No. 662. The engine and some five cars of steel were pitched into the lake. Engineer Melvin and Fireman McKay on the rear train were seriously injured, and brought to the hospital here. Owing to the peculiar turn of the road at that point flagging was not observed at a sufficient distance to prevent the collision.

LISBON OUTWARDLY CALM

No Revolution Likely at Present, Says English Correspondent.

London, Nov. 27.—A special dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Lisbon by way of the frontier, describes the capital as being outwardly calm as a result of the royal decrees forbidding public gatherings, and newspaper comments on the present situation, but, says the correspondent, it is extremely difficult to foresee what may happen.

"In my judgment," he adds, "the situation is grave and a very difficult one, but the moment for a sanguinary revolution is remote, unless on account of some lack of foresight on the part of the King or Premier it is begun by the army or navy."

Balm-Zoin

Balm-Zoin is a delightful lotion for healing and softening the skin. We have made it for a long time, we have never heard anything but praise for it, and its sale increases all the time.

It is used by a very large proportion of the ladies of this locality, and is, we believe, as perfect a preparation as can be made.

It heals and soothes, and removes all roughness and redness of the skin. It is not greasy or sticky. Gloves can be worn immediately after applying.

HOSTILE TO BRITISHERS

Operation of Pekin Syndicate May Cause a Revolution in China.

Pekin, Nov. 27.—On account of the failure of the Pekin syndicate, a British corporation, holding the largest concessions China has ever given, and the officials of Shansi Province, to reach a compromise in the matter of "rights of recovery," violence is threatened in the province. At Tyaunfu, the people are renewing their demonstration against the syndicate. The syndicate recently proposed to sell back to the Chinese Government all its holdings in the province of Shansi. This proposal was to some extent due to the campaign in China against all foreigners holding concessions and the especial antipathy of the Government toward the British company. The claims of the syndicate of sole rights over the immense mineral fields in Shansi so incensed the inhabitants that a rebellion was nearly precipitated there last year. Sir J. M. Jordan, the British minister to China, has repeatedly requested the foreign board to suppress the disorders in Shansi.

BURGLARS' NEAT JOB

Loot a Rich Montrealer's Residence of $3,000 in Plate.

Montreal, Nov. 26.—The residence of Mr. Jas. Crathern, MacGregor street, was robbed this morning and about $3,000 worth of silverware taken. About midnight two men were noticed on Sherbrooke street west, and while near a citizen one made the remark to his companion, "Crathern or Shaughness—which?" These two men are suspected of the robbery. They brought a ladder with them and opened doors leading from the balcony to the dining-room. The booty was put in bags and lowered from the balcony by means of a rope made from two linen table colths. The balcony had been carefully swept of snow with a broom, probably so that no traces might be left. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

ITALIAN FACTIONS FIGHT

Exciting But Bloodless Battle Between Coal Shovelers at Cunard Docks.

New York, Nov. 27.—One hundred Italian coal shovelers, who were engaged in loading the new Cunard liner Mauretania at her dock on the Hudson River today, became involved in a riot in which a number of pistol shots were fired, and several of the rioters jumped into the river to escape the bullets. The quarrel is believed to have been between factions from Sicily and those from other parts of Italy. At the firing of the first shot almost every Italian at work dropped his shovel, drew some kind of a weapon, and joined in the fight. The unarmed ones and the other workers on the pier fled out of range of the bullets and called for the police reserves. Several unarmed Italians, when pursued by armed compatriots, jumped into the river, and in one case the pursuer followed, but was outdistanced.

By the time the police arrived one faction had been put to flight, and although many shots were fired, no one was found to have been wounded. Two arrests were made.

THE BRADLEY TRIAL.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The abruptness with which the defense stated its case yesterday in the trial of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, for the killing of former Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, combined with the fact that already four witnesses out of fifteen summoned by the Government, in rebuttal, have testified, leads to the belief that the case will be given to the jury possibly Monday or Tuesday of next week. It is the purpose of the defense not to cross-examine at length Drs. Joliffe and Brush, the Government insanity experts, or to place on the stand any witnesses in sur-rebuttal. It is therefore expected that at the close of today's proceedings the testimony will all be in. The trial was resumed at 10 o'clock today.

DESERTED HIS BRIDE.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 27. — Last June Interpreter Rogers, of the immigration department, married a Miss Mauvat, of Ottawa, and afterwards left the girl penniless in Paris, whence she came home with funds loaned by the Canadian authorities. As the bride and groom were leaving Montreal for their honeymoon trip, which ended thus, the T. Lindsay Company's representatives met them on the boat, and stating he had a warrant for Rogers' arrest, demanded settlement of an account. The groom took from his wife $100 in gold, which her uncle had given her as a present, and paid the bill. Now the deserted wife is suing the Lindsay Company in the courts for the return of the $100, alleging that this was obtained by false pretenses.

The United States has the largest foreign population. Argentina, where 12 out of every 100 are foreigners, ranks second.

The Leesville (Col.) Light tells how the members of a lodge at Leesville "turned out enthusiastically" at the funeral of a lodge brother.

LAST ACT OF GAPON DRAMA

Property of Treacherous Russian Priest Turned Over to His Son.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—The last act in the "Gapon Drama" was played in this city Monday. Father Gapon was the priest who led the Russian people to the winter palace on "Red Sunday," Jan. 22, 1905. He subsequently deserted the workmen he had led to become a spy for the Government, and later he was murdered for his treachery. The court today ordered that the property of the murdered priest be turned over to his son, Alexis. This property includes the balance of the fund paid Gapon by the Government for his pacificatory propaganda among the workmen returning to Russia.

After the manifesto of Oct. 30, 1905, Father Gapon changed sides, and endeavored to free the workmen from the influence of revolutionary agitators and induced them to abandon political strikes. For this he was condemned and executed by the revolutionists. After his death the police obtained possession of his money, which he had put away in a safety deposit vault.

IN COLLISION ON THE FIRST TRIP

Smith's Falls, Nov. 26.—The new direct train between Toronto and Ottawa met with an accident in the yards here early this morning, while being taken around a "Y" by a shunting engine. Two cars of a freight train with which it collided were wrecked, and the baggage and tourist cars of the express were damaged. Wm. Tyson, of Toronto, had a rib broken. Three others in the car escaped.

The collision took place just in front of a small semaphore-house, and this also was wrecked. A gasoline tank from under the tourist car was thrown out from under the car and exploded. The flames were quickly put out, but not until the semaphore-house had been badly burned.

In the baggage car, which received the brunt of the collision, there were four men, Wm. Tyson, the baggageman, who had come on the train from Toronto; Thomas Evas, baggageman, who got on at Smith's Falls to go to Ottawa; John Warren, the night yard agent, and Charles Seaton, of Smith's Falls, express messenger. Tyson sustained his injuries by being jammed between the steam pipes.

AUTHOR AND WIFE SUICIDE

Struggle for Life Against Heavy Odds Is Revealed.

London, Nov. 26. — Another story reflecting the bitter struggle in existence in a section of the literary and artistic life here came to light today with the discovery in the Thames of the bodies of Alexander Good and wife. Both were authors, and the latter also a painter of considerable talent, who tied themselves together and jumped into the river after losing hope in the battle against big odds. Carefully incased in waterproof paper in the garments of both were found letters as yet unopened and addressed to the coroner.

The couple disappeared from the cheap lodgings to which they had been reduced on Nov. 2, leaving their last pennies for the landlady, and a letter to a friend.

"If you think of us in the future," the letter stated, "remember we will be asleep together, and what is better than sleep after a long day's work."

Good was the author of several books which are meritorious, but not popular, and his wife wrote under the name of Furze Walsh. Good finally was reduced to the position of a publisher's reader, and later was started in business as a tobacconist, but the venture was a failure.

The tragedy of the Goods recalls the death just the other day of Francis Thompson, a poet, who, after being rescued from selling matches and holding horses on the Strand, rose to prosperity by writing poems of world wide admiration and died with little of this world's goods.
