Auction Sales.

At Chubb's corner to-day, Mr. T. B. Hanington sold a farm in Springfield, Kings county, containing 135 acres, for $160 to E. R. Chapman. The farm was formerly owned by John A. McLean and is on the line of the Central railway.

Mr. Hanington also sold two leasehold properties on Brussells street. This sale was under an execution from Sheriff Harding issued at the suit of Emma Danaher against Margaret Quinn and Edward Malloy. The lots were half lots with wooden houses on them. The Quinn property started at $5 and was finally knocked down to Mr. C. N. Skinner at $326. The Malloy property was bought by Emma Danaher for $20. Protests were made against both sales.

An enthusiastic meeting was held last evening by the junior Liberal Conservative club. The meeting was unaminions in its way of thinking and each and every member will take an active part in the coming election campaign. A discussion took place with regard to the candidates to be brought forward, but as yet no names have been definately fixed upon. The junior liberal-conservatives will support those men whose interests are the best interests of the country, and will lend their aid to the present government, which is building up the trade and industries of Canada. THE FISHERMEN around Penobscot bay have been fortunate in the catch of fish the past winter. Over 100 tons of smelts and scallops have been taken from the river and bays in the vicinity of Castine. The Bangor markets have been well supplied from that locality, although the bulk of the fish has gone to the Boston and New York markets.

A PECULIAR PHENOMENON was seen a few days since by A. Dunn, living near Bridgetown, N. S., while in the act of butchering a young heifer. In the stomach of the animal was a large table fork. The fork had penetrated through the stomach and entered the flesh, and had nearly passed through the flesh behind the foreshoulder.

A HALIFAX DESPATCH of yesterday says:—The fortnightly mail steamer Conscript arrived this afternoon from St. John's, Nfld. Captain Walsh reports having experienced a succession of strong head gales. So fast did ice make on the ship's bow that she was weighed down to an alarming extent. The steamer was eventually stopped and 100 tons of ice knocked off.

REMEMBERED THEIR TEACHER.—The scholars of Grade VII in Indiantown school yesterday afternoon presented their teacher, Miss J. K. Sutherland, with an address and a handsome manicure set in oxidized silver. Miss Sutherland leaves shortly to attend the Normal school at Bridgewater, Mass., and the address referred to regret which all the scholars felt at her departure. Miss Sutherland thanked them for their kind feelings and handsome testimonial.

WHEEL BURST.—Yesterday, while the filers in Morrison's mill below town were getting their saws in shape on the emery wheel, it burst, throwing the fragments in all directions. Burt Hall, a man standing in front of the revolving stone was struck by a splinter on the left hand, and the member was badly crushed, Pieces of stone were found sticking in some of the timbers where they had gone in almost out of sight. There is no more dangerous thing in any mill than an emery wheel as it must revolve at a very rapid rate to do its work, and is then almost certain to fly to pieces. Were it not that it breaks into very small pieces, death would be often the result.—Fredericton Gleaner.

A WOMAN CAUSED IT.—Yesterday Sam Jones, not the preacher, was brought up before his honor, Judge Marsh to answer to a charge of assault and battery on the person of Private McAllister of the Infantry school. As far as could be learned, each had been paying attention to the same girl and bad feeling was the result in this as in all similar cases. On Tuesday night last McAllister met Sam on the street and accused him of lying, or at least of distorting the truth so it did not know itself, and Samuel struck out from the shoulder, giving the soldier a lively blow. Some little wrestling followed, but the combatants were separated with very little loss of blood on either side. His honor found that Sam was guilty and imposed a fine of seven dollars or twenty days jail.—Fredericton Gleaner.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Unions of St. John and vicinity held their quarterly meeting yesterday afternoon, Mrs. A. J. Macfarland in the chair.

Mrs. Beaton, of the North end Union reported that the first work of the year had been in connection with the Band of Mercy; that considerable literature had been distributed in the various lumber camps; that a donation of dry goods had been received from Manchester, Robertson & Allison, and $6 from a friend; that the Union had helped several poor families; that the industrial school was flourishing.

The Fairville Union was reported not to have progressed as much as might have been expected.

It was decided to hold the next meeting Thursday, April 16, at Fairville.

The ladies in charge were assisted by a number of the younger ladies of the congregation, and so efficient was the corps of workers that the sale of fancy articles netted very handsomely. At the close the remaining stock of fancy goods and refreshments was auctioned off.

"Hands Across The Sea."

Mr. Lytell's company appears at the Institute on Tuesday evening in the English melo-drama "Hands Across the Sea," the coming of which has been anxiously awaited. It was played three successive nights in Halifax to standing room only and made a great hit there. One paper says of it:—The scenery was most elaborate, including the Nettleford Farm, with its handsome cottage, barns, etc.; Mme Valerie's gaming parlors revolving to the exterior of the court yard; the prison scene, changing to the prison yard, showing the guillotine; the deck of the steamer Australasian, with the arrival of the French gunboat signalling and tacking about, and Sydney Harbor, with the steamer at the dock. Scenic artist Hilyard deserves great praise for his excellent work, not only in this but in other pieces.

The company gave an excellent performance, notably Mr. Edwards, who gave an artistic portrayal of the hero; Miss Alberta, who has become a great favorite, adding fresh laurels to her reputation as the heroine, and Mr. Lytell being simply irresistable as Tom Barrett.

A Prosperous Institution.

NEW BUSINESS FOR 1890, $41,000,000; INCREASE OF RESERVE FUND, $500,000; DEATH CLAIMS PAID, $2,000,000; INSURANCE IN FULL, $196,000,000.

There is a great deal of curiosity at the beginning of the year to know how the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, the chief among the assessment organizations, has fared during the preceeding year. While the annual statement of the company is not yet completed, the following figures were furnished us: The applications received during the year were for upwards of $41,000,000 of insurance; the amount written exceeded $35,000,000; death claims paid during the year exceeded $2,000,000; the total amount of death claims paid to date is about $10,000,000; the cash reserve fund exceeds $2,800,000; the increase of surplus for 1890 was over $500,000; the increase of insurance in force is about $15,000,000; this makes an aggregate of insurance in force at the close of the year of $196,000,000. The year was a prosperous one for the association in every respect, and it enters upon the new year stronger financially than ever before, and with an executive organization stronger and more effective than it has heretofore known.—THE SPECTATOR, N. Y., Jan. 1, 1891.
