Memoranda.

July 23—Steamship Belle Brown left the "Wolves" at 2 a.m., and arrived at Eastport at 4 o'clock. From the baggage-master of the New England the following particulars are obtained: Steamer New England left St John at her usual time, and made Point Lepreaux, and heard the bell of the lighthouse. She struck the Eastern Wolf, some ten miles from Head harbor light and fifteen miles from Eastport, at 11 o'clock, about two hours before high water. She remained there over an hour. In that time every one had an opportunity to work and save what they could. Frederic E Nutt, of the Eastern Express, was on board and saved all his money, papers and packages, even to some boxes of fresh salmon, though the latter were cooked and eaten by the passengers after being taken ashore. The clerk of the steamer saved his money and papers. The most of the bedding and furniture, except what was in the cabin, was saved. It was perfectly calm at the time, though the fog was very dense, so much so that they could not see twenty feet from the steamer. There was two feet of water on the Wolf.—Twice they made two revolutions to back her. They were going about twelve knots at the time. Five feet more would have cleared the rock. When she struck she keeled over so the water went into the after gangway. She then began to settle aft. The metallic boats proved the best. The wooden boat was stove on the rocks. She turned over at high water on Tuesday, and is all covered with water, except her keel. There is no doubt about her being a total loss. There was no panic and no one frightened. Good order was maintained. All the officers and men worked well, and the passengers rendered all the assistance they could. Had it been rough or stormy all hands must have been lost. Her freight, of fish and wool principally, was lost. Mr. Nutt had some horses in his charge that he got safely ashore. Three years ago this same steamer came very near going ashore at this very place. Within a few feet of it at low water the ledge is twenty feet out of water. It was not one minute after they saw the rock till they struck. The passengers left here this morning to take the cars at St Andrews for Boston.
At Buenos Ayres, 12th ult, barks, Aaron Gandy, Bent, unc; Annie McNairn, Fulton, for Liverpool; brig C C Vanhorn, Hooker, for Antwerp.
At Pernambuco, 27th, ult, brig Amor, Plats, for Montreal.
At Demerara, 8th inst, brigs Hattie Exton, Brown, unc; Annie Vail, Michaner, for Lewis, Del.
Passed Dosal, 12th inst, ship Maggie Charman, Rutherford, from Middlesborough for New Orleans.

Disasters.

Brig Juno, Williams, from Boston for John, NB, went ashore at 3 30 a m 18th inst, off Rockland, Me, during a dense fog, and became a total wreck. Crew saved. The wreck will be sold at auction 27th inst.

Bark Lady Love (Br), Yule, from Quepec for Queenstown, was abandoned on the 18th inst, in lat 48 51, lon 37 29, and crew rescued by the steamship Holsatia, and brought to this port yesterday. The following is an abstract of Captain Yule's report: Had variable weather until the evening of the 16th Suly, when the barometer fell rapidly from 29.94 to 28 82: ran the ship duridg the middle watch, with the wind veering to the south and east, blowing a heavy gale; at 4 a m split the mizzen staysail, the ship having broke off N by E by compass; about 4.50 a m felt a difference in the ship; went on deck and found she was settling fast to leeward; tried to get the ship before the wind, but failed to do so, as by this time the water was standing up to the centre of the deck and the rudder had no power over her. For the safety of the ship and cargo cut away the mizzen mast, and shortly after the topmasts, but all was of no avail, the cargo having shifted, and the ship going over more every minute. The sea broke on board with fearful violence, completely cleaning out the foremast house in less than ten minutes, leaving it but a shell, and the crew without a vestige of clothes or bedding, and also filling the cabin with water At 9 a m on the 18th, the steamship Holsatia hove in sight, and at the earnest solicitation of the officers and crew I hoisted the ensign Union down, after consulting with my officers concluded to abandon her if the steamer could send a boat, which she did, and we were all taken on board by means of live buoys and brought to this port.

THE SECRET HISTORY OF

BY ONSLOW YORKE.

NOTE.—Her Majesty's Government has ordered some enquiries to be made in foreign countries as to the strength and purposes of the International Working Men's Association. Nimble pens are busy; and in time the public may receive a blue book, which some twenty persons will care to read. Until this work is ready, these sketches may suggest how curious and important is the task on which our Secretaries of Legation are employed.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 13.

All the world's a pill box,
And all the men and women merely swallowers
Of nauseous drugs, cunningly hid in capsules.
And one man at a time takes many pills.
At first the baby struggling and kicking in
its nurse's arms,
With thumb in eye and fist on nose, wailing aloud
For *Winslow's Syrup and a box of pills,
And then, the school boy, who won't go to school,
But shams sick, and stays at home with feverish brain.
The doctor comes, and through his lantern jaws,
Inserts a † large and well-made pill.
And then comes forth the lover,
Seeking the magician's art or sorcerer's aid,
Seeking some patent ‡ powder from the god of love,
And he receives it, rounded in a mass,
Pinular in shape and sugar-coated.
Then the loose sailor, with ‖ shivering timbers,
And sanguineous eyes roaring for pills,
Seeking pills, loudly, with a reputation
Even at the *. Pharmaceutist's.
And then the fat alderman, with his dog tax,
And night mare visions of an unbuilt hall
Dancing fore his eyes, while his nose scents
A musty offal from ¶ Piscator's mart,—
And he, too, wants a pill, to ease his troubled conscience.

The sixth victim, no longer blatant but subdued,
With low voice, timidly asks for . Bilious
Pills,
And in shrill tones pipes, whistlingly, his thanks.
Last dose of all in this strange, wondrous pill box,
Is the old man turned child again—
Feebly he hobbles with cane along the strand
And asks of eager passers by with gummy
mouth,
An easy antidote for pain—a mild blue pill—
This wasted form, oblivious to sense, moves on,
Sans friends, sans money, sans pills, sans everything.

NOTES TO THE ABOVE NURSERY RHYME.

*WINSLOW'S SYRUP—an invaluable article for children's teething.
†LARGE PILL—a bolus.
‡LOVE POWDER—Generally composed of sugar and rhubarb.
‖SHIVERING TIMBERS—a free rendering of the phrase used by sailors, "shiver my timbers"—use principally by merchantmen carrying deals.

To the Electors of the City of St. John.

GENTLEMEN,—

IN response to your urgent request that I should allow myself to be put in nomination at the forthcoming election of a member for the City of St. John to represent you in the Dominion Parliament, after due consideration, I cheerfully accede to your wishes, and consent to place my services at the disposal of the electors of the City of St. John, particularly in the interests of our own City, Province and people, whose rights and claims I consider have been completely ignored during the past five years.

I am
Your ob't servant,
July25 J. S. BOIES DeVEBER.

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN,—At the request of many of your number, I have been induced to become a Candidate at the approaching Election: and having nearly all my means invested in Manufactures, Shipping and other property among you, I am largely interested in endeavoring to promote the prosperity of your city and county.

If elected I will earnestly labor to procure for the Province what it is entitled to in the Union, as I desire the people of this Province to be put in all respects on exact equal terms with the people of her sister Provinces: and I will oppose all attempts of the General Parliament to interfere with the rights reserved to the several Provinces.

I will also try to lighten the taxes upon the country, as well by introducing greater economy in the public service, as by every other means in my power, for I believe that our power to successfully compete with our neighbors in manufactures and all other industries mainly depends upon our ability to keep our people free from burthens, and, by consequence, to make the cost of living cheap in the Dominion.

I will labor to bring about freer trade relations with our neighbors, the citizens of the United States.

I will support whatever I believe will be for the interest of the Dominion generally and for yours in particular; and I respectfully solicit your support.

Your obedient servant,
A. L. PALMER.

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN,—Having been requested by many of the Electors to allow myself to be put in nomination as a candidate for the representation of the City and County of Saint John in the Dominion Parliament, I have consented to do so, feeling it to be the duty of every man interested in the prosperity of his country to be willing, when called upon, to devote a portion of his time to the public service. If you have confidence in my ability to serve you and should elect me as one of your representatives, I assure you that while I will use my best efforts in advancing the prosperity of the Dominion, I shall have a special regard at all times to the interests of New Brunswick, and more particularly those of the City and County of Saint John.

Soliciting your support,
I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
ISAAC BURPEE.
St. John, N.B., July 20, 1872. july 20

To the Electors of the City and County of Saint John.

GENTLEMEN,—

I SHALL be a candidate for your suffrages at the coming election of members for the House of Commons of Canada.

Should I be elected, my best efforts will be employed to advance the varied industries and interests of this constituency and Province, and the Dominion at large.

I shall have other and more suitable opportunities for placing my political views before you in detail.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
WILLIAM ELDER.
St. John, July 19th, 1872. tf

To the Electors of Kings County.

GENTLEMEN.—I shall be a Candidate for your suffrages, at the coming election.

In preparation for political life I have attended all the sessions of the first Parliament of the Dominion. Born among you, bred to the plough, and occupying a freehold, where for three generations my family have tilled the soil of King's, I claim to be most fully identified with your interests: and believing that the representation of this fine county should be entrusted to one of its sons, I confidently solicit your support,

Your obedient servant,
J. E. B. McCREADY.
Penobsquis, 8th July, 1872. vis, intel, hum

To the Electors of King's County.

GENTLEMEN,—Having been requested by many of your most influential freeholders to allow myself to be put in nomination at the next general election as a candidate for the representation of your County in the General Parliament of the Dominion, I have consented to do so, and if you deem me a fit and proper person to be your representative, I have to solicit your support.

Being a resident in the County, and having no small stake in it, I feel that your interests are identified with my own, and if elected, my best energies shall be devoted to your service and to the welfare of the Province generally. I shall have the honor of placing my views fully before you from the hustings on the day of nomination.

I am, your obedient servant
julyl3 till elec JAMES DOMVILLE.

Gentlemen,—
