AT THE SUMMER HOTEL.

He—Most of these waiters are divinity students. Some of them are already ordained, too, I believe.

She—Indeed! How nice to think that one could get married by simply calling the waiter!

NIP DISEASE IN THE BUD—It is difficult to eradicate a disease after it has become seated, therefore it is wise to take any ailment in its initial stages and by such remedies as are sufficient, stop it in its course. Cold is the commonest complaint of man, and when neglected leads to serious results. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will cure the severest cold or most violent cough.

FORECASTS.

Today—Southerly and southwesterly winds; moderately warm weather, becoming showery.

Tomorrow—Local thunderstorms and showers not improbable, but mostly fair, with westerly winds.

WEATHER NOTES.

The weather is fair and moderately warm throughout Ontario and Quebec, but the indications are that it will now become more unsettled. A change to cool, wet weather has occurred in Manitoba, and snow is falling in some localities.

LATE LOCAL ITEMS

—Judge Edward Elliott is holding division court at Dorchester today.

—Stratford Herald: Conductor Mat Flumming is taking the run of the late Conductor Birkett.

—Mr. MacCartney, of Thamesford, the well-known horse buyer, shipped eleven cars of horses for South Africa to Montreal yesterday.

—Pan-American traffic on the G. T. R. has brightened up somewhat, about 160 going on the weekly excursion this morning, and fully a hundred to Toronto on the same train.

—All subscribers to the new colors for the Seventh Fusiliers will receive invitation cards for special space in Victoria Park at the store of Mr. G. C. Jolly, 190 Dundas street.

—Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice, was in the city yesterday. He was prevented from attending Mr. Alan Gibbons' funeral; but he was able to call at the house in the forenoon, to express his sympathy.

—Every Saturday night, at the Y. M. C. A., discussions are led on Biblical topics by Mr. John Holman. Young men will be heartily welcomed who come and join in the discussions, which are very interesting and helpful.

—Mrs. Rosa Collins, widow of the late Barnard Collins, passed away this morning at her home, 303 Hill street. Deceased was 80 years of age and well known and highly respected in the community. The funeral takes place tomorrow from W. J. Smith & Son's undertaking establishment, to St. Peter's Cathedral, at 7:40 a.m.

—Stratford Herald: The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, on Wednesday evening, of last week, of Miss Sarah J. Gillis, daughter of Mr. James Gillis, of Thorndale, to Mr. Hugh R. Bonnell, a prosperous young farmer of Dorchester, and a son of Mrs. Margaret Bonnell, of London. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Craw, of Thorndale.

POLICE COURT.

Robert Irwin, who pleaded guilty a week ago to the charge of stealing, laid by J. C. Woods, was confronted with a second charge this morning, and was remanded by the police magistrate for sentence until Friday.

EX-MAYOR JOHN CAMPBELL ILL.

The host of friends of ex-Mayor John Campbell, the well-known carriage manufacturer, and one of London's most public-spirited citizens, will learn with deep regret that he is seriously ill at his residence, 57 York street. While his condition is critical, the physicians in charge hope for his ultimate recovery.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

At the annual meeting of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the First Methodist Church, the following officers were elected: President, Miss Gurd; first vice-president, Miss Webster; second vice-president, Miss Fowler; recording secretary, Miss Boomer; corresponding secretary, Miss Snell; treasurer, Miss Jolliffe; pianist, Miss Weldon.

WESTERN CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

The autumnal meeting of the Western Association of Congregational Churches is in progress at Embro. Many important and timely subjects are being discussed. Rev. D. S. Hamilton, pastor of the First Congregational, and Rev. W. H. A. Claris, of the Southern Congregational, are in attendance and are delivering addresses on important subjects.

W. C. T. U. ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon in Somerset Hall, and was well attended. Arrangements were completed for the county convention, to be held here on the 17th and 18th inst. The reports, which were received from the superintendents of the various departments, showed that much faithful work had been accomplished during the year. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. M. R. Thornley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Heaman; recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. Weekes; treasurer, Mrs. J. Darch.

ART IN BINDING.

Mr. H. P. Bock, proprietor of the City Bindery, has completed one of the most artistic pieces of work ever turned out by him, in the form of a binding for the annual report of the Women's Auxiliary Missionary Association, which is to be presented to Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York, on the occasion of her visit to London. The volume is bound in full morocco, with gilt edges, and bears the scarlet and white colors of the association. On the cover, in gold letters, are the words: "Presented to Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York by the W. A. M. A. of London." The presentation will probably be made by Mrs. Baldwin, wife of the Bishop of Huron.

AT OSGOODE HALL.

In the divisional court, before Chief Justices Meredith and Falconbridge, the following case was heard: McNulty vs. Morris.—Dromgole (London) and J. C. Elliott (London), for plaintiff, moved to set aside non-suit entered by Robertson J., in the London assizes in January, 1900, and for a new trial upon the grounds that there were questions of fact depending on conflicting evidence, which should have been submitted to the jury. The action was brought by a laboring man who had his leg broken in Henry James' brickyard, at the village of Delaware, by a large mass of clay falling on it, to recover damages for malpractice against Charles E. Morris, the surgeon who was called in to set the leg, and who attended the plaintiff from the 1st of September, 1899, the day of the accident, until the 18th of September, when the plaintiff was moved from Delaware to his home at Melbourne, a few miles away. There was an oblique fracture of the tibia and also a fracture of the small bone of the leg. There is no question that the man's leg is not right; there is an overriding of the bone. There was the usual conflict of expert surgical testimony. The plaintiff contended that the questions of disputed facts which should have been left to the jury were: (1) Was the fracture ever reduced? (2) What was the subsequent treatment; was tape measurement applied and was the proper splint applied? (3) Was the defendant relieved from the charge of the case? I. F. Hellmuth and D. W. Saunders, for defendant, showed cause. Reserved.

MR. ESSERY'S TRIBUTE TO N. C. WALLACE.

'Twill Be Hard to Find a Man to Occupy His Place.

They Were Warm Personal Friends and Intimately Associated in Orange Work.

Ex-Mayor E. T. Essery, who was a close personal friend of the late N. Clarke Wallace, was seen by an Advertiser reporter this morning, who asked him for a personal tribute to the memory of the dead statesman.

"Well," said Mr. Essery, "he and I were chums for 25 years, and I was associated with him in all the Orange and political movements undertaken by him in that time. I can only say that we do not know where we will get a man to replace him. When the Manitoba school difficulty arose the stand taken by him as grand master of the Orange Association of British North America, placed him on a level with Disraeli and other British statesmen. He was a patriot. No man in Canada sacrificed as much as he did for principle, and no man was stabbed as much as he was for this action. How many would throw up $5,000 a year and a place in the government for principle, as he did. I am proud that the men of the Orange Order stuck by him through thick and thin."

Mr. Essery's first news of the decease of his friend was received last night, in the form of the following telegram from Capt. Tom Wallace, son of the dead man, and a veteran of the South African war:

"Woodbridge, Oct. 8.

"Father died tonight. Funeral on Saturday at 2 o'clock.

"THOS. G. WALLACE."

Mr. Essery will go to Woodbridge to attend the funeral, more as a personal friend than in his official capacity as deputy grand master. Mr. W. C. Coo, another intimate of Mr. Wallace, will go in the same capacity. Among those who will attend as officers of the order will be John G. Gourley, county master, London township; ex-Mayor George Taylor, district master, London; the W. M.'s of local lodges and representatives of the Black Knights of Ireland, and other branches of Orangeism.

LONDONER NAMED FOR HIGH POSITION

Mr. W. E. Seaborn in Stiff Contest at Osgoode Hall.

Mr. W. E. Seaborn, a well-known London young man who is studying law at Toronto, has been nominated by the opposition party of the Osgoode Legal and Literary Society for the office of secretary of committees. His opponent will be Mr. G. H. Smyth, of Kingston, probably the strongest man in the progressive party. That Wallie will win on his popularity is a foregone conclusion.

The Great Turkish Rug Sale.

Mr. Neil Cooper will have at his auction rooms, 241 Dundas street, the finest collection of high grade Turkish and Persian rugs, carpets, portieres, embroideries, etc., ever imported to London before. The entire consignment, comprising some fifteen bales, will be sold by public auction, without reserve, commencing Tuesday afternoon, until all are sold. Mr. Chas. M. Henderson, the well-known Toronto auctioneer, will accompany the consignment and will conduct this important sale. Catalogues mailed on application. The goods will be on exhibition Monday previous to sale. Neil Cooper, auctioneer.

PERFECTING DETAILS OF ROYAL VISIT.

All Railroad Traffic Will Be at Standstill

During the Time the Royal Train Remains at London.

Active Preparations at the City Hall for Saturday's Reception to the Duke.

The city hall is a busy place today. As the time for the royal visit approaches preparations are being pushed with the utmost speed. It is hoped that by Saturday no detail of the reception will have been left unattended to.

Elaborate preparations are being taken by the various officials to insure the safety of the royal train on Saturday. Superintendent Jones, of the G. T. R., was in the city this morning, and announced that at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday morning traffic on the Grand Trunk within the limits of the royal route would be absolutely suspended, and would remain so until after the royal train had left London for the east. East-bound trains will be stopped at Komoka, west-bound trains will be held at Ingersoll or Dorchester. This means that excursion trains to the city on that morning must reach here before 10:30 or the excursionists will be detained en route, and miss their sight of royalty. The royal train will leave Toronto at 9 a.m., and is due here at 12:15, coming via Stratford.

The arrangement of the itinerary of the royal party is one almost inexplicable to the casual outsider. After leaving London on Saturday at 1:45, the train goes east to Niagara Falls, via Hamilton. After spending Sunday at the Falls, the party will come back to Woodstock and will stop there exactly five minutes. The G. T. R. has been put to the trouble of putting in a special "Y" at Woodstock to enable the royal train to turn. From Woodstock the train will proceed to Brantford, where a short stop will be made. From there the train returns via Hamilton to Toronto. The next day the party goes back to Hamilton.

Decorator Dyson has begun his work well by decking out the city hall in a manner that makes the old building a thing of beauty. In addition he will decorate the Collegiate Institute and both sides of Richmond street, from the station to Dufferin avenue, and Dundas street, from Richmond to Wellington street. He is receiving $750 for the work.

The decorative material for the G. T. R. Station, consisting of flags, bunting and evergreens, has arrived. The company have arranged to carpet the station platform from the center of the station, where the royal party will alight, to Richmond street. The carpet will be laid two or three yards in width.

The stand erected in Victoria Park for the exercises to take place there is almost completed. It is built in the open space north of the band stand, and is a substantial structure.

City Clerk Kingston is today sending out invitations and guest badges for the reception on Saturday. About 110 invitations are being issued. In addition all the members of the committee will receive badges, as will the press representatives.

Circulars are being sent out to the different school principals of the city, instructing them to have the school children assembled at their respective schools at 11 a.m. Saturday, and march to the Collegiate Institute, where they take up the places allotted them. The pupils of the institute and the children from the schools of ward 4 will be stationed on the Dufferin avenue side. The contingents from wards 2 and 3 will be on Waterloo street, and the Princess avenue side will be occupied by the pupils from ward 1 and the separate schools. The vocal exercises will consist of the National Anthem, and one verse each of "A Greeting to the King" and "Prince George," two new patriotic songs by Composer H. H. Godfrey, of Toronto.

DEATH CLAIMS GOOD WOMAN

Mrs. Florence M. Edwards Passed Away Yesterday.

Was a Member of Talbot Street Baptist Church and an Active Mission Worker.

A very highly respected resident of London died yesterday in the person of Mrs. Florence M. Edwards, widow of the late T. S. Edwards, of St. Thomas. Mrs. Edwards was 58 years of age and the illness which resulted in her death was of two years' duration.

The late Mrs. Edwards was born in Lobo, but was a resident of St. Thomas at the time of her husband's death about five years ago. Soon after she removed to this city, where she became very widely known for her many estimable qualities. She was an active member of the Talbot Street Baptist Church and an earnest mission worker.

One son and one daughter survive—Mr. A. T. Edwards and Mrs. Robert D. Kilgour, both of London.

The funeral, which will be private, will leave her late residence at 187 Oxford street, at 10 a.m., Friday, and interment will take place in the Lobo Cemetery.

Criminal to Suffer From Catarrh.
It is scarcely less than a crime to suffer from asthma, since a true specific, Catarrhozone, can be had from any druggist. This distressing disease can be cured in a few days by inhaling Catarrhozone as directed. It instantly kills the asthma germs, regulates the breathing and makes it easy, and eradicates the disease so thoroughly from the system that it never returns. Catarrhozone is speedy and sure, and the complete $1 outfit is guaranteed to cure, or your money back. Small size, 25c, from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.
HAVE YOU TRIED Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excresences, as many have testified who have tried it.

Blue Ribbon Ceylon Green Tea (machine-made, pure and wholesome) is becoming very popular and will soon displace Japan Tea.
Try it.

IN ONTARIO ONCE MORE!

The Royal Train Passed Rat Portage This Morning.

Arrangements for Staying a Few Minutes at Stratford and Orillia.

Rat Portage, Oct. 9—1 a.m.—The royal train passed here at 12:55 a.m.

RECEPTION AT STRATFORD.

Stratford, Oct. 8.—The mayor received word from Major Maude today to the effect that their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York would spend a few minutes in the city, while the royal train is en route to London on Saturday morning. The committee of the school boards have a programme in course of preparation, and it is the intention to give the children an opportunity of seeing their royal highnesses and to present them with bouquets. A short programme of songs will also be presented. The committee in charge of the reception has for its chairman Mr. G. G. McPherson, K.C., while Inspector Stuart, of the public schools, is secretary.

TO STOP AT ORILLIA.

Orillia, Oct. 8.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, having signified their intention of stopping at Orillia station for a few minutes, the town council have arranged to give them a fitting reception. The station will be gaily decorated, and a huge grand stand will be erected, on which fifteen hundred children will be seated, who will sing a welcome to the royal party. The train, containing the governor-general, Premier Laurier and others, will arrive at 11:06 Thursday morning, and the train containing the royal party half an hour later. A large influx of people from the surrounding country and neighboring towns is expected, and the citizens of Orillia will turn out en masse. Two local militia companies will serve as a guard of honor, also the Collegiate Institute Cadet corps, and the Citizens' Band will play national airs. A bouquet will be presented to the duchess by Mayor Tudhope's youngest daughter.

THE LIBERALS OF WEST ELGIN

Nominate Mr. A. McCrimmon of St. Thomas for the Legislature.

Large and Enthusiastic Convention—Excellent Prospects of Redeeming the Riding.

St. Thomas, Oct. 8.—Mr. A. McCrimmon, barrister, of St. Thomas, was today nominated by the Liberals of West Elgin to be their standard-bearer at the approaching elections for the local legislature. The convention was perhaps the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in the riding, the greatest unanimity prevailing. Two hundred and five delegates presented their credentials, within ten of the total number authorized representatives. Dr. D. McLarty, of St. Thomas, president of the West Elgin Reform Association, occupied the chair, and called the convention to order at 11:30 a.m., an adjournment being made to 1 p.m. to allow the credential committee — Dr. Bennett, of St. Thomas, A. McColl, of Aldborough, and W. A. Galbraith, of Dunwich—to meet and report. The greatest unanimity and harmony prevailed during the proceedings at the convention, and from the spirit manifested there is no doubt that West Elgin will be redeemed at the coming election for the Reform party and the Reform government. The following were nominated: Messrs. Donald Macnish, ex-M.P.P., of Southwold; A. McCrimmon, barrister, St. Thomas; A. D. McGugan, of Aldborough; G. T. Blair, of St. Thomas; Dr. D. McLarty, of St. Thomas; James Beattie, of Dunwich; Robert Ferguson, of Southwold; Peter Stalker, of Southwold; James Kains, of St. Thomas; Peter Stewart, of St. Thomas; Dr. Carscaden, of Dutton; C. St. Clair Leitch, barrister, of Dutton; Daniel Lang, of Aldborough; Frank Hunt, of Southwold; Dr. J. H. Wilson, of St. Thomas. All declined excepting Messrs. A. McCrimmon, of St. Thomas, and Peter Stalker, of Southwold. A vote was taken, which stood 107 for McCrimmon and 98 for Stalker. The vote was, on motion, made unanimous, amidst the greatest enthusiasm, and after speeches by the two candidates, and the passing of a resolution expressing confidence in the government, the convention closed with the usual cheers.

The differences which have existed have been healed, and the party is now a united one. With earnest work a victory for the Ross government is a certainty.

MAILS TO YUKON AND ATLIN DISTRICTS

Are Now Subject to Customary Winter Restrictions.

Postmaster Browne has been notified that the summer arrangements for the transportation of mails to and from the Yukon have come to a close.

The mails will be restricted during the winter months to the carrying of letters, postcards and a limited quantity of newspapers, preference being given to single papers addressed to private individuals.

Navigation to the Atlin district, British Columbia, is almost closed, and after its closing the mails to that district will be subject to the same restrictions as the Yukon mails.

PASSED 15 WORMS. I gave Dr. Low's Worm Syrup to my little girl, two and one-half years old; the result was that she passed fifteen round worms in five days.
