SPORT ON TRACK AND FIELD.

Trotting and Pacing at Homewood Park, Pittsburg—The Football Clubs Are Organizing.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 19.—The fall trotting meeting started at Homewood Park to-day, with an attendance of 2000 people. Just as the second heat had been completed in the 2.27 pace a rain and hail storm swept over the track, causing the event to be postponed until to-morrow. Results:

2.27 class, pacing—Hyannis won the two heats paced. Best time 2.19¼.

2.35 class, trot—Fulda won in straight heats, Patroness 2, Emma Wilkes 3. Best time 2.23¼.

2.16 class, pace—Charlie P. won first heat and Raven the next three and race, Tempest 3. Best time, Raven 2.15¼.

Turf Topics.

J. A. L. Strathy's chestnut gelding Mars won the Visitors' Handicap and open hurdle at Quebec on Tuesday.

The Keenes have offered Fred Taral $25,000 to ride their horses next season.

Martyrdom warmed up through the mud like a steam engine on Saturday at Gravesend, and her people from across the border played her strongly at good odds. She ran well for nearly a mile, when she had had enough.—N.Y. Sporting World.

The winter meeting at New Orleans, which begins December 9 and lasts 100 days, will be a very pretentious one, as there will be a large number of high-class horses there, including about 100 that will be sent down from the east. Pettingill will handle the starter's flag, Col. Simmons will be the presiding judge and R. O. Rankin will be at the head of the board of racing governors.

The C. L. A. Finals To-Day.

The finals for the senior championship of the Canadian Lacrosse Association will take place to-day at Rosedale, when Fergus, Brampton and Seaforth, champions of their respective districts, will meet. The first game will be between Brampton and Fergus at 10.30 a.m. In the afternoon the Beavers of Seaforth will cross sticks with the winners of the morning game. Two very exciting contests will be witnessed by those who visit Rosedale, and they will be amply repaid for the time required for attending both matches. The general admission to all has been fixed at 25 cents.

The Elms May Accommodate Them.

J. Neale, secretary of the Elm Lacrosse Club, 19 Denison-avenue, writes: "I noticed the challenge from the Lorne Lacrosse Club, Mount Forest, and if they will kindly address me, they might be accommodated with a match, as their challenge is rather ambiguous."

The Elms will hold a meeting to-night in Stanley Park. Members are requested to be present.

The Capital-Shamrock Referee.

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—Last week the Shamrocks proposed Messrs. Lally, Pollock and Brophy as referee for Saturday's match, but at a meeting of the Caps they were refused, and as the matter now stands the league will have to make the appointment. The Caps' strongest team will go down. Lacey arrived to-day and is certain to play.

Rev. Mr. Terry Will Go to the Northwest.

It is understood that Rev. F. W. Terry, who so ably captained the Canadian eleven against the Americans and also hit up a century himself in the recent international match, has been asked to take charge of a parish in Alberta, N.W.T., and has accepted the call. He will leave for the North west in the near future, and thus his services will be lost in the coming match with the Australians and many important events next year. Last year Mr. Terry was a teacher in Upper Canada College.

Varsity's Rugby Team.

The Varsity Rugby football team had its first regular practice last night. Nearly all the members of last year's teams will be on hand by next week. McQuarrie, Bunting and Parker are the only first team men who will not be in their places this year.

Enthusiasts name the second team as sure winners of the intermediate championship.

The combined practices of Varsity and Osgoode take place every day this week. Everyone is requested to turn out, as both clubs have great struggles ahead.

The Drygoods Football League.

The Wholesale Drygoods Association Football League has reorganized for the season with five clubs entered for the championship competition. They are as follows:

Caldecott, Burton & Spence, Wyld, Grasett & Darling, Samson, Kennedy & Co., W. R. Brock & Co., Gordon, Mackay & Co.

The Baseball Grounds have been secured and already the clubs have begun practice in earnest. The first scheduled games take place on Saturday, Oct. 9.

The Vantage Juniors in the Field.

The Vantage Junior Rugby Football Club held their opening meeting for the season on Monday. The following officers were elected: A. C. Proctor, president; P. D. C. Sutherland, treasurer; W. MacLeod Moore, secretary; W. Duncullin, captain. The club is now open to receive challenges for matches to be played after Oct. 1 from all clubs whose members' average age is 14. Address 26 Grenville-street.

The Canadian Rovers Organized.

The Canadian Rovers Association Football Club held their annual meeting last evening in Mr. Pearson's office. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President, Mr. Pearson; president, Mr. C. Musson; secretary-treasurer, W. H. Andrews, 1482 Queen-street west.

The Rovers will practice on Saturday afternoon on the Exhibition grounds at 2.30.

Nearing the National's Close.

The fight for the National League pennant is rapidly drawing to an end. Less than two more weeks remain in which the clubs are allowed to play their scheduled, as well as their postponed games, and, do what they may, none of them can overtake the Boston men.

As Boston is assured of the pennant, the chief interest now lies in the race for second place, among the Pittsburg, Philadelphia and Cleveland teams. The first-named has the lead now, and only needs to win a few more games to make sure of the place. In New York the enthusiasts are watching with interest the fight for fifth place between the Giants and Bridegrooms.

Yesterday the games resulted: Pittsburg 12, Brooklyn 5; Boston 4, Cleveland 5; Baltimore 4, Cincinnati 7; Chicago 6, Washington 7; Louisville 3, New York 0; Philadelphia 17, St. Louis 8; St. Louis 4, Philadelphia 1.

Bicycle Briefs.

Champion Hyslop returned to Toronto yesterday from Winnipeg, and turned out in the afternoon at Rosedale. He did a fast quarter.

Howell, the English cyclist, and his trainer, Robb, are coming to the United States. They will compete in the Cash Prize League races.

At the big meet in Springfield last week Sanger carried off prizes to the value of $900. He finished first three times and second and third once. Zimmerman was second with three winning mounts and finished third once. The prizes he won were worth $300. Tyler, Windle, Dinneberger and Bald came next in the order named. E. A. Banker secured a $25 prize for riding third once.

General Sporting Gossip.

The Prince of Wales Cups and Lansdowne Cups, with their respective prize flags, won in the R.C.Y.C. races by the Zelina, are on exhibition in the windows of J. E. Ellis & Co., King-street east.

Harry Carr of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association sprinted around the Rosedale track yesterday afternoon.

George Dixon has the call in the betting at Boston, and odds of 100 to 75 are being offered that he will defeat Smith.

Advices from London state that Thomas Sullivan, who is matched to row George Bubear, the champion oarsman of England, recently rowed the Thames championship course in very fast time. When he rowed James Stanbury for the single scull championship of the world he proved he was a fast sculler, for the race was anything but a procession, and Stanbury had to row for the first three miles all he knew how.

John L. Sullivan says the Corbett-Mitchell fight will be a great one and wants Corbett to win. He will witness the battle.

When a big delegation of New Yorkers visited the training quarters of James J. Corbett at Asbury Park the other day they found the champion playing outfield in one of two local baseball clubs that were engaged in a contest. He showed up strong at the bat and in the field and was liberally applauded.

The Victoria lacrosse team are beginning to think they can play quite a little lacrosse after all, and after beating Montreal and Toronto so easily the calculation is that they can give the present champions somewhat of a hustle.

WHERE CHARITY IS DISPENSED.

Meeting of the House of Industry Board Yesterday.

There was an unusually large attendance at the House of Industry Board meeting yesterday afternoon. Those members of the board were present: Rev. Messrs. A. J. Broughall, A. H. Baldwin and Alexander Gilroy, Messrs. T. H. Ince, A. MacMurchy, Charles Burns, Prof. Goldwin Smith, Warring Kennedy, Ald. Saunders and John Bailey.

The superintendent's report was read and approved. During the summer months there were 11 deserving persons admitted. There were nine departures and two deaths. There are 94 inmates at present in the home.

The outside poor have been well looked after, as 1035 loaves of bread and 483 lbs. of groceries were dispensed. There were 94 casuals admitted last month. The primitive method of heating large institutions by stoves will be eradicated this year and steam substituted.

Congress of Religions.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Interest in the several congresses at the Art Institute continues unabated. This morning in the Hall of Washington Prof. Max Muller, Rev. H. R. Haweis, Prof. Minas Tscharicz of Persia, and Prof. A. D. Bruce of Glasgow sat in a row and exchanged expressions of surprise concerning the size of the audience before them. The subjects discussed were widely diversified.

The Persian delegate spoke upon "Toleration," urging that the widest latitude should be given to the sincere advocates of every belief that pointed man to an upward condition.

"Greek philosophy and Christian religion" was the topic selected by Prof. Muller, who compared the two and illustrated wherein they agreed and differed.

Dr. Haweis spoke upon "Music, Emotion and Morals." Prof. Bruce discussed "Man's place in the Universe," while Prof. Sylvester Scovel in a profound paper discussed the question as to what constitutes a religious as distinguished from a moral life. Sessions were also held this morning by the congress of the Society of Friends of the Evangelical Association of North America and of the Evangelical Church. At each of these papers were read relating strictly to the work of the various denominations and their influence upon the Christian world.

THE NEW ANGLICAN PRIMATE.

THE BISHOP OF RUPERT'S LAND CAPTURES THE PRIZE.

The Most Interesting Action Performed By Any of the Colonial Church Organizations—Hitherto Unknown in Any Country Except England—The Synod to Prorogue To-morrow.

There was a smaller attendance of delegates at the synod yesterday than there has been on any previous day. The constitution seems to have been the topic on which most interest centered. This having been disposed of the visiting members consider their duties to their parishioners at an end, and they seem to think that it is at their own option whether they remain to take part in the remaining business or return to their homes.

All the bishops were present and met separately in the library of the college.

The question of appointing a committee of expenses came before the Lower House. That body considered the subject so general that they requested the presence of the House of Bishops.

The House of Bishops, accompanied by Secretary Rev. Dr. Pearson, bearing a number of important messages, appeared directly. The committees which had been appointed on Monday were adopted.

It was very evident that the messages which the secretary was intending to deliver to the prolocutor were more interesting than any other business which could be done.

The New Primate.

"The Metropolitans and the bishops enfranchised by the regulations adopted have elected Bishop Machray of Rupert's Land as Primate of the Anglican Church of the Dominion of Canada. He, according to the constitution, will be styled His Grace, Primate of Canada, Metropolitan of Rupert's Land, Archbishop of Rupert's Land."

This message was read to a satisfied audience. Everyone recognized the fact that a hero of the Canadian Church had merited the greatest prize which it was in the Synod's power to bestow.

The Archbishop of Ontario.

Another message declared that, with the concurrence of the Lower House, Dr. Lewis, the Metropolitan of Canada, would be created Archbishop of Ontario; and any future Metropolitan of a province would be as well Archbishop of the See of which he was bishop. The Lower House unanimously assented.

This creation of archbishops is probably the most interesting action performed by any of the colonial church organizations. England has two archbishops. Ireland likewise has two. No dependency, colony of Great Britain, or any other country, until yesterday has appointed an Anglican or Episcopal Archbishop. Canada appointed two yesterday. As soon as the separate dioceses of British Columbia are collected into a Provincial Synod and a Metropolitan appointed a third archbishop will be added.

In What Respect the Positions Are Unique.

The positions of the archbishops and archbishoprics in Canada are not at all similar to those in England or Ireland. Ontario is only an archbishopric while the present Metropolitan occupies his present position. When he vacates the See of Ontario, or ceases to act as Metropolitan of the province of Canada, Ontario will be merely a diocese.

The third message contained a telegram from the Governor-General thanking the synod for their kind welcome message.

After the bishops had retired to their own chamber the Lower House discussed the permanent orders of proceedings. It was decided that the deputy to the Primate will be the Metropolitan first in order of consecration.

Startling Democratic Ideas Promulgated.

Dr. Davidson and others expressed some very startling democratic ideas when Rev. Bedford-Jones claimed that it was the divine right of bishops to prorogue the synod. These views of Dr. Davidson prevailed, so that for prorogation there must first be compliance on the part of both houses. Then the Primate may prorogue.

The bishops made verbal amendments only in the "Permanent Order of Proceedings." They advised that the next General Synod be held in Winnipeg during September, 1896. The lower house agreed.

A committee was appointed to better organize the missionary work of the church. The bishops were directed to rearrange and enrich the burial service so as to adapt it for use under the altered conditions and climatic peculiarities of modern Canadian interment.

The synod will meet to-day at 10 a.m. at Convocation Hall. When they consider the minutes they will adjourn until 2.30 p.m. During the interval numerous committees will meet. The synod will probably prorogue to-morrow.

Foreign Mission Committee in Session.

Yesterday afternoon the Foreign Mission Committee of the western section of the Presbyterian Church assembled in semi-annual session at the offices of the society in the Confederation Life Building. Hamilton Cassels, the convener, occupied the chair, and among those present were Principal Grant, Principal MacVicar, Prof. Macfarlane, Rev. G. M. Milligan, Dr. Thompson of Sarnia, Dr. Moore of Ottawa, Dr. Bartley of Montreal, Mr. Burson of St. Catharines, Dr. Fraser of Leith, Dr. Wardrope of Guelph and Rev. R. P. McKay, the secretary.

The committee will sit for several days considering reports of mission work in Central and Northwest India. Over $100,000 is spent on this work every year.

The Passion for Alcohol.

Many curious stories are related of the tricks resorted to by patients in asylums to get hold of grog. One physician said: "I remember a patient that was very troublesome, one that we had in the retreat some years ago. She was going on fairly well, and one day I went up—the matron happened to be not quite alive to the tricks and devices of these women—and I found there had been some misconduct; there evidently had been some liquor got hold of, and I found that some curling tongs had been introduced, and upon this plea they had got some methylated spirit to heat them with, and it turned out that one lady had made a compact with two or three, and they got into their own room, by hook or by crook, and obtained hot water, sugar and lemon juice from one of the maids, and then made grog with these materials together with the spirit. I recollect in 1872, Dr. Anstie said he knew of a case of a patient drinking blacking because there was alcohol in it, rather than not have something alcoholic."—Expert Reports on Alcoholism.

Our Tallest Smoker.

The tallest smokestack in the United States, and perhaps, in the world, designed solely for the purpose of providing a draught for boilers, is at Fall River, Mass. It meets the requirements of the entire steam plant of the four new mills of the Fall River Iron Co. Some idea of its size can be had from the following figures, furnished by the contractor. From the top of the granite foundation to the cap is 350 feet; the diameter of the base is 30 feet, at the top 21 feet; the flue is 11 feet throughout, and the entire structure rests on a solid granite foundation—55 by 30—16 feet deep. In its construction there were used 1,700,000 bricks, 2000 tons of stone, 2000 barrels of mortar, 1000 loads of sand, 1000 barrels of Portland cement and the estimated cost is $40,000.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

USEFUL SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD AND FARM.

Many Suitable to the Season While Others Are Worthy of Careful Preservation.

A liquid that will cause solder to adhere to brass, iron and similar substances may be made as follows, says The National Druggist. Dissolve six parts of granulated zinc in twenty four parts of hodrochloric acid, and when effervescence ceases, add one part of chloride of ammonia. Then add two parts of alcohol. Keep the solution in a glass-stoppered bottle.

To Re-Japan Trays.

Old trays may be re-japanned by the following process, says a writer in The Technologist: First clean them thoroughly with soap and water and a little rotten stone; then dry by wiping and exposure to the fire. Next, get some good copal varnish, mix it with some bronze powder, and apply with a brush to the denuded parts. After which set the tray in an oven at a heat of 212 degrees to 300 degrees, until the varnish is dry. Two coats will make it equal to new.

Label Paste.

One of the best pastes for sticking labels on tin cans is made by mixing one pound of the very best flour with six to eight ounces of brown sugar. Boiling water should be used as with ordinary paste. If the labels are light in color this paste will be likely to stain them, and in that case white sugar may be used. It is necessary to make the paste every day as required for use, as it turns sour very quickly.

Non-Erasible Ink.

An ink that will resist all chemical agents may be made, says a German authority, by mixing 20 parts of caustic potash, 10 parts, by weight, of leather scraps, cut fine, and 5 parts of sulphur. Place in an iron kettle on a sand bath, covering the materials with water, and evaporating the mass until it first becomes dry and then by the continual heat again becomes pasty. The product is then dissolved in water, strained, and preserved in well-stoppered bottles.

Ink for Rubber Stamps.

From a German source the National Druggist receives this general formula for an ink free from oil for use with rubber stamps: Make a mixture of one part each of distilled water, white vinegar and alcohol, with seven parts of glycerine. For color add a little less than one part of anilin blue, methyl violet or losin.

Universal Insecticide.

Add an ounce of oil of cedar and one ounce of oil of wintergreen to 16 ounces of deodorized benzine. This may be applied with a brush to all crevices when bugs or insects are suspected, with most satisfactory results.

Destroying Parasites on Plants.

The following is recommended by the British and Colonial Druggist as the best preparation known for killing insect life on plants: Rub one pound of sulphurated potash as fine as possible, and mix it intimately with four pounds of soft soap. A large teaspoonful of this should be mixed with each gallon of soft water, and the plants well sprayed with the solution.

A Remedy for Toothache.

Melt white wax or spermaceti, two parts, and when melted, add carbolic acid crystals, one part, and chloral hydrate crystals, two parts; stir well until dissolved. While still liquid immerse thin layers of carbolized absorbent cotton wool and allow them to dry. When required for use a small piece may be snipped off and slightly warmed, when it can be inserted into the hollow tooth, where it will solidify. The ease produced by this simple method is really very great.

To Take Mildew Out of Linen.

Rub the linen with fine soap; then scrape some fine chalk, and rub it also on the linen. Lay it on the grass as it dries, wet it a little, and it will come out in twice doing.—Chemist and Druggist.

Treatment for Chicken Cholera.

The Pharmaceutical Era says that an excellent remedy for chicken cholera may be prepared by mixing one ounce of precipitated chalk, half an ounce of powdered caraway, and one drachm of carbonate of iron, adding sufficient syrup of poppies to make a mass. The diet of the fowls should be changed, white meat or rice being substituted for the usual food, and a small piece of the above mass crammed down the throat twice a day.

Application for Poison Ivy.

Add half an ounce of impure carbonate of zinc to two ounces of lime water and two ounces of glycerine. Apply the mixture to the inflamed surfaces with a piece of soft, old muslin.—Pharmaceutical Era.

Wash for Sunburn.

When the skin is red and inflamed the following application is said to allay the burning and give immediate relief. Mix one part each of carbonate of lead and powdered arrow root, two parts of olive oil, and eight parts of the ointment of rose water. Apply lightly to the surface.

Ointment for Red Hands.

After the hands have been thoroughly washed with an easy lathering soap and dried carefully, the ointment should be well rubbed in. This is made of two parts of Lanolin and five parts of liquid paraffin, to which 20 grains of vanillin and one drop of oil of Rosemary are added. The ointment is best kept in an opaque color tune, from which the contents can be squeezed out when desired.

Money No Object.

"I want a position," he said as he entered the office.

"I'm sorry," said the head of the firm, "but we really have no need of any men at present."

"Oh, that's all right," said the caller cheerfully, "I don't expect any salary. In fact, I'm willing to pay for the privilege of having employment."

"What kind of a position do you want?" asked the merchant in astonishment.

"I don't much care, as long as it's one degree higher than the typewriter and the office boy."

"Why those two particularly?"

"Well, you see, it's just this way," explained the caller confidentially. "I'm married and have one child—a boy. Now that boy won't mind me, and his mother just laughs when I try to exert my authority. So I've got desperate, and I thought if I could get a position where the typewriter girl would have to obey me and the office boy would have to get up and hustle when I spoke, it would sort of square me with my dignity, which is rapidly getting away from me. Wouldn't do anyone any harm, you know, and it would make me feel easier in my mind to realize that I was a man who had to be obeyed."—Chicago Evening Post.
