FOUR RIVAL INSURANCE AGENTS.

A short time ago, on the train between Windsor and Chatham, an agent for a leading Canadian company said to me, "Well, German, you have a magnificent company to work for." Within three hours, at the dinner table in Chatham, agents of two other good Canadian companies volunteered the remark, "German, if you can't get business, nobody can, for you have a splendid company." Their testimony is worth something.

THE GRIP IN OLD LONDON

Makes Its Appearance Early and May Become Epidemic.

The Racing Fever Calls Forth Protests From "Labby."

And Severe Criticism From the Lord Chief Justice.

People Who Ignore Doctors Held for Manslaughter—Serious Nature of Irving's Illness—Gen. Kitchener the Hero of the Hour.

[Special Cable Letter to The Advertiser.]

London, Oct. 29.—Influenza has made its appearance here early this season. Fifteen deaths in London are officially attributed to influenza and there are some apprehensions that it will assume epidemic form.

THE RACING FEVER.

The racing at Newmarket was again the occasion for big society gatherings. There was a record attendance at the Cambridgeshire, where lots of money was dropped on the Prince of Wales' Nunsuch, which was left at the post with Tod Sloan in the saddle. The racing fever of the last few weeks called forth protests from various quarters. Mr. Henry Labouchere, in Truth, referring to Tod Sloan, denounces "the nauseous jockey worship, which was such a discreditable and idiotic fever of the turf 20 years ago."

Lord Russell, of Killowen, the lord Chief Justice of England, in a speech, also decried this mania, saying: "They worship this god to such an extent that if Tod Sloan, supposing his nationality did not stand in the way, were to become a candidate for Epsom, it is doubtful if the present member would have a chance."

"PECULIAR PEOPLE."

The sad circumstances of the death of Mr. Harold Frederic, the London correspondent of the New York Times, has directed considerable attention upon the Christian Scientists, and especially upon the kindred sect known as the "Peculiar People." The number of deaths of children among the latter has become unpleasantly large. This week a coroner's jury found a member of this sect guilty of manslaughter of his son, 8 months old. A physician testified that the child's life could have been saved by an ordinary doctor, and is was shown that its parents had lost seven of their twelve children. Inquests were held on three of them.

IRVING'S ILLNESS.

Sir Henry Irving's illness is more serious than at first reported. He has already been confined to his bed, at Glasgow, for a fortnight.

PETER'S PENCE.

The Vatican authorities have decided to invest the Peter's Pence fund in a large sugar manufactory, and it is added that there are some misgivings in Catholic circles as to the wisdom of the Vatican again investing in a speculative undertaking, seeing that their last venture resulted in the loss of several million lire.

THE HERO OF THE HOUR.

Gen. Lord Kitchener has been overwhelmed with invitations since his return to England, but he is disposed to take a rest. He has been asked by two English publishing firms to write a book, and an American agent has been trying to get him to consent to a tour in the United States, but the commander of the Anglo-Egyptian forces has declined all these propositions.

The statement that Gen. Kitchener served in the French army during the war of 1870-71 was confirmed this week by an interview with his step-mother at Dinan. She said he had just received his commission in the British army, and went to France on a holiday visit to his father, who had settled at Dinan. Young Kitchener, in spite of the opposition of his father, who feared he would lose his British commission, joined the Dinan Mobiles, and set out against the Germans. At Laval he ascended in a balloon to reconnoitre the enemy's position, and caught a severe attack of pleurisy, which compelled him to return to Dinan, and cut short his career in the French army.

ROYAL GOSSIP.

According to advices received from the court of Copenhagen, where King George of Greece is staying, after attending the funeral of the Queen of Denmark, it is believe there that he will abdicate next spring in favor of of Crown Prince Constantine, Duke of Sparta, and will return to Denmark and settle there permanently.

The birth of a son to Prince Emanuel, Duke of Aosta, eldest nephew of the King of Italy, was a very important event for the house of Savoy, as, unless a change of circumstances occurs, he will sit on the throne of Italy.

SEVENTEEN OFFICERS PUNISHED

The talk of military circles, next to discussing the prospects of war with France, has been an extraordinary affair at the Hythe School of Musketry, resulting in the severe punishment of 17 of the 86 officers there. It appears that one of the officers incurred detestation by offensive boasting at the expense of a certain lady. A number of the other officers at first played a trick upon him as warning, and he complained to the commandant, who reprimanded the culprits. The brother officers of the objectionable officer thereupon determined to give him severe chastisement. They went to his room, destroyed all his uniforms, and then after having stripped him, inflicted corporal punishment. Several of the officers who took part in the affair have been dismissed from the school, and others have been punished in various manners.

WILLIAM'S EXTRAORDINARY UTTERANCE.

The French papers declare that Emperor William made the following utterance during his visit to Constantinople: "The French are an extraordinary people. When you see them separately, they are charming, but in a mass they are unbearable. They refuse to understand us. If we two were allies we should rule the world. Never mind, I shall end by forcing my friendship on them."

Odontine
(Cairncross & Lawrence.)

To the readers of The Advertiser this dentifrice is widely known, for its popularity has increased since it was first introduced, some twelve years ago. It contains no injurious properties, and is not only most useful in strengthening the gums and beautifying the teeth, but it purifies the breath and is very pleasing to the taste. In many London families Odontine is a standard article, and once used it enjoys increasing popularity, as its merits are appreciated.

TAUGHT A LESSON

A Charivari Suit in Which Each Party Pays Costs.

Barrie, Oct. 29.—Chief Justice Meredith had his patience exercised with a jury whom he had to send to their room three times before they brought in a verdict that his lordship could receive. The case on which they were deliberating was an action brought by John Woodrow, of Oro, against his cousin, Daniel Woodrow, to obtain $600 damages. It was shown in evidence that several young men congregated on a certain dark night to serenade a newly-married couple, but on the way a quarrel started in the company, the result of which was that the plaintiff's leg was broken by the defendant, though accidentally, the jury said. They awarded the plaintiff $1 damages because of blows he received after his leg was broken. The judge in ruling that each side pay his own costs remarked that he thought that the fair way, and after they had paid their lawyers they will have learned a good lesson.
