HOW CENSOR WAS OUTWITTED.

Ingenious Devices Resorted to to Convey Peace News.

London, June 2.—Some interesting stories are told in this morning's papers of the ruses adopted by correspondents to dodge the press censors in South Africa in letting their editors keep informed of the progress of the peace negotiations.

The Daily Telegraph, for instance, received from Mr. Bennett Burleigh on Whitmonday a cablegram with the words "Whitsuntide greetings."

When the despatch arrived without any official delay the first idea was that the transmission of such a message at full rates from the seat of war, was a somewhat superfluous demonstration of politeness.

A little reflection, however, seemed to indicate the significance of the particular season at which the sociable sentiment was expressed.

The editor turned, however, to the prayer book—knowing Mr. Burleigh is well acquainted with Holy Writ—and, reading over the Gospel for Whitsunday came upon the sentences: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you. Not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

"When we received Mr. Burleigh's message to his brother in Glasgow, returning—tell Lawson we felt," says The Daily Telegraph, "that the moment had arrived, and we might fairly take the public into our confidence."

The Daily Mail had a most ingenious arrangement which enabled that paper to be first by some days, even before its contemporaries, to announce peace was at hand.

The censor was apparently fairly duped by its cable despatches sent from South Africa. It was a simple device, purporting to send mining market news, whereas it was in reality a code telling all about how the peace negotiations were progressing.

Here is verbatim the first of a long series of cables:

"Regarding purchase gold farm Paxfontein. All necessary parties to contract now Pretoria, whither Alf gone get better price; have every reason believe vendors wish to sell."

The simplicity of the device renders explanation almost unnecessary. Of course, this particular instance was but an isolated success for a scheme devised to meet all possible contingencies, but it worked excellently. It barely needs translation, "Alf" is Lord Milner. The vendors are, of course, the Boers. "Paxfontein gold farm" is the correspondent's happy synonym for peace.

When The Daily Mail received a message that some of the Rand collieries had been bought for a certain sum, it knew peace was assured, despite the censor, and was able to announce ahead of the other papers that news was to be expected that the war was practically over.

Van Dusen Suspended in Austria.

Vienna, June 2.—An American jockey named Van Dusen of St. Louis, who rode Hazafi, the favorite in the Austrian Derby, which was run yesterday, was summarily and permanently suspended on charges of bumping and crossing. It is alleged Van Dusen endangered the lives of four jockeys. This decision prevents Van Dusen from riding anywhere in Europe and the United States. Van Dusen said to a representative of the Associated Press that he was at a loss to understand the charges, and asserted that his riding had been perfectly straight. The race was won by Eludur, an outsider.

ART DIRECTORS APPOINTED

J. W. Willard and Dr. Anderson Succeed James Dixon and W. F. Montague.

OPTIONS ON HOSPITAL SITE

To Be Secured By Board of Health—Various Other Meetings Held.

Hamilton, June 2.—The postponed annual meeting of the Art School was held this evening with President James Dixon in the chair. The reports presented at the last meeting were adopted, and the certificates won by students were presented to them.

Jams Dixon and W. F. Montague resigned as directors, and their places were filled by J. W. Millard and Dr. Anderson. Ald. Pettigrew was elected a director for three years. Charles Lemon and E. G. Barrow were appointed auditors.

The Board of Health.

The regular meeting of the Board of Health was held this evening. A special committee appointed to consider the scavenger system reported in favor of a rearrangement of the system, whereby there would be a semi-weekly collection during July and August. The report will be discussed at a special meeting of the board, June 16. It was decided to secure options on land for a site for the isolation hospital. Complaints were made about the unsanitary condition of Central Market. They will be investigated.

Markets Committee.

The Markets Committee had not a great deal of business to transact to-night.

Contracts were let for the fixing up of the offices in the City Hall to be used by the City Solicitor. The committee decided it had nothing to do with the carters "shally" on Vine-street.

Orders were issued to tear down three houses near the corner of Mary-street and King William-street belonging to the corporation.

Separate School Board.

At the meeting of the Separate School Board this evening Mrs. Jamieson was appointed caretaker of St. Ann's School at $15 a month to succeed Mrs. Best, resigned. C. F. Shields, caretaker of St. Mary's School, was given an increase of $5 a month, dating from June 1.

Daughters of the Empire.

At the meeting of the Municipal Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire this afternoon Mrs. Fessenden, the corresponding secretary, sent in her resignation. The members declined to accept it, and will ask her to reconsider it.

Hardware Men Met.

A meeting of hardware men, members of the hardware section of the Retail Merchants Association, was held here this afternoon, and considerable important business was transacted. Chairmen for seven counties were chosen.

Minor Mention.

There was a small fire at the corner of Cannon and Clyde-streets this evening.

Peter Mulholland of Corktown was arrested to-night on a charge of assault.

Edward Duffy, the popular proprietor of the Northern Hotel, dislocated his ankle last night while going down stairs to answer a telephone call. He will be laid up for some time.

After County Clerk.

Some of the Wentworth County Councillors are after the County Clerk with a sharp stick. For a long time some of the Councillors have felt that the clerk did not give fully enough reports to the newspapers, to "square them" for their big bills for time and mileage. In his efforts to make up for this in the printed reports of the doings of the Council, it appears the clerk supplied the printer with pages of the Ontario government's Good Roads Act. This made a good filler but the councillors found fault with it at the meeting of the Council to-day. The Printing Committee was instructed to look into the matter.

The Races To-Morrow.

With favorable weather Hamilton's society will be largely represented at the opening of the Hamilton Jockey Club's meet to-morrow afternoon. Secretary Clendenning reports the largest list of horses in the club's history, and everything points to a most successful meet.

Police Points.

In connection with the brutal assault on Miss Lizzie Irvine, Mary-street, on Saturday night, an arrest was made about 4 o'clock this morning. Arthur Hobbs, 324 North Wellington-street, was locked up, charged with attempting to commit an indictable offence. He was taken before the police magistrate, and as the Crown was not ready to proceed the case was enlarged till to-morrow.

Some Small Paragraphs.

Some person gave little Olive Thompson, Hughson-street, a gun to play with yesterday, and as a result Olive has a bullet in his hand that the doctors have not yet been able to find.

The engagement of John G. Gauld of the law firm of Nesbitt, Gauld & Dickson and Miss Sophie Vallance, daughter of William Vallance, is announced.

Dan McLeod, the well-known wrestler, has gone to Cleveland, where he will meet all comers this week. Next week McLeod will meet Champion Tom Jenkins, who will undertake to throw the local man twice in an hour and a half.

About one hundred feet of sidewalk and the same amount of fencing was burned on Woodbine-avenue, north of Kingston-road, last night. Had it not been for the work of about 20 men the damage would have been far greater. The origin is unknown.

James F. Johnson of Enderby-road died at St. Michael's Hospital on Sunday, in his 67th year. The deceased entered the service of the G.T.R. 50 years ago. He began his career as freight clerk on the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railway in April, 1852. On the Grand Trunk assuming control of the A. and St. L., Mr. Johnson was removed to the Quebec division as agent, where he remained some years. In 1856 he was transferred to the central division, between Montreal and Toronto, and was conductor of the first express train arriving in Toronto. After that time he served the company in different capacities, and in 1875 was offered and accepted the position of station master at Toronto. FOOD AND GIRLS.

Study Doesn't Hurt If They Are Fed Right.

Some time ago one of the ladies' papers published a long list of extracts from letters from mothers, speaking of broken-down school girls. True, overwork and too much confinement is largely responsible, but, on the other hand, if the girl is fed on the right kind of food to rebuild the daily waste she can stand more work and the matter of food is the real foundation of the subject.

A 17-year-old girl writes from Caro, Mich., about how a change in food helped her. "I am only a school girl, 17 years old, but I am old enough to appreciate what the wonderful brain food, Grape-Nuts, has done for me. About two years ago my health became very poor and I was unable to study, and finally obliged to leave school.

"I was put on Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food. In about three months I recovered my strength, my mind became much more clear and acute and I was able to resume school work.

"I continued to use Grape-Nuts until I discovered that I was getting too fat. I gained so much in weight that I had to discontinue it. It is the best food I ever heard of for building up a broken-down system.

"I have an aunt who went to India as a missionary, and while there she was ill four times with Indian fever, and became a mere skeleton. When she returned here her muscles were as flabby as could be. She was put on Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food and quickly recovered. Her muscles grew hard and firm and she entirely regained her health, has greatly increased in weight and never knows a sick day now. She is still eating Grape-Nuts, and says she would not do without the food for anything.

"I can never say enough in praise of your wonderful food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ask the cook to show you the recipe book in the package of Grape-Nuts.

TAX RATE IS 19 1-2 MILLS

City Council Concluded Discussion of the Estimates at One o'Clock This Morning.

LABORERS' WAGES INCREASED

Cut of $28,000 in School Board Estimates Sanctioned—Protest From Technical School.

The tax rate for 1902 is 19 1-2 mills. The City Council decided upon that figure at 1 o'clock this morning after seven hours of discussion of the estimates submitted by the Board of Control. The changes made were of but a minor nature, but there was a lot of vigorous discussion over a number of items, and but for the two-thirds majority necessary to defeat a recommendation of the Board of Control many changes would have been made. The only important addition to the estimates was $7500 to provide for a minimum wage of 20 cents for corporation employes. Other additions were salary increases of a minor nature, which were more than offset by $2000 taken off the bridge maintenance appropriation in the Works Department. The Council endorsed the board's recommendation to cut $28,000 off the School Board estimates.

Providing for the Future.

In reply to Ald. Urquhart Ald. McMurrich said that the sinking funds set apart were not sufficient to redeem all debentures upon maturity. When the debt was consolidated in 1879 the principle of a perpetual debt was adopted, and the sinking fund rate was made 3-4 of 1 per cent. This went on till 1889, when a policy of setting aside a sufficient sinking fund was adopted. There has been no change since.

Ald. Urquhart then asked what was the method by which the city expected to make up the shortage in the sinking funds created by the decreasing earning power of money.

City Treasurer Coady replied that a sufficient sum to meet such a deficit was being taken from the general revenues every year.

Public School Estimates.

In the Public school estimates the Board of Control had made a cut of $28,000 for repairs. Ald. Oliver moved that amount be reinstated, and Controller McMurrich, while regretting to go back on his confreres on the Board of Control, agreed with Ald. Oliver that it was folly to cut the estimates of the School Board in face of the existing litigation.

Ald. Loudon told the Council that it was on the advice of the Corporation Counsel that the amount was taken out of the estimates. In fact it seemed to be the only item that could be cut.

The Position Explained.

That some repairs would surely be necessary was the ground taken by Ald. Hubbard, and he thought the whole amount should not be deducted unless the board could do repairs out of money left over from other items. This view was shared by Ald. Urquhart, but the Mayor, in a brief and lucid statement, pointed out that, owing to the extraordinary attitude of the Public School Board in declining to meet with and defying the Board of Control when invited to a conference to arrange a little practical give and take, a strictly legal course had been the only means open for the oBard of Control, and, according to Mr. Fullerton's advice, the item for repairs was the only one that legal exception could be taken to. The question involved was not the necessity of repairs to the schools this year at all. It was simply the only means in the power of the Board to reduce the School Board estimates.

January Mentioned.

The Mayor contended that the amount was only 5 per cent. of the School Board estimates, and they should certainly be able to stand that much reduction in such an enormous sum asked. It was the only course open in the interest of the ratepayers, and at the elections next January he hoped to see candidates for school trustees in the field who would advocate the City Council revising the accounts they had to pay. The Mayor still had some faith that the School Board could and would revise their estimates to make up for the $28,000 for repairs, and seeing the reason of this possibility Ald. Oliver withdrew his motion.

Technical School.

The reduction of $2000 in the salaries for the Technical School Board, as well as the allowance for a $4000 grant promised by the Ontario government, was strenuously opposed by a deputation composed of Thomas Roden, representing the Toronto branch of the Manufacturers' Association; J. D. Allan, representing the Board of Trade, and R. Glockling of the Trades and Labor Council. These gentlemen impressed upon the aldermen the benefit of the school to Toronto, toward making this city an industrial centre. While in Toronto the cost per pupil was only $8 per head it was $50 in American cities. Toronto had 42,258 people employed in manufacturing establishments.

Ald. Urquhart's resolution to reinstate $2000 in the estimates was defeated by a vote of 12 to 8. The total reduction made by the Board of Control in the Technical School estimates is $5300, and now the total to be provided is $24,820, or an increase of 25 per cent. over last year's expenditures.

Government Broke Faith.

The Technical School has cost the city $200,000 in ten years, and the government has contributed but $1500.

The throw-down given to the Technical School by Hon. G. W. Ross was again discussed with warmth and at length. Ald. Loudon showed where Mr. Ross had, under his own signature, in 1899, promised that the government would give a grant of $3000 to the city if the school was built. Only $1500 was received so far. Political party feeling was the feature of the discussion, and the reduction to allow for the government grants remains in the estimates.

Too Much Overlapping

Ald. Spence said the existing state of affairs regarding the Technical School was in condemnation of the school system. He said there was too much overlapping and that before success for the Technical School could be hoped for the system must be reorganized. The expressed wish of the people that the school boards should all be amalgamated would systematize education and save an enormous expense.

Oliver Roasted Government.

With considerable energy Ald. Oliver, much to the surprise of the Council, roasted the Ross government. The salaries of magistrates, clerk of court, etc., were placed at $8700 instead of $7850 last year, and Ald. Oliver said this was an outrage. He understood that Toronto's police magistrate was stalking and talking thru England, Ireland and Scotland, and the city of Toronto was paying him and also paying an assistant appointed by the Ontario government without the city having any say whatever, excepting payment of the bills. He thought the least the police magistrate could do would be to pay his assistant while he was away, and he would recommend that the government be made aware of the feeling of the Council. After twitting Ald. Oliver considerably, the Council decided that they were powerless to do anything just now except pass the estimate and pay the money.

Salary Increases.

The first change to be made in the estimates was in the salary increases for the City Clerk's Department. The sum of $130 was inserted by Ald. Hubbard for additional salary for clerks, as recommended by the head of the department. The beneficiaries are Messrs. Smart, Sherrin and Allward, and the amount is salary from July 1 to the end of the year.

A Little Side Line.

When the increases of salaries for the Legal Department came up it developed from Ald. Urquhart that $3876 in fees, which the city could not take, had been divided somewhere in the Legal Department last year. He wondered who got it.

Engineer McCrae, Waterworks Department, gets a better salary raise than agreed by the Board of Control. His present salary is $1500, and the Board of Control allowed an increase to $1600, while the Council made it $1800.

Engineer Rust Was Refused.

A motion to raise the salary of Engineer Rust from $3500 to $4000 fell down, and so did another that the Engineer's salary be raised to $3800. In connection with the latter Ald. Spence said he would vote for no increast for the head of the department when for some reasons the Councils of Toronto had repeatedly refused to hold an investigation into the workings of the department when requested to do so. Ald. Woods, McMurrich and Hubbard said there was no cause for investigation, and the latter made serious charges against those who were making charges against the department.

Fire Brigade Salaries.

The salary increases for the fire brigade were carried as recommended by the Board of Control, that is on a 5 per cent. basis all round, officers and men alike, excepting that six assistant engineers will get an increase of $50 per year each. Many nice things were said about Chief Thompson and his brigade, but resolutions to give them substantial increase were turned down on economical grounds.

A supplementary estimate of $2500 for reconstruction of Berkeley-street fire hall was passed.

City Laborers' Wages.

Ald. Oliver moved that $7500 be added to the estimates, so as to provide funds for the increase of civic employes from 18c to 20c per hour.

Ald. Loudon wanted it formed some way that it would affect workmen for contractors as well as civic workmen.

Ald. Spence said that contractors would allow for the increase in the tenders.

The Mayor said it mean't not $7500 for the latter half of this year, but it mean't an annual expenditure of at least $50,000 a year when the increase in the cost of local improvements was considered. He thought the rate should be graded with a maximum of 20c. This would give the old men a chance for a livelihood. He made an earnest appeal for the man in the decline of life, who was being worsted by political motions offering gilded prospects for able bodied men from the country who would be chosen in preference to our own worthy citizens. He would have the opinion of all labor bodies on it before the motion was passed. The motion, he thought, was for political purposes only.

How to Get a Job.

Ald. Richardson laughed at the Mayor's "old man" sympathies, and said that wages made no difference. "Get a note from an alderman on some other pull or he can't get on the job anyhow," was Ald. Richardson's remark.

Ald. Oliver produced figures from the departments to show that his resolution would only cost the city $15,000 a year, and he resented the remarks of the Mayor to the effect that the resolution was for political purposes.

The Mayor explained that he had only meant municipal politics, and Ald. Oliver said that as far as he knew at present he had no idea of ever again asking the suffrage of the citizens. He felt sure the Mayor had never worked for 18c an hour.

They Will Ge the Raise.

Ald. W. T. Stewart told how he had once worked for 8c an hour, and it had been hard plugging along, but it could be done just as well then as it could now at 18c with increased cost of everything.

Ald. Dunn and Ald. Hall strongly favored the resolution, while Ald. Crane and Hubbard just as trongly opposed it.

The motion to give the civic laborers 20c an hour from July 1 carried on this division:

For (17): Ald. McMurrich, Graham, Loudon, Woods, Bell, Urquhart, Dunn, Hall, Oliver, A. Stewart, Spence, Fleming, Frame, Burns, Richardson, W. T. Stewart, Ward.

Against (6): The Mayor, Ald. Lamb, Crane, Hubbard, Curry.

HOW MONTREAL TAKES IT.

Holiday Will Be Proclaimed To-Day—Newspaper Comments.

Montreal, June 2.—Mayor Cochrane has proclaimed to-morrow a public holiday in order that loyal Montrealers may rejoice over two more colonies being added to the King's dominions. The news of peace came so late that it was only to-day that the commercial metropolis fully realized that the great war was over. Flags are flying in all directions, and Hon. George A. Nantel, who has temporary charge of La Presse, is the only man in the world who shares Paul Kruger's despondency. His article in La Presse is as sour as it is un-British.

On the other hand, La Patrie opens its article on peace with the exclamation, "The war is at last finished, praise be to God!" It then goes on to state that the three years' struggle has been disastrous for both parties, and, after pointing out some of the disadvantages for England, it concludes as follows: "But the British nation has reserves of strength and greatness to be found in her, especially in time of peace. She will soon repair the faults and disasters of the past three years. With her great practical sense, her experience of constitutional matters, her love for parliamentary liberties, she will do more with her political institutions towards winning the heart and mind of the Boers than her armies did with arms towards conquering their territory. The British regime is the regime of individual liberty, of religious liberty, of public liberty, of what Thiers called the necessary liberties. It was beneficial for the French-Canadians. It will be beneficial for the Boers. Moreover, the spirit of enterprise of Great Britain will bring in South Africa a new impulse and new studies that will surely captivate the Boers."

The Board of Trade also rejoiced with the rest, and at a special meeting, called at noon, the following resolution was adopted:

"That the members of Montreal Board of Trade hereby record their joy and thankfulness at the news from South Africa that the enemies of the empire have surrendered to our armies, as thereby the peoples of South Africa are assured the inestimable advantage of becoming citizens of an empire under whose flag justice and freedom everywhere prevail.

"That this meeting, while deploring the grievous loss of life among the soldiers of the empire, involved by the protracted military operations in South Africa, rejoices that the war, being beyond all question for a righteous cause, has so enlisted the sympathy of Canada and other colonies of the empire as to range them by the side of the Mother Country thereby realizing in fact, as well as in spirit, the solidarity of the British Empire."

The different regiments forming the Montreal brigade will celebrate the conclusion of the South Africa war and the proclamation of peace, to-morrow evening, when a big brigade parade will take place thru the city.

Mr. Recorder Weir exercised the executive clemency this morning by discharging all the prisoners on the list. He also gave the staff of the office a half-holiday.
