SCHOOL TEACHERS: You can easily improve your salary by devoting a very small portion of your leasure time to my interest. I do not expect you to canvas for my celebrated Beatty's Pianos and Organs unless you see fit to; but the service I require of you is both pleasant and profitable. Full particulars free.—Address, DANIEL F. BEATTY, Washington, N. J

FREE! Any person who will make and forward me a list of the names of reliable persons of their acquaintance who wish to procure an instrument, either Piano or Organ, I will use my best endeavors to sell them one, and for every Piano I succeed in selling to their list within one year, I will credit them with $10, and for every Organ $5, to be applied on payment of either a Piano or Organ; and when it amounts to a sum sufficient to pay for any instrument, selected at the lowest wholesale price, I will immediately ship the instrument, free, or after any amount is credited the balance may be paid me in cash and I will then ship them the instrument. They need not be known in the matter, and will be doing their friends a real service, as I shall make special offers to them, selling a superior instrument for from one-half to two-thirds what is ordinarily asked by agents. Please send me a list at once, and after you have made inquiry, you can add to it. Address,

PHILA., PA., July 8, '77.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

Dear Sir—The great benefit I have received from the use of Vegetine induces me to give my testimony in its favor. For several years my face has been covered with pimples, which caused me much annoyance, and, knowing it to be a blood disease, I consulted a number of doctors, and also tried many preparations without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking Vegetine, and before I had used the first bottle I saw I had the right medicine. I have used three bottles and find my health much improved, my humor entirely cured.

Miramichi Advance

CHATHAM, - - - - - AUGUST 21, 1879.

The Vice Regal Tour.

In the ADVANCE of last week we gave our readers an idea of the main features of the celebration in connection with the visit to St John of His Excellency the Governor General and Her Royal Highness, the Princess Louise. The closing event of their stay in St. John was a dinner given by His Excellency and Her Royal Highness, at Mount Pleasant, the guests at which were Hon. Attorney General Fraser, Mayor Ray, His Lordship, Bishop Sweeney, Rev. Jas. Bennet, Lt. Col. Foster, Warden Wm. Jack of St. John County and Dr. Wm. Bayard. The Freeman gives the following excellent summary of some other events and of the trip to Fredericton:—

On Saturday morning their Excellencies took their departure for Fredericton, previous to which, however——

Capt. H. W. Chisholm was invited to the Castle and thanked by the Marquis for the attention shown the Duke of Argyle when he passed through St. John some weeks ago.

Just before leaving also His Excellency and the Princess, through Mayor DeWinton, forwarded to the Major the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, to be distributed among the poor of the City, Portland and Carleton.

[Mr. and Mrs. Jones of the Park Hotel, under whose management their Excellencies' stay at the Castle was made so pleasant, were also the recipients of valuable presents, Mr. Jones receiving a gold breast-pin, bearing the monogram of the Princess and Marquis, and Mrs. Jones a handsome gold pencil case. The sum of Fifty Dollars was left with Mr. Jones to be distributed among the servants.

One other gift the Marquis made before his departure, a subscription of $50 towards the building fund of St. David's Church.

FOR FREDERICTON.

The Vice-Regal party were accompanied on the trip to Fredericton by Cols. Maunsell and Macahane, Judge Fisher, Capt. Perley and some members of the Local Government. On the way up a stoppage was made at Gagetown, where an arch had been erected, and where the school children sang "God Save the Queen," and the inevitable bouquet was presented. The Marquis made a brief speech in return for the pleasing reception, and the the Princess smiled her thanks. At various other places on the route arches and decorations were seen, and crowds flocked to the river's banks to see the Vice-Regal party in passing. At Oromocto Wallace Ross was out in his shell and rowed for a couple of miles with the steamer, affording the Marquis and the others a good opportunity of judging of his style,

AT FREDERICTON.

The steamer reached Fredericton about 6 o'clock, and the Vice-Regal party at once landed. Their reception was a most enthusiastic one, some accounts estimating the number of persons in attendance at ten thousand. A procession composed of members of the Government and Local Legislature, the local authorities and citizens, escorted the Vice-Regal party to Government House, where they were received by Mrs. Chandler, wife of the Lieutenant. Governor. and formally tendered the hospitality of the house. In the evening the Lieutenant-Governor gave a dinner at Government House. The distinguished party was composed of—

His Excellency the Governor General, Her Royal Highness, His Honor the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Chandler, Major DeWinton, Mrs. DeWinton, Capt. Harbord, Judge Weldon, Judge and Mrs. Fisher, Judge and Mrs. Palmer, Honorables D. Hanington, John A. Beckwith and Mrs. Beckwith, John Lewis, O. McInerney, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Blair, Robert Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Beveridge, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Colter. P. G. Ryan, F. J. McManus, T. F. Gillespie, G. S. Turner, J. S. Covert, J. S. Leighton, G. F. Hill, Thos. Cottrell, J. E. Lynott, Sheriff and Mrs. Temple, Joshua Chandler, and Capt. Drury.

The city was generally illuminated, and there was a display of fireworks in the evening, the arrangements for both being successfully managed.

On Sunday the Marquis and Princess attended morning service at the Cathedral, and His Lordship the Metropolitan preached an eloquent sermon, at the close of which allusion was made to the Vice-Regal visit. Their Excellencies remained at home the rest of the day and evening, except during a short time in the afternoon, when they went out for a stroll on the Hanwell road accompanied by Major and Mrs. DeWinton.

On Monday Morning the Marquis and Princess visited the Normal School and the University, and at noon they received the Addresses of the City and Municipal Councils at the Exhibition Palace. After this their Excellencies drove through the town and visited the House of Assembly etc.

A torchlight procession and a Drawing Room, which was well attended concluded the day's proceedings.

Before leaving Fredericton their Excellencies contributed $200 towards the relief of the poor of the city.

BACK TO ST. JOHN.

At 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning the Vice-Regal party left Fredericton. The run down was made in about six hours, and at 3.39 p.m. the party arrived at the Intercolonial Railway station, where a guard of honor of the 62nd Battalion and thousands of citizens were ready to receive them. His Excellency was dressed in a plain walking suit, and Her Highness wore the dress she had on when she arrived here. For about half an hour previous to the departure of the train their Exxellencies stood at the rear of the Palace Car conversing affably with a number of persons. The Mayor and Mrs. and Miss Ray paid their respects, and the latter presented the Princess with a bouquet. The Common Clerk, Col, Drury, W. Jack Esq., and Dr. Bayard were also present to bid the Vice-Regal visitors good bye, and the Princess shook hands with them all. At 4 o'clock, as the train moved slowly out of the station, an immense cheer arose from the assembled crowd, the Marquis and Princess standing in the rear of their car and acknowledging the hearty "send off."

AT SHEDIAC, PICTOU, ETC.

At Shediac, where the Vice-Regal train arrived in a little over two hours, a brief stoppage was made, and their Excellencies were conducted to a dais on the station platform, where they were presented with two very handsome bouquets, the school children singing the National Anthem. His Excellency responded in a neat little speech, saying:—

"Like the industrious bee he had to gather honey from many flowers, but from no fairer flower than Shediac had it been his lot to gather the honey of a warm reception. Situated by the shore of a beautiful bay, it had many advantages which both himself and the Princess earnestly hoped would repay them for their labors. He again thanked them for himself and the Princess for the warmth of the reception."

The party then proceeded to Point du Chene, where the steamer Druid was waiting to receive them. There was a large crowd at the station, but there was no formal reception. Lady Macnamara, who had arrived by the express train early in the day, here joined the party, and was warmly greeted by the Princess. Mrs. DeWinton did not accompany their Excellencies from St. John.

At 7 o'clock, exactly three hours after leaving St. John the steamer Druid, with the Royal Standard at the mast head, got under way, and their Excellencies were en route to Pictou, where they landed next day at 11 a. m. The Druid was accompanied by H.M.S. Griffin, and outside Pictou Light the Bellerophon and Tourmaline were passed. The U. S. war ship Kearsage was in the harbor, and as the Druid passed the crew manned the yards and saluted the Vice-Regal party. At the landing their Excellencies were received by the Mayor of Pictou and a guard of honor of the 78th Highlanders. At the Custom House the Marquis received and replied to the address of the Mayor and Corporation of Pictou. A procession was then formed and proceeded through the principal streets, after which the Princess returned to the "Druid" and the Marquis, accompanied by several gentlemen interested in the coal mines at Stellarton, proceeded by special train to that place. Accompanied by the managers and others, the Marquis descended the mine of the Halifax Mining Company.

In one minute the party descended nine hundred and fifty feet of the dark and dripping shaft. A special car was ready, on which the party were speedily seated, each with a lamp in hand, and strict orders to look out for heads. Then for half a mile they trotted along the gloomy tunnels until a sloping board was reached, when they alighted and walked nearly a quarter of a mile, with coal above, below, and on either hand. At last the end of the tunnel was reached and the party were then 1,100 feet under ground at the centre bottom of the new formation, and three-quarters of a mile from where they descended. A gang of men were working where they stopped. The Marquis was presented with a steel pick made especially at the works. A powerful blow resulted; a blast was made and four tons of coal displaced.

After partaking of lunch at the residence of Mr. Hudson, Manager of the Mines, the party drove to New Glasgow, where His Excellency made another impromptu address, expressive of his delight at what he had witnessed. The tug "Gipsey" conveyed the party back to Pictou, and at 9 p.m the "Druid" sailed for Charlottetown, where she arrived early in the forenoon of Thursday.

AT CHARLOTTETOWN.

There were some complaints regarding the conduct of those having the management of the reception, and by many it was regarded as a reflection on the Province that the visitors made the "Druid" their home during their stay at Charlottetown. Notwithstanding all this however, the reception was one of the heartiest accorded the Vice-Regal party anywhere. A number of very fine arches were erected, some of them it is said excelled any of those at either St. John or Halifax, and the people of all classes joined in making the reception a grand success. The proceedings were of the usual character: the presentation of addresses, a procession, torch-light procession, illumination, &c. &c.
