For Women

Hood's Sarsaparilla is Especially Adapted to Cure Difficulties Peculiar to the Sex

The restoring and invigorating properties of Hood's Sarsaparilla, combined with its power to vitalize and enrich the blood, render it peculiarly adapted for all troubles peculiar to women—that tired feeling, or debility caused by change of season, climate or life. Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished very gratifying results in many cases. Read the following:

"I was for a long time a sufferer from

Female Weakness

and tried many remedies and physicians, to no good pupose. One day I read one of the Hood's Sarsaparilla books, and thought I would try a bottle of the medicine. It made so great a difference in my condition that I took three bottles more and found myself perfectly well. I have also given to the children, and find that it keeps them in good health. I am willing that this shall be used for the benefit of others." MRS. SARAH MUTR, 308 16th av., So. Minneapolis, Minn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

THE WHEEL.

A RUN TO PORT STANLEY.

The London Bicycle Club will have a run to Port Stanley this evening, leaving the club house at 6:40 o'clock, arriving in St. Thomas at 8:05 and the Port at 9. They will return on the 9:30 excursion train. A large turn-out is expected. The members have a very cosy club house in their Picton street quarters. It is conveniently located, nicely furnished and thoroughly home-like. The membership is now nearly 80, comprising most of the best wheelmen in the city.

THE C. W. A. MEET AT SARNIA.

SARNIA, Ont., June 28.—The race meeting of the Canadian Wheelsmen's Association will be held here on Saturday, July 1, and Monday, July 3. The Sarnia Bicycle Club have done herculean work in connection therewith, and nothing has been left undone to assist in making it the greatest meet ever held under the auspices of the C. W. A. Every member has put forth his best efforts in preparing and arranging all the details. The track is a model of perfection, and it has been pronounced by the racers already on the grounds to be in perfect condition. All the committees have completed their work in connection with the management of the meet and for the comfort and amusement of the visiting wheelmen, and the only remaining anxiety is, will the weather be favorable? The entry list is enormous, and will require all the discretion and care of the officials. LAWN TENNIS.

THE ENGLISH LADY CHAMPION.

Miss Lottie Dod, the holder of the ladies' singles lawn tennis campionship, was born at Birkenhead in 1871, and is consequently now in her 22nd year. Miss Dod started playing tennis at the early age of 9, and she quickly picked up the rudiments of the game. In a year she was able to beat her elder sister, and only two years had elapsed when she ventured to compete in an open meeting, the Northern tournament, and won the ladies' consolation doubles with her sister. She continued to win prizes, and entered for the championship in 1887. She was only 16 years of age, and her defeat of Miss Bingley in the final came as a great surprise. She won again in 1888, and then retired for two years, only to take premier honors in 1891 and 1892. Miss Dod not only plays a very strong game, but never gets the least bit flurried, and to this much of her success is ascribed. She also plays golf well.

BASEBALL.

ALERTS VS. ATHLETICS.

Old Sol seems to have no particular liking for the Alerts. The game between them and the Athletics of Hamilton had just got nicely started yesterday afternoon when a heavy shower of rain brought disappointment to a big crowd of baseball enthusiasts on the old Tecumseh grounds. The Hamilton boys play pretty good ball. They had Mickey Jones, the left-hand pitcher of the old Tecumsehs, in the box, who with Ripley made a capital battery. The fact that Jones struck out Hiscott, Hynd and Hutchinson in succession is good proof that he is yet a star. The field work of the Athletics, though, was by no means equal to that of their adversaries. Handley and Weber were the battery for the Alerts, and, of course, did good work. "Doc" Sippi, who has been playing professional ball with a United States team for a short time, came home yesterday morning, and covered second base for the Alerts. His left wrist is weak, but did not prevent him from playing his usual excellent game.

In the Alerts' first inning Hiscott was struck out, Hynd made a two-base hit, was advanced to third on Hutchinson's single and scored with Hutchinson on Sippi's two-bagger. Player was struck out and Burton's fly to short stop retired the side, with Sippi on third base, minus a shoe.

Lavis went to bat first for the Athletics, made a base hit and stole second and third, where he was left, Jennings being caught out by Hiscott, and Griffin and Stoneman struck out. Neither club scored in the second inning. The third was going on nicely and the Alerts had added another run when rain ended the game. Score.

JOCKEY FATALLY INJURED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 28.—In the second race at Bay District track yesterday Cody jumped the fence after turning into the stretch and rolled on Jockey Rinstow, who was so badly injured that he died last night.

THE END OF THE COWBOY RACE.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Mounted on his pony Johnson, John Berry rode up to Buffalo's grounds at the fair entrance on Sixty-third street yesterday, and was greeted as the winner of the now famous race from Chadron, Neb. At Freeport he doned his other pony Sandy, which carried the rider a good share of the distance. At 11:05 p.m. Monday he passed through Dekalb, and continuing his journey reached Chicago suburbs shortly after daylight. Berry was far ahead of his associates. Smith and Gillespie left Freeport two hours behind him and Allbright was reported at Dekalb at 3 a.m. Tuesday. Berry was covered with dust, and with the perspiration rolling down his bronzed face and dropping on the neck of the jaded, mud-bespattered bronco that could not be urged into a trot. The rider was clad in a grimy white shirt, a pair of mud-colored yellowish jeans and wearing on his head a worn-out, timber-trimmed cowboy hat. Berry half tumbled from his saddle in front of Col. Cody's tent, so weak and tired that he was unable to rise to his feet or grasp the proffered hand of Col. Cody, who cordially welcomed the little man who had ridden 1,040 miles. Berry was hardly able to hold his head up and was supported through the crowd by two sturdy cowboys to the mess tent, where he was laid upon the sofa and stimulants given him, after which he was able to raise his red and swollen features to Col. Cody, asking him in a weak voice to "Please take care of my horse." This caution was unnecessary, for under the shadow of the grand stand stood the little chestnut stallion surrounded by a score of cowboys, who kept back the crowd and treated the noble animal like a sick infant, rubbing its joints with liniment, sleeking off the tired limbs and wiping out the parched mouth with a wet sponge, after which it was led slowly to the barn and given food and bedding that it was not slow in making the best of. After eating greedily of a peck measure of oats, the wiry little stallion lay down quite unconcerned.

Emmett Allbright came in second, arriving at 11:15 a.m. Allbright made the last 146 miles in 24 hours. His horse is in fairly good condition.

Joe Gillespie reached the ground at 1:35 p.m. He, it is said, is the real winner of the race, having complied with all the regulations. Smith arrived ten minutes behind Gillespie.

His Wants Were Few.

Tramp—Please, mum, would ye be so kind as to let me have a needle and thread?

Mrs. Suburb—Well, y-e-s, I can let you have that.

Tramp — Thankee, mum. Now you'd oblige me very much if you'll let me have a bit of cloth for a patch.

Mrs. Suburb—Well, here is some.

Tramp—Thankee, mum, but it's a different color from my travelin' suit. Perhaps, mum, you could spare me some of your husband's old clothes that this patch will match?

Mrs. Suburb—Well, I declare! I'll give you an old suit, however. Here it is.

Tramp—Thankee, mum. I see it's a little large, mum, but if you'll kindly furnish me with a square meal, mebby I can fill it out.
