BIG FIELDS AT ST. LOUIS TRACK.

Populist Among the Also Rans in Steeplechase at Hawthorne—Results and Entries.

New York, May 30.—A holiday crowd of record-breaking proportions enjoyed a good day's racing at the Gravesend races today. The sun came out and men and women turned out in spring attire. The grand stand was filled to overflowing and during the running of the races there was scarcely walking room on the big lawn. Twenty-five thousand was a conservative estimate of the attendance. An interesting card of seven races was run off, and seven favorites scored a record that has never been equalled on a holiday. The bookmakers got a drubbing that they will long remember, and regular and casual racegoers alike had money on the journey home. Two fixtures were decided, the Parkway Handicap and Bedford Stakes. Scratches reduced the first named to a three-horse race, with Sidney Lucas favorite at 9 to 10, and Carbuncle a strong second choice at 6 to 5. Spencer was on Sidney Lucas and made the early running, but going up the back stretch Brennan took Alsike to the front and showed the way into the stretch, when Sidney Lucas and Carbuncle passed him and fought out to the wire, with Sidney Lucas a winner by half a length. Lady Holyrood won the Bedford Stakes easily, making every post a winning one. Shaw, the jockey, took the riding honors. He rode three winners and one place horse in four mounts. Summary:

DISQUALIFIED FOR FOULING

Handicapper Bumped Glenwood, and Carruthers & Shields Lost the Race.

ADVANCE GUARD ROMPED HOME.

It Was All in Valley Farm Handicap When Books Made a Haul—Woodbine's Seventh Day.

Favorites fared about as well yesterday at Woodbine Park as on the two proceeding days. The day was gloomy, a mist falling during the sixth race. Oria at even money and John Ruskin at 3 to 5 were the straight first choices to score, tho in the event at the top of the card Racebud, at 7 to 2, finished first, Grandeur and The Covenanter being quoted at the same price.

The Carruthers & Shields' entry Advance Guard and Handicapper, started hot favorite, in the Valley Farm Handicap, that had five altogether sporting colors, and they were all supported one way or another. Advance Guard won in a romp, but as Jack Martin on Handicapper caused a mix-up, in which Glenwood threw his rider, the stewards disqualified the stable and gave the race to Moor. Uninterested spectators upheld the ruling, tho it seemed tough on backers of Advance Guard, while a part of the public that backed Glenwood scarcely had a run for their money, and wondered why all bets were not declared off. Messrs. Carruthers & Shields were highly incensed at the decision, and all the stable entries were ordered scratched and they will ship forthwith to Chicago. The accident occurred near the quarter mile pole, when Handicapper was leading, with Beguile a length behind, inside and Glenwood next by half a length, and on the rail. Spectators thereabouts say that Martin started the bumping, with the result that O'Connor went in the air. And that's the way it also looked to those in the stand and to Dan Murray, the form chart man. The race was a great windfall for the books. The money just poured into the boxes on the first and second chances, the one being disqualified and the other bumped out of business.

Californian, at 4 to 1, and Winepress, at 7 to 1, were the longest shots to win.

Racebud was a good thing in the first race. After the half she took the lead and kept it. Grandeur and the Covenanter were heavily played two ways. A hot tip from the stable on Omnibus put a great deal of play on him first and third, and he won third money after a hard drive. In the second race, Oria opened favorite at evens, and was played all over the ring by the talent and won handily. J. Patrick was played by the knowing ones for the place. He beat Transfer, who was third, a couple of lengths away. The bunch got off to a good start. The favorite had the race well in hand all the way, the others being strung out.

The third was a three-horse race. The favorite won all the money, coming away when ready and proving himself a race horse. Some played Berkeley on her last race, and, owing to the short price against the favorite. A few nibbled at Maple Sugar, who was favorite the running for the first part of the journey, but the distance was too much and she died away, while the favorite and Maple Sugar fought it out.

There were three horses in the jumping race, which was fairly well played, and even the outsiders, Jack Carey and Arquebus, were taken by some, while Daryl also had his supporters. The race was a nice one to watch. Daryl alone went down at the club house bank. Californian took the lead just before coming into the stretch and won easily, Carey getting the place under a heavy drive and all out.

The favorite players received a dump in the fifth arce. Altho Advance Guard finished first, he was disqualified and the second choice took the money. The stable opened favorite, even, and was heavily played, while a few backed Moor, at 2 to 1 and even for place. Glenwood carried a lot of place money. Advance Guard won handily and Moor beat Beguile in the last eighth for second place.

A hot tip made Cormorant favorite in the last race, and a barrel of money went in on him, while Silver Garter carried coin for the place, as did Tecklia, the latter being taken also to win. The start was a fair one and Winepress, who was played to show, came away the last 100h, and beat the favorite, who finished behind Silver Garter and Tipgallant, the latter tiring in the last eighth. The others were well out, strung out.

The decision with regard to Jockey Martin was a recommendation that he be suspended for three racing days for foul riding.

The following extract from the rules of racing covers the case:

Rule 108, sec. III.—If a horse or his jockey jostle so as to actually impede another horse the aggressor is disqualified, unless the impeded horse or his jockey was partly in fault or the jostle was wholly caused by the fault of some other horse or jockey.

Sec. v.—When a horse is disqualified under this rule, every horse in the race belonging wholly or partly to the same owner is also disqualified.

AL. WEINIG, THE BICYCLE BOXER.

Jim Galvin's Opponent for Saturday Night in the Rink Arrives Ready for the Fray.

Al. Weinig, the bicycle boxer, arrived from Buffalo yesterday afternoon, and is now comfortably quartered at the Grand Union. He talked glowingly of his recent trip in the South, where he engaged in many battles, losing only to Hart of Louisville, with whom he offered to concede everything for a return match.

Weinig was talking to Charlie Mitchell, the Englishman, yesterday in Buffalo, and found out that in Galvin he would face a tough customer. Weinig readily accepted John Bennett for referee, and as Matty Matthews has already accepted on behalf of the Irishman everything is complete in regard to the match. The reserved seat plan opened yesterday at Harold A. Wilson's and indicates a splendid attendance Saturday night in the rink.

Babe Thomas v. Charlie Godwin, 5 rounds, and Jim Smith v. Pat Kelty, 8 rounds, are training carefully for the preliminary bouts.

Caught a Long Shot.

One man down at the races yesterday was happy and proud because he had got a "long shot." He wore a light check suit, which he had got from Archambault, the tailor, for a small outlay of fourteen seventy-five. It fitted him perfectly. He thought it was easier money than the bookies gave out, because he had the goods. Archambault is making up suits at $14.75, and the best-looking trousers in this city for $3.75. The time to call in and see him is now, as he may soon change his mind on these prices.

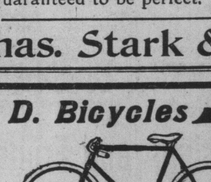
E. & D. Bicycles



The great reason for the goodness of the E. & D. bearings lies in their four-point idea. The only opening on the bearing is at the centre of the cone. The oil cannot run out, because the cone forms a trough in which the oil stays. The dust is prevented from entering the bearings by the use of felt washers. These bearings have stood the tests of six years. You do not buy an experiment, but an assured success. Write for Catalogue.

McEachern Was Beaten.

Boston, May 30.—At Charles River Park this afternoon Jimmy Nelson did some brilliant bicycle riding, defeating Albert Champion an even mile, and Archie McEachern by 2 1-3 miles in the 25-mile motor-paced race, his time being 39.08 3-5. Champion's time was 41.34 2-5, and McEachern's 44.57 3-5. Champion added to the excitement of 4000 people by falling, and only the aid of a spare motor tandem saved second place for him, when McEachern's sole available motor had gone wrong. McEachern was the favorite, for he rode lap after lap without pace, cheered to the echo.
