Still No Necessity for Grumbling.

Editor World: Kindly grant me sufficient space to reply to Mr. East's letter of the 15th inst. I fear, indeed, that my head must be "sand covered," for I cannot see in what respect the ostrich simile applies to me, for, personally I have nothing to hide. I agree with Mr. East that it is "healthful for the citizens to know where they stand," but when a gentleman of Mr. Goldwin Smith's ability makes an error in our civic debt of five and a half millions, it is evident that the knowledge of City Hall finances among our citizens is of a very vague nature. Without expressing satisfacton with the personal standard of all our aldermen, I claim that there is no occasion for the system of general grumbling in vogue at the present time. Until we make up our minds to give honor where honor is due, and to show our gratitude for services well and cheerfully rendered, we cannot hope to entice the best men of the city into our Council. As directors of our banks, loan companies, Board of Trade and charitable institutions, we find the names of some of our most respected business men. Why do they absent themselves from our Council chamber, electon to which should be the highest mark of esteem to be shown by our citizens? Simply because they feel that they will be appreciated and treated fairly in the first instance, while as councillors they will be cartooned and vilified by newspaper reporters and correspondents on the slightest pretext, and in return for heavy sacrifices of time and energy will be regarded as "tainted" even by their friends. With financial problems no less in magnitude than those of the province there would seem to be great risk in depending upon "three commissioners." On the other hand, by elevating the honor of the position there is no reason why we should not have 24 representatives, each equal to any commissioner it would be possible to select. How would it do for the Ratepayers' Association to call upon the following gentlemen, asking them to offer themselves at the next election? Edward Gurney, W. R. Brock, Stapleton Caldecott, S. F. McKinnon, P. W. Ellis, W. K. McNaught, Richard Brown, N. W. Hoyles, W. B. Hamilton, James Scott, John I. Davidson, Hugh Blain.

The presence of these twelve gentlemen, coupled with a like number selected from the best of our present representatives, would give to us a body not equalled by any city, state, or province on this continent. Let us hear from Dr. Barrick.

H. K. S. HEMMING.

Wheelmen and Good Roads.

Editor World: Your esteemed evening contemporary takes me to task as a juvenile journalist and muddler in municipal matters, and you kindly take up the cudgels in my defence. I note that we are indebted to that journal for the first good road in Toronto, which I presume is correct, coming from such a venerable source, and we wheelmen are devoutly thankful therefor and would like each newspaper in Toronto to add another "good road" to its credit.

The writer did not intend to convey the idea that he wanted a Board of Aldermen elected who would begin the second week in January and rip up the certire city for our benefit, as he is aware of the fact that the people must pay a very large share of such improvements from the fact that he has paid his share of local improvement tax into the City Treasury, but he could not see why a properly conducted City Council or Department of Works could not keep the present roads in proper repair, as the people have paid for the construction of a "good road," which is so badly built that it will not last nearly as long as the debt against the people. Our block pavement roads are a crying shame to such a prosperous city. Take our widest thoroughfare—Spadina-avenue. It is almost impossible for a wheelman to ride upon it with the exception of the devil strip, and south of King-street it is almost impassable. Wellington-street, which could be utilized as a bicycle thoroughfare is a patch work quilt in roadmaking, every other block from Yonge-street west being either perfection or exceedingly bad. This street in particular would relieve King-street W. 50 per cent. In further support of my argument it still appears to me that if wheelmen cast their votes for business men who pledged themselves as "good roads candidates," the effect would be felt in our city before many years. It cannot be done with a rush, but time will work wonders and may even enable your esteemed evening contemporary to see that there are people who will make mistakes as well as

"NO WHEELS IN OUR HEAD."

Terrors of the Gorge Railway.

A Toronto gentleman who spent last Sunday at Niagara Falls, Ont., called at The World office yesterday and stated that on last Sunday morning or during the previous night a very large avalanche of rock fell on the American side, about 100 yards east of the elevator on the Gorge Railway, which carried away 40 feet of the track. The rock which fell carried away both the sleepers and the irons towards the edge of the river, and on Sunday some 50 workmen were employed in repairing the damages. Traffic on the Gorge Railway was not resumed until late in the day.

The proprietors of Parmelee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmalee's Pills for Dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a cathartic.

Ontario Veterinary College.

The opening lecture at the commencement of the session of 1895-96 of this institution was delivered by Prof. Andrew Smith, the principal, yesterday. An intelligent class of students who came, not only from all parts of the Dominion of Canada, but also from Great Britain, and many from the United States, were present, who listened with marked attention to an interesting address containing much good advice to students on the commencement of their studies.

Running Sores Cured.

Dear Sirs,—I was troubled with running sores on my face which nothing could cure up to the time I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, but after taking two bottles my face was completely cured, and it left my flesh clear and sound.

VISIT TREMONT HOUSE, FRIDAY and SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8 and 9,

Henry A. King & Co. received the following despatch from Chicago:

The wheat market has been rather quiet to-day. The opening Liverpool cables came quiet, but steady. Private cables are quoted lower. Northwest receipts materially smaller to-day, 820 cars, against 917 same day a year ago. Clearances were again liberal. The market fluctuated a little over a cent. We have nothing to add to our previous opinions regarding wheat. It looks to us to be a purchase around 60c. New York was a liberal buyer of wheat around 61c.

Corn was steady, and closed about same as the opening. Primary receipts were again large, 538,000, against 196,000 same day a year ago.

Provisions fractionally lower to-day on very little business. Receipts large.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately-flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point.
