FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION RECALLED

QUESTIONED BY THE DEFENDING OFFR

- Q. What provision is made for awakening the next for duty on gd.
How many are on guard at one time?
- A. One.
- Q. How is the next man for duty notified for his turn on guard?
- A. It is not a guard, it is a picquet. The guard on at the time awakens the guard that is to relieve him.
- Q. There is an NCO IC the picquet?
- A. There is one who details the picquets and if anything happens he is the one to be awakened.
- Q. He is not necessarily there?
- A. Thats right sir.
- Q. What time was Foster to relieve Crowe?
- A. At 1120 (2320 hrs).
- Q. Did Gnr. Crowe try to contact Foster so as to be relieved from duty.
- A. I was out then and when I came back Crowe was still on gd, he said he didn't think Foster was able.
- Q. Was the NCO IC the Picquet there?
- A. No sir.
