Why Not Work for Yourself?

Why depend upon a job? At the end of five years or ten years what have you—just a job! Get in business for yourself and be independent—then you won't have to worry about being fired when times are slack. You may have some money saved up, or if not, you may have a house you can sell, or a friend with some capital to invest. Think this over seriously now at the beginning of a new year and consult us freely for information as to business openings. Service free to buyers—a small commission charged sellers: no sale, no charge.
