THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Meeting of the General Assembly at Kingston.

Eloquent Sermon by the Moderator—Rev. Dr. Wardrope Elected as Successor to Rev. Dr. Laing.

KINGSTON, June 10.—The Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada began its session to-day, a large number of members being present. Despite the subdued excitement in the city, while awaiting the funeral cortege of the dead Premier, a goodly number of Kingston people assembled in St. Andrew's Church to listen to the moderator's sermon. Among those present the Hon. Oliver Mowat was observed. The retiring moderator, Rev. John Laing, D.D., delivered a most eloquent discourse from the words: "But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, when he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men."—Ephesians, iv., 7-8.

Dr. Laing in resigning expressed his thanks for the honor done in appointing him to the moderatorship and for the forbearance extended him, and asked for nominations for his successor. Principal Caven and Dr. Wardrope were nominated. At Dr. Caven's request his name was withdrawn, and a vote having been taken Dr. Wardrope was declared moderator for the present year. Dr. Wardrope thanked the Assembly for appointing him to the moderatorship, and remarked that, with the aid of the venerable clerks and the forbearance of the members, he would endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best of his ability and without fear. The thanks of the Assembly were unanimously tendered Dr. Laing for his conduct in the chair and his excellent sermon.

After some discussion it was agreed that a small committee be appointed to frame a resolution of sympathy with Lady Macdonald and the bereaved family of the late Premier. It was also agreed to adjourn at noon to-morrow until evening.

VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.

Wrong Time for Sight-Seeing.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

The recent action of the London City Council in appointing itself as a body to go to Ottawa, where nobody would hear or care of their arrival, was a flagrant breach of the confidence placed in them by all classes of taxpayers. A municipal body would do fully as much honor to our lamented Premier by sending one or two members as by sending a dozen. It is a most wrongful jaunt. The entire expense is born by the already overburdened ratepayers of this city. The queerest feature, to me, is that the city clerk was added to the deputation, though such an action was not authorized by the Council. If any of the city employes were added, why take a man who a month or two ago desired more salary and a young assistant because he was so much overworked? If one city employe was taken, why not the city treasurer, the city engineer and all the men employed out of the public purse, even to the school teachers? Some Londoners imagine they have a discreet and sensible Council, but there is cause for weeding out, and it should be done. Yours,

A LIFE-LONG CONSERVATIVE.
