SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Baseball.

A CANADIAN LEAGUE?

Says the Toronto Empire:

"A Baseball Crank" writes suggesting that Detroit, London, Toronto, Hamilton or Kingston, Ogdensburg or Bay City, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N. B., or Halifax, N. S., and Portland, Me., would make a good International league. It wouldn't be a bad idea to include Winnipeg and Victoria or Vancouver, B. C., and then the Dominion would be well and worthily represented.

The Ring.

John L. Sullivan has this to say of Peter Jackson: "I saw him spar with Ashton in Boston, but it would be a difficult matter for me to advance an opinion of Jackson's pugilistic abilities from such an observation. I think he is a very clever boxer from what I saw of him, but that is all I can say."

ABOUT SLAVIN.

Following is a private letter received by George W. Atkinson of New York:—

LONDON, January 22, 1890.—Frank P. Slavin, the champion of Australia, has been the fistic hero since Peter Jackson sailed for America. * * * Slavin will not start for America until he has celebrated his nuptials. After that joyous ceremony he will journey to New York with John Lewis, his manager, and put up a forfeit in the Police Gazette office, and issue a challenge to fight any man in the world for £500, the Police Gazette champion belt, and the championship. Regarding Peter Jackson, Joe McAuliffe and Jake Kilrain, Slavin says that he does not desire to meet them while there are any prospects of his arranging a match with John L. Sullivan, because he is well aware that to battle for the championship he must meet the holder of the belt which represents that title, and for which two of the most important battles in prize ring history have been fought. Slavin adds that he is seeking not only wealth but fame, and should he succeed in defeating John L. Sullivan he would gain a pot of money and any amount of glory. On his arrival in America he will try his utmost to win the Police Gazette champion belt in a business way, and after he puts up a forfeit and issues a challenge through a proper channel, he will expect the American champion to either fight for the championship or forfeit, and should Sullivan pursue the latter course, then he will claim the belt and defend it against all comers, according to the rules governing the belt and the championship.

COUNTERS.

Jem Smith is still in the ring, and when Slavin leaves for the United States he will challenge any man in England.

The London referee states that Smith and Jackson "cut up the £1,000 purse given by the Pelican Club, Jackson taking £600 and Smith £400.

Jack Dempsey is looking finely and weighs close on 160 pounds. He has been training for several days.

From private sources comes the information that Peter Jackson and his shrewd manager, Charles E. Davies, cleared £4,600 by their visit to England.

Jack McAuliffe, champion lightweight of the world, and Jimmy Carroll, of Boston, have signed articles for a fight at the California Athletic Club, March 20, for the championship, a purse of $3,000, and a side bet of $5,000.

John L. Sullivan and Joe Lannon fought three three-minute rounds on Friday night in Newark, N. J., before a large crowd. Sullivan was not in condition, being very fat and sluggish. Lannon fought vigorously, compelling Sullivan to exert himself.

Board of School Trustees.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of School Trustees was held yesterday afternoon. An application from Miss Jessie Caird for appointment was ordered to be placed on the application book. Miss Kate R. Bartlett's application for increase of salary was referred to the committee on teachers and salaries.

The report of City Superintendent Hayes showed that 45 teachers had been absent through illness; that eight additional teachers had been employed and that the daily attendance of pupils had been greatly below the average. Four of the evening schools were closed at the end of January.

Annual reports were also read by Inspector W. S. Carter, the secretary and superintendent.

Miss Mary J. Dougherty, a second-class teacher, was appointed to the regular staff, and was placed in charge of standard 3, boys, in St. Peter's school.

The committee on lands and buildings were instructed to have a wire fence placed in front of the Centennial building, Brussels street, at a cost of $130.

Interesting Session of Western Star District Lodge.

The district secretary reported 35 initiations during the quarter. The receipts reported by the district treasurer were $11.43, and the expenditures $11.76. There was in his hands $16.68. The D. C. T. Wm. L. Waring, addressed the lodge, giving a statement of the efforts of No Surrender lodge to have the Scott act enforced in Fairville and the following resolution was passed by a unanimous vote:

Resolved, That this district lodge, having heard the statement of our D. C. templar in reference to the attempt of the people of Fairville to enforce the Scott act in that town, and would express its pleasure in hearing that two convictions have already been secured. This meeting, having heard with surprise and indignation the methods used in the other cases to defeat the ends of justice being carried out, would express in the strongest manner possible its deep sympathy with the friends of temperance in Fairville in their efforts to secure the enforcement of law and order, and this district lodge pledges itself individually and collectively to do all in its power to assist in any way our brethern in Fairville in their undertaking.

The committee on the state of the order recommended that public temperance meetings be held through the district.—Adopted.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the same room under the auspices of the district lodge. D. C. T. Waring presided and stirring addresses were made by Rev. Thos. Marshall, Calvin Powers, Ald. Baskin and others.

THE SEARCH CONTINUES.

An Unsuccessful Search for Andrew Cowie's Body—One of the Searching Party narrowly Escapes Drowning.

Mr. Wm. R. Avery, who has been assisting in the search for the body of Andrew Cowie at Sussex, returned to this city last evening. In conversation with a GAZETTE reporter he said that every effort is being made for the recovery of the body. Early Sunday morning the search was begun and the work has never lagged since. Last night arrangements were made with Mr. Tribe, one of the searching party, and a man who has had some experience in that line, to superintend the work, while a gang of men were also engaged to continue cutting the ice and dragging the stream. Besides these, all along the road volunteers are at work, with poles and grappling irons.

The stream in which Mr. Cowie was drowned, known as Trout Creek, is at ordinary times only a small one, but Saturday's storm raised the water some four or five feet. Half an hour before the unfortunate man went over the bank the heavy ice had run out, and it is now thought that he was carried under the ice in one of the numerous coves along the course. The bank in question is several steps from the road and is almost perpendicular. On Monday an experiment was tried in order to test the direction and force of the currents. A figure properly loaded was sent over the bank. It shot down; struck on the rocks and was whirled about by the waters, going rapidly down stream for some little distance, when it was caught by another current and carried into a cove. It was caught again and carried into several of the pools. Each one of these was dragged, but without success.

The theory, however, is a good one, and the searching party will continue to act upon it.

The first dam in the stream has been thoroughly dragged, ice of considerable thickness being cut out. The men are now at the second.

Those who are at work are satisfied that the body could not have drifted below Sussex, which is about eight miles from the spot where poor Cowie disappeared.

But another difficulty has arisen.

The storm in that section of the country on Saturday was almost unprecedented in its fury, and the force of the waters brought great quantities of soil—gravel and sand,—down the stream, which has in many places filled up the pools hitherto existing. At the same time new hollows have been delved out, and the fear is that the body may have been in this way covered with the soil. Notwithstanding the difficulties, however, the searchers are working steadily and practically.

Mr. R. H. Simonds is now at Sussex, where he is watching the work. This morning Mr. M. B. Edwards left for that place where he will remain for some time and render whatever assistance is in his power. A number of young men of this city, friends of the deceased, have volunteered to go to Sussex, for a few days at a time.

Yesterday one of the searching party narrowly escaped drowning in the mill pond where they were cutting ice. He slipped into the water, and so great was the current that he was almost sucked under. His companions seized him in time to avert the calamity.

FIRE.—The house of James A. McKay, of Graham's Road, P. E. I was burned to the ground with all its contents on Sunday morning, 2nd inst; between 3 and 4 o'clock. Mr. McKay heard some noise, and he otonce jumped out of bed to ascertain the cause, when, to his horror he found the house one mass of flames. His first act was to break out a window and carry the inmates to the barn half naked, In less than ten minutes after the fire was discovered the house had fallen in and was a heap of burning ruins. The origin of the fire is unknown.

THE OLIVER EMERY SAFE.—The steamer Amsterdam which arrived at Boston Feb 10th. from Amsterdam reports that in lat. 45.14 long. 48.14 she supplied the bark Oliver Emery of this port with provisions. The Emery reported that she had been in pack ice 30 hours and was damaged in the hull and lost a piece of her stern. She was leaking slightly but did not require any assistance. The Oliver Emery sailed from Dublin for this port Nov. 23rd and a good deal of uneasiness has been felt for her safety.

NEW RIFLE RANGE.—Efforts are being made to secure a new range for the P. R. A. annual matches. A fine location is offered, on the property of Mr. Fairweather, a short distance from Sussex station and the executive committee think the range can be well equipped for about $1,000.

This range would be convenient for the troops when in camp, and it is felt that the government should lend some aid towards the funds required to equip it the same as was done in Nova Scotia.

CARNIVAL THIS EVENING.—The carnival at the Victoria rink this evening promises success in every way. Large numbers of young ladies and gentlemen have their costumes ready and the scene this evening at old Victoria will be as interesting as ever it was in years past. Prizes of $10 each to the lady and gentleman best representing the character assumed will likely attract a large number of masqueraders, and also invites some originality in the costumes.

GOT HIS MAN.—Yesterday afternoon Detective Ring captured Geo. Brown, one of the boys concerned in stealing a purse from the store of J. K. Cameron, King street. The detective found the boy at Springfield and brought him to town in the evening. Brown is still in the cells at the police station.

THE COTTON STRIKERS.—J. G. Wolger, manager of the Magog factory, Quebec, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon. He is endeavoring to arrange with the striking weavers of Park's factory to go to Quebec, where enployment is offered in the Magog factory.

THE PORTIA.—A cablegram from St. Kitts was received to day at the office of Mr. George F. Baird which reads as follows:—"St. Kitts, Feb. 12th.—Portia due 19th." This is taken to mean that the Portia is due at this port on the 19th and no doubt this is the correct interpretation.

ARTICLES RETURNED.—The articles stolen from the schooner S. K. F. James by Charles Richard were returned to Captain Burnie of that vessel today.

MRS. WEEKS is now able to be up about her room and will likely be taken to her home when the steamer Stanley is ready to go on the route.

A GOLD WATCH was found yesterday, by some boys while searching through the Sinnott house West end.

WALTER SCOTT'S Dry Goods Store is open every Monday until 10 p. m. Special bargains are now being offered in our corset department.

The secretary's report summarized the work of the institution. One hundred and fifty-two religious services were held during the year, with 21 professed conversions. Reference was made to Rev. E. M. C. Botterill's Sunday afternoon bible talks. Tracts were distributed during the year to the number of 20,000, and 72 educational classes, exclusive of the Chatauqua circle held.

Reports from the physical culture, music and reception committees were accepted.

President H. J. Thorne made a brief address.

Thanks were extended to the press for its favors, to the ladies who had assisted in the work for the past year, and to contributors to the funds and rooms.

The following officers for the ensuing year were then elected: W. Shives Fisher, president; Geo. A. Henderson, recording secretary; J. M. Lawrence, corresponding secretary; E. L. Whittaker treasurer; G. N. Hevenor librarian; J. B. Allan, assistant librarian; S. L. Gorbell, Alex. Watson, G. Mitchell, J. E. Barnes, C. E. Macmichael, J. O. Miller, Joshua Clawson, A. H. Literary Notes.

The Prose Damas of Henrik Ibsen, from the press of John W. Lovell Company, are meeting with hearty favor. Ibsen is eccentric and peculiar to a high degree, but nobody doubts his genius.

Frank F. Lovell & Company will soon issue a new novel from the pen of Gertrude Franklin Atherton. The work is one which will show that an absorbing interest can be created without resorting to the tricks of Edgar Saltus and Amelie Rives Chandler. Mrs. Atherton has demonstrated her ability to write a sensational story in "Hermia Suydam." She now shows the versatility of her genius in a work where the story flows as sweetly as a mountain brook and as refreshingly.
