To the $20 Men

IF you can't afford to pay more than $20 for a suit of clothes, your only logical course is to buy from a house that will not sell a poor suit of clothes at any price. You will find that Hickey's $20.00 Suits are not the kind of suits that you ordinarily expect to get for $20.00. They are better—they cost more to make—they are sold at less profit. They are equal to any $25 suit sold in Toronto, and in many instances they are worth more. It is your right to have this surprising statement proved, and we'll prove it in detail if you'll give us a chance.

OUR $20 Clothes are guaranteed clothes—you run no risk in buying them. If you don't say they are the best clothes you ever bought for the price, you can get your money back for the asking. Suits strictly "ENGLISH" and others less so—every one smart to the very letter of the term. Be sure and see these $20.00 suits, you who would know what this men's store is doing these days.

WANDERERS PLAY QUEBEC TOMORROW

NEW YORK, March 21.—The flashy brilliancy of Les Canadiens hockey team of Montreal could not stand up against the clever combination play, hard checking and swift shooting of the skaters of the Wanderers of Montreal in the second match of the series at St. Nicholas Rink last night. The Wanderers won the two night's play by a total score of 15 to 9, the result of last night's match being 8 to 3. A big crowd saw the game and enthused over a match that was brimful of action, marvelous skating and more or less rough hockey.

The Wanderers, by winning last night, are now in line to play the Quebecs at the rink on Tuesday and Wednesday lights for the annual purse of $2500.

The line up follows:

Les Canadiens (9)—Vezina, goal; Dubeau, point; Corbeau, cover point; Bawlf, centre; Laviollette, right wing; Pitrie, left wing.

Referee—Cooper Sweaton, Wanderers of Montreal. Assistant referee—C. Garon, Hockey Club. Timekeeper—W. J. Croker, New York Wanderers.

SPORT FEATURES

The three Hamilton papers have somewhat similar special features on their sport pages that bring gentle readers back to the dear old days of the Cherry Sisters. These ladies were famed on the stage twenty odd years ago on account of their crudeness, and they were much sought after by astute managers. Artistically they were the limit, but great from a box office standpoint. There were three of them, each worse than the other if that were possible, and also so bad they were good. Their names were not "Cold Slaw," "Crab Salad" and "Overlooked by the Censor." These are the successes referred to above that keep up the circulation in Hamilton and sure also have their merits as per the following extracts from Saturday's editions:

FATE OF POOR LUCY.
Cold Slaw in The Times.

There was a girl in Kalamazoo,
Her name was Lucy Luce;
They turned poor Lucy out one day
And now poor Lucy's loose.

EVEN THEN WE MISS IT.
Crab Salad in The Spectator.

I honestly can't begin
To tell of all the folk
Who send a contribution in
And underscore the joke.

SLOW WORK.
Overlooked by the Censor in The Herald.

I sat for hours and penned but This—
Would a pennant for Hamilton
Come amiss?
