ROSS LEADING OWNER AT CONNAUGHT PARK

Ottawa, July 13.—Commander Ross was the leading winner at the Connaught Park spring meeting, and pouched $2490, mainly thru the running of his horse Princeps, who won $1515. The Seagram stable came next, with $1700. Dr. Joe was the second money-winner, taking down $1400 for J. S. Tyree. Frank Munroe, one of the most inconsistent horses on the Canadian circuit, was third, with $1200 to his credit, and Irish Jig fourth, with $825.

Little Richereek, the diminutive pilot, who is continuing his good riding on other tracks, was leading jockey, with seven wins to his credit, six seconds and four thirds. He was unplaced ten times. Jimmy Butwell was second, with six wins, six seconds and nine thirds, but he was accorded some of the best mounts at the meeting, and they carried him to his position. Little Yearglass had four meritorious wins to his credit out of twelve mounts. The rest did little to attract attention. Borgan led the steeplechase jockeys, with two wins, and G. R. Allen topped the trainers' list, with five wins.

The following statistics are informative and give a line on the track: Twenty favorites out of forty-nine races were returned winners, which is about average. There were thirteen winning second choices. Sixteen outsiders came home at lucrative odds. Nine odds-on choices rewarded their backers, while eleven disappointed their backers. The percentage of winning choices was 41.

RACES ARE TRANSFERRED.

On account of bad track conditions the Guelph dates, July 31 and Civic Holiday, have been transferred to Kitchener. Kitchener will race four days without a ship, two next week and the Guelph dates on the following week. Altho the Guelph club offered the city $250 as their share to put the track in racing shape, they could get no satisfaction. Autos have run wild on this track and left nothing but stones. Besides the loss to merchants it means a good loss to the city as the meet following at Welland necessitates shipping over the Guelph Junction Railway, and the fifty horses following this circuit would pay in over $[illegible] in freight alone. Over 4,700 passed thru the gates at Guelph's last meet and racing is very popular up there.

OFFICIALS VISIT SHORT SHIP.

W. A. McCullough, Gee. McCall and Chas. Snow, of the Canadian National Trotting Association paid a visit to Galt races Friday and Saturday of last week, and expressed satisfaction at the way the meet was conducted. Besides these officials many Toronto sports that follow the harness horses, spent two days, Gossett Bird, the Toronto trotter, won the 2.30 trot on Saturday.

TWO FROM BRANT.

Brantford, July 13.—(Special)—Brant county will have two entries in the Hamilton Herald round the bay course, the winners to be selected for the Olympic marathon race at Antwerp. Both Brant entries are Indians, Fred Douglas, who has been known as Charlie Smoke, and who has been living down east, was the winner of the St. Catharines marathon on May 24. The other entry is Norman General, both of these runners have been in tow of Arthur O. Secord of this city, and much is expected of them. Douglas has recently come back to the county, where he has inherited a farm.

OVER TO NEWARK.

New York, July 13.—The Fred Fulton-Harry Wills heavyweight boxing bout, originally scheduled for decision in this city next Thursday, has been transferred to Newark, where it will be staged on July 26. The inability of the International Sporting Club to secure a suitable arena for the bout, combined with the present indefinite status of the new state boxing law, has caused the change. Upon the completion of the new club house the club will stage future contests in this city.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

Tonight's game at Greenwood Park in the Riverdale Senior League should be worth going to see. Royals and Simcoes hook up and Simcoes are out to get even for the defeat handed them by Royals last time out. Manager Reesor has signed four new players, who should strengthen the R.C.B.C.'s. He will work Dunlop, a new pitcher, and the Simcoe pitcher will be Van Evera. The game is called for 6.30 p.m.

Tonight's game in the City Amateur League at Riverdale Park between the Park Nine and the Beaches will be called at 6.30 sharp. Woodgate or Hawkins will pitch for the former team, while O'Connell or Rutledge will be in the box for the champions.

The Wednesday evening twilight game between Moose and Monarchs should be another close affair, as both teams are fighting for third place in the league race. The last two games between these two resulted in 7-to-4 and 2-to-0 scores, and, this being their fourth meeting, the Moose expect to even matters up by sending their speedy pitcher, Mulhern, to the mound, with Soden receiving. Both Moose and Monarchs gave the two leading teams a big scare last Saturday, and, as these two are keen rivals, and very evenly matched, an interesting game will be the result. Cup, Farrell of Monarchs will select from Gamey or Sinclair to hurl, with Nichol behind the plate. The game will be started as soon after 6.30 p.m. as possible.

CIVIL SERVICE LEAGUE.

What had been a close game between Postoffice and Police turned out to be a runaway for the former, who scored five in the seventh. Holmes of Police was the big hitter of the day, with two singles and a triple in four attempts. Miller and Armstrong's hits produced two runs for Police, as did Holmes' first single. Wilson, Moran, Dunn and Eckler all hit hard for Postoffice. Buchanan and Gardner did some heady baserunning. Dodds of Police pulled off one of the best catches seen in the Civil Service League this season when he robbed Wilson of Postoffice of a sure triple or homer with the bases full on the latter's hit to left-centre. The game Wednesday, between Letter Carriers and Ontario Hydro, precedes the twilight game in the Western City League between Moose and Monarchs. Score:

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN LEASED BY RICKARD

New York, July 13.—Tex Rickard, boxing promoter, announced last night that he had leased Madison Square Garden for a period of ten years. "RINGER" CASE IS AIRED IN COURTS

Detroit Man Claims the Painted Horse of Ottawa Fame.

JUDGMENT RESERVED

Ottawa, Ont., July 13.—Judge McDougall, in the Hull superior court this morning, reserved judgment in the case of Fred Bamford, of Detroit, against the Connaught Park Jockey Club and Mr. Fred Journeaux, collector of customs for the port of Ottawa. This action follows the sensational case at Connaught Park on Monday, June 21, when a horse, running as Little Boy, but alleged to be a "ringer," won the fourth race. E. F. Moore, who was in the jockey club's books as the owner; Staff Doyle, his trainer; E. Farrington of Detroit and J. Richings, Detroit, were all expelled from Connaught Park and denied the privileges of all Canadian jockey clubs, subsequent to the race, it being alleged that they had painted the horse, which ran here, to resemble Little Boy.

This morning Fred Bamford of Detroit, produced a bill of sale from E. F. Moore, stating that he had bought the horse, Little Boy, from Moore at Detroit, on July 1. He demanded that the thorobred be turned over to him.

Mr. Paul Leduc, representing the Connaught Park Jockey Club, produced an affidavit from the secretary of the club, giving his reason for holding Little Boy. It stated that the horse had been dyed and that the stewards of the Canadian Racing Association to whom Moore admitted that he did not own the horse, had ordered his confiscation, pending action against Moore, who immediately disappeared.

It was decided to have experts place a valuation on the horse, Bamford's bill of sale places it at $1,000, while Jockey Club officials swore the animal was worth $4,000.
