CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, May 7—One of the largest and most enjoyable functions of the season took place from 3 to 5 on Tuesday afternoon of the week, when Mrs. F. W. Napier and Mrs. R. K. Shives were joint hostesses at an at home at the handsome residence of Mrs. F. W. Napier. In-doors the house was lavishly decorated with white carnations, sweet peas and ferns. In the drawing room the table was very beautiful, having lace centre piece and d'oylies, the floral decorations being pink sweet peas and ferns. Brass candle sticks held pink candles with the same colored shades. Mrs. H. H. Lunam poured tea, Mrs. Thos. Malcolm poured cocoa, and Mrs. George G. Glennie served the ices. The young ladies assisting with the refreshments were Miss Isa Cameron, Miss Tessie Lingley, Miss Emma Mowat, Miss Jesie Moore and Miss Etta Mowat. Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie ushered. An event of pleasing interest to a large circle of friends and acquaintances occurred in Christ church last Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Wenona Barbarie, daughter of Mrs. O. A. Barbarie, to Mr. R. J. Sandover Sly. Rev. J. E. Purdie performed the ceremony. Owing to recent death in the bride's family the wedding was a quiet one. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. John Barbarie, looked happy and attractive in a brown tailored suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Sophie Benson, of Chatham, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a navy blue suit, black and white hat and carried pink and white carnations. Mr. Claude Brown supported the groom. Miss Jessie Moore played the wedding march. The church was very prettily decorated with potted plants and ferns by the girl friends of the bride. The happy couple left on the Ocean Limited for Montreal and Toronto and on their return will reside in Campbellton. Among the many handsome presents received was a purse of $50 in gold from the congregation, and a Bible from the rector, wardens and vestry.
