DEPOSITORS AGAIN PRESSING CLAIMS

Losers in Farmers' Bank Are Taking Case Up At Ottawa.

Burgessville, Feb. 16.—At a well-attended meeting of the depositors of the defunct Farmers' Bank here in the Oddfellows' Hall, S. R. Wallace was elected chairman, and W. H. Kneale, secretary. The chairman referred to what had been done in the past to bring the matter before Parliament.

Donald Sutherland, M. P., who had been invited to attend the meeting, went into the matter at considerable length, explaining the case as it had come before the House prior to the war. He stated that although there had been many changes in the House since the vote was taken, it was uncertain how the new men would vote. However, the fact that the bill passed the House before with a majority of 35 made their case stronger than it was in the first instance. Mr. Sutherland promised to do everything in his power to assist the depositors.

J. M. Butchart was elected a delegate from this branch to go to Ottawa in the interest of the depositors.

At the close of the meeting a vote of thanks was tendered to Donald Sutherland.

The stockholders of the new milk plant are having a meeting on Thursday afternoon in the I. O. O. F. Hall to discuss plans.

FINED FOR USING ABUSIVE LANGUAGE

BLENHEIM, Feb. 16.—Mac. McLeod came before Magistrate Whitten-Gron and pleaded guilty to a charge of using profane and abusive language in a public place in town, but defended a charge of being intoxicated at the same time. Crown Attorney Smith of Chatham prosecuted. There was a crowded courtroom, and many witnesses were called. It was proven that the language was very vile, and there was no occasion for it. The defendant admitted the language, but claimed that he spoke in his ordinary way. Witnesses for the prosecution differed as to whether or not he was drunk, and the magistrate, while stating it was hard to account for such language, said he would give him the benefit of the doubt. He fined him $20 and costs, $13.70, on the first charge, the fine being the maximum allowed by the bylaw. Defendant, in the box, admitted drinking near beer after 2 o'clock that morning.

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It.

In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-Acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely, and such a painful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment," for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it, and it has proven itself to be that long-looked for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it, One Dollar, but understand I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer, when relief is thus offered you free. Don't delay. Write today.

WILL NOT ISSUE CORK REPORT

Lloyd George Tells Commons Fire Inquiry Not To Be Published.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Mr. Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons tonight that the Government had decided it would not publish the report of Major-General Strickland on the investigation into the Cork conflagration last December.

In the debate which followed the speech from the throne, former Premier Asquith attacked the Government's Irish, Mesopotamian and financial policies.

The prime minister, in reply, contended that the Irish rebellion was being effectively dealt with. He also announced that the much-discussed report of Major-General Strickland, in command of the troops in Ireland, would not be published, although he admitted that one company of "Black and Tans" had been dissolved because of the part they took in the burning of Cork and the subsequent looting.

At the opening session of the House of Lords the Prince of Wales took the oath, being present for the first time as a member. Lord Curzon, secretary of state for foreign affairs, spoke at length on the general conditions in Europe, which he declared were undoubtedly brighter and more hopeful than a year ago. With reference to trade with Russia, he said: "Everyone believes that in economic arrangements lies the real chance of recovery for the eastern parts of Europe and Russia."
