WEST LONDON LADY VOTED, AGE 86

Insisted on Going to the Polls to Swell Alderman Beattie's Majority.

A West London lady, 86 years of age, cast her vote on Saturday for Ald. Beattie as mayor.

There is quite a story in connection with it. She was operated on for appendicitis after she was 80 years of age, and after a long illness finally recovered. A year or so after that she fell on the street, breaking her hip. Her life was despaired of, but she did recover. When voting day came round, she insisted on going out to vote for Ald. Beattie as mayor.

"That is a compliment I cannot fail to appreciate," said the mayor-elect. "Her story is a remarkable one. I am going to send her a personal letter, thanking her most sincerely for her vote."

Miss Emma Scott, of Norwich, is spending an extended visit with her cousin, Mrs. William Taylor, 26 Kensington street.

A sum of money and personal notes await an owner at the home of Mr. William Garratt, 123 Wilson avenue. They were picked up on Blackfriars street in West London a few days ago. Luckily, the parcel fell into honest hands, or probably some person who could ill afford to lose it would be minus perhaps hard earnings.

A West London lady entered a polling booth in the west end on New Year's Day, and the following conversation took place between the lady and the deputy returning officer:

"Good-day, sir. I want to vote for Mr. Pocock."

"Yes, lady. Which one? You know, there are two Mr. Pococks running."

"All I know is I want to vote for Mr. Pocock, and if there are two of them, I will vote for both. May be they are brothers, and one might be a better man than the other, so I will vote for all the Pococks."

The officer smiled, but politely instructed the lady in the art of marking her ballot. She voted for the two gentlemen named, and left the booth quite happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Finlay and little son Kenneth, jun., left for their home in Ottawa yesterday afternoon, after spending a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Elner, Surrey Place, Wilson avenue, West London.

Mr. James Scoyne has completed and is now occupying his new brick cottage on Surrey avenue, West London.

Miss Hazel Keenan, of Mount Pleasant avenue, who is ill in Victoria Hospital, was slightly improved yesterday.

"Oh, to be young again!" said an old gentleman, as he crossed the Dundas street bridge yesterday afternoon and gazed down on the river, where a number of boys had built a bonfire and were enjoying a skate on the clear, hard ice. Much enjoyment is taken out of the pastime by both old and young these evenings on the river. Lanterns are hung around on long poles, which furnish the illumination. The boys have now one of the best open-air rinks to be found anywhere.

The congregation of St. George's Anglican Church, West London, gathered on New Year's Eve in the schoolroom, the occasion being the silver wedding of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Sage. Mr. C. W. Nichols read an address tendering congratulations of the members of Dr. Sage's Church, and also expressions of their appreciation of the work of both Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Sage during the past 21 years. Mr. A. H. Jeffries, on behalf of the entire congregation, made the presentation, which consisted of a gift of silver, also a very handsome clock. Dr. and Mrs. Sage both made suitable replies. Refreshments were served, and the gathering broke up, after wishing each other a happy new year. The people's warden, Mr. F. G. Turville, was unavoidably absent.

Balsamic Essences

MAKE WONDERFUL CURE FOR CATARRH, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, THROAT WEAKNESS.

To cure an ailment in the throat or chest, to rout out Catarrh or Asthma, it is essential that the medicine be conveyed direct to the affected parts. This is why no other remedy has achieved such worldwide success as Catarrhozone, which alone can be breathed in one second to every air-cell in the breathing organs. The healing vapors of Catarrhozone mix with the breath and descend through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, to the deepest air-cells in the lungs—all parts are saturated with the rich, piney essences that ease, heal, and cure.

Catarrhozone has entirely displaced the old-fashioned remedies, such as cough syrup, sprays, tablets and sedative powders. It contains none of the opium, chloral and drowsy narcotics, so commonly found in liquid cough and catarrh remedies.

The extraordinary curative power of Catarrhozone is well explained in a letter from A. B. Cowan, the well-known restaurateur of Carleton, who writes: "Some time ago I suffered severely from a frightful cold in the head and chest. It was nothing but one continual cough, hawk, headache from morning till night. My nose and throat were so completely stuffed up that I could scarcely breathe. Catarrhozone eased the cough instantly, that would not yield even to the doctor's medicines. Hour by hour Catarrhozone relieved, and by pursuing its treatment I have been permanently cured of all trace of Asthma, Catarrh and Bronchial Irritation."

Once you try Catarrhozone you'll realize how indispensable it is—the large dollar size contains an indestructible hard rubber inhaler and sufficient medicine to last two months. Smaller trial sizes, 25 and 50 cents. Beware of the substituter and imitators of Catarrhozone—use the genuine and you'll get cured. By mail from the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

TORONTO'S MAYOR IS A MIDDLESEX BOY

His Parents Removed to Sarnia When He Was Only a Year Old.

Mayor-Elect Reginald Geary, is a native of Middlesex County, having been born in Strathroy some 38 years ago.

When one year old the family moved to Sarnia, where he attended "the little red school house."

Mr. Geary is possibly the youngest mayor that Toronto has ever elected, with the exception of R. J. Fleming, who was 37 years old when he was placed in the chair for the first time in 1892. With that exception one can go back at least as far as 1861 without encountering a mayor as young in years as G. R. Geary.

Capital Was $15.

Toronto's mayor got into the high school at 11 years of age, his father having died when he was 9. A year later he entered Upper Canada College. At 16 Mr. Geary was on a farm near London. Then he went to Toronto, where he started in to attend the university and study law at the same time. Mr. Geary formed his first law partnership with he late J. T. Scott, of Toronto. He had $15 in his pocket when he opened his first office there. In the first year of its life the new legal firm was burned out of the Osgoodby building in 1895. Shortly after the firm of Macdonell, McMaster & Geary was formed.

Steps Up Logically.

Mr. Geary surprised himself and his friends in 1902 by heading the polls as public school trustee for ward 4, Toronto. Next year he became an alderman for ward 3, winning also in 1905, 6 and 7, with a record aldermanic vote. He was chairman of the works committee, and made an excellent showing.

After meeting defeat in the 1908 Toronto mayoralty contest, Mr. Geary ran for the board of control last year, heading the poll with 1,500 votes over his nearest rival, Controller Hocken.

Mr. Geary in his student days played cricket, football and baseball. He is a bachelor, and lives with his mother at No. 40 Wellesley street. Mr. Geary has always taken an interest in politics, and is prominent in the Conservative party.

Mr. John Geary, of London Township, well known to Londoners, is an uncle of Mayor Geary. It was on his farm that young Geary remained a year while studying law. He has visited here on many occasions.
