ANSWER TO "JOHN ANDERSON MY JO."

BY MRS. CRAWFORD.

Jean Anderson my ain Jean!
Ye've been a leal gude wife;
Ye've mair than shared my pain, Jean,
Ye've been my joy through life;
I loved ye in your youth, Jean,
Wi' bonny snoodled brow;
But mean I tell the truth, Jean,
I love ye better now.

Oh! they were pleasant times, Jean,
When first I tosted thee;
They came like holy chimes, Jean,
O' Sabbath bells to me;
But sweeter to my heart, Jean,
Than a' the past can prove,
The hope that when we part, Jean,
Our souls may meet above!

I've been a man of toil, Jean,
And aye obliged to roam;
But still ye had the smile, Jean,
And canny 'welcome home!'
Our hearth was aye a light, Jean,
The kail-pot on the fire,
When I came back at night, Jean,
I found my heart's desire.

Our bairns hae bred some cares, Jean,
But thanks to thee, my Jo,
They brought not our grey hairs, Jean,
Wi' shame or sorrow low;
And when at last our bed, Jean,
Beside the Kirk maun be;
They'll honour us when dead, Jean!
And that's enough for me.

Dandies, to make a greater show,
Wear coats stuck out with pad and puffing;
But that you know is apropos—
For what's a goose without the stuffing?

THE CITY OF POMPEII.—Pompeii was anciently a walled city, of about two miles in circumference, originally washed by the sea, though it is now a mile distant. It is six or seven miles from the top of Mount Vesuvius and a little further from Mount Somma, which, in the year of '79 of our era, poured upon Pompeii ashes, hot water and Pumice stones, and upon Herculancum solid lava, burying both for seventeen centuries. I have walked the streets of Pompeii, which was not even discovered until 1750, and which now stands disinterred in melancholy grandeur, the city of the resurection. I saw her disinterred temples, theatres, villas, prisons and tombs. I saw yet stand the abode of their Deities, or rather of the craft of the priesthood of Pompeii. The splendid house of Diomed, the spacious and sumptuous city baths, and the richly ornamented fountains are here. The pavement is deeply worn by the wheels of carriages, showing the great antiquity of Pompeii. The sleep of seventeen centuries is broken, but the life of light dawns not again on this ancient city.

LONDON SAUSAGES.—At the Clerkenwell Police-office, on Thursday week, a countryman named Andrews was examined under suspicion of being a purveyor of unwholesome flesh to the sausage-makers. He had been observed by a policeman to back a cart-load of stinking cows and horses into the yard of a sausage-merchant—who, however, declared that it was "a mistake." Mr. John Atcheler, who described himself as "Horse Slaughterer to her Majesty and the Royal Family," and lived next door to the merchant, expressed his opinion that the load had been meant for him, (Mr. A.) His neighbour, he said, did not make "common sausages," but only those that were fit for the "west end"—the "real Germans," which were made of the very best meat, mixed with a bit of "tommy," The Bench begged his learned explicit as to the nature of "tommy." "Tommy," he then exclaimed, was bull-beef, which made the sauces "good and stiff, and more palatable—eucl, Lord Brougham likes!" (Laughter.) There was nomaking sausage-meat "sound and good," addedMr. Atcheler, without putting "a little bull" into. (Laughter.) The prisoner was discharged.

MMORABLE AND AFFECTING STATEMENT.—"On the whole," says Ledyard, in a letter writ-ten during one of his great journeys, "mankind have used me well; and though I have as yet reached only the first stage of my journey, I feel myself much indebted for that urbanity, which I always thought more general than many think it to be; and were it not for the mischievous laws and bad examples of some governments I have passed through, I am persuaded I should be able to give you a still better account of our fellow-creatures." —Ledyard's Life.

"How do you feel with such a shocking looking coat on?" said a young clerk of more pretension than brains, one morning. "I feel," says old Roger, looking steadily at him with one eye half-closed as if taking aim at his victim, "I feel, young man, as if I had a coat on which has been paid for, a luxury of feeling which I think you will never experience."

THE LAST AND BEST.—A correspondent of the New York Spirit of the Times has the following:—A chap, walking out, came across "Old Mose," sitting in the broiling sun, fishing. "Well, Mose," says he, "what in the world are you doing there?" "Fiffin." "What?" "Fiffin." "Fishing! well, what's the reason you can't talk? what's in your mouth?" "Oh, nuffin but wums for bait!"

Oh dear, I'll whirl them maids of honour to the place round and round so fast in a waltz, that no livin' soul can see me a kissin' o' them. I've done it to Phœbe Hopewell afore her father's face, and he never know'd it, tho' he was lookin' on the whole blessed time. I hope I may be shot if I haint.—[Sam Slick."

"Bill," said Bob, "why is that tree called a weeping willow?"—"'Cause one of the sneaking drafted things grew near our schoolhouse, and supplied the master with the sticks that did all the boys' licking."

"What are you doing with that?" inquired a passerby of an Irishman who was belabouring a crooked bar of iron. "Faith," replied the Irishman, "an' I'm trying to bend it straight."

A NATURAL REMEDY

Suited to our Constitutions, and competent to the cure of every curable disease, will be found in

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

OF THE

NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH.

THESE extraordinary Pills are composed of plants which grow spontaneously on our own soil; and are therefore better adapted to our constitutions, than medicines concocted from foreign drugs, however well they may be compounded; and as the INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are founded upon the principle that the human body is in truth,

SUBJECT TO BUT ONE DISEASE,

viz: corrupt humors, and that the said medicine cures this disease on

NATURAL PRINCIPLES,

by cleansing and purifying the body; it will be manifest, that if the constitution be not entirely exhausted—a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, we drain it of the superabundant waters; in like manner, if we wish to restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

The Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the best, if not the very best, medicines in the world for carrying out the

GRAND PURIFYING PRINCIPLE,

because they expel from the body all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in an easy and NATURAL MANNER, and while they every day

GIVE EASE AND PLEASURE,

disease of every name is raidily driven from the body.

CAUTION.

The citizens of New England are respectfully informed that in consequence of the great popularity which the above named Indian Vegetable Pills have earned by their astonishing goodness, a gang of counterfeiters are now industriously engaged in palming on the unsuspecting, a valueless and perhaps dangerous medicine, under the name of Indian Vegetable Pills.

This is to inform the public that all genuine medicine has on the boxes

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

(Indian Purgative.)

OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH

And also round the border of the label, will be found in small type, "Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1840, by WM. WRIGHT, in the Clerk's office, of the District Court, of the Eastern district of Pennsylvania."

It will further be observed that the printed directions for using the medicines, which accompany each box are also entered according to Act of Congress, and the same form will be found at the bottom of the first page.

The public will also remember, that all who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by

WILLIAM WRIGHT, VICE PRESIDENT

and that pedlars are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine Medicine. All travelling agents will be provided with a certificate of agency as above described; and those who cannot show one will be known as base impostors.

☞ Persons in this city and vicinity will also be on their guard against purchasing medicine purporting to be the Indian Vegetable or Purgative Pills, of Apothecaries or Druggists, as they are not allowed to sell my medicine, and any composition which they may offer as such must of necessity be COUNTERFEIT and injurious; therefore never purchase of them.

☞ Agents for the sale of the above in Nova Scotia:—Halifax, John Whitenon Esq.; Aylmerst, Mr. Arthur Masters; Digby, James Crowly; Kentville, Daniel Moore; Bridgetown, Thomas Spurr, New Brunswick:—St. Martins, Mr. Alex. Lockhart; Bend of Petjudiac, James Beck; Fredericton, C. H. Jouett; Shediac, E. L. Smith; St. Andrews, Thos. Astonishing Efficacy
AND OINTMENT.

EXTRAORDINARY CURES BY

Holloway's Ointment.

CURE OF A DESPERATE CASE OF ERYSIPELAS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Joseph Gildon, Jun., a Farmer, East Kent, near Spilsby, Lincolnshire, 8th April, 1846.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I have the gratification to announce to you a most wonderful cure wrought upon myself, by the use of your Ointment and Pills. I had a severe attack of Erysipelas in my right foot, which extended along my ancle, and was attended with swelling and inflammation to an alarming degree, insomuch that I was unable to move without the use of crutches. I consulted a very eminent Physician, besides other Medical men, but to no purpose. At last I tried your Ointment and Pills, when, strange to say, in less than two weeks the swelling and inflammation subsided to such a degree that I was enabled to pursue my daily avocation, to the utter surprise and amazement of those who were acquainted with my case, seeing that I was cured so quickly. I and my family are well known here, as my father holds his farm under the Rev. J. Spence, Rector of our Parish.

Extract of a Letter from [illegible] dated [illegible] 29th, 1847, from the highly respectable Proprietor of the Roscommon Journal.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—Mr. Ryan, the well known proprietor of the Hotel next door to me, had two very Bad Legs, one with eight ulcers on it, the other with three, they were in such a fearful state that the effluvia from them was very great. Some time since he made a journey to Dublin for the purpose of consulting some of the most eminent professional men, but returned home to his family with the choice of two alternatives—to have both Legs amputated, or die!—On his way home he met a gentleman in the Coach who recommended the use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which he had recourse to, and was perfectly cured by their means.

Cure of a Desperate Scorbutic Eruption of long standing.

Extract of a Letter, dated Wolverhampton the 10th of February, 1847, confirmed by Mr. Simpson, Stationer.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—Having been wonderfully restored from a state of great suffering, illness and debility, by the use of your Pills and Ointment, I think it right for the sake of others to make my case known to you. For the last two years I was afflicted with a violent Scorbutic Eruption, which completely covered my chest, and other parts of my body, causing such violent pain, that I can in truth say, that for months I was not able to get sleep for more than a very short time together. I applied here to all the principal Medical men, as also to those in Birmingham, without getting the least relief; at last I was recommended by Mr. Thomas Simpson, Stationer, Market-place, to try your Pills and Ointment, which I did, and I am happy to say, that I may consider myself as thoroughly cured. I can now sleep all the night through, and the pain in my back and limbs have entirely left me.

Bad Digestion, with extreme Weakness and Debility—an extraordinary Cure.

Mr. T. GARDINER, of No. 9, Brown street, Grosvenor square, had been in a very bad state of health for a long time, suffering much from a distended Stomach, very impaired digestion, with constant pains in his Chest, was extremely nervous, and so greatly debilitated as to be scarcely able to walk one hundred yards; during the long period of his declining he had the advice of four of the most eminent Physicians besides five Surgeons of the greatest celebrity in London, from whose aid he derived no benefit whatever. At last he had recourse to Holloway's Pills, which he declares effected a perfect cure in a very short time, and that he is now as strong and vigorous as ever he was in his life. This being so extraordinary a case, may lead many persons almost to doubt this statement, it may therefore be necessary to say that Mr. Gardiner is a broker, and well known.

☞ In all Diseases of the Skin, Bad Legs, Old Wounds and Ulcers, Bad Breasts, Sore Nipples, Stony and Ulcerated Cancers, Tumours, Swellings, Gout, Rheumatism, and Lumbago, likewise in cases of Piles; Holloway's Pills, in all the above cases, ought to be used with the Ointment and not alone. The Ointment is proved to be a certain remedy for the bite of Moschettoes, Sand-flies, Chiegoloes, Yaws, Coco-bay, and all Skin Diseases common to Europe, the East and West Indies, and other tropical climates.

Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Chapped Hands and Lips, also Bunions and Soft Corns, will be immediately cured by the use of the Ointment.

TESTIMONY FROM

FRANCE AND PRUSSIA
TO THE MERITS OF SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

THE fame of this preparation is not confined to the limits of our own country, but by its powerful agency in arresting and curing disease, has won its way successfully into different countries in Europe, as the following unsolicited testimonials from individuals of the highest respectability shows in the most conclusive and satisfactory manner. The same happy success has attended its use there, which has always marked its course where ever adopted, and diseases have yielded to its health-restoring influence which Medical Men of profound skill had pronounced incurable. The most potent simples of the vegetable kingdom are united in this preparation, and the combination is such that one modifies and improves the other, and under the name of Sands' Sarsaparilla, is presented a compound differing entirely in its character and properties from any other preparation, and unrivalled in its operation on the system when laboring under disease. Its approval by Physicians and men of Science, and the uniform success which has marked its use, furnishes proof sufficient to convince every candid and discerning mind of its great superiority and value.
