THE TRIGGER.

GOOD SHOOTING.

New York, Oct. 28.—J. L. Winston, the Louisville wing shot, appeared before the Elkwood Park traps yesterday in a match with Gustav Langdon, of New York. The conditions were 100 birds, handicap rise, Elkwood Park boundary, for $147 a side. The westerner grassed 46 out of his 50 birds, and drove his opponent to the wall in the 68th round. In this round Winston had a lead of 6, and Langdon withdrew. There was a one-handed match between Leonard Finletter, of the Riverton Gun Club, of Philadelphia, and Langdon. Finletter won by a single bird. The conditions were 25 birds, Elkwood boundary, for $50 a side, Finletter standing at 30 yards and Langdon at 28.

FLYS.

It may turn out that Hartford will take Toronto's place in the Eastern League circuit.

Providence, R. I., claims to be the banner minor league city of 1896. Its club won the pennant, captured the Sobey cup, paid a dividend of 120 per cent on its stock, and has $8,000 in the bank to begin next season with.

The $10,000 paid for Breitenstein's release has suddenly dwindled perceptibly, and it is said that the cash consideration was very small, while the absolute promise of Brush's support in the fight against the St. Louis magnate, which Von Der Ahe believes is imminent, was the big inducement.—Baltimore Herald.

"Pete" Hotaling was at bat in a game at Rochester many seasons ago. The end of the bleachers' stand was in fair ground, just reaching the line. "Pete" rapped a fly that lodged in the eavestrough of the stand. The first baseman rushed to the place, "shinned" up one of the posts, got the ball and got back to ground in time to retire Hotaling at the plate. This is vouched for by Jay Faatz, once the Cleveland club's first baseman.

THE WHEEL.

SMASHED.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 29.—L. H. George, the Brockport road rider, broke the century road record of America by wheeling from Erie, Pa., to Buffalo, N. Y., in the unprecedented time of 4 hours, 25 minutes, cutting the record made by A. D. McDonnell, of Rochester over the same course, Oct. 25, 1895, which was 4 hours, 40 minutes, 9 seconds. George was checked at the start and finish, also at Westfield, and at the 50 mile mark, this side of Fredonia.

A FINISHED WHEELMAN.

"Scorcher's a perfect wreck."
"What ails him?"
"The doctor says he has bicycle heart, bicycle head, bicycle face, bicycle eyes, bicycle teeth and bicycle knees."—Chicago Record.

AT BRANTFORD.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 29.—The bicycle flyers were at Parkdale Driving Park again yesterday, and a large audience greeted them on their appearance on the track. Loughead, McLeod, Blayney and Westbrook were warming up behind a tandem and a general mix-up occurred, McLeod and Blayney being thrown, but luckily without much injury to the riders.

Fred Loughead had been announced to ride for the half-mile standing start. McLeod and Westbrook, mounted on a tandem, paced Loughead the half-mile in 58 seconds, nine watches out of ten doing it better. The last quarter was done in 26 seconds. This is a record.

Fred Westbrook, paced by Loughead and McLeod, made an attack on the quarter-mile, flying start. A bad slip on the turn made the attempt futile, and he finished in 30 1-2 seconds.

Blayney had been announced for the half-mile, standing start, paced by Boak and Tucker. He rode at a rattling pace, and finished in 59 seconds—fair time for the day.

Blayney, in the two mile, flying start, reduced the amateur record to 4:24 1-5; previous record, 4:47; paced by Boak and Tucker. This is also a tandem record for the two miles.

Sherritt, for the 1896 riders, did the half-mile in 1:01 3-5.

THE KENNEL.

In the forenoon three preliminary heats were run in class B, for 13-inch dogs and bitches. James L. Kernochan's Leader won the first heat; George F. Reed's Snifter the second heat. Leader and Wallingford's beagle Blue Bell were then put down, Leader winning. Howard Almy's Nancy Lee and Leader then contested, the former winning. In the afternoon Nancy Lee easily outpointed James W. Appleton's Audible.

GOOD-BYE!

Farewell to a Popular Westminster Farmer.

On Monday evening, Oct. 26, between 60 and 70 friends and neighbors assembled at the residence of Mr. John Bruce, con. 4, Westminster, to pay their parting tribute of respect to the family on the eve of their departure from the farm on which they had spent so many years. Mr. George Riddle, reeve of Westminster, was chosen master of ceremonies. After taking the chair, Mr. Riddle made a few pleasant and well-chosen remarks. Among other things he said: "We are gathered here not to honor a great statesman, but to do honor to an honest man."

Mr. A. F. Anderson was then called upon to read a farewell address to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, expressing deep regret that it was their intention to depart from our midst, where he by his upright and obliging conduct had endeared himself to all with whom he had to deal, and wishing him health, happiness and prosperity in his new home, and as a slight acknowledgment of the good will and remembrance of his old neighbors.

Mr. Adam Nichol then came forward and presented Mr. Bruce with a gold-headed cane and gold spectacles and Mrs. Bruce with a set of silver teaspoons. Mr. Bruce made a very feeling reply to the address, in which he said he regretted leaving the neighborhood where he had so long lived in harmony with those around him, and would always remember with pleasure the many happy days spent in the neighborhood. He thanked each and all for their kind and unexpected presentation.

Singing, speeches and recitations were indulged in for a time. A sumptuous repast was provided by the hostess and the ladies of the company, to which all present did ample justice, after which the young people present enjoyed themselves in dancing, and all departed for their homes feeling that a very enjoyable evening had been spent.
