"A GOOD PLACE TO BUY GOOD CLOTHES"

Overcoat Wisdom

What is your "ideal" in an overcoat?
Is it style and elegance? Or comfort and service? Or economy?
Whichever appeals to you most strongly, is it not wise to select the Overcoat that embodies not only those qualities, but also the others?
GILMOUR OVERCOATS are of this type. This season's Overcoats are more emphatically so than at any previous time, and we want you to know it.
We ask you to call on us, inspect our lines, and then choose the one you like best and buy it on our GUARANTEE—a guarantee that covers fabric (inside as well as outside), tailoring, finishing—every last detail.
New models, new patterns, new shades. But—"the same old good values" that have made our store famous.

Financial Letter.

New York, Nov. 30—We hardly think the present rally in the market will hold but we wish it understood that we believe all slumps will provide opportunities of exceptional attractiveness for buyers of stocks. An important feature noted is the shifting of loans from New York to Europe. This may help materially in changing the bad surface indications in the bank statements. It is reported that the Steel meeting today may cut prices. It is expected they will be cut some very soon if not today. J. P. Morgan is said to have had Attorney Stetson draw up a federal incorporation act. The Penna railroad order is to be followed by the announcement of one of 100,000 tons by the New York Central. Press comment and market literature are still unfavorable, as a rule, to the market.

Wall Street Today.

New York, Nov. 30—Opening prices on the stock exchange did not vary much from yesterday's closing. Reading showing the widest change with a loss of half. The market generally was down a trifle on light business.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY HAVE FINE PROGRAMME FOR THIS EVENING

The festival of St. Andrew will be loyally celebrated tonight in the assembly rooms of the Nickel theatre, when the members of St. Andrew's Society and their guests will participate in a reception and dance. The programme card is one of the handsomest the local society has ever had. The cover bears the title on a blue tinted background with a border of Scotch thistle and the cross of St. Andrew in the centre. It contains the list of officers for 1911, the programme of music and addresses, the dances, the names of the floor committee and two excellent half tone cuts of Scotch scenes.

Following is the programme:—

The Pipes.

"Tis the pibroch—dinna ye hear it?"
Address ..... The President
Overture—Scottish Aairs ..... Orchestra
Song ..... Mr. Munro
"Here's a health Bonnie Scotland to thee."
Song ..... Mrs. Gerow
O Sing to Me the Auld Scots Sangs.
Address ..... Rev. Dr. Morison
"The Day and a' wha Honor It."
The Passin' o' the Mull.
Song—Scots Wha Hae ..... Mr. McKean
"Then Scotland's howes and Scotland's knowes,
And Scotland's hills for me."
Song—Robin Adair ..... Miss Knight
Song—Sae Will we Yet .....
..... Mr. Cameron, Past President
Accompanist, Mrs. Barnes.
"May the deil rock in a creel
Wha dinna wish auld Scotia weel."
Dances (12 numbers.)
"And weel she danced the Hielan' Reel."
Grand March.
Song and chorus—Will ye no Come Back Again?
Auld Lang Syne.
God Save the King.

The officers for 1911 are: President, Robert B. Paterson; first vice-president, James Jack; second vice-president, Alex. Macaulay; historian, Alexander Wilson; treasurer, John White; secretary, Cyrus F. Inches; marshals, Charles W. Bell and Francis F. Burpee; committee of charity, Dr. P. R. Inches, Andrew Malcolm and Alexander McMillan.

The floor committee consists of: Francis F. Burpee, chairman; James Jack, Alex. McMillan, J. Roy Campbell, Fred W. Fraser, Alex. Wilson, Dr. T. D. Walker, Erroll Inches, William A. Cameron and George C. Roy.

Flags are flying on many buildings today in honor of Scotland's saint.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 30—Warrants of arrest have been served on local representatives of the Standard Oil Company alleging violations of the North Carolina anti-trust law.

FOREIGN COMPANIES, HE SAYS, CONTROL SHIPPING TO AMERICAN PORTS

New York, Nov. 30—Testimony that steamship companies which are owned abroad absolutely control American shipping and have spent money freely to foster feeling against an American marine was offered yesterday before the congressional committee investigating charges that a steamship lobby was maintained at Washington. William H. Douglas, who formerly represented a New York district in congress, made these statements.

"As conditions are now," he testified, "the American merchant is handicapped. The foreign steamship owners make a rate at Hamburg, London and Paris, that controls the export shipment of an article to this country. Even if the American should charter a steamer for his own freight he would not be able to obtain additional freight to make up a cargo."

Similar conditions govern trade between the United States and South America, Mr. Douglas said.

Mr. Douglas said that, although foreign companies had used whatever influence they possessed in shaping legislation and had paid men to represent them in Washington, he believed that, strictly speaking, they had not violated any law.

TUG RAMMED BY C. P. R. STEAMER; THREE DROWN

Soo, Ont., Nov. 30—(Special)—Last midnight the tug General of Great Lakes line was rammed by the C. P. R. steamer Athabaska and cut in two. Three of the crew—Andrew Hardood, Joseph Boyer and Frank Lowe, all married men, of the Michigan Soo, were drowned. The accident took place in a blinding snow storm.

WILD GALE SWEEPS SPAIN; VESSELS WRECKED

Corruna, Spain, Nov. 30—A wild gale caused heavy damage to shipping along the coast today. A coasting vessel capsized and sixteen persons were drowned.

TRURO MURDER TRIAL

Truro, N. S., Nov. 30—The trial of Edward J. Perry, charged with the murder of Mrs. Maud Wright, was begun today. The witnesses examined this morning included, Mrs. Rory Wright, sister in law of the deceased, Percy Wright, the twelve year old son of the dead woman; also Geo. Higgins, with whom Mrs. Wright was on the Saturday night, of the murder.

Then followed E. J. Perry, the accused. He related the story of a debauch but was unable to remember happenings of the night, and the morning on which he gave himself up.

The case will likely go to the jury either tonight or tomorrow.

Montreal Stocks.

Montreal, Nov. 30—(Special)—There was nothing to enliven the stock market today. Steel, which rallied to 61 yesterday, was off to 60 5-8; Cement was fairly active at 23 1-4. Other features were: Ogilvie, 124 3-4; Rio, 102 1-8; MacKay, 91 3-4; Asbestos, 14; Quebec Railway, 56 to 57; Power, 136 3-4.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 30—William J. O'Connor, chief of the New Orleans police is dead. He had been on the police force more than forty years.

PAROLE OFFICER HERE, SAYS THE SYSTEM IS WORKING EXCELLENTLY

W. P. Archibald, Dominion parole officer, of Ottawa, arrived in the city today. He said that since the inception of the parole act, eleven years ago, 3,079 prisoners had been released, and out of this number only thirty-four had been known to commit crime again, while about 2,000 have been given their full liberty, and there are still 900 reporting.

Mr. Archibald said that the plan was working admirably. "You will notice, said he, "that this is only about two per cent., in fact, not that much, of the entire number who have been paroled, who have been returned to the penitentiaries for crime. This fact reflects credit on the minister of justice, whose duty it is to consider the parole. The movement is now past the experimental stage, it is an established institution.

Mr. Archibald will make a tour of inspection of neighboring cities before returning to Ottawa.

METROPOLITAN CASE CLOSED

if they continued. The witness told about being in a restaurant kept by Wheaton and Ferris girls in Brussels street. This occurred on the night previous to the raid. Wry came in about 3 p. m. He had a bottle of whiskey. We had a drink. Wry did not drink very much. Wry said that he and another man had stayed in the house with Wheaton and Ferris the night before. Wry said that he was going to get a room at the "Met." I said, "Mr. Goggin would not give you a room."

After that I went to the hotel. My brother was in bed. Wry and the girls came to the door. My brother objected to them coming in. We all had a drink. I had only one. I knew nothing until I woke up on top of the bed dressed.

Says He Was Drugged

Q. "In your opinion were you drugged?"
A. "Yes."
Q. "You had been drinking that afternoon?"
A. "Yes, five or six."
Here Mr. Baxter laughed.
Mr. Mullin: "It causes my learned friend considerable amusement. He is no authority on this question."

The witness then described what he saw when he came out of the swoon. "I saw three officers in the room."

Mr. Baxter: "May be you saw six."
"I was feeling rocky. I got dressed and went to the police station."
I pleaded not guilty and was allowed to go upon promising to leave the city.
Q. "There was no conviction."
A. "No."
Q. "Where is your brother Otty now?"
A. "At Megantic Junction."
Cross-examined by Mr. Baxter.
Q. "Did you not invite Wry, Wheaton and Ferris to your room when you heard the police were watching your house?"
A. "No."
Q. From the time Wry came into your room until you went under, did any of them go out?"
A. "No."
The witness said he lost his memory owing to the effects of the drug.
Q. "Don't you think that if you had been drugged it would take more than three hours to come out of it?"
A. "No."
Q. "Were you ever drugged."
A. "Not in that way."
Q. "How, then?"
A. "Cocaine in my gum."
Q. "That's all?"
A. "Yes."
Q. "You never drank drugged liquor before?"
A. "No."
Q. Then you undertake to swear that this liquor was drugged?"
A. "Yes." Because my brother told me he was drugged too."
Q. "Both woke at the same time?"
A. "Yes."
Q. "Had you told Wry the number of your room when you met him in Brussels street?"
A. "No"
Q. "How long have you worked at your business.?"
A. "This summer?"
A. "Where is your place of business?"
A. "Haymarket Square."
Q. "The number?"
A. "I don't know."
Q. "Who owns the house?"
A. "Mrs. Wilkins." The witness said that about three months before the raid he lived with his brother in Horsfield street.
Q. "Wasn't that house visited by the police?"
A. "Yes."
Q. "Was it raided?" 2
A. "No."
Q. "You rented the house to prostitutes?"
A. "No."
Q. "Lil Nickerson?"
A. " No."
Q. "The Ferris girl?"
A. "No."
Q. "If you have a remnant of respect for the Bible will you swear that you did not allow Ferris and Wheaton to live there?"
A. "Yes."
Q. "On one Sunday did not the Deputy chief and Killen raid the house and take Bertha McLeod and the Ferris girl out of the house?"
A. "Yes."
The rest of the evidence given was unfit for publication. The witness denied that a prominent young man jumped out of the Horsefield street house in order to escape being arrested.

Mr. Baxter—Is it not a fact that you were not convicted in the police court because it was the desire of friends of your people— who are respectable —to get you and your brothers out of the city?"
A. "Yes."

Theodosia Goggin, wife of the proprietor, of the Metropolitan was the next witness. She contradicted the plaintiff.

This closed the plaintiff's case. The defence offer no witnesses and the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

At yesterday afternoon's session Policeman Lucas gave more evidence in connection with the raid on the Metropolitan hotel. The registers of the Royal Hotel and the Metropolitan were offered in evidence. On the former appear the names of A. M. Crossman, while on the other was the name "A. M. Cross, and wife." A question was raised as to their being identical, but it was ruled out. Lucas told of women of ill-repute having frequented the Metropolitan.

C. management have kindly consented to change the hour of departure of the suburban train from St. John from 12.15 to 1.15, for the convenience of those wishing to attend the sale.

NO GAME LAST NIGHT.

There was no bowling match last evening in the Inter-Society league owing to a dispute which arose between the referee and one of the players of the St. John the Baptist team. The referee claimed that the man in question had made a foul but the bowler resented the decision, and the team left the rooms. The game was to have been played between th St. John the Baptists and Single Men.

KINGS' DAUGHTERS.

The monthly business meeting of the King's Daughters' Guild will be held on Friday at 3.30 p.m.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Gallant was held from her late home, 81 Portland street this morning at 9.30. Service was conducted by Rev. H. D. Marr and interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

TO THE AID OF CAMPBELLTON

The ladies of the King's Daughters' Guild today were busy preparing three large bales of clothing, dry goods, bedding, toys, books, and a variety of other articles, for the relief of the people of Campbellton. The bundles will be sent forward tonight. The members of the guild feel gratified at the success of their request for aid in this matter.

THE LATE REV. MR. SHAW.

At the funeral of Rev. Mr. Shaw yesterday, a quartette composed of Mrs. R. T. Worden, Mrs. Grant, Mr. Kingsmill, and G. S. Mayes, sang the hymns, Jesus Lover of My Soul, and Forever with the Lord. The services were conducted by Rev. W. Camp and Rev. Dr. McIntyre, and a very large number of ministers were present.

MORE NEED OF PATROL SHOWN

The benefit of having a patrol wagon and a police matron has been shown quite frequently of late, as during the last couple of weeks a number of women have been arrested. Yesterday afternoon Mary Jane Toner, on charge of lying drunk, had to be carried to the police station. She was remanded to jail this morning.

A PROTEST.

A lady called up the Times this morning to protest indignantly against a sight she had witnessed this morning—an aged immigrant woman being dragged along by two men, apparently guards. The woman, who it is said was to be deported, could not talk English, and the Times' informant says that she was treated with a disgraceful lack of courtesy and consideration.

"Whoever or whatever she may be," said the lady, "she is a woman, and deserves to be treated as a human being."

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

Columbus, O., Nov. 30—The national convention of the United Mine Workers will be held here beginning January 17.

Chicago, Nov. 30—Two hundred sympathizers with the garment strike who were attempting to prevent non-union employes from entering the shops of the International Tailoring company, were charged upon by police today. A number of the more stubborn men were clubbed before the crowd was dispersed. Three leaders, two of them girls, were arrested.

SIXTY YOUTHS NOW ON CRUISER NIOBE

Halifax, N. S. Nov. 30—(Special)—Sixty youths have joined the Canadian cruiser Niobe here. Only one desertion is reported. Four days' holidays at Christmas is announced on board. This looks as if the cruiser will not start on her West India cruise until after the holidays. The feeling on board the ship is that there be no West India cruise, but that the ship will remain here for the winter.

REV. DR. MORISON HERE

Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Chicago, arrived in the city this morning from Long Reach, where he has been spending the summer and fall in his country home. Dr. Morison told a Times reporter that he and Mrs. Morison were in excellent health as a result of their sojurn in the country. He has not yet made definite plans for the future as he is under salary from the Chicago church until the first of the year.

On leaving Chicago, he said, he determined to take a year off as he had been working hard and was pretty well tired out. He intended to accept another pastorate and had been offered one at a salary equal to that paid by the Chicago church, in August but declined as he wanted to rest. He said that he and Mrs. Morison might take a trip abroad before they settled down and he took up another church.

While in the city he is the guest of Charles Bell, Coburg street. He will deliver an address before the St. Andrew Society tonight.
