Very little news is stirring at present, but several Cabinet changes are said to be imminent.

Mackenzie and several other ministers attended a Grit meeting at Prescott, yesterday, where the Premier, vide the Times' report, denounced the political correspondence of the Opposition press as full of untruth. He afterwards contradicted himself by stating that the political news was obtained by peg-poling and espionage.

Shipping Notes.

Launch near Truro.—A well constructed 600 ton bark was launched from the ship-yard of R. W. Merriam & Co., at Board Landing Bridge, a short distance from Truro, on Saturday last, named R. W. Merriam, after the senior member of the firm, and will be commanded by Capt. Edward Merriam, formerly of the Forest King. The R. W. M. is now on her way to this port to load deal for Europe, and will be consigned to John Melick.

The ship Hindostan, now in port ready for sea, was to have sailed to day, but was prevented by a heavy gale blowing from the south-west. It is a matter of importance to her owners to get her off before to-morrow, as, on the 1st October, the rates of insurance increase and the deck-load law comes into force.

The English mail steamship Caspian, from Liverpool for Halifax, arrived at St. John's, N. F., this morning at 9 o'clock, and would sail this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The steamer New York had not arrived at Portland up to noon to-day. She sailed from here on Monday.

Firing a Pistol in the Street.

John Burns, a colored youth, was arrested on information of J. B. Hamm, for firing a pistol in the street in Carleton, and fined $6 in the Police Court this forenoon. Burns is one of a number of Carleton nuisances. One of them broke up a prayer meeting lately by trying to split open his brother's head. The people who are so unfortunate as to have them for neighbors assert that they are engaged in quarrelling and fighting the whole time. Their favorite night is Saturday, when they keep up their revels until late into Saturday morning. All hands appear to get drunk, and their shouts and yells make night hideous. The pistol shot for which Burns was fined was fired in the street, about one o'clock Sunday morning, after such a row had been made as to cause the neighbors to leave their beds to see what was wrong. Amongst others was Mr. Hamm, who caught Burns in the act. The boy said he did it in self defence, but such could not be shown. It is the intention of Mr. Hamm and others to have these people presented to the Grand Jury for indictment as nuisances.

Another Fox, called Robert, for assaulting William McGirkey and breaking his door, must pay $20 or go over with Catherine for two months.

Patrick Nicholson, for lying drunk in Nixon's shipyard, was fined $4.

Nova Scotia News.

On Saturday a brakesman named Hamilton, on the Pictou line, had his hand badly jammed while coupling cars. His two forefingers and one of his thumbs were so badly crushed that amputation was considered necessary.

What appears to be a very extensive deposit of iron ore has been recently discovered at Big Pond, C. B. It is situated only four miles by an easy incline from a place where a ship of 500 tons can load, and by tunnelling a hill, the distance can be reduced to a mile and a half.

We hear that rather a serious affair occurred last week at a point about twelve miles down the bay. It appears from vague rumors which are in circulation, that two men, named respectively Cook and Carty, traded horses, and Carty, after the bargain, being dissatisfied, proceeded to the house of Cook one day last week, in company with a constable, for the purpose of arresting Cook and recovering the horse. On arriving at the house, Carty proceeded to an adjoining field to procure the horse, leaving the constable to look after Cook, who defended himself with a pitchfork, and stabbed the constable three or four times. The wounded man is said to be in rather a dangerous condition.—Digby Courier.
