FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, July 22.

Automobiling is termed by many the most popular amusement in St. John at the present moment and as there are hundreds of miles of roads stretching north, east and west in the province and beyond it, the automobilist can choose the kind of scenery he most delights in. If he prefers the hills and mountains, with a view of the river, he naturally steers his auto towards Fredericton, if on the other hand he yearns for a touch of salt air, the Spruce Lake road furnishes the desired quality, or he might steer for St. Martins where, as an old "globe trotter" recently expressed it "Finer scenery is not to be found either on this continent or in Europe," but for those who have a preference for fertile valleys, watered by streams and shaded by sylvan woods, the Sussex road will meet every expectation. As it is stated that already there are over two hundred motor cars in the city alone, it is not to be wondered at that all roads have their patrons. At Fredericton last week end two motoring parties were in the city, Mr. and Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson and Mr. T. Hector Vroom. They registered at the Queen Hotel for over Sunday. Mr. John E. Moore, Mr. Arthur W. Adams and Mr. R. J. Ritchie spent Saturday night in Fredericton, returning in Mr. Moore's car Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holly in their motor car having as guests Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bouillon, spent the week end at St. George. Mr. and Mrs. de B. Carritte are making a tour in the province in their car. Mr. and Mrs. James Seeley, who had a motoring party, as far as Houlton, Maine, have returned home.

In interest, golf is a close second to automobiling. At the links last Saturday an enthusiastic group of golfers watched Mr. Andrew Jack make a new record for nine holes in a match play against Colonel Bogie. Mr. Clarence Sprague held the record up to Saturday. Frederick Rickwood, a professional coach, formerly with the Quebec Golf Club, and having played before that in Toronto, is giving his services to the St. John club for a week or two.

The Tennis Club weekly tea was held at the courts on Wednesday and was in charge of Mrs. Percy Thomson, Miss Jean Trueman and Miss Margaret McAvity. On the grounds were seen among others Mrs. McKenzie, Miss Jack, Mrs. Kent Scovil, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Miss Gladys Hegan, Miss Marion Dearborn, Mrs. Norman Sancton, Mrs. Pollard Lewin, Miss Lou Girvan, Miss Lydie Kimball, Miss Vera MacLauchlin, Miss Ena MacLaren, Miss Jean Trueman, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Jean Garden, Miss Young, Miss Daphne Crosby, Miss Helen McAvenney, Miss Clara Schofield, Miss Jenetta Bridges, Miss Vivien Barnes, Miss Constance McGivern, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Mr. Jack Belyea, Mr. Cyrus Inches, Mr. H. Mackay, Mr. Harold Peters, Mr. Joy, Mr. Douglas McLeod, Mr. Wallace Alward, Mr. D'Arcy, Mr. Ernest Alward, Mr. Malcolm McAvity, Mr. Lewis.

St. John has this week had the honor of entertaining Madame Katherine Proctor Fisk, the noted concert contralto, who with her husband, Mr. Franklin Proctor Fisk, who is director of public schools in Chicago, is on his way to Bedec (C. B.), to join some American friends on a yachting expedition. Madame Fisk has had the honor of singing before the late King Edward, and the present King George and Queen Mary at the Norwich Festival when she appeared in the Rose of Sharon as leading contralto, with Albani, Edward Lloyd and Andrew Black, Sir Alexander MacKenzie conducting. Madame Fisk has also sung in Berlin, Paris, New York, at the Boston, Handel and Hayden orchestra concerts. In London she was solist at ten special symphony concerts; also at the Sir Charles Halle orchestra concerts Manchester, and was leading contralto at the World's Fair, Chicago, under Theodore Thomas. At present Madame Fisk is one of the best known of the vocal teachers in Paris, France. Musicians in St. John who have had the great pleasure of hearing this lady sing are most enthusiastic in their praises. Although Madame Fisk, with her husband, leaves today for Bedec, it is possible that on her return to St. John, about the 20th of August, she may be induced to sing in one of the city churches.

At Centenary chufch Thursday at half-past seven a. m. the marriage took place of Miss Helen Douglas MacMichael, daughter of Mr. Charles MacMichael, and Mr. Frederick Thompson Barbour, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barbour, Hazen street. The church was beautifully decorated with quantities of marguerites and ferns, the work of the bride's friends. Only the immediate relatives and intimate friends were present, he ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Charles T. Flanders. The choir sang The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden and the wedding march was played by Miss Hea, organist of the church. The bride's gown was of navy blue broadcloth trimmed with black, handsomely beaded blouse, white chip hat with black plumes and jet, and she carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and maidenhair fern. The groom's present to the bride was a costly diamond ring. After the summer spent at one of the pleasure resorts on the St. John river, the happy couple will reside in Mecklenburg street. Many very elegant presents were received.

Mrs. Schofield was hostess at a very delightful, if informal, tea for her guests, Mrs. Saer and Miss Saer, wife and daughter of a former pastor of the Congregational church in this city. Mrs. McAlpine presided at the tea table, which was prettily decorated with flowers. Mrs. Fred Murray served the ice cream. Assisting were Miss Margaret Saer, Miss Marion Dearborn, Miss Webster, of Boston, and Miss Miriam Hatheway. Included among the guests were Mrs. H. S. Bridges, Mrs. Palmer, Hampton, Mrs. Frank Hatheway, Mrs. F. W. Murray, Mrs. Gronlund, Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Thos. Raymond, Mrs. Kerr, Miss Alice Rainnie, Miss Kate Battlett, Mrs. and Miss Dearborn, Rev. A. Campbell, Judge Armstrong, the Misses Celia and Avis Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. R. Downing Paterson, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leavitt, Mr. Joshua Clawson, Mr. A. O. Skinner, Miss Edith Skinner, Mr. Gordon Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter and Mr. D. Arnold Fox.

An interesting incident occurred at Rothesay one day last week, which showed unusual pluck and presence of mind on the part of a young English lady who is visiting friends at one of the camps in the Park. Enjoying a row on the river, accompanied by her maid, she let an oar slip overboard. Without a moment's hesitation, the lady, who is an expert swimmer, sprang over the side of the rowboat, swam some distance, captured the runaway oar, climbed into the boat and calmly proceeded to enjoy her hour of recreation.

The friends of Miss Rosalie A. Waterman, of Rockland road, were delighted to learn that she had captured the $300 scholarship from McGill University. Her scholastic achievements have been numerous and brilliant. She has been doing special work under Dr. Bridges during the last year.

The friends of Mr. Douglas Roberts, who spent some time with his aunt, Mrs. E. S. Carter early this summer, while writing the civil service examinations, will be pleased to learn that he was quite successful in passing them, and was notified that a position awaited him in the custom's department at Ottawa. Mr. Roberts who is a son of Chas. G. D. Roberts, was one of thirty from all over Canada who were successful in the examination test.

The masquerade at the boat club house was largely attended and proved a splendid success. The ladies committee composed of Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Malcolm MacKay and Mrs. G. H. Flood, received the guests, who when gathered in the large hall, made a very gay picture. Where so much thought and preparation had been given to the various costumes, it was difficult to choose, though certainly the most original were those worn by Miss A. Brock and Miss A. Davidson, recalling stories of Alice in Wonderland. They were Brer Rabbitt and Cheshire Cat, and on arrival received much applause. Mrs. Turnbull, in early Victorian costume, was one of those most admired; also Mrs. F. C. Jones, as a Japanese lady, was beautifully and becomingly dressed. Miss Roberts, of Wales, as Pierette, and Miss Kendall, of Boston, a butterfly; Miss Lila Foster, Spanish tamborine girl; Mrs. Drury, of Winnipeg, as Red Riding Hood, received much favorable comment. Miss Beane, of Boston, as Dutch Cleanser, was very quaint and pretty. Special mention should be made of the charming Dresden shepherdess. Misses Avis Armstrong, Doris Sayre, as Martha Washington, and Edith Cudly as Peg Wolvington; Miss Katherine Bell, as Emmy Lou, looked very sweet and played the part well. Miss McMillan, of St. John, looked pretty in a handsome Wattean costume, with hair powdered. Miss Fowler, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frink, was the sweetest of gypsies. Some of the characters which added a touch of fun were Mr. Frink, as Baby Mine, in a dainty white frock and Dutch cap. Moffett Bell and Gerald Foster, as Gold Dust Twins, were perfect. David Turnbull was a cute page. There were many other very pretty dresses, and among the men were scouts, rough riders, sailors and clowns.

Mrs. Allen Sharpe, of St. John West, is guest of Mrs. Mitchell today.
