A JUBILEE DIRGE.

'Tis fifty years since old Queen Vic—
First started on her reign,
And sycophants now make us sick,
With Jubilee on the brain.
What has she done, I'd like to hear,
To cause us workers joy?
Why, sacked a million every year
By the sweat from our employ.
Herself and locusts, round her track,
Are ever full of greed,
They give but very little back,
And that in form of seed.
Some say rich folks increase our trade
By the orders which they give,
But all their fortunes must be made
By holding labor's sieve.
A Jubilee of what? Extravagance and waste,
Fifty years of plunder and of greed;
Whilst every titled toady wants a taste,
Our expenditure is running up with speed.
When a palace wants repairing,
Of course the country it must pay;
When to France they go for airing,
Other would-be passengers must stay.
Why make a fuss of German drones,
For workmen build their hives;
The sweat and marrow of our bones
Are wasted all our lives.
To feed these bloated parasites,
Thousands must work and toil;
Slaves once were black, but now the whites
Provide the monstrous spoil.
Wake up, ye workers! cry "Enough
Of spendthrifts such as these."
The task is hard, the work is tough,
But still it ought to please.
'Tis the year of Jubilee, speak plain
In accents clear and strong,
That no more kings or queens shall reign,
They've played their tricks too long!

JUBILEE OF EVICTORIA.

The Crowbar Brigade at Work—Michael Davitt Prevents Bloodshed at the Bodyke Evictions—Distressing Scenes—Malicious Policemen.

DUBLIN, June 3.—The evictions at Bodyke continue. The tenants are offering all the opposition in their power to the sheriff and his guard of police and troops, and find various means to seriously annoy the officers. In some of the houses from which the occupants were to be evicted cayenne pepper was burned, the fumes of which nearly choked the bailiff. Boiling water was also thrown from windows upon the evicting force. At two houses where evictions were effected occurred between the police and the people, and a number of arrests were made. When the sheriff's force arrived at the house of tenant Lyddy and ordered the family to leave, a daughter of Mr. Lyddy threw an iron hoop at a bailiff who attempted to enter the door. The hoop missed the bailiff, but struck a police inspector. The girl was arrested. A brother of the girl was also arrested for inciting the crowd to violence. Another daughter of the tenant, who denounced the treatment her family was receiving, was struck by a policeman and

COLLISIONS

FELLED TO THE GROUND.

This maddened the crowd, and they advanced for the purpose of attacking the officers. Michael Davitt, who was present at the eviction, pleaded with the people not to use violence, and barely managed to avert a collision. After the Lyddy family had been evicted, the police made an attack upon the house of a man named McNamara, which was strongly fortified. Crowbars were used, and a hole was made through a wall. McNamara's wife and children were in the house and cried piteously until Mr. Davitt shouted words of comfort to them. McNamara was arrested for pelting the bailiffs with dung. The bailiff smashed the furniture of the house

OUT OF PURE MALICE.

The force, after leaving this house, proceeded to that occupied by tenant Hussey, for the purpose of ejecting him. It is thought the police have extremely warm work before them. When the evicting force reached Hussey's house they were received with a shower of boiling water, stones and bottles, and a swarm of bees were let loose upon them. The tenants only desisted from pelting the bailiffs when the troops threatened to fire. The bailiffs demolished a wall and entered the house, but were repulsed bleeding. The eviction was only effected after a struggle of two hours and a half. The male defenders of the house were arrested.

A MEETING OF TENANTS

was afterwards held, at which Michael Davitt repeated the advice he gave them yesterday to resist the evictions by every means, and defied the Government to arrest him.

LONDON, June 9.—A circular was sent to 100 representatives of the Wesleyan church, asking their opinion of the Irish Coercion bill. Sixty-nine present of those who received their circular condemn the measure. Of the minority a large number condemn the proposed law, but refuse to sign petitions against it, on the ground that they do not approve, as members of the church, of meddling with politics.

BRITISH SPIES

ALLEGED TO BE WORKING IN AMERICA—SOME INTERCEPTED CORRESPONDENCE ABOUT THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A special from St. Louis says:—Some time ago the Irish societies of St. Louis were considerably stirred up over a report that a number of British detectives had landed in New York, and later it was reported that a dozen of them had come as far west as St. Louis. No one seemed to know what their mission was, but recently, according to the statement of a prominent participant in all Irish matters, a lot of correspondence, purporting to be letters or reports from the detectives, has come into hands they were never intended to reach. One of the letters, and the most important one, is dated Washington, May 12th. It is addressed to Sir Charles Nelson and is signed James Brodie. It began by saying: "I send you a budget of letters, reports, etc., which will show you how affairs are going." This of course refers to the letters and reports mentioned above. Thus the letters tell where eleven of the twelve Englishmen are working, four in St. Louis, three in Kansas City and four in Leadville and Denver. The writer is sure some sort of demonstration is to be made on June 21, and asks that a strict watch be kept on No. 28 Grove street, Oxford road. Another letter dated New York, May 3, and signed James Tolling, says the whole strength of the Fenian Brotherhood in the United States is 8,000 and they have a revenue of $4,000 a month, that O'Donovan Rossa's expulsion was only a pretence and he is still a member. Much more of what purports to be facts concerning the Fenian Brotherhood is given.

NOT UNLIKELY.

NEW YORK, June 3.—O'Donovan Rossa called on the Superintendent of Police yesterday and asked for police protection. He said a plot had been concocted to put him out of the way.

THE LUGGACURRAN TENANTS.

There is no possibility of Lord Lansdowne's victims suffering loss, though they may have to endure much inconvenience on account of having been left homeless by the evictor. The Leinster Leader of last Saturday says:—While Mr. O'Brien is fighting the cause of the Luggacurran tenants in the West, effective work is being done for them at home. This week the acknowledgments to their fund amount to close on £500; last week the sum was over £700; while previous lists totted up a figure close upon a thousand pounds. The tenants have the fullest promise of success, and they have, besides, the amplest assurances against defeat. Two thousand pounds poured into their purses in a few weeks is the best guarantee they could have against the sufferings which Lord Lansdowne would inflict upon them.—United Ireland.

Catarrh Remedy

FOR A CASE OF CATARRH WHICH THEY CAN NOT CURE.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. However, only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties,

UNTOLD AGONY FROM CATARRH.

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

CONSTANTLY HAWKING AND SPITTING.

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

THREE BOTTLES CURE CATARRH.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
