DUGGAN AND LINNEBORN WERE TOO MUCH FOR SOX

Former Pitched Great Ball, While Latter Ran Bases At Will and Scored Three of London's Four Runs—Duggan Struck Out Eight Brantford Batters.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Brantford, Ont., July 15. — Rube Deneau's climbing Indians never gave Brantford a chance here today, with airtight pitching by Duggan, who was backed up by splendid fielding. The Red Sox succumbed at the finish by 4 to 1. In only a couple of periods during the contest was Duggan in any sort of trouble, but he pitched himself out on each occasion. London also decided on a plan of attack today which included base-pilfering, and it was effective. Neale rambled to second three times, while Linneborn was not at all backward in his usual thefts. The entire result of the strategy was eight stolen bases.

Linneborn Scores First.

As a run-getter, Linneborn looked like a Canadian League leader. Duggan allowed five hits, only two of which came in one round. In addition he struck out eight batters. The game was rather useless in spots, and a small crowd was present. London's first run was the result of Linneborn getting on by the dead-ball route, and going to second on Matteson's sacrifice. He scored when Tesch let Stewart's hot grounder get past. Brantford evened up on a single by Burrill and Coose's double in the second. In Brantford's third Duggan struck out Tesch, Wagner and Kane in a row. London threatened in the fourth, when Neale beat out a bunt and Deneau singled, with one down, but Neale was caught at the plate and Duggan flied out.

Linneborn Starts It Again.

Linneborn started trouble in the fifth with his second bingle. He stole second and advanced to third on Matty's sacrifice. Bierbauer's hit through short scored him. Then Louie stole second, and went to third on an infield out. Dunlop flied out.

When Kane doubled and Ivers walked in the sixth, the Sox threatened, but Duggan retired Slemin and Burrill easily. London scored again in the eighth when Neale singled and secured his third stolen base of the day. Deneau's single scored him, but Rube was caught going to second. In the ninth Linneborn singled and scored on Bierbauer's double. Burrill robbed Stewart of a hit by a sensational catch in centre.

LEE'S KOLTS SLIPPING; PETES BEAT THEM AGAIN

White Caps Hammered Schuyler in the Second and Third, and Scored Enough Runs to Win.

Hamilton, Ont., July 15. — The Kolts gained another lap in their dash towards the bottom of the Canadian League ladder this afternoon, when they dropped the second game of the series to Peterboro by a score of 6 to 3. It was a listless contest from the first to the final inning, the locals performing like a bunch of confectioners on dress parade. Two or three times they filled the bases, only to die there, when the succeeding batters fanned in rotation. Schuyler started on the mound for Hamilton, but he had nothing but a cream-puff lob, and in the third inning he was jumped on with such a vehemence that Manager Lee waved him back to the clubhouse. Donohue, who took up the pitching burden, kept the hits scattered for the remainder of the game, but the damage had been done. Sterling pitched good ball for the visitors. Killilea's home run was the feature of the fray. Score:

Tommy Murphy is carting around 22 horses in his grand circuit stable.

Considering the earliness of the season, Cleveland has had very respectable fields.

Two weeks of the Michigan circuit have slipped by and the visiting horsemen say it can't be beaten.

If Silk Hat is something else, they have done a mighty good job, but evidence is that he is all right.

UMPIRE DALY MOBBED BY PEEVED OTTAWA FANS

Official Gave Decision That Favored St. Thomas, and Has to Leave Field in an Automobile.

Ottawa, July 15.—Umpire Daly caused a small riot at Lansdowne Park this afternoon when he gave a decision in favor of St. Thomas. The crowd swarmed on to the field, and stones, cushions, pop bottles and other missiles were thrown at the umpire, who made his escape from the field in an automobile. It was the second game of the series, and St. Thomas won by the score of 4 to 2. This is the first time since Ottawa has been in the Canadian Baseball League circuit that an umpire has been mobbed in this city. The score.

BERLIN TURNED TABLES ON LOUIS COOK'S LEAFS

White's Outfit Batted Jack Fitzpatrick Off the Mound in Seventh After Getting Seven Runs.

Berlin, Ont., July 15.—White's outfit turned the tables on the Guelph Leafs today by coming from behind and pounded a 11 to 6 victory in the seventh inning. The locals took a nice lead early in the game, but the Leafs with one hit assisted by three miscues in the infield scored three in the seventh and jumped to the front by 5 to 4. In their seventh the heavy artillery of White's outfit started and after batting right around they retired with seven counters. Bradshaw, who was pitching a fine article of ball for the locals, opened the session with a single and closed it with a double. Ragged fielding alone prevented him from registering a shutout. Fitzpatrick, who was serving up the sphere for the Mahoneyites was dericked in the seventh. Dorbeck was brought in from right field, but his offerings were easy and in the eighth Manager Cook put Fitzpatrick back to finish. The score:

After two weeks of rather poor business it will be a relief to the circuit followers to see a good man on the job.

RUDOLPH BLEW UP.

Boston, July 15.—Rudolph pitched a fine game for Boston until the eleventh inning today, but he blew up then, and Pittsburg batted hard and won, six to three. In the final session the visitors made five hits, which included Byrne's two-bagger and a triple by Hendrix. These, with a sacrifice, netted four runs. In their half of the eleventh the locals rallied slightly, but could only score one run. Score:

Syracuse is going to mix in a couple of running races daily in its grand circuit program. Gradually, we are getting back toward the big wheel.

The Boston Globe printed this sensible paragraph a week ago: "With the finest month in the year gone, the mile track horses are to start their campaign."

Grattan Royal had a suspicious prop before he left Detroit. It is said that his injury is not permanent and that he will start in the Chamber of Commerce stakes.

Dillon Axworthy recently came the last half of a 2:15 mile in 1:03½, so that he probably will figure in the money division of the Matron stake at the Blue Ribbon meeting.

Inability to Play First Base Owing to Injured Foot, and Inward Trouble With Players Said To Be Cause of Jake Stahl's Release.

Chicago, July 15.—"Jake" Garland Stahl was ousted as manager of the Boston Americans today by James McAleer, president of the club. Though differences, amounting to a serious "misunderstanding" with McAleer, were rumored causes of Stahl's release, both manager and president insisted that the demand of stockholders for a "playing manager" was the motive. Stahl's leadership technically included today's game. Tomorrow Catcher William Carrigan will assume charge of the team at Detroit.

Stahl's release was unconditional, and he will give up baseball as a business, although retaining his Red Sox stock, devoting his time in the future to his banking business in Chicago. He has played few games this season, an injured foot keeping him out of the field. He managed the team from the bench.

Stahl was grieved apparently at McAleer's decision to release him, and declared he had done his best to sustain the team's reputation, as world's champions. To bad luck, including his own inability to take part in more games, Stahl attributed the comparatively poor showing of the team this year.

Inability to Play the Cause.

During the morning Stahl called on President McAleer, who was here, to ascertain the president's plans for the next season. According to McAleer he asked Stahl if he thought he would be in a position to play first base for the Red Sox in 1914. Stahl did not give a direct answer, informing McAleer that he did not know whether or not his injuries would permit him to get back into the game next season or not.

"If you can't play first base, I suppose we will have to get another manager," McAleer is said to have told Stahl. Jake then informed McAleer that he need not wait until next season to put the club under a new manager, and asked to be relieved from the position at the finish of today's game.

Internal Trouble Rumored.

In connection with the news of Stahl's release, stories of internal trouble among the Red Sox, were retold today. Factional differences, dating from the world's series of last year, were among the causes hinted at in discussion of the manager's release. According to these stories Carrigan, the new manager, was among the leaders of the faction which, rumor says, was against Stahl. Hints of differences reached Chicago with the arrival of the Boston team a few days ago, but were denied by McAleer and the manager.

Stahl was induced by McAleer to rejoin the Boston team and assume the management at the beginning of the 1912 season, soon after McAleer became president. Under Stahl's leadership, aided materially by his own prowess on the field, the team captured the highest honors of the national game from the New York Nationals last fall. He held a two-year contract, but waived his rights under this at today's conference.

Was Not Unexpected.

Close followers of the falling fortunes of the Red Sox had been led to look for some such developments, as a result of a disagreement between President James R. McAleer, of the Boston club, and Manager Stahl. The basis of this disagreement, according to some, was the reported desire of Stahl to supplant McAleer as president. The latter was told of a movement believed to be directed toward making Stahl president. When he was asked about the matter, Stahl is understood to have disclaimed all knowledge of it.

It is estimated that with his salary as player-manager of $10,000, his players' share of the world's series receipts and his dividends on club stock, Stahl cleared $25,000 last season.

"Bill" Carrigan, who succeeds Stahl as manager, has a reputation as one of the leading baseball strategists among active players. He is 29 years old, and a native of Lewiston, Maine. He came to Boston from Holy Cross College in 1906, and has been with the Red Sox since, except for part of the season of 1907, when he played with Toronto.

Vice-President John I. Taylor, the only officer of the club in the city, could not be reached this evening in connection with Stahl's resignation.

EDDIE PLANK HELD TIGERS SCORELESS
