MRS. POTTER'S PLAY.

The New York Herald Condemns It in Unmeasured Terms.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—While the general cable despatches record Mrs. James Brown Potter's appearance in her new play, "Loyal Love," as a success, The Herald's special cable condemns in unstinted terms both the piece and the actress. Of the play, The Herald says:

The play is utterly devoid of dramatic sequence in situation and of concentration of interest. It is fearfully talky, prosy and puerile, until there come a few dynamite crackers in the last act. It is full of plagiarisms diluted into dulness.

While Mrs. Potter is scored in the following choice words:

Mrs. Potter, in a monologue invocation to a rose and to her embroidery frame, was elocutionary, and in her denunciation of Gonzales she was unequal. At one time, by a bit of rhodomontade, she received a hearty laugh, even in the stalls and boxes. She posed sweetly several times in the arms of Bellew, who made a capital sweetheart. She drawled fearfully at times, but she has improved in her pitch of voice and in stage ease, and has much of that marionette style which belongs to the Mary Anderson school.

The Herald also gives currency to a rumor that Mrs. Potter has finally separated from her husband.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember: No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents. 246

SIMPLY AWFUL.

A Man Baked in an Oven for Full Forty Hours.

ALBANY, Aug. 15.—John J. Reilly, aged 22, foreman in Rathbun, Sard & Co.'s stove foundry disappeared Saturday morning. To-day his body was found in an oven for baking ladles. It is presumed he went in there, and lying down fell asleep. A fire was started Saturday, and the door of the oven was then locked. His presence not being noticed, he was baked for a full forty hours.

DR. W. L. SMITH,
(Consulting Surgeon, 356 Church-Street, Toronto)
DEAR SIR: I feel myself called on, in gratitude to you, and from a regard to any of my fellow creatures who may be afflicted as I had been for several years with a malignant sore, to publish and make known your gentle, easy and most successful treatment in my case. When I consider that some who were eminent in the medical profession failed in removing my complaint, the more do I admire your knowledge and skill in this department of the healing art, and the more do I desire that others who are suffering from sores similar to mine, should not delay in applying to you for a cure, which, under God, you were instrumental in affording me.
I have the honor to be, dear sir,
Yours very respectfully,

Chronic
Catarrh destroys the sense of smell and taste, consumes the cartilages of the nose, and, unless properly treated, hastens its victim into Consumption. It usually indicates a scrofulous condition of the system, and should be treated, like chronic ulcers and eruptions, through the blood. The most obstinate and dangerous forms of this disagreeable disease
Can be cured by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "I have always been more or less troubled with Scrofula, but never seriously until the spring of 1882. At that time I took a severe cold in my head, which, notwithstanding all efforts to cure grew worse, and finally became a chronic Catarrh. It was accompanied with terrible headaches, deafness, a continual coughing, and with great soreness of the lungs. My throat and stomach were so polluted with the mass of corruption from my head that Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, and Emaciation totally unfitted me for business. I tried many of the so-called specifics for this disease, but obtained no relief until I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using two bottles of this medicine, I noticed an improvement in my condition. When I had taken six bottles all traces of Catarrh disappeared, and my health was completely restored.—A. B. Cornell, Fairfield, Iowa.
For thoroughly eradicating the poisons of Catarrh from the blood, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
It will restore health and vigor to decaying and diseased tissues, when everything else fails.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Catarrh
Is usually the result of a neglected "cold in the head," which causes an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose. Unless arrested, this inflammation produces Catarrh which, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with Catarrh. When promptly treated, this disease may be by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "I suffered, for years, from chronic Catarrh. My appetite was very poor, and I felt miserably. None of the remedies I took afforded me any relief, until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which I have now taken five bottles. The Catarrh has disappeared, and I am growing strong and stout again; my appetite has returned, and my health is fully restored.—Susan L. W. Cook, 630 Albany street, Boston Highlands, Mass.
I was troubled with Catarrh, and all its attendant evils, for several years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using two bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint, and completely restored my health and strength.—Jesse Boggs, Holman's Mills, Abbermarle, N. C.
If you would strengthen and invigorate your system more rapidly and surely than by any other medicine, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
It is the safest and most reliable of all blood purifiers. No other remedy is so effective in cases of chronic Catarrh.
Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.
