500 WERE KILLED!

Facts Regarding Recent Massacre of Converts at Quelpart---Boxers Defeat Chinese Troops.

London, June 19.—The Japanese consul at Mok Pho, Corea, reports that the recent mission troubles at the Island of Quelpart (at the entrance of the Yellow Sea) were caused by native converts. These person so exasperated the other natives that the latter surrounded them and killed 500 of them. The foreign cruisers are still at Quelpart.

The Shanghai correspondent of the London Standard, cabling under date of June 18, says that a Chinese military graduate named Tien Lo Siang has collected a large force of Boxers and disbanded soldiers, and has induced the inhabitants of numerous walled villages and towns in the southwestern part of Chi Li province to unite in opposing the collection of taxes for the war indemnity.

It is reported that Tien Lo Siang and his followers have already defeated the imperial troops in several encounters. This movement threatens to spread into Shang Tung province.

A NEW BOER PROCLAMATION!

Colonists Who Give Information Must Pay $250 or Join Commando.

General Botha and His Commandants May Ignore Kruger---Boers' Desperate Attempt to Recapture a Lost Convoy---Severe Fighting---Gen. French Is Infusing New Life Into Operations.

GEN. FRENCH'S SPIRIT.

Cape Town, June 19.—Gen. French, who has been appointed to direct the operations in the Cape Colony, is infusing new life into the operation of the colonial forces. Reinforcements have recently been poured into the colony, and large, concerted movements are about to be executed.

DESPERATE FIGHTING.

Sloden's Mounted Infantry, forming the advance guard of General Elliott's column, recently captured a Boer convoy. The burghers who were accompanying the convoy were speedily reinforced from their main body, and made a determined attempt to recapture the convoy. Gen. Elliott immediately sent forward a portion of Delisle's Mounted Infantry, and the Boers were then driven off, after desperate fighting, in which the losses on both sides were considerable.

An accident occurred to the Cape Mail train at Bloemfontein today, in which several of the passengers were injured.

BOER PROCLAMATION.

Molteno, Cape Colony, June 19.—Kritzinger and Fouche, the Boer commanders, are busy placarding Cape Colony with a proclamation to the effect that, in accordance with the powers assumed when the northern part of Cape Colony was annexed to the Orange Free State, 20 months ago, any persons reporting the whereabouts of any Boer command will be fined £50, or, in default, will be compelled to accompany the command on foot for three months.

According to best information there are about 2,100 armed Boers in Cape Colony, and they continue to secure a few recruits.

THE PASSING OF KRUGER.

London, June 18.—The Sun, which, however, has not heretofore been over-reliable on this subject, hears that Mr. Kruger has actually cabled to Gen. Botha, declining to concede anything, and in consequence of this decision Gen. Botha and the commandants agreeing with his peace views have decided to repudiate Mr. Kruger's authority, and a further consultation with Mr. Botha's representative and Lord Kitchener will be arranged for next week.

WILL BOTHA QUIT?

The Times' correspondent at Pretoria says: It is some time since I first hinted at the possibility that Gen. Botha, following Mr. Kruger's example, might leave the country at the time best suited to his own interests. The departure of Mrs. Louis Botha to Europe lends distinct color to the report. Last week at Spitzkop, southwest of Amsterdam, Gen. Botha, according to the statement of a Boer, who was present, addressed his followers. He repeated his assurances that England was embarrassed by European complications, and instanced the kindness shown to Boers who has surrendered as a sign of our inability to cope any longer with their resistance.

HIDING IN THE MOUNTAINS.

Gen. Blood's operations have proved how the Boers have profited by Gen. Botha's advice to them not to surrender and not to fight but to hide in the mountains. Several commanders who own large farms, Joubert, Schoeman and others, are known to be wavering. A well-circulated proclamation announcing that in a month's time everything belonging to those on commando would be confiscated, and the leaders themselves, when captured, deported for life, would have a salutary effect.

GREAT ARMY IN SOUTH AFRICA.

The British war office gives a return of the military forces in South Africa for 1899—1901. There were in garrison on August 1, 1889, a total of but 9,940 officers and men; reinforcements from August 1 to October 11, 1899, numbered 12,546, so that when war was declared Britain had just 22,580 troops in South Africa.

Further reinforcements were sent from October 11, 1899, to the end of July, 1900, which increased the total number sent to the war, including the original garrison, to 265,132. By April 30, 1901, there had been sent from home and the colonies 347,661.

Up to April 13, 1901, the killed numbered 4,022; wounded, 17,209; died of disease or wounds, 10,956; disbanded or discharged in South Africa, 10,956; in hospital, 6,685; in hospital in South Africa, 13,797.

There left South Africa for England, not invalids, 22,081; sick, wounded and dead on passage, 47,739; there returned to India, 90; to the colonies, 6,672.

The strength of the forces on May 1, 1901, was made up as follows:

Regulars	138,002
Colonials	58,821
Imperial Yeomanry	23,104
Volunteers	9,385
Militia	20,104
Total	249,416

PRESBYTERIAN PARLIAMENT

Takes Up the Matter of French Evangelization—Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston Scores the Catholic Church.

Ottawa, June 18.—In the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church Monday afternoon, Principal MacVicar, of Montreal, presented the report of the committee on French evangelization, and moved its adoption.

Rev. Dr. Johnston, of London, in seconding the motion, said that when Canada became Catholic the name of Dr. MacVicar should stand in honor, for to him more than any other man the success that had attended this work so far was largely due. He recognized that this evangelization work was directed against a church which had given the world some of the noblest and best souls Christendom had ever known; which had furnished some of the best devotional works they had on their book shelves, which had produced some of the grandest and best defenses of many truths which Protestants regarded as essential, but their fight was against an oppressive, out-of-date system, not against individuals. The war in Africa was directed not against individuals, but against a system which was not in keeping with the progress and advancement of the age. They were determined to oppose the consistent purpose of the Roman Catholic Church, which was to dominate the state. It was quite true that Rome had lost its temporal power, but this significant fact must be borne in mind: The Roman Catholic Church was the same as ever, but it had changed its attitude. It had leagued itself with the greatest democratic and labor movements, with the object of dominating, not monarchies, but the great democracy which was growing up in every land. Unless the democratic movement in labor and social organizations was to be under the control of that church it behooved Protestants to continue still the struggle.

Rev. Dr. Amaron, of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Montreal, strongly pleaded for support for French evangelization. He said the Church of Rome was losing its hold in Quebec. There were thousands and thousands who no longer believed in that system, and either never went to church or attended mass on state occasions, simply to keep up appearances. These men would soon be in the ranks of Godless anarchy, destroying the fabric of the nation, while the Presbyterian Church was evangelizing the west, the east would become pagan unless the Gospel was given to them.

Rev. M. F. Boucheau, of Grenville, affirmed that there were signs of awakening throughout the Province of Quebec. The breath of the Gospel was being felt, and they rejoiced that no power was able to put it under the ban. The speaker in the course of his address made the charge that the French Roman Catholics of St. Hyacinthe, on the occasion of the relief of Ladysmith, tore down the British flag which had been hoisted to celebrate the British victory and burned it.

Addresses were also delivered by Rev. S. A. Carriere, of Grand Bend, Lake Huron; Rev. E. H. Brandt, of Pointe Aux Trembles; Rev. Narcisse McLaren, of the Desert, and Rev. E. D. Seylaz, of Ottawa.

The report was then adopted.

France, It Is Declared, Has Arranged Secret Convention With China.

A SECRET ARRANGEMENT.

London, June 19.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Paris declares that under the terms of a secret convention with China, France will be able to protect the proposed new railway from Tonquin into Yun Nan with French troops, exactly as Russia does in Manchuria, and that France intends to exercise this right, although the intention so to do may now be denied. The railway will also be extended past Yun Nan Fu to the upper waters of the Yang Tse Kiang.

SETTLEMENT NEAR.

Washington, June 19.—At the cabinet meeting yesterday there was a desultory discussion of the Chinese settlement. The cabinet believe that the Chinese settlement is close at hand. Secretary Hay suggested that the amounts voluntarily paid the American missionaries by Chinese provinces should be deducted from our aggregate claim of $25,000,000. The general sentiment of the cabinet seemed to favor this course, but no action was taken.

FRANCE IN DREAD OF PANIC.

Paris, June 19.—Rentes fell 22 centimes on Monday. Inquiries show that the fall is attributed to the grave uneasiness resulting form the government's anti-religious policy and from the income tax legislation. Count la Rochelle stated that to his certain knowledge three milliards of france ($600,000,000) had gone out of France in the last two months because of the fear among the moneyed classes for the future of France.

Premier Waldeck-Rousseau in his speech in the Senate adopted an extremely moderate tone respecting the teratment o fthe religious orders. This was intended to reassaure the public mind, which had been horrified by the open declarations of Mm. Pelletan, Vaillant and Zevaes in the Chamber of Deputies that the associations bill meant a war on religion.

On this account the Senate has ordered that the premier's speeh be posted up through France. Nevertheless the public mind is by no means calm.
