Sovereign Brand

The man who speculates in clothing is a brother to the chap who "wants to see if it's loaded"—he takes a risk when he doesn't have to. You can buy the wrong suit in ten minutes, but remember it takes a long time to get over the "roast." The man who buys SOVEREIGN BRAND tailored clothes doesn't have to speculate. He gets safe merchandise—$15 to $25.

MARINE

The steamer Nepawah of the Montreal & Lake Superior Navigation Co. unloaded a large shipment of general merchandise at the company's wharf here yesterday. The freight-shed was practically filled when she departed last night for Fort William. She came from Montreal.

The steamer Picton of the R. & O. Navigation Co. was nearly a day late, being delayed by a heavy fog at the eastern end of the lake.

The Kingston of the R. & O. arrived yesterday from Kingston, where she received a general overhauling in dry-dock.

C. J. Smith, general manager, and Gilbert Johnston, mechanical superintendent of the R. & O., yesterday made their final inspection of the steamers Kingston and Toronto. Both boats will be put in commission on June 1.

Detroit, May 14.—The schooner Ellen Williams, loaded with lumber and ties for Tonawanda, struck an obstruction in the lower Detroit River yesterday and sank soon after in Callum's Bay, on the Canadian side.

NORTH BRITISH COMPANY TO TAKE OVER POLICIES

Mutual Life Astonished by Report and Say Results Would Be Disastrous.

New York, May 14.—The Tribune says: Emory McClintock, vice-president of the Mutual Life, who is in charge of the company's agency business in all parts of the world, was astonished when a cable message from London, saying that the North British & Mercantile Co. might take over policies of the Mutual Life, amounting to $45,000,000, was read to him last night. He said he was not prepared to believe that the British company had agreed to everything it was reported as having offered.

Last week the North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. proposed to take over the New York Mutual Life's holders' interest in the payment of the same premium they are now paying without further medical examination and with liberal privileges and an immediate participation in the profits of the company.

This was found to be practicable with regard to policies representing $45,000,000, and subject to full surrender value. With regard to unmatured policies the North British and Mercantile Co. declared it was prepared to negotiate for these on liberal terms.

D. C. Halderman, former manager in London for the Mutual Life, submitted the proposals to the committee presided over by Lord St. Oswald, and they unanimously resolved to support them. Mr. Halderman will join the North British and Mercantile as manager of its life department, and will transfer a portion of his old staff to that company.

"That is certainly remarkable, but it may not be true, you know. I feel confident that the policyholders will not enter into any such arrangement in any great number, while a great proportion of the policyholders will be deceived by it. It would be the worst thing they could do. They would get no more safety and worse results."

Any policyholder who has been in the Mutual Life for any length of time would lose the benefit of all he had paid into the company. In the first place, altho that cable message makes announcement to the contrary, the North British & Mercantile will not accept such policyholders without medical re-examination.

TRANSFER POLICIES.

London, May 14.—The British policyholders of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York are being organized into rival camps. Those following the plan outlined by the "protection committee," headed by R. C. Haldeman, the former London manager of the Mutual, to-day, flocked to the offices of the North British & Mercantile Insurance Company, where they filled out papers transferring their policies to the British concern. Mr. Haldeman is also receiving hundreds of applications by mail. He claims to have a majority of the large holders on his side, and expects the smaller ones to follow their lead.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT.

Presents His Opinions on the Rate Bill Negotiations.

Washington, May 14.—A statement bearing on the railroad rate bill incident in the senate Saturday, was issued by the White House this evening.

It consists of a letter from Attorney-General Moody to President Roosevelt, giving as account, at the president's request, of the conferences which Mr. Moody had by the president's direction, with Senators Tillman and Bailey, regarding the court review features of the pending rate legislation, and a letter from the president to Senator Allison on the subject.

The president says his own opinion, that Mr. Allison's amendment in no way changed the scope of the court review, as provided in the original Hepburn bill, is also the opinion of Attorney-General Moody and Secretaries Root and Taft.

He adds that as to none of the amendments did he say to Mr. Chandler or any one else that he should insist upon having them in the bill as a condition of his approval.

Ask Him to Stay.

The quarterly board of Parkdale Methodist Church last night invited their pastor, Rev. W. H. Hincks, LL.B., to remain with them another year. Mr. Hincks accepted the invitation.
