SHORTS IN WHEAT WERE GIVEN SCARE

Falling Off in World's Available Supply Gave Prices Upturn.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Short sellers over-reached themselves today in wheat. On trying to cover they found the market bare of offerings, and had to bid up prices to an unexpected extent. The result was a strong close at an advance of 5-8c to 3-4c net. Corn finished 3-8c to 3-4c up and oats with a gain of 1-8c, but provisions were 2 1-2c to 10c off.

Impetus for the shorts to protect their trades was found in a decided falling off in the world's available supply. The reduction for the week made a noticeable contrast as against a generous enlargement during the corresponding time a year ago. It was also pointed out that the world's stock had waned in February, the first instance for more than eight years.

Rumors of an improved cash demand stimulated the upturn in corn. Illinois and Iowa reports indicated also a diminishing of receipts. Besides the pit was evidently oversold the same as in wheat, having grown unduly bearish in consequence of the mild weather.

Notwithstanding that a rush of selling had borne hard against oats, the market for that cereal rallied with other grain.

Provisions suffered from selling that was laid mostly to packers. Steady prices for hogs failed to act as an offset.

DEHORN YOUR CATTLE.

Buyers Discriminate Against Cattle Wearing Horns with Sharp Tips.

By a resolution of the Toronto Live Stock Exchange, passed over a year ago, a regulation will come into effect on the first of April next docking all cattle wearing horns $2 pe head. This in a way sounds unreasonable, but when it is considered that the slaughterers of cattle have to stand annual losses of from a quarter to a half million dollars on account of concealed bruises, the regulation does not seem to be such a hardship. However, a movement has been on foot to possibly postpone the date this regulation is to come into effect, and several prominent buyers interviewed on this subject express themselves as not being desirous of working what might be considered a hardship on the farmers and drovers by this regulation.

At the same time they point out the enormous losses which their houses have to stand, which is traceable directly to horned cattle. However, there seems to be a fair opinion that if some other method can be employed to prevent these bruises they would be agreeable to postpone this regulation. One idea suggested, and it seems a good one, is that the farmer or drover procure a fine tooth saw, a small meat or mitre saw is good, and costs very little, and cut off the sharp tips on the horns before they leave the farm and before they are mixed with strange cattle.

This tipping is absolutely painless, easily done and prevents the beast from inflicting pain upon his fellows. Only about one inch or an inch and a half of the hard tip of the horn is sawed off, care being taken not to cut into the quick.

It is suggested that if the Humane Society saw some of the bruised carcases and torn hides on the cattle an endeavor would be made to obtain a law compelling handlers of live stock to at least fit the animals in such a way that they would not damage each other during shipment.

Scientific Sheep Raising.

(Special Correspondent.)

HALIFAX, N.S., March 9.—A step forward in sheep-raising has been taken by a newly organized company in this province, which with a capital of $20,000 has opened an experimental farm to breed sheep on a scientific basis. The company has purchased 500 acres of land upon which 300 sheep are already installed. The forming of the new concern was caused by the continually increasing demand for lamb and mutton, the prices of which have increased in the last twelve years.

IT MUST BE A TERRIBLE PLACE.

STEVESTON, B.C., March 10.—Terrified by the possibility of missing the New Westminster-bound tram car and having an hour to wait for another, a Japanese yesterday morning over-exerted in running to the car, and collapsed as he sank into a seat. The body was taken to Vancouver and left at the morgue, where an inquest will be held by Coroner Jeffs.

GUELPH MAGNET FOR ORANGEMEN

Black Knights and Grand Lodge of Ontario West Gather in Session.

GUELPH, March 10.—The Grand Black Chapter, Royal Black Knights of Ireland, opened its annual session in Tovell's Hall this afternoon, Grand Master Ed Lankin of Toronto presiding. The black chapter will conclude by noon tomorrow, and the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West will convene in the afternoon at the city hall. Fred Dane of Toronto is grand master.

T. W. Fox, county master, anticipates an attendance of 700 to 800 at the grand lodge this year, an increase over the number at Windsor last year.

Assisting the county master is a reception committee, consisting of Messrs. J. P. McKay, W. McCausland, D. Shanks, J. E. A. Skine, F. G. Hatch and R. Hatch, Guelph, and H. M. Henry, Hespeler.

All trains today brought delegates to the black chapter. Canon Walsh is spoken of as the possible new grand master of the black chapter.

Among the prominent members of the grand black chapter who arrived in the city today are: Ed Lankin, Toronto, grand master; Col. Belcher, Toronto, past grand master; Canon Walsh, Brampton, deputy grand master; A. A. Gray, associate deputy grand master, and Marshall Thompson, Windsor, past grand master of the British-American Order.

When the black chapter met, Grand Master Lankin read his address, and the reports of Grand Registrar Fennell of Toronto and Treasurer William Cook of Meaford.

Grand Registrar Fennell, in his report, said that the membership was 4128, an increase of 648 for the year. Eight new preceptories were organized during the year, one at Porcupine, two at Toronto and one at Selwood, Sudbury, Guelph and Hornby.

Referring to Guelph, the grand registrar said that advantage would be taken to make Guelph the centre of a Protestant educational campaign.
