RESTRAINT IS URGED IN MOTORING AND CYCLING

Britain's Wealthier Classes Asked to Stop "Selfish, Thoughtless Extravagance."

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The government's war savings committee issued today the first of a series of appeals in which it will point out to the people of the country facts regarding various forms of expenditure "which should be checked as wasteful and as absorbing labor that could be put to better use."

The first appeal deals with the use of automobiles and the purchase of pleasure.

"If this form of selfish, thoughtless extravagance is stopped," says the appeal, "millions of pounds will be saved and many workers transferred to more useful channels. We appeal to all owners to consider earnestly whether the use of their cars can be justified by any question of public utility or real necessity.

"We cannot ask the poorer classes to save as long as they see the well-to-do enjoying such expensive luxuries."

SWEDEN WANTS U.S. TO COERCE GREAT BRITAIN

Appeals for Interference in Regard to Seizure of Mails in Transit.

SEEKS NEUTRAL LEAGUE

Prearranged Note to Washington Claims Violation of International Law.

co-operation it be sought to maintain and preserve certain important rules of international law, which concern protection of neutral commerce and navigation, and which are being violated by Great Britain.

Violation of Rules.

"The violation of existing rules of international law has, regardless of protests, increased until at present only a few rules, serving as protection to neutral commercial intercourse, are observed by Great Britain and it is feared that also these remaining few will be violated.

"His majesty's government, which is deeply conscious of its responsibility not to omit any measure, tending to prevent such an eventuality, and well aware of the danger for the future if these rules which are of infinite worth to civilization as a whole, are not preserved, desires to herewith make a renewed presentation to your excellency, in this respect.

"Of late the British authorities have violated the mail traffic. Parcel post from one neutral country to another is being unloaded in British ports and the contents are being seized. While parcel post is not protected thru The Hague postal convention, it nevertheless seems to his majesty's government that the British procedure in the form and extensiveness practised, would be invalid even with regard to ordinary express goods, and that this seems particularly evident when the seizure of parcel post is directed against a means of conveyance under guarantee of sovereign powers. Besides, great personal inconvenience is connected with seizure of this kind.

British Censor Mail.

"However, England's present practice of censoring also first-class mail, sent by neutral vessels from one neutral country to another, is an even greater violation of the rights accorded neutral powers by the rules of international law. It is not necessary particularly to point out how contrary this practice is to the stipulations in the above-mentioned Hague Convention, which stipulations or rules must be considered to have been in existence even before the promulgation of this convention.

"The royal government now therefore, appeals to the government of the United States for co-operation for the purpose of seeking to bring about a discontinuance of the violations of international law, at least so far as the same concerns first-class mail, and it solicits as early an answer as possible, whether your excellency is willing to take appropriate action in co-operation with the royal government, and, eventually, the governments of other neutral countries, for the purpose of causing that the rule which the question involves—and which is one of the fundamental stipulations of international law—be observed."

Miss Mildred Montizambert, Ottawa, is spending some weeks at The Welland, St. Catharines.

The marriage will take place quietly today in Montreal of Mildred Mary Foran, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Foran, to Capt. Walter L. Goode, 97th Battalion (American Legion), Canadian Expeditionary Force, Toronto.

The Union Jack Chapter, I. O. D. E., South Etobicoke, have rented and furnished a clubroom for the platoon of the 127th, stationed in Mimico. The women have supplied every want for the enjoyment of the soldiers, even supplying a billiard table and piano.
