
ST. LAURENT COLLEGE, Near MONTREAL.

THIS Institution, founded by the Rev. Fathers of the Holy Cross in 1847, and Incorporated by Act of Parliament in 1849, is empowered, by affiliation to Laval University, Quebec, to confer University Degrees. The course of Studies is divided into two Departments, Classical and Commercial :—The Classical Department comprises six years, and embraces the different branches necessary to prepare young men for ecclesiastical Seminaries, or for any of the liberal professions, viz :—English Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, Belles-Lettres, Rhetoric, Elocution, Ancient and Modern History, Latin, Greek, Botany, Natural History, Algebra, Geometry—plane, solid and spherical—, Trigonometry, Calculus, Geology, Zoology, Mineralogy, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry, Logic, Metaphysics,—general and special,—and Ethics.

The superiority of the Commercial Department has always distinguished St. Laurent College and placed it in the front rank of the Commercial Institutes of Canada, as is fully testified by the high positions now occupied by its graduates. It embraces all branches of science included in a complete theoretical and practical Commercial Education. Another advantage offered to the public is that the Classical and Commercial Departments are taught in the English Language. For the further maintenance of order, all Students must, before matriculation, show testimonials of their good conduct and high moral standing.
