A Safe Place For Victory Bonds

Your home is not a safe place for Victory Bonds.

Bonds and coupons payable to bearer may be negotiated by anyone if stolen or lost. If destroyed by fire, difficulty might be experienced in procuring duplicates.

A safe-deposit-box in a burglar-proof, fire-proof, steel vault is the safest place for your bonds, valuable private papers, and jewelry.

For the small yearly rental of $3.00 you may obtain a private steel safe, equipped with a Yale lock and one key. No two keys are alike.

For the convenience of box-holders a special room is maintained within the vault, where they may privately examine their documents.

An inspection of our safe-deposit vault will not obligate you in the least.

WAIT OFFICIAL WORD BEFORE REPLYING TO BOARD'S ULTIMATUM

Teachers Decline to Say Anything For Publication.

For the present no statement for publication will be made by the Woman Teachers' Guild concerning the action of No. 1 committee of the board of education last week in deciding to demand that the guild inform the Local Council of Women that the resolution which the latter body passed, charging discrimination against women teachers in favor of male teachers was based on incorrect information given by the Teachers' Guild or its representative.

The ultimatum from the board, intrusted to Secretary R. M. McElheran to prepare and forward to the "discontented employees," has not yet been received by the guild.

"All we know yet," said a member of the executive to The Advertiser, "is what we have seen in the press. Until the board communicates directly with us we are not in a position to take any action or say anything on the subject."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

At the closing session of the London Conference, held in Walkerville, a resolution concerning the observance of the Sabbath was moved by Rev. G. C. Gifford and passed by the conference. Your report of this resolution has left a wrong impression in the minds of many. Would you be kind enough to publish the resolution, which speaks for itself:

"In view of the trend away from the services of the church in summer resorts, and in view of the tendency to Sabbath desecration in those places,

"Resolved, that this conference instruct the committee on the pastoral address for 1919 to make a strong appeal to the Methodist people within the conference, that their moral support be given to the efforts of the churches in these places which rank as summer resorts within the conference."

Thanking you for this correction, sincerely yours, B. SNELL,
Secretary Conference.

CRITICISM HEARD AT HOME SHAMEFUL, IS BISHOP'S WORD

Visit to the Front Disproves Them, Declares Right Rev. M. F. Fallon.

Bishop Fallon of this city is more than enthusiastic over his visit to the Canadian front in Flanders. A press cable from England says:

London, June 22.—Bishop Fallon of London, Ont., speaking to a gathering of Canadians, said: "I think it a good thing that the western premiers have been to France. I hope they will go again and stay longer. I hope Premier Borden will go from one end to the other. He will then see not only what an effort Canada has made, but how unreasonable, empty and shameful is some of the criticism heard occasionally in our own country. That sort of criticism has had no effect on the soldiers at the front.

"I am more enthusiastic than ever at the splendid co-ordination of Canadian effort. I am now visiting the Canadian camps in England. What I have already seen here shows me that the effort made in France finds its co-ordination in England."

LONDON ROTARIANS WILL BOOST CITY AT BIG CONVENTION

Juvenile Pipe Band Is Taken to Kansas City.

Rotarians, representing the London Rotary Club, left at 9 o'clock Saturday night for Kansas City, where a continental convention of Rotary Clubs is to be held this week. The local party was accompanied by Sergt.-Major MacDonald's juvenile pipe band, which will take part in the Rotarian parade to be held in Kansas City.

It is the intention of the local delegation to boost the Forest City at the convention, and the pipe band will prove a great factor in doing this, the large drum having "London, Ont." painted thereon, and every local member will carry a large streamer advertising this city.

The party arrives in Kansas City today, special cars having been provided on the train, which also carried delegates to the convention from Montreal, Brantford and Hamilton.

London Rotarians, with their private band and their banners and streamers announcing to the world who they are, will boost the Forest City first, last and always.

$400 SECURED FOR BUILDING FUND OF EGERTON ST. CHURCH

Special Anniversary Services Held There Sunday.

At the fourth anniversary of the new Egerton Street Baptist Church held yesterday about $400 was donated towards the building fund. Fifty dollars of this was taken up in a special offering of the Sunday School. Principal A. T. MacNeill, of Woodstock College, preached appropriate sermons at both services and addressed the Men's Bible Class in the afternoon.

Rev. A. C. Bingham also addressed the Sunday School.

A living picture presenting the finding of Moses in the bullrushes and a tableau by Harry Dean and Stafford Churcher were the features of the open session of the Sunday School in the afternoon. The following girls were the principals in the living picture: Bessie and Minnie Holstead, Verna Hawe, Nettie Blinkhorn, Evelyn McClean, Winnie White, Leona Althouse and Marguerite Connor.

Rev. T. T. MacNeill taking for his evening discourse the three graces, Faith, Hope, Love, pictured the well-rounded character of the man who possessed these. There are others, he said, who are broad-minded in all philosophies of life, but who lacking faith, have no depth. They cannot stand the billows of adversity because, without faith, they have no anchorage.

"This war would be to me a meaningless and useless slaughter if I had not an unshaken faith in the God who is infinite in wisdom, power and love.

"I am sure that out of all this disaster He will bring ultimate blessing. As the anchor of a ship holds it secure in the storms, so will faith steady a man in the winds of adversity. Hope, even as steam drives the boat across the sea to its destination, urges us to our best efforts.

"Love," said the speaker, "is the one quality that will make its possessor a wonderful power for good in the world. Without love Christian character can never reach perfection."

During the services solos were given by Miss Blinkhorn, Miss Wonch, Miss Sharratt, and R. Patterson rendered a duet. Clifford Read and Miss V. Saiche presided at the organ for the church and Sunday school services. R. Mills, the Sunday school superintendent, occupied the chair at the afternoon session.

TWO MORE VOLUNTEERS

Windsor and London Represented in Saturday List.

Only two volunteers enlisted for service at the local mobilization centre on Saturday.

R. R. Edwards, who came from Windsor, was placed in category A2 by the medical board and was attached to the Canadian Engineers. F. Bower was accepted in this city. The medical board placed him in category B2, and he was sent to the Army Medical Corps.

Five defaulters under the military service act appeared before the medical board at the mobilization Centre on Saturday, too. Three were put in category A2 and two in category B2. All were handed over to the W. O. R. for service.

FISH FOR SUMMER

Food Board Urges It as Health Measure.

The following has been issued by the Canada Food Board:

But I am a great eater of beef, and I believe that it does harm to my wit.—Twelfth Night.

Shakespeare was a genius, and wise. What was true about beef-eating in his day is likewise true today, and especially now that summer has come to stay a while.

Beef-eating heats the eater. The summer sun scorches him. He is hot within and without. High blood pressure ensues and getting through the day becomes a task.

Fish is the food to eat in a hot weather. It does not produce as much heat as beef and pork, is more readily digested, and in a well-balanced diet is as wholesome and nutritious. Fish with vegetables make an ideal summer meal.

And when you substitute fish for beef or pork, you may take credit to yourself for releasing the two latter foods for export overseas, where they will do most good.

Keep cool and eat more fish this summer. Or put it this way: Eat more fish this summer and keep cool.

CITY REGISTRATION CARDS WILL BE BASIS OF CALL TO VOLUNTEER FARM LABORERS

Those Signed in London Being Checked Over To Get Names.

MORE THAN 50,000 SIGN

City Returns Far Exceed the Original Estimates of Assessment Department.

Registration on Saturday was an easy-going, leisurely, pleasant social function sort of event, compared with the rush and squeezing of preceding days of the week. Instead of manifesting any desire to evade registration, the citizens of London and district as a whole, and including all nationalities, evidenced a grave anxiety lest by some mishap they should fail to be recorded at all. In practically every case, or at least, with very few exceptions, the registration places were over instead of undermanned in both the city and East Middlesex. The perfection of the organization prevented hitches of any description. It is believed by both Registrars Bayly and Fitzgerald that their districts, London and East Middlesex, have been thoroughly cared for, and no one overlooked.

Checking Up Farm Volunteers.

Those who have volunteered for farm work on the registration cards will probably have an opportunity to make good sooner than they had expected. Registrar R. A. Bayly has been notified by the Dominion Government to hold the city registration cards for a week in order to permit the Ontario Government authorities to inspect them with a view to ascertaining how much farm labor may be expected from the city, to be utilized at once to take care of the harvest.

The board of trade, with the secretary, Gordon Philip, in charge, will look after the inspection of the cards.

For this reason, Mr. Bayly requests that all deputy registrars in the city turn in their bundles of registration cards to the city treasurer's office in the city hall by this afternoon.

A staff of workers in an adjoining room will be on hand to begin the immediate inspection of the cards, and make a record of the names of those volunteering for farm work for the benefit of the Ontario Government. The cards will be forwarded to Ottawa the end of the week.

Following his original instructions, Registrar W. C. Fitzgerald will forward the registration cards for East Middlesex, a rural district, to Ottawa as soon as they are all turned in.

50,000 Registered Here.

The city registration was larger by several thousands than anticipated, owing to the numbers who took advantage of pre-registering here during last week. While City Assessor Stephen Grant estimated that there were 44,000 people over sixteen years to register within the city limits, in all, between 60,000 and 70,000 registration cards were given out by Mr. Bayly. A number of these will doubtless be returned. In any case, considerably more than 50,000 people have registered in London, among these large numbers of farmers from East Middlesex, who found it an easy matter when on the market to step into an adjacent registration booth.

To The Advertiser, Mr. Bayly said yesterday: "On behalf of the registration board, I want to thank the people of the city for the splendid support they have given in making registration here effective, and for the volunteer help given. The whole of the registration system from first to last in the city has been voluntary, an unbeatable record. All the women's organizations in the city have helped, and I believe every school principal and school teacher volunteered assistance. The Canada Registration Board is also indebted to the Normal School, Westervelt's Business College, the newspapers, factories, drug stores and other business houses for the splendid assistance given throughout the week. Indeed, thanks to the organization in factories, business houses, financial institutions and newspaper offices, about three-quarters of the registration was accomplished before registration day."

Foreign Registration.

Registration of the foreign-speaking citizens in the south end of the city was accomplished to a large extent under the direction of Mr. Webster at the rolling mills earlier in the week. The work was wound up on Saturday at centre 43, in the Aberdeen School, in charge of Deputy Registrar T. H. Main.

One of the developments in connection with registration day was the bombardment of Registrar Bayly with inquiries from American summer visitors if they would be required to register. The tourists, who are here for a few weeks, or few months, on being able to prove this, were exempted.

Registrar Fitzgerald was feeling rested and satisfied today over the success of registration in East Middlesex.

"We had registration arrangements in all the schools, but in two or three," he said, adding: "Our organization was most complete, and I was fortunate in having splendid deputies. Saturday afternoon, every registration place was open and every deputy and assistant on duty. In some places, the staffs were found larger than necessary, owing to the fact that numbers of the farmers had registered in the city during the week. I should say thousands of them from the whole district. In this way, registration isn't a very accurate census of the population of the citizenship over sixteen years.

Kept Busy During Day.

"At Thorndale, Lucan, Lambeth and Dorchester, I had special deputies, with reserve supplies and reserve assistants, in case there were calls for these. During the day, I had a call for 500 more cards for Lucan, which were immediately sent out by automobile, and for 50 more certificates for the Brick street centre, in Westminster.

"From 7:20 in the morning until noon, I was kept almost continuously at the telephone, answering long distance inquiries, both from the deputies and people wanting information about registering.

"The fact that only three or four came in during the afternoon seemed an indication that the work was pretty well completed by that time.

"In addition to the cards for the school centres, I gave out 700 to McCormick's, 200 to the Byron Sanatorium, and 400 to the Hospital for the Insane. The returns have not been made yet from these places, so I may get a number of blanks back. I should say that thousands had preregistered in East Middlesex."

And now, with everybody registered, the big problem for the majority of people is how they are going to keep from losing that precious registration slip. The precaution advocated is for everyone to make a note of the certificate number, put this in a safe place, then if by extreme misadventure the certificate should disappear, there will be a possibility of obtaining a duplicate.

The registration certificate is something that people are expected to have always with them, lest they otherwise be denied the privilege of boarding street cars or trains, eating in restaurants, obtaining houses, buying goods, or doing other important and necessary things.

"I Need Hardly Say

how thankful I was to get out alive, and fully made up my mind that I would write and tell you how useful Dr. Chase's Ointment was," writes a survivor of the Gallopoli Peninsula campaign. "We found that it afforded instant relief from poison from shrubs and bushes, and got to using it for all manner of minor wounds and grazes."

85 ARE ENROLLED IN SUMMER SCHOOL WHICH OPENS TODAY

Huron College Courses Start Under Favorable Auspices.

If the number of registrations is any indication, the summer school to be held all this week at Huron College is destined to prove a success. In addition, a comprehensive and at the same time practical study program has been arranged, and leaders of outstanding ability and wide experience secured to conduct the classes and conferences.

R. A. Williams, the secretary, accompanied by his stenographer, Miss Giles, arrived from Toronto today to take over his duties, Principal C. C. Waller of Huron College having looked after the local end up to the present. In all, 85 have registered, of whom at least 75 will be in residence in the college. Of these, 25 are from Toronto, including 6 or 7 leaders; 6 from Brantford and 5 from Woodstock. Other places to be represented are Guelph, Ingersoll, Sandwich, Warwick, Mitchell, Preston, St. Thomas, Aylmer, St. Catharines, Wiarton, Galt, Waterloo, Lion's Head, Dundalk, Parkhill, Exeter, Stratford and Windsor, with a few from the city.

It is expected the majority of students will arrive this afternoon in time for dinner in the college dining-room at 6 o'clock this evening.

At 8 o'clock, the organization session will be held, when Principal Waller will extend a welcome in the absence of the Bishop of Huron, and, it is expected, Rev. R. Gay, dean of the summer school, will say a few words, outlining the work to be taken up, and other features in connection with the summer school. It is hoped that Rev. L. R. Scherman of Toronto will be present to deliver a devotional address.

The daily program for the week will be as follows:

7 a.m.—Communion.

8 o'clock.—Breakfast, followed by family prayer at the table.

9 a.m.—Mission study. Leaders: Mrs. C. C. Waller, Miss Woolverton, Rev. W. P. Robertson (Hamilton) and Rev. W. L. Brownlee, St. Thomas.

10:10 a.m. to 11 a.m.—Bible study, led by Principal C. C. Waller.

11 a.m. to 12 a.m.—Sunday school teacher training. Leaders: Dr. Silcox, principal Stratford Normal School; Miss Morley of Toronto, Rev. C. V. Pilcher of Toronto, Rev. S. S. Hardy of Wiarton.

12 a.m. to 12:15 a.m.—Intercession for war and missions.

12:20 to 1:10 p.m.—Conference. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday on social service; Wednesday and Friday on Sunday school work.

1:15 p.m.—Luncheon.

Afternoon.—Free for recreation.

6 p.m.—Dinner.

7:15 p.m.—Open air missionary address (weather permitting) by Rev. F. S. Ford of Kangra.

8:15 p.m. to 9 p.m.—Church history lecture on "Crusading Period," Rev. Canon Rigby of Toronto.

9 to 9:30 p.m.—Address by Rev. L. R. Scherman.

Special arrangements have been made for partial registration rates for people living in the city who are only able to take a part of the course, and a minimum fee is charged by the day.

EIGHT RUSSIANS ARE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY BY MILITARY POLICE

Men Did Not Have the Necessary Papers.

As the result of a tour in the foreign quarter of this city on Sunday afternoon by a squad of military police, working in conjunction with the civilian police, eight Russians were arrested and held for not having the necessary papers on their person when accosted. The police were in charge of Capt. Asa Minard, officer commanding the civil detachment of the military police for this district, and the bluecoats present were in charge of Inspector R. Birrell.

Among the places visited was a meeting hall at the corner of Ottaway avenue and Maitland street, and it was here that the majority of the arrests were made. Quite a number of foreigners were congregated here when visited by the police, but all were able to satisfy Capt. Minard as to their military status, except the eight taken into custody.

The prisoners were marched to the armories, being taken in charge by the military authorities, who will deal with them under the military service act. There was no violence shown during the visit in the south end yesterday, and everything was carried out in an orderly manner by the police, according to schedule.

The eight men arrested were today medically examined and categorized by the military authorities, and are now stationed at Carling Heights. They will remain in the army until they can prove to those in charge that they are not eligible under the military service act. Failing this proof an overseas trip is assured them.

City taxes are due July 2, three per cent allowed off second and third instalments paid by that date; five per cent added to first installment not paid by July 2. *18n

ONLY $90,000 PAID

First Tax Installment Not Due, However, Until July 2.

The first installment of taxes is due on July 2 and already $90,000 has been paid into the city coffers. The first installment amounts to $481,963.82, so there is a great deal of money which must be paid in this week.

There is a big change in the method of giving discount this year as compared with other years. This year the full amount of the first installment must be paid. If the second and third instalments are paid at the same time a reduction of 3 per cent will be allowed. This, the city estimates, is equal to 12 per cent per annum. However, the big point for first installment payers to remember is that if they do not pay their first installment on the date which it is due, five per cent will be added, and the same applies to the second and third installments.

Last year one-third of a mill was allowed off when the taxes were paid on or before the due date, and at the end of the year if all were not paid then five per cent was added.

The change in the discounts makes it worth while for the taxpayer to pay his taxes promptly.

GOOD REGISTRATION

Although the summer session of the arts department of the Western University will not begin till next week, a number of students of a high calibre have already registered for it. In accordance with the usual custom, the majority will probably not register till the opening day, Tuesday, July 2.

The courses will include the ordinary subjects of the first and second years, and the standard of work done will be equal to that of the regular session. In this way it will be possible to give university credit for those who successfully take these courses. If other summer sessions are attended, students can get sufficient credit to count rapidly towards the attainment of a degree, and this process can be the more accelerated by taking the extra mural work, which is so planned as to supplement that taken in the summer session.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

SOLDIERS AND CIGARETTES.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

It is said that courage is one of the finest things in life. And we sure admire the courage of that G. W. V. A. president that challenged the untutored remarks of Mrs. Gordon Wright.

We wish him every success, but we can't forget that a cynical old bachelor once told us that the main difference between an umbrella and a woman was that you could get the umbrella to shut up.

There is nothing like rugged lessons hewn from life, to transfer the surplus feathers from the wings of the imagination to the tail of the judgment, and when the lady in question has undergone that operation she will undoubtedly be more evenly balanced. When she has seen severely wounded soldiers lying under the parapet pleading in vain for a cigarette to soothe their shattered nerves, she may awake to the pitying social sense of human weakness.

Irvin S. Cobb says that nothing on this side of the resurrection morning will ever disturb the serene confidence of an inspired and magnificent ignorance. And we quite believe him.

At this stage of the game it begins to look as if the sad Sabbatarians intend to go the whole hog. No doubt they would have had a law passed long ago compelling the soldiers to attend church regularly if the K. R. and O. hadn't have beaten them to it.

Their present day actions remind us of the story of the Arab and his camel. You will remember how the camel thrust first his head, then his shoulders and then his whole body into the tent, and when there wasn't room for both of them in the tent, the camel told the Arab to get a hump on and beat it.

No doubt the poor devil found another tent in the course of his wanderings, but we'll bet a whole barrel of fiery two per cent against a case of Nip Tune's London dry ginger that that fool Arab never bought another camel. Nuff sed.

After all, human nature will only stand a certain amount of suppression. And when the breaking point is reached it will be a case of God help the nigger that is sitting on the safety valve. Yours, as ever,

FRED YOUNG.

KILLED IN WEST

MOOSE JAW, June 23.—John Carleton of Primrose Farm, Pasqua, Sask., and Mrs. John Harrison of Ripley, Ont., are dead, and Mrs. Smith of Sarnia was dangerously injured, as a result of an automobile accident, which occurred late Saturday afternoon at the C.P.R. crossing, near Moose Jaw College.

Mr. Carleton is a well-known farmer, 61 years of age. He was driving his two sisters, Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Smith, into the city, and in attempting to head off the Saskatchewan express was caught in a collision broadside on.

Mrs. Harrison was instantly killed, while Mr. Carleton was so badly injured that he died shortly afterward in the hospital.

Mrs. Smith sustained a fracture of the skull, but has a chance of recovery.
