Second Prizes are awarded in all the Classes, and a considerable amount is reserved for distribution at the discretion of the Judges to Articles enumerated in the List.
All Articles must have been produced or manufactured in Canada.
All Articles to which Prizes shall have been awarded, will be held liable to transmission to England.
A special Honorary Diploma, suitable to the occasion, will be presented to all parties obtaining first Prizes.
The Judges of the various Classes will be appointed by the Commissioners, from a list of names proposed by the various Societies and Institutes (in each section of the Province) connected with Agriculture, Manufactures, and the Mechanical Arts. Such Judges in no case to be Exhibitors in the Class to which they may be appointed.
Prize Articles selected for transmission to England will be packed, warehoused, insured, and shipped at the expense of the Commission.
A London Agent will be employed by the Commission to receive, warehouse, insure, and deliver such Articles at the expense of the Commission. The Proprietors of Steam Vessels on the River St. Lawrence and Lake Ontario, have liberally consented to a considerable reduction in Freight charges on all Articles forwarded to the Exhibition; and the enterprising Owner of the Steamer City of Toronto, has announced his intention to transport all such Articles free between Hamilton and Kingston.
The Commissioners desire, in publishing the above Programme, to impress upon the Public the high importance of entering zealously into this great competition.—By the liberality of the Legislature, the Commissioners are enabled to distribute Prizes equal in amount to those awarded by European Governments, and in addition to defray all the expenses incurred in the shipment, insurance and transmission of the selected articles to the Great Exhibition of all Nations. With such inducements to individual exertion and such incentives to an exalted and patriotic zeal as are given in the desire to secure to the Province that high position to which it is entitled amongst the Colonies of Great Britain, the Commissioners feel assured that the result will be such as the occasion merits.
The Commissioners accordingly rely with confidence upon the energetic co-operation of all classes competent to aid and promote the undertaking; by which Co-operation alone can the Commissioners hope to bring it to a successful and honorable issue.
Prize Lists may be obtained by application to the Mayors of Cities and Incorporated Towns, the Wardens of Counties, or to the Secretary of the Commission.
By Order of the Commissioners,
FRED. CUMBERLAND,
Secretary.
