WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1888.

The Globe's False Pretences.

For consummate cheek and the brazening out of false pretences, The Globe has within these few days capped the climax of its own record, which is saying a good deal. Last summer the Toronto Board of Trade discussed the question of Commercial Union, and found much difficulty in coming to a conclusion. The members were by a considerable majority opposed to Commercial Union with the United States—that is, most certainly so if it involved discrimination against the Mother Country. But the minority were full of "tactics" and of persistence, and had among them a few able speakers, one of whom, Mr. H. W. Darling, lately President of the Board, said probably the best that could be said on that side. And, besides, the majority were very obliging all along, and indulged the minority in almost every request that a minority could prefer. The consequence was that adjournments were made and several meetings were held, ere the question was disposed of. At last the fight came to an end with the adoption of two resolutions. The first was proposed by Mr. (now Senator) John Macdonald, and was in these terms:

1. Resolved, That this board desires to place on record its conviction that the largest possible freedom of commercial intercourse between our own country and the United States compatible with our relation to Great Britain is desirable.

That the board will gladly do everything in its power to bring about the consummation of such a result.

That in its estimation no treaty which ignored any of the interests of our country, or which gave undue prominence to any one to the neglect or to the injury of any other, is one that could be entertained.

That in our agricultural, our mineral, our manufacturing and our diversified mercantile interests, in our fisheries and forests, and other products, we possess in a rare and extraordinary degree all the elements which go to make a people great, prosperous and self-reliant.

These states are fitting inducements to any nation to render reciprocity with Canada a thing to be desired, and such as should secure for us a reciprocal treaty with the United States of the broadest and most general character, which, while fully recognizing these conditions, would contain guarantees which would prove of mutual and abiding advantage to both nations. But that this board cannot entertain any proposal which would place Great Britain at any disadvantage as compared with the United States, and which would tend in any measure, however small, to weaken the bonds which bind us to the Empire.

This resolution was adopted unanimously. Following that came another resolution, proposed by Mr. Chapman (grain merchant) as under:

2. That this board, whilst desirous of reciprocal trade relations with the United States, is opposed to Commercial Union with the United States, believing that it cannot be obtained without giving up the preservation of our autonomy as a separate nationality on this continent.

Mr. Chapman's resolution was carried by 63 to 36. And now, gentle reader, perhaps you have read these resolutions before. If so, read them over again, and try whether you can see in them—Mr. Macdonald's especially—the meaning that The Globe seeks to attach to it. The Globe's false pretence is "too thin," and cannot stand.

The personal organ of Annexationist Ellis, M.P., asks: "Was Cobden a traitor?" No. But if Cobden had advocated the annexation of Britain to France, say, he would have been a traitor, and as such would have been hooted from his national country. It will not answer for Canadian traitors to shield themselves behind the great names of imperjured Britons. This man Ellis is a disgrace to his country and his party, and it is the duty of the latter to free itself of him.

The Globe has at last discovered that in his Board of Trade banquet speech the Hon. G. W. Ross rebuked "the preachers of despair." He did, and among them The Globe, which up to within the last fortnight could see no hope for Canada except in the abandonment of the right to make her own laws. The bye-elections have had a most wholesome effect upon our contemporary, and if they have failed to similarly affect The Mail, it is because the latter is an outcast, an Ishmaelite, without a share in either victory or defeat, no matter which party loses. But let The Globe remember that Mr. Ross' speech was a record of Canadian achievement and a forecast of Canadian greatness than demonstrated the worse than needlessness of any radical change in our relations to the United States. Let well enough alone. Time is on our side. Let be—give the country a rest from a disturbing agitation conceived in chagrin and propagated by falsehood.

The Mail tells an alleged correspondent that it will continue to advocate C. U. to the bitter end. And great will be the bitterness of it. Fortunately it makes no difference now what The Mail does or leaves undone, because it has been found out and repudiated by everybody. Commercial Union will revive even its anti-Ross Blue ... which proved so disastrous to Mr. Meredith. We could wish the Winnipeg no worse fate than the unreasonable, unreasonable, and deadly patronage of a journal which has never known a friend but to betray him.

The Montreal Witness has got into trouble with its constituents by alleging that its party is in a demoralized condition. They should rather thank it for its plain speaking. Even The Globe has admitted that there is something wrong with the party management, and surely matters are not to be righted by ignoring patent facts. The country has need of a well organized Opposition with a well defined policy, and this the country most assuredly has not now. Our Liberal friends will find a bold course the best course in the end. Drifting is a dangerous expedient, particularly when they are not all drifting in the same direction.

The (Liberal) Stratford Beacon is provoked with The Globe for calling A. J. Hartley, of Bluevale, a crank because he asked its opinion of champagne guzzles at provincial auction sales. The Beacon says that he is "the highly respected Presbyterian minister at Bluevale," and was entitled to "a civil answer." But you see he "heckled" the Deacon upon a sore point—that of his glaring inconsistency on the liquor question—any reference to which causes the old woman in the lane to scold like a trull. Meanwhile any person who wishes to know where to buy ales, gins, wines, whiskies and brandies need only consult the columns of the good Deacon's prohibition organ.

The New York Herald intimates that it has bounced its Ottawa correspondent in punishment of his Chamberlain-Wiman lie. He had previously published many quite as bad, or worse, about Canada and Canadians, but in this instance he made the mistake of stirring up a star-spangled millionaire. Probably his successor will prove worthy of him, as The Herald prefers such talent. That Globe reporter who invented the Toronto assaults upon Cardinal Taschereau ought to apply for the vacancy.

SEPARATE SCHOOL ELECTIONS.

Polling in Five Wards To-Day—Lively Contests in St. George's and St. Thomas'.

Separate School trustee elections take place in St. George's, St. David's, St. Thomas', St. Matthew's and St. Stephen's Wards to-day. More than ordinary interest is manifested in the contests. It is pretty well known that individual National Leaguers are antagonistic to the re-election of old trustees who took part in the Jubilee procession. Opposition on such grounds is not to be commended, and electors should not allow themselves to be influenced by it.

The fight in St. George's Ward is particularly bitter. Mr. T. M. Hennessy, the retiring member, is opposed by Mr. D. P. Cahill, President of the Gladstone Branch of the National League. Mr. Hennessy writes The World a long letter principally upon the personal aspect the contest has developed. He denies the accuracy of the published statement that the National League are offering opposition to all retiring members who took part in the Queen's jubilee procession. Mr. Hennessy also impugns the allegation contained in a communication that there had been an illegal expenditure, and that when the guilty members retired those who sought re-election would be confronted by men more in sympathy with their constituents and at the same time more able. This communication was signed "D. P. Cahill." Mr. Hennessy maintains in reply that he has the good will, sympathy and support of the ablest members of the Gladstone branch, even although Mr. Cahill is its president. Mr. Cahill's "encyclical" to the Catholic electors is next severely criticized and its numerous allegations denied. In showing how Mr. Hennessy stands in regard to school matters, he states the Archbishop did not wish him to resign. In conclusion he says: "I have given the board during my term of office advice matured by seven years' teaching in this province. I have given hints and suggestions on school buildings and their equipments. With these credentials I have presented myself to the Catholic electors of St. George's Ward, and relying on their good sense I have no fears for the results."

The candidates in the other wards are: St. David's—Charles Burns, James Thornton. St. Stephen's—J. W. Kennedy, Dr. McMahon. St. Thomas'—John Herbert, E. J. Reilly. St. Matthew's—Geo. M. Vincent, J. S. Monahan. Things are pretty hot in St. Thomas' Ward but the indications are that Mr. Herbert will be elected. Following are the polling places: St. George's Ward, 535 King-street west; St. David's Ward, Clancy's office, Queen-street east; St. Thomas' Ward, 16 Duke-street; St. Matthew's Ward, St. Joseph School House; St. Stephen's Ward, 562 Queen street west.

The voting is open, so that the result will be known at 5 o'clock.

No Quorum of S. S. Trustees.

The Separate School Board for 1887 should have had its last session last night, but it didn't. Its needs thirteen for a quorum, but only seven put in an appearance. They were Trustees Cassidy, Kelly, Kennedy, Fraser, Ryan, O'Connor, Petley. As the elections for 1888 take place to-day, and as there will be a good deal of interest in the fight, it was expected that there would be a full meeting of the Board last night, when some interesting matters would probably be discussed. A special and final meeting will have to be called.

What the Thieves Are Doing.

The residence of Mr. George Stewart, 17 Metcalf-street, was ransacked by thieves on Monday evening while the family were absent. Jewelry, consisting of diamonds, brooches bracelets and rings, was taken from different rooms. The value of the stolen articles is estimated at $1000.

On Monday night thieves entered the house of Mrs. Frank Oliver, 387 Church-street, and stole a large quantity of silverware.

David Davis was arrested yesterday at 45 Bulwer-street on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of R. Coons' store, 61 Wooseley-street, a fortnight ago. A large quantity of clothing was found in Davis' possession which Mr. Coons has identified as his property.

A Liberal Organ on the Situation.

From The Montreal Witness.

A Liberal party must necessarily be one of principles; the fate of the Liberal party at the last election, and its failures since, teach the truth that without principle it will go to pieces. The Reform party must be one that is willing, nay, anxious, to reform evil. It must never say, as it has done in the past, that the country is not ready, and that when the people have been educated sufficiently the party will take the matter up and legislate upon it. It is the work of the Liberal party to agitate against evils, to educate people for reforms, and it should never be tempted by prospects of success or by fears of failure to abandon principles or refrain from reforms. We do not think that there are many in the Liberal party who are so fond of living in a fool's paradise that they become offended with a paper which says plainly what is as evident to them as to us.

Francis Murphy vs. Ex-Gov. St. John.

From The Philadelphia Record.

The churches of Pittsburg have closed their doors against Francis Murphy, the temperance worker. Mr. Murphy, who has followed closely in the footsteps of Father Mathew, attempts to reclaim the individual by reason and persuasion—not by the advocacy of sumptuary laws to coerce him in his conduct, thus leaving no room for the exercise of reason and conscience. If he had taken the latter course he might by this time have had the barren honor of a nomination by the Prohibition party for President of the United States.

Bow Park Cattle on China Plates.

Lovers of artistic china decoration should not fail to call at Glover Harrison's China Hall, No. 49 King-street east, and see the dozen plates on exhibition in the east window. On each plate is a finely executed painting by Birbeck (London, Eng.) of a Shorthorn cow. Experts pronounce the work to be one of the finest pieces of china decoration ever exhibited in Toronto. The Bow Park Company at Brantford has lately imported twelve Shorthorn cattle from Staffordshire, and with the importation of stock ordered through Glover Harrison a dozen plates, each bearing a painted likeness of one of the cattle. The plates will only be on exhibition another day.

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator deranges worms and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs twenty-five cents to try it and be convinced. x

An $800 Egg.

From The London Times.

At Mr. J. C. Stevens's auction rooms in King-street, Covent Garden, this week, a large number of ornithologists assembled to witness the sale of an egg of the great auk. Before offering the lot Mr. Stevens remarked that in 1880 two eggs of this bird, both of which had been broken, were sold by him, and that they fetched 100 and 102 guineas respectively. Of the recorded eggs twenty-five were in eighteen museums, and forty-one in nineteen private collections—forty-three out of sixty-six being in Great Britain. The first bid of 50 guineas was made by a well-known ornithologist, and this was followed by 60 guineas from Mr. L. Field, to whom the egg was eventually knocked down at 160 guineas.

The Empress of The Arena.

From The Pall Mall Gazette.

Apropos of the rector of the Scotch University and British Ambassador at Paris, we may mention, in answer to one or two correspondents, that the pretty circus rider in whose honor the famous gold medal was struck in Calcutta was a Miss Victoria Cook. She was afterwards known to fame in the East as "the Empress of the Arena." To have assisted to make an Empress of India is something, but to have created an Empress of the Arena—how much worthier! The high and glorious privilege of handing the golden tribute to the imperial equestrienne was, we believe, conferred upon Lord William Beresford, V.C., C.I.E., one of the most favored of Lord Lytton's staff. The affair caused a great stir throughout India, and assisted somewhat to increase the contempt that was felt for the Queen-Empress's representative by every respectable Englishman and Englishwoman living in the country.

THE STRIKES CONTINUE.

GREAT ALARM OVER THE THREATENED SCARCITY OF COAL.

The Large Furnaces and Iron Works Have Only a Small Supply—Some of the Colliories Return to the Old Wages.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 3.—A meeting embracing 1500 representatives of the miners of this region was held at Mount Carmel yesterday. It was resolved unanimously to strike unless the demand for the continuance of the 8 per cent. advance is conceded, and even in this event to mine no coal to be handled by "scab railroad employes."

Colliers on Strike.

ASHLAND, Pa., Jan. 3.—The Knights of Labor miners at a meeting here last night decided to go on strike, and as a consequence there is but one Reading colliery in this district working to-day, and that one is short-handed. Riley & Co. have made a satisfactory agreement with their employes, and their collieries are in operation.

Miners Resist a Reduction.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—Five thousand miners in the Schuylkill region struck this morning against the 8 per cent. reduction in wages. The situation of the Reading Railroad men's strike is not materially changed.

Tramps to Take the Strikers' Places.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 3.—The President of the Board of Poor Directors to-day asked the tramps confined in the County Workhouse who were willing to go to Reading to take the strikers' places to sign a paper. Twenty-five complied and they will be sent to Port Richmond.

Alarm in the Schuylkill Valley.

READING, Jan. 3.—There is great alarm throughout the industrial regions of the Schuylkill Valley over the coal strike inaugurated to-day. The proprietors of large furnaces and iron works in this section predict that if the mines are shut down for two weeks the majority of the large establishments will be obliged to close owing to the lack of a supply of coal. Many of them have been running for weeks short of coal and most of them have less than a week's supply on hand. If the strike continues any length of time many smaller establishments in this city and vicinity will be compelled to close down. All the industrial cities and towns in this section, such as Reading, Birdsboro, Norristown, Pattstown, Hamburg and smaller places, receive their coal over the Reading Railway and with the stoppage of work at the mines trade will be entirely paralyzed. It is estimated that in this vicinity from 3000 to 5000 men are employed in the iron works which are in urgent need of coal. Not one has over a week's supply.

The time between sundown and daylight is usually the busy time for the shipment of coal of the Reading road. The reverse run of coal cars through this city during the day is 4000 cars. Last night but 1000 were run down and to-day only a few short trains went down the road.

Reports received to-day show that of the sixty-eight collieries in the Schuylkill region (forty of the largest of which are controlled by the Reading Company) but six are at work. The members of the Knights of Labor in this city, while refusing to strike, have promised the Schuylkill miners financial support, the same as they are giving the men in the Lehigh region.

There is a movement on foot among the business men of this end of the Schuylkill valley to hold a meeting in this city and bring such a pressure to bear upon President Corbin as to cause him to consent to arbitration of the miners' strike as least. It is argued that the immense industries of this section of the state cannot afford such a fearful paralysis of business and trade. The strike will not only throw 30,000 miners out of employment, but 30,000 iron workers as well.

The Situation at Shamokin.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 3.—The miners' strike went into effect this morning at all the Philadelphia and Reading Company's collieries in this section with the exception of the North Franklyn, Nos. 1 and 2. In addition to those at the Reading Company's collieries the mines were on at the Pennsylvania, owned by the Union Coal Company; the Enterprise, owned by the Enterprise Coal Company, and the Garfield, owned by the Garfield Coal Company.

An arrangement was entered into at the Neilson shaft, the Excelsior, the Hickory Ridge, the Hickory Swamp and the Lancaster collieries, whereby the propietors agreed to pay the old rate of wages until the strike is settled. The collieries now idle in Shamokin gave ample employment to 5500 men.

The Enterprise Coal Company has agreed to pay its miners the 8 per cent demanded.

The proprietors of Bellvere, Morris Ridge, Mount Carmel, Centralia and Excelsior Collieries, employing 2000 hands, have agreed to pay the 8 per cent. advance on the two-fifths basis, pending a settlement by the Reading Company, and work will be resumed to-morrow.

Negotiating for a Settlement.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Jan. 3.—The Reading collieries are all idle here, as is also the Thomas Coal Company's mine. The proprietors of the latter are negotiating for a settlement. The Wm. Penn Company's mines will be idle to-morrow.

The Number of Miners Out.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 3.—The number of miners out on strike in this region is estimated at 25,000 to 30,000.

THE FLINT GLASSWORKERS.

About 13,000 Men Now Out—The Output will be Decreased Four-fifths.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The strike among the flint glassworkers has extended from the western manufacturers to the eastern factories, and the men who left work in the fifteen factories in Brooklyn, Philadelphia, New Bedford, Boston and Corning, N. Y., failed to return to work yesterday or to-day with two exceptions. In the East and West about 13,000 men are now out.

A prominent manufacturer said to-day that the strike bids fair to be a long and bitter one. He doubted the possibility of a conclusion in 1888. The output of the country would be decreased four-fifths by the strike, and if it lasted twelve months it would entail a loss of between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000.

The U.S. Iron Trade for 1887.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—In a review of the American iron trade for the year 1887, General Manager James M. Swank of the American Iron and Steel Association says: The year was one of great activity and fair prosperity. Production in all leading branches of the manufacture of iron and steel was the largest in our history. We estimate our production of pig iron at 6,250,000 gross tons, or about 600,000 more than in 1886; of Bessemer steel rails 1,950,000 gross tons, or about 375,000 tons more than in 1886. The total importations of iron and steel in all forms in 1887 aggregated nearly 1,800,000 tons. Our production of iron ore in 1887 was about 11,000,000 gross tons, and our imports in the same year amounted to about 1,250,000 tons.

A Possible War in Passenger Rates.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—The Niagara Falls Short Line having refused to cease making a $1.50 less passenger rate between Chicago and Buffalo than the strong lines, a meeting will be held to-morrow to consider the matter. If the Short Line persists the Lake Shore, Michigan Central, and Chicago and Grand Trunk have agreed to meet any second-class rate put in by the Short Line. The latter's present rate is $9.50, Chicago to Buffalo, against $11 by the strong lines.

A Riot at Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, Jan. 3.—A riot between forty or more drunken men took place at Alden this morning. Most of them were Poles and all sorts of weapons were used. One man was found dying on the roadway and eight were seriously injured. Two of them will likely die. The fracas resulted directly from a christening which lasted two days.

THE WRECK AT GREENWOOD.

Fear That the Most Terrible Part of the Story Remains To Be Told.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 3.—J. H. Avey, one of the victims of the railroad accident on the Southern Railroad, died at Covington to-day, and his wife is reported to be dying. The other wounded are doing well.

A special from Greenwood, Ky., says the fear grows hourly that the most terrible part of the story of Saturday's wreck remains to be told. As time wears on and the wreck is being cleared away the presence of more bodies in the debris becomes apparent. Last night the bones of two unfortunates were found reduced almost to ashes, having been burned with the cars. There is nothing by which they can be identified.

Thrown Down an Embankment.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 3.—A passenger coach on the Sauk Centre and Northern Railroad was thrown down an embankment yesterday. Miss Amanda Thornquist was badly burned, and several others sustained lesser injuries.

PETROLEUM EXCITED.

The Highest Price for Over Two Years Reached at New York Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The petroleum market was active and excited all day, and the prices touched the highest point for over two years. The opening was excited at 90½c, and in the first half-hour the price advanced 3⅝c to 93⅛c. There was a slight reaction from this figure, and the market was steady around 93 until afternoon, when the price suddenly jumped to 94⅝c. Another reaction followed but the heavy buying, which was a noticeable feature all day, continued and the market closed strong and excited at 95⅝c.

"Shorts" Squeezed at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 3.—The excitement in oil here to-day has seldom been equalled. The shorts made a great rush to cover but many of them were unsuccessful owing to the scarcity of certificates.

THE PARK TOBOGGAN SLIDE.

Grand Opening Last Night—Bogardus Beats Winston—Other Sporting Notes.

In a grand situation, with 350 members, one of the best arrangements in the province, and with suitable weather, the Queen's Park Toboggan Club has entered on its third season. For a week now it has been open, and during that time has received an accession of forty to its membership. A large number of the latter are ladies, and they and their friends to the number of several hundreds mustered for the formal opening last night, enjoying the glorious winter sport until the lamps burned low. The modus operandi and the facilities of the toboggan are as familiar as "household words," but those who were present last night for the first time were eloquent in praise of the lofty chute, 75 yards long and its fine run of 700 yards. Decorated with Chinese lanterns and oil lamps and thronged with picturesquely clad voyageurs, in which white trimmed with blue and red predominated, the scene was rendered the more impressive as the dancing flames shot up from the huge bonfire. The run is the quickest in Canada, the 750 yards occupying no more that 22 seconds. The slide is open every evening and Saturday afternoons.

Bogardus Beats Winston.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 3.—The Bogardus-Winston match of 100 live birds each for a purse of $500 was a brilliant affair. Bogardus won by a score of 82 to 80. Bogardus challenges any man in America to shoot at 100 live birds for $1000 to $2000 a side, Hurlingham rules, the match to be shot after April.

Buffalo's Baseball Directors.

BUFFALO, Jan. 3.—The annual meeting of the Buffalo Baseball Club were held this evening. Two tickets for directors was in the field. That headed by Sheriff, president of the International League last year, was defeated. The ticket headed by G. C. Candee, first president of the International club in Buffalo, was carried. The Collector of Customs, a truly good man, and anh enthusiastic lover of the national sport, weighs 400 pounds. He will have for associates: C. W. Cushman, E. S. Dann, Jas. Fleming, A. D. Bissell, J. L. Williams, Thos. Hodgson, Hon. Jacob Hern and Milton Brown.

Dust From the Diamond.

Manager Leonard of Rochester announces that he has signed Collins, the second baseman of last season's Hamiltons.

Those persons who have been decrying Crane's ability as a pitcher because of his poor work on the Pacific coast are asked to account for his recent work against the Chicagos, who only got six hits. Ten of the White Stockings were retired on strikes, the Phillies then winning their first game by 4 to 2. The World believes that the ex-Toronto pitcher will prove a valuable acquisition to the Giants.

The fresh young man who mismanages The Enquirer's baseball column during the illness of poor Harry Weldon can make $500—probably as much as he now makes in a whole year—as easily as rolling off a log. This would produce a club, or even one player, who has been bribed in any manner whatsoever by the Toronto Club's manager or officials, and Manager Cushman will make the disclosure of that sum, and The Sporting Life will guarantee its payment if this reporter makes his charge good. Insinuations are vile; let us have facts and produce the player or players who "are said" to have done the talking.—Sporting Life.

Pitcher Bishop gets $1500 from London. It is probable Quinn, a Pittsburg catcher, will pair with him.

It is not yet a settled fact that Ormsbee will manage the Hamilton team.

"Rasty" Wright will play centre field instead of right field in Syracuse next season.

All the International Association clubs have deposited their guarantee fund of $1000.

"Dandy" Kearns, of the Toronos, is receiving a good deal of newspaper notoriety from the fact that he has played with no less than eight champion clubs: Rochester Stars, Rochester College, Rochester Undowns, Grand Rapids, in 1884, Toledo in 1885, Syracuse in 1885, Portland in 1886 and Toronto in 1887.

F. H. Brunell thinks Faatz will make a good captain for the Clevelands.

The London papers have signed Valentine Rowins, late pitcher and first baseman for the Cincinnatis.

Gossip of the Turf.

Dick O'Leary, who is to train a public stable this coming season, will have the 4-year-old colt Harry Cooper in his charge.

It is likely that Charlie Phair will next season train the thoroughbreds of the Roselyn Stable of Chatham, which include Lady Daryell and several imported fillies.

The most prominent in the Two Thousand Guineas which is the finest of the big 3-year old events run in England are Hazlehatch, Ayrshire, Crowberry, Caerlaverock, Nisa, Disappointment, Friar's Balsam, Orbit, Ossory, Simon Pure and Hark.

Incomplete statistics from "Goodwin's Guide for 1887" show that more than 3600 races were run in America during the past year, yet for 1886 there seems to be a craze at every racing centre to crowd in about twice as much racing.

For the principal 3-year-old stakes in England, viz., the 2000 Guineas and Derby, the betting so far has been very small, owing to the overwhelming superiority of Friar's Balsam, who at last advices was quoted at 100 to 30 against for the Derby. He is trained at the Kingsclere Stable by John Porter, who has two other very promising candidates for the Derby in Orbit and Ossory—the latter a full brother of Ormonde. The betting is 7 to 1 against Orbit, 9 to 1 Ayrshire, 100 to 8 Hazlehatch, and 100 to 6 each Ossory and Crowberry.

Sports of Sport.

The Caledonian Curling Club will hold its annual match—President v. President—to-night at the Mutual-street Rink.

There will be a sparring exhibition Saturday evening next at Joe Pupp's Academy, 56 King-street west, top flat, to wind up with a set-to between Dave Fitzgerald and Joe Popp. All lovers of the manly art of self-defence are invited.

The prize fight for the championship of Pennsylvania and $1000 between Joe Ridge and Wm. Kelly is off. Ridge refused to fight at the places selected (near Pittsburg) and the referee decided that Kelly was entitled to the fight and stakes, which were turned over to him.

The president and vice-president of the Moss Park Curling Club will play a match to-morrow afternoon on their rink, Shuter-street. Oysters will be served after the match.

Photography.

Everyone nowadays possesses a photo, if not of themselves, of their friends. The art has reached almost perfection, and specially may this be said of the first-class productions of Mr. Lemaitre, 324 Yonge-street. A visit to his studio will well repay the curiosity, even during the dog days. All who desire a photograph in really high class style and finish should patronize Mr. Lemaitre, whose reputation is so well known. x

CHRISTMAS HONOR LIST.

Result of the Recent Examinations at the Toronto Collegiate Institute.

The following are the names of the pupils entitled to honorable mention in the Christmas examinations at the Toronto Collegiate Institute:

Gloom in a Kentucky Town.

From The Arkansaw Traveler.

In a Kentucky town, Stranger (to native): Your people seem to be depressed.

"Yes, we have suffered an awful calamity."

"Financial crash?"

"No, worse than that. Buck Spillers is dead."

"Your Mayor, I suppose?"

"Oh, no; he kept the Dew Drop saloon."

"Must have been a prominent man?"

"No, not particularly."

"Then why should his death
