AT OSGOODE HALL.

The Western Assurance Company Fighting a Claim on the Ground of Alleged Misrepresentation as to Value.

In Irwin v. Toronto General Trusts Company, before the Chancery Division Court, sitting as a court of appeal, judgments were reserved. The appeal is by the plaintiff from the judgment of Justice Rose, dismissing the action. The plaintiff, a legatee, objects to the right of the defendants as administrators with the will annexed of William Irwin, deceased, to convey a house and lot to the testator's widow in lieu of her dower and of her interest under the will.

Judgment was also reserved in Jennee v. Western Assurance Company. The defendants appeal from the judgment of Justice Robertson, entered after a verdict. The defendants contend that they are improperly directed to pay plaintiff $2000 for loss by fire, because the insurance was obtained by misrepresentation as to the value and the buildings then set on fire.

Co-operative Industrial Colony.

The stockholders of the Co-Operative Industrial Colony held their annual meeting in the Bank of Commerce building on Saturday afternoon. It is proposed to establish a 500-acre farm colony north of the city, and provide a number of laborers with the necessary implements, stock, etc., to work it. The Ontario Government will, it is said, be interviewed at a future date and asked to aid in the institution of many similar colonies. Directors were elected, as follows: Messrs. George McMurrich, Thos. Davies, Simpson Rennie, Robert Glockling, Dr. P. H. Bryce, F. A. Belcher, Robert Kilgour, J. S. Robertson and F. E. Titus.

Wilder, M.A., and endorsed by representatives at Calcutta, Ludhiana, Fatehgarh, Madras, Lucknow, Poona, and Karimganj, giving a statement of the needs of the various mission districts.

Aikins, Egan v. Casserly, Williams v. Frazer, Phillips v. Babister, Sickenger v. Hoerr, Croft v. Cooper. During the sittings of the court, Chamber motions will be taken at half-past 12.

The Markham Woolen Mills Company and James Morrison of Lambton, are financially embarrassed as a result of the Lockhart suspension. In the case of the Lambton Mills, the property was rented and Morrison was manager. Lockhart, Son & Co., supplied the raw material to the mills, and handled the product. Miss Louisa Robinson ran the Markham mills, and in her case the conditions were similar. Although no statement of Mr. Lockhart's affairs has been issued yet, it is understood that his liabilities will be in the neighborhood of $140,000. The Bank of Montreal is said to hold $60,000 worth of the firm's paper.

E. S. Cressman, drygoods merchant, Hanover, has assigned to H. H. Miller. Cressman is one of the largest debtors of the McMaster estate, it is understood, and his failure is due to the liquidation of the big wholesale firm.

Justice Robertson Refers in Strong Terms to the Evidence in the London Election Trial.

Mr. Justice Robertson is presiding at the Assizes in Toronto this week. In the course of a trial he had occasion to refer to the recklessness with which statements are made under oath, and, speaking apparently of the London election trial, remarked, caustically: "My confidence is shaken in the integrity and truthfulness of the human race. I have been listening the last 18 days to people making statements under oath in one way, and another set of people affirming the other way that the statements were not true. I think there will have to be a few indictments for perjury through the country to make people aware that it is an offence to state an untruth under oath. Up in a certain part of the country where I have been, my confidence in what people say under oath has been much shaken."

The action of Radcliff against Grier, between two grocers, who reside, respectively, at 822 and 810 College-street, was by arrangement dismissed, with $50 costs to defendant. The defendant was charged with having said the plaintiff sold inferior flour in a "King Flour" bag.

The next suit was by Gerald D. Boulton, a clerk in the Imperial Bank, who sued Gourlay, Winter & Leeming for being, as he claims, run into when on his bicycle, by a runaway team belonging to the defendants. The cause list for to-day is: Coll v. T.S.R., Jamieson v. Mannell, Marshall v. T.S.R., Nerlich v. Dain, D'Ivry v. The World.

A SCARCITY OF MEATS.

Uneasiness Across the Line, But British Columbia is All Right.

Rossland Record.

News has been received from the cattle-producing districts of the States, which has caused uneasiness all along the coast from Southern California to British Columbia. The scarcity of meat is reported as unparalleled in the annals of the meat business on the Pacific Coast. There is a shortage of pork and there is very little beef and mutton to be had in the markets. The buyers of San Francisco are coming as far north as Portland, and some even as far as Seattle for supplies. The Frye-Bruhn Meat Packing Company of Seattle all but ceased packing about two weeks ago, as they are unable to obtain enough supplies to keep them going. But seventy-five hogs per day are being slaughtered. The usual number before they became so scarce was two hundred and seventy-five. This company has a million pounds of dry salted hides put away in case of necessity, and rather than touch any of this, which cost them but 3½ cents per pound on foot, they are paying 4 cents per pound for all the live hogs they can get. It will be August at least before the normal condition of the market is again reached.

Mr. Gillies of the British Columbia Cattle Co. says that no uneasiness need be felt in British Columbia. A sufficient supply of meats has been arranged for a long time to come. Mutton in Victoria is now selling at 8½ cents per pound whole, and sufficient for the wants of British Columbia is obtainable at that price. Should the Yakima country and adjacent district, on which British Columbia at present depends for her supply of mutton, prove a failure, a cargo could at any time be imported from the Antipodes.

As to beef and pork, etc., the provincial ranges, Manitoba and the Northwest are able to supply more than enough to keep all the stores in this Province going. So at least as far as this Province is concerned, no fears need be entertained of a meat famine.

Public School Matters.

The Finance Committee of the Public School Board met yesterday afternoon and recommended that requests for additional accommodation in a number of the city schools be referred to the Property Committee to report an estimate of the cost; also that the following kindergartners, having satisfactorily served the six months' term of probation, be appointed to the regular staff: Mrs. R. H. Cameron, the Misses J. D. McKenzie, E. H. Peters, G. Thomas, I. Woods, B. Bridgland, L. B. Harding and M. Chandler. Considerable time was spent in the passing of accounts to the amount of $332.79.

Legal Firm Dissolved.

The well-known legal firm of Macrae & Rykert is being dissolved by the retirement of Mr. E. G. Rykert, who has been tempted by liberal proposals to abandon his profession and join Mr. C. J. McCuaig in Montreal as a partner in his large business of gold mining and general brokering. Mr. Hubert H. Macrae will continue the business of the firm at their old offices, 1 Toronto-street.

The Elevator's Work.
