PEOPLE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA AGAINST ORIENTAL LABOR

"It will in all probability be newspaper work. In fact, it is a practical certainty that I will go into newspaper work again," was the statement in regard to his future plans made last evening to The Advertiser by Hon. Walter Scott, former premier of Saskatchewan, and at one time editor and proprietor of the Regina Leader, the paper established on the prairies by Nicholas Flood Davin, but which subsequently underwent a marked change in its political color.

No Thought of Politics Now.

"What about politics? Have you any thought of going into politics again?" asked The Advertiser's representative.

"That remains to be seen. I haven't any thought of that now," came the reply, whereat the reporter remarked, "Anyway, newspaper work is a great game, pretty hard to get out of, once you have been into it."

"So's politics," quickly commented the man who led the Government with marked distinction for years in the middle prairie province.

Hon. Walter Scott has "come back" to a world of activities and big problems with which to grapple, following the long rest necessitated by the physical break-down which occured in the midst of his strenuous duties as premier of the rapidly-growing up province of Saskatchewan.

Sought Health in Change.

Two years ago he was obliged to retire from office and seek health in a complete change of climate and environment, in Los Angeles.

Last March he came north again, settling in Victoria for a time, and there the curative value of rest was demonstrated in a fresh grip upon life and zest in living. But this Western Canadian man of affairs has at last learned the supreme importance of health as an asset to a career. He is willing to make haste slowly and will return to Victoria for the winter before taking up work next spring.

He hopes then to go back to Regina, the scene of his newspaper successes, and his rapid rise in the political firmament.

Concerning crop and business conditions on the prairies at present, he said:

"I don't know any more about the prairies than you do down here. So far as the coast is concerned, it has not reaped the benefit of good crops and high prices as the prairie provinces have done, but there is a good deal of shipbuilding in Victoria and Vancouver and likely to be in Prince Rupert."

Asked concerning the probable attitude of the citizens of British Columbia towards bringing in Chinese to operate the coal mines, "The people of British Columbia are set against bringing in Oriental labor," he said, "and always raise strenuous objections when anything of the kind is mentioned."

Settlers Needed for Land.

With regard to the mixed nationalities problem on the prairie, if Mr. Scott were in politics at the present time he would say that the franchise act of the last election is going to be responsible for a lot of difficulties in the way of readjustment. The European settlers are needed on the land to raise produce, and the maximum of production is going to be required to help to pay off the enormous indebtedness of Canada. Disfranchising—but Mr. Scott isn't in politics, and he isn't talking politics these days. He isn't making comments in Western Ontario on disputatious things that are every-day facts on the prairies.

Getting back to the subject of the game of politics, Mr. Scott touched upon the new place of women in political life in Canada. "I am proud to say," he declared, "that the first women to cast a vote in Canada were the women of Saskatchewan, on the question of the liquor shops."

Saskatchewan Set Pace.

Association of ideas reminds one of the fact that during the premiership of Hon. Walter Scott, the "wild and woolly" prairie Province of Saskatchewan led all Canada in granting the right of the ballot to women, as it led all Canada in prohibition legislation, and set the pace which has brought the rest of the Dominion swinging after in line.

The man, who led Saskatchewan in these advanced measures, has come back with renewed vigor and the advantage of an awakened appreciation of the importance of conserving strength and energy.

Mr. Scott spent the week-end with relatives in the city, motoring out to his old home in the Ilderton district yesterday. He has gone on to Galt today, and purposes going as far as New York before returning to the far west. Since coming east he has been the guest for several days of his close friend, Senator Ross, at the summer home of the latter at Lake Memphramagag, Quebec.

JUDGE MACBETH TO HEAR CAPT. TOZER CHARGES

Council Wades Through a Large Pile of Business.

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.

Referred Tozer charges to Judge Macbeth.

Referred matter of Capt. Tozer's reinstatement to Chief Aitken, with power.

Carried the recommendation of the special committee increasing the firemen's wages 25c a day, also granting the chief and assistant chief a bonus for this year.

Carried the special committee's recommendation that the practice of outsiders loitering around the firehalls be prohibited, with the proviso "Except with the approval or consent of the chief."

Referred back the petition for the closing of garages on Sunday, it being contended that the petition is insufficiently signed.

Approved of the resolution that only men who have served overseas be granted a remission of war tax, and that it be continued until the year of their discharge.

Referred the request of the board of health for a committee to look into the cost of repairing Springbank dam to No. 2 committee.

The council has unburdened itself of the duty of going further into the fire department trouble. It has sent the Tozer charges against certain members of the department to Judge Macbeth, instead of to Magistrate Graydon, as recommended by No. 1 committee, or back to Tozer, as recommended by the board of control. As to the contentious question of Capt. Tozer's reinstatement, the council made Chief Aitken the "goat." It referred the matter to him with power. The council heard a long discussion on all phases of the matter.

Firemen's Grievance Aired.

The Tozer charges will be taken up with the charges of the trades and labor council, providing the latter are gone on with. There still remains, however, the settlement of the grievances of the firemen. They asked two months ago for a board of conciliation. They have not got it. Last night Capt. Jack Mitchell told the council that if it did not grant the request of the firemen's union, the union would go over the council's head and apply direct to the department of labor for a board.

Again the council would be relieved of the duty, but this time only in a measure. The special committee of three went into the firemen's grievances. It seemed as if it had them settled. Mayor Somerville said the only salvation was to have accepted the committee's report in whole. The council did not think that way. It proceeded to tear the report to pieces. Last night it completed this task. As the Mayor remarked "the whole matter is now up in the air."

Matter Now in Two Hands.

The matter of settling the department troubles is now in two hands, Chief Aitken and Judge Macbeth. Undoubtedly the board of conciliation asked for by the firemen will follow and make the third tribunal. The fourth tribunal, the special committee, has already completed its work with more or less disastrous results, this despite the fact that though the council hummed and hawed and referred back the report, it finally accepted it all with the exception of the Tozer dismissal clause, and this was a clause in the chief's recommendations to the committee to the effect that he had dismissed Tozer. Now the matter goes back to the chief "with power."

Capt. Tozer Scores Point.

Capt. Tozer scored a point as to his charges. In his statement of charges he asked that they be sent to the county judge for investigation. When No. 1 committee investigated them, it recommended that the charges be sent to the police magistrate. Ald. Wilson made the motion. The board of control decided that the city should not accept the responsibility for the charges and added a recommendation that they be referred back to Tozer to take up with the magistrate.

J. M. McEvoy appeared for Tozer last night. He asked that the matter be sent to the judge. He told the council plainly that Tozer would not lay an information. Ald. Wilson made an amendment that the matter be referred to the judge and this carried.

Discussion on Charges.

When the Tozer charges came up, Ald. Wilson re-presented his motion that the charges go to Magistrate Graydon as an amendment to the board of control's recommendation that they be referred back to Tozer, as the city could not accept the responsibility for them. Ald. Wilson later changed his amendment to refer the charges to the judge. This was after Tozer's counsel, J. M McEvoy, had spoken.

Ald. Wilson said he could not see how the city would be responsible for the charges.

Ald. Ashplant thought that Tozer should decide whether his charges should go to the judge or magistrate.

Controller Saunders waxed quite eloquent in the discussion. "Why does this council want to get out from under an investigation of the whole question? We should take steps to send the whole matter of the charges either to the police magistrate or the county judge." That there is a need of an investigation into the department he admitted. He remarked:

Hits at Foremen.

"One of the men who is leaving the department—he left today, I think—told me that he had worked in several asylums, but he found the men of the fire department worse than any he had ever come in contact with." The retiring fire fighter also made the allegation, according to Controller Saunders, that four or five men get their heads together and if one does not agree with them there is no living in the halls with them.

Controller Saunders further intimated that the fireman in question thought some of the men were fit subjects for an examination by an alienist.

J. M. McEvoy, addressing the council on behalf of Capt. Tozer, said he agreed with Controller Saunders that a thorough investigation should be conducted. He asked that an investigation be held before the county judge rather than before the police magistrate. There would be a fuller investigation before the judge, as he had more power than the magistrate.

Council's Duty.

Ald. Wilson, whose original amendment proposed that the magistrate hear the charges, asked for and was granted leave to change his amendment so that the county judge would conduct the investigation.

Ald. Manness thought the special committee should still deal with the question, and made an amendment to this effect, which Ald. Ashplant seconded.

Controller Little thought that as the charges were of a criminal nature they should be taken before the proper authorities by the men who made them.

Ald. Keene said that as certain charges had been made against a department of the city they should be dealt with by the council.

Would Not Lay Information.

J. M. McEvoy asserted that Mr. Tozer would not take the charges before either the county judge or the police magistrate, and that whatever action along this line was taken the initiative would have to be taken by the council.

"Capt. Tozer was absolved from further responsibility in the matter when he laid the charges before a committee of the council that governs the department, and the onus rests on the committee," was the statement of Ald. Ashplant.

"Capt. Tozer is not being fairly dealt with; an innocent man is being condemned to death without a fair trial," said Ald. Wilson. The motion to refer the charges to the judge carried unanimously.

Tozer's Dismissal.

The discussion on the dismissal of Capt. Tozer was not long, nor was it heated. Ald. Wilson, who has vied with Controller Saunders in championing Tozer's cause, was mild. He simply presented a motion that Tozer be retained in whatever capacity the chief might see fit to employ him, and the dismissal notice withdrawn.

Ald. Ashplant asked that as the board of control dealt with questions of employment and dismissals, should it not deal with the Tozer case?

Ald. Watt said that the whole matter was in the hands of the chief. He hired and fired his own men. He maintained that the chief was responsible, and the matter should never have left his office. He said all the trouble was caused by him.

Controller Saunders said that the special committee told the chief to dismiss Tozer.

Chief to Decide.

Ald. Moorhead said that the chief always made his recommendations to the committee. He thought the council should suggest to the chief to take up the Tozer matter and see if he could not come to an amicable settlement. He made an amendment that the matter be referred to the chief with power. This was carried.

The discussion in regard to loitering in the fire halls waxed warm. Ald. Drake objected to the clause. Controller Saunders remarked that loitering made the halls political hotbeds. Other aldermen joined in and some of the spectators wished to do so, but the mayor objected. The committee's recommendation forbidding such loitering was amended to give the chief power to allow such loitering by granting permission if he sees fit. Carried.

RETURNED MEN JOIN SIBERIAN EXPEDITION

Two Londoners Accepted On Volunteering.

The first volunteers received in this city for the recently established Siberian expeditionary force were examined by the medical board at the local mobilization centre Monday, and found to be in category A2, which will enable them to join the forces immediately. The men, William Garlick and Alfred Goss, are both residents of this city, and returned soldiers, having served overseas in the early stages of the war.

Two men from the British and Canadian recruiting mission at Detroit were also examined. Norman Birch was placed in category A2 and attached to the Construction Battalion, while Odie Montgomery was found to be unfit for service. James Bryan and H. Foden were placed in category A2 and attached to the Canadian Engineers. One defaulter and one apprehended man were found to be in category A2 and were placed in the Western Ontario Regiment.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

ALD. MANNESS AND THE FISH BUSINESS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Ald. Manness fears competition, and he does not want any man in the same business as he is, namely: the distribution of Government fish. He still holds that monopoly is the best kind of thing for the citizens of London, the same attitude that he took in regard to the selling of groceries in competition with the customers he has for his cigars.

Application was made by merchants some time ago to the minister of fisheries re the distribution of Government fish in this city. We were informed that London only had one distributing point for these fish, and many were greatly surprised over the affair, as they could not see why the merchants in this city who were in the fish business could not be allowed the same privilege as the rest and as the firms in Toronto, where they have many places for the sale of these fish.

It is the citizens who have the right of purchasing the fish they are paying for, and why not let them have it the way they want it? How can one man with a counter three feet long and a shop 10x12 feet supply the wants of the whole city of London? And why should one continue all this business without giving the men who are paying business tax to indulge in the same business the same privilege?

It looks to me like an election dodge to make the working people believe he is the saver of their lives. They have no overhead expense like other businessmen and their staff is supplied by city labor, the light also costs them nothing, and they only started to pay rent recently. The fuel came last winter from other buildings belonging to the city, so is it any wonder that others are not wanted to compete with his monopoly?

Application was made to No. 1 committee and it was referred to Ald. Manness to report, but he has never consulted any fish man as yet, nor has he made any report. But nevertheless we are all patiently waiting to hear the outcome of this communication which he was supposed to answer.

ONE INTERESTED.

ENGLISH PICNIC AT PORT ON WEDNESDAY WILL BE FULLY EQUAL TO BEST

A grand reunion of all the English folk from "over the herring pond" in the form of the annual English picnic will be held tomorrow at Port Stanley. Great doings were told of at the Irish and Scotch picnics, and the English say they will more than uphold the traditional good times that are usually held at these annual picnics. A baby show, the main feature of every picnic, will be held, and there promises to be some fine little specimens of humanity exhibited among this English gathering. Swimming events, a watermelon race, boxing in barrels, nail-driving contests are only a few of the special events which are to take place on the Invererie Heights.

The picnickers will leave on special trains that will run at intervals during the morning and a band will accompany them. Everything in the refreshment line will be supplied to guests of St. George's Society, under whose auspices the picnic is being given.

The members of St. George's Society will parade from the corner of Queen's avenue and Richmond street, accompanied by the Canadian Garrison Regiment band of 40 pieces.

Weather probabilities promise that Old Sol will smile tomorrow, and there is little doubt he will keep his promise on the day the Sons of England have chosen for the great day of the year.

FLOWER SHOW TO BE HELD IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

What promises to be the best gladioli and flower show yet staged in this city will be held in the public library by the London Horticultural Society on Thursday and Friday evenings, August 22 and 23. A number of entries have already been received, and the prospects for a big exhibit are bright. The exhibit will not be confined entirely to gladioli, but other flowers can also be entered.

The admission will be free and no prizes given, the main idea of the show being to promote a spirit among the citizens to grow these beautiful flowers and beautify the home and surroundings.

TAILORS IN FAVOR OF WEEKLY WAGES

Local tailors are in favor of being paid by the week, rather than by the piece. This was decided last night, when a vote was taken by the members of the local tailors' union.

Canadian Organizer James Watt of Toronto was present, and stated that the sentiments expressed were most favorable to the weekly system. The vote is being taken all over America, and the returns are to be reported to headquarters in Chicago by October 1.

In the discussion regarding working conditions, it was agreed that they would in London compare favorably with other places in the country.

E. W. O'Dell of Hamilton, general organizer of the boot and shoe workers' union, also addressed the meeting on the question of demanding the union label on everything purchased by union men.

John Flett of Hamilton, organizer of the A. F. of L., will, it was announced, be in the city Thursday to install the officers of the new civic employees' union.

LARGE NUMBER OF WESTERN ONTARIO MEN ARE WOUNDED

Majority Slightly Injured From Gunshot.

FEW KILLED OR MISSING

Officers and Men in Most Cases Escape With Slight Harm.

Reports of casualties continue to arrive in large numbers from all points in Western Ontario. As was the case in Sunday night's list, however, most of the names appear in the list of those who are suffering from gunshot wounds.

The number reported killed in action or missing is remarkably small, and in most cases the wounds are in the arm wrist or foot. This feature of the present fighting is one that is being mentioned with considerable relief in the district cities and towns.

Pte. Edward Langford has been killed in action. This word was brought to Mrs. Langford, 387 Horton street, yesterday. He was a former member of the 135th Battalion and left England for France about a year ago last March to serve with a Winnipeg battalion. An 11-year-old daughter survives.

Pte. Frank Baun has been officially reported killed in action, according to word received by George Baun of Masonville Monday. Pte. Baun was an infantry man, and met his death on August 8.

Major Charles G. Carlton, who went overseas about two years ago with the 135th Battalion, has been taken to hospital suffering with gunshot wounds in the back.

A cable received by friends here states that he is "all right—condition improving."

Major Carlton was major of C Company, and reverted to the rank of captain and later to the rank of lieutenant in order to get to France. He had been in the line slightly over six months when he was hit on August 11. He is in No. 8 Hospital at Rouen.

The second cable coming from Major Carlton himself proved quite a relief to his many friends here, who were anxious regarding his condition.

A cable received from Lieut. Charlie Sumner at Woolwich Hospital states that he has had his nose cut and is suffering from septic poisoning. He is progressing slowly, the cable states.

Corp. Alfred John Rawling is in No. 11 Stationary Hospital at Rouen. This word reached Mrs. Mary J. Vale, 128 Langarth street, his mother, yesterday. He received a gunshot wound in the back. He went overseas with the 12th. Mounted Rifles of Hamilton, and has been overseas a couple of years. A brother, Gunner Jack Rawling, was killed in action December 2 last year. Another brother, Harry Rawling, is a member of the Army Service corps.

Pte. Guy V. Risk, formerly of Alvinston, has been admitted to hospital suffering from a gunshot wound, according to word received by his brother, J. F. Risk, 210 Ridout street, this city.

Pte. Richard Johnson is in No. 3 Australian General Hospital at Abbeville suffering from a gunshot wound in the right arm, which he received August 11. This word came Monday to Hugh Johnson, R. R. No. 2, Lambeth.

Pte. Askew Parkinson received severe gunshot wound in the right thigh on August 15, and is in Queen Mary Military Hospital, Whalley, France. Word to this effect was received by Mrs. Isobel Parkinson, 515 Quebec street, last night.

Corp Alex. Munro was hit in the head by gunshot and is in No. 12 General Hospital at Rouen, according to a telegram received by Mrs. Isobel Munro of this city.

A gunshot wound in the left leg has brought Pte. Harry Mitchell Boyle to the county of Middlesex Hapsburry War Hospital at St. Albans. He was wounded on August 13, according to word received by Mrs. Snith, 108 Rectory street.

Corp. Francis Cornelius Cake received a gunshot wound in the buttock, according to word received by Mrs. Ethel Jackson Cake, 769 Dufferin avenue. He is in the Norfolk War Hospital, Thorpe, Norwich. He was wounded on August 13.

Felix Diyoume, 2 Dominion Savings Building, has been notified that Pte. Wilbert J Diyoume received a gunshot wound in the left buttock, and was taken to No. 21 General Hospital at Rouen.

Byron Kilbourne, 138 Fullarton street, received an official telegram yesterday that his son, Sergt. Wilfred Edward Kilbourne, M.M., was admitted to the military hospital, Winchester, August 13, suffering from gunshot wound. The left arm is fractured and the young soldier was burned.

Sergt. Kilbourne, who is 24 years of age, left London with the 33rd Battalion and was later transferred to the 18th. He has been on active service for over two years, and has been wounded three times. He was awarded the military medal just a year ago for gallant conduct on the field of battle. A brother, Elmer, has just reached England, having left this city with a draft of the W. O. R.

An Unlucky Date.

Lance-Corp. Albert Blaney, 823267, was admitted to Norfolk War Hospital, Thorpe, Norwich, England, August 13, 1918, with a gunshot wound in his right thigh. Just one year ago today he was admitted to the hospital in France with gas poisoning.

WINGHAM BOYS IN LIST.

Wingham, Aug. 20.—Word was received here last night that three Wingham boys overseas were numbered among the casualties. Charles McLean was killed in action. H. Drummond was wounded in the arm and leg, and R. Bloomfield was seriously wounded in the arm, legs and shoulder.

Thought She Would Lose Her Little Girl With DIARRHOEA

Thousands of infants die annually who could be saved by the timely use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

There can be no doubt about it.

During the seventy-two years that this wonderful remedy has been on the market, it has been proved conclusively that it is the best for diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps, cholera infantum, and all looseness of the bowels, especially when the children are teething.

Many of the imitations of "Dr. Fowler's" being offered to the public today are positively dangerous, as they often check the diarrhoea too suddenly, cause inflammation and leave the bowels in constipated condition. "Dr. Fowler's" will not do this, but will impart a healthy tone to the mucous surface, and stop the diarrhoea in an easy and natural way.

Mrs. M. Tyler, Orland, Ont., writes: "I have used your wonderful medicine for nine years with great satisfaction. My little girl was only five months old, and she was so sick with diarrhoea I thought she would die. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and it gave her quick relief. I have used it ever since for the whole of my family, six in all, and can praise it more than anything I ever used."

The genuine is put up by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price, 35c.

Schamberg had been wounded on August 9, and admitted to No. 9 General Hospital at Rouen. He received a gunshot wound in the hand, according to the message. On August 15, of last year, Pte. Schamberg was wounded for the first time. He enlisted and went overseas with the 168th Battalion.

Official word has also been received that another Ingersoll soldier, Sapper William Boniface, had been admitted to hospital suffering from gunshot wounds. He also enlisted with the 168th Battalion.

THREE GODERICH MEN HIT.

GODERICH, Aug. 19.—Mrs. James Taylor, Essex street, received a cable today, informing her that Pte. James Taylor had been officially reported as admitted to No. 2 Canadian General Hospital, Letreport, France, on August 9, with gunshot wounds and his left arm fractured.

Mrs. Jane Kell, Britannia road, also received word today to the effect that her son, Pte. Thomas Kell, infantry, had been admitted to Queen Mary's Military Hospital, Whalley, Lancaster, on August 13, suffering from gunshot wounds in the right leg.

Pte. Harvey Pearson McCluskey, infantry, was dangerously ill at No. 5 General Hospital, Rouen, August 14, with gunshot wound in the abdomen, according to information which reached his father, James McCluskey of this town.

Work a Little, Play a Little

We all know the old saying: "All Work and No Play, etc.," and it is just as true today as it ever was. We can neither work nor play if our Physical and Mental Condition is at such a low ebb that we do not take any interest in life. HACKING'S HEART and NERVE REMEDY will improve both your Physical and Mental Condition; it will tone up the Heart, Vitalize the Nerves and supply the natural phosphates to the played-out Brain. Nature has the Power and the Will to make up for Sickness and Weakness in one organ by Strengthening and Building Up the others; we know today that if we can give more power and life to the Heart and the Nerves, we can greatly improve our general health. Hacking's Heart and Nerve Remedy is just the ideal preparation for this work. You must try it if you wish to get well. Price 50c a box, 6 for $2.50. Sold by all dealers or by mail. C. B. Hacking, Phm.B., Listowel. 66u

Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture.)

Here is a method for removing hair or fuzz that is unfailing and is quite inexpensive: Mix a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water and spread on hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes, rub it off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine delatone.—Advt.
