The recent events in Montreal.

The Montreal Times of last date for this week is full of the 12th of July proceedings, and is very severe on the Orangemen. It says:

The curse of Orangeism is upon us with a vengeance. The demon of Ulster fanatics have at last been loosed in Montreal. On Thursday, the 12th of July, Orangeism was laid in the dust; on Monday, the 16th, its altars decorated and thoroughly-beast Orange, the demon of bigotry, like a wild boar, crawled through our streets. A few days after hundreds of foreign ruffians pointed their revolvers at our people. And how did it all come about? Echo answers "How indeed?" On Tuesday it was decided that the Orangemen should not walk. They had been "petitioned" not to do so. They never would have walked, whether they had been "petitioned" or not. It was rumored in Montreal that the Catholics would oppose their lodge-day. Unprotected by the bayonets of the Volunteers, the Orangemen of Montreal would not have faced an outraged and indignant Catholic people. But they were "petitioned" to march. They were urged in the name of "Christian feeling" to abstain from their parade. They cleverly brought pressure to bear upon themselves, when they had no idea in the world of carrying out their threat.

The Orangemen left that "Christian feeling" hate for the Catholic people. They left it after having heard a sermon calculated to make them regard Popery and "Popery" as the emblems of civil and religious liberty. They left it with the inflammatory words of the firebrand "Chaplain" ringing in their ears. One more unfortunate than the rest went home to Victoria Square. If he wanted to avoid a row why did he go there at all? Could he not have taken some other way, and thus have placed himself out of harm's way? But no, the unhappy young man walked through Victoria Square. The defiant words of the "Chaplain" were in his ears, and no doubt he felt that if he fell, he fell a blessed martyr.

* * *

The orange organization passed defiant resolutions, and protestant societies and the Protestant press condemned the Mayor. And as to those defiant resolutions, we fling them back into the teeth of the Orange organization, and we tell them that we accept the challenge, while we repudiate the lie they carry. Yes, Orangemen of Montreal, the Catholics of this city will, we are sure, take up the gauntlet and fling it into your teeth again. There will, we hope, be no more "petitioning" you not to walk. There will, we hope, be no more bending the knee to you order; but we expect that there will be a bold and united front shown to your spirit of bigoted aggression. Every legal means will be exhausted to combat your evil influence in this Dominion. There can be no "reconciliation" now, no turning back—measure for measure—full to the brim. And then about the abuses heaped upon the Mayor. We say Mayor Beaudry has acted throughout this business with consumate skill. If the military had been called out it is not one, but it might have been a hecatomb of dead that we would have had to follow to the grave.

* * *

These questions must now be faced and fought, and it is our own fault if we do not insist upon such a distribution of force as will no longer leave us at the mercy of such men as Colonel Bond. But of the Mayor, if he is censured by the Protestant press, that is no reason why in this matter he should not be applauded by us. We hope the Catholics of this city will stand by their Chief Magistrate, and present him with a handsome testimonial in recognition of his cool and manly conduct during the trying days just gone past.

* * *

Our people bore it all. They knew that a day of reckoning would come.

* * *

Yes, yes, insult was intended and insult has been accepted, and unless these Orange displays are stopped in this Province at least, we fear bloody work is in store for us all. The Catholic people of this country will welcome strife rather than submit to persecution. They will hail civil war with joy rather than be trailed at the heel of an Orange ascendancy.

* * *

If Orangeism triumphs our liberties are gone. Stand by us in this battle, and united we will remove from our path the dangerous elements which threaten us."

How is it?

EDITOR SIGNAL.

Permit me through your columns to ask the Town Council why it is that the bakeshops are not examined to see that the bread is all of the proper weight. A few days ago I weighed a four pound loaf and found it four ounces short in weight, and a two pound loaf two ounces short. It will be readily seen to what an extent the public would be cheated, if this weight was regularly issued.

The price of the 4 lb loaf still sticks at 16 cts., notwithstanding that flour has fallen to $7 per bbl. Baker's bread is not very sensitive, apparently, to the falls in the price of flour, and is always slow to learn such a fact. This hint may be sufficient.

I hope the Council will see to it, in the interests of the poorer classes, that the regulations regarding the weight of bread are strictly observed. CITIZEN.

COLBORNE.

NEW WELL.—Messrs. Weller & Marshall have just completed a well for Mr. D. Fisher, of Colborne, which is 84½ feet deed. There is six feet of water in it, and notwithstanding the great height which the water has to be raised, the pump works very easily—may be worked by a child.

WHEAT SPOILED.—At the time of the severe frost in June two beautiful fields of fall wheat, each about ten acres in extent, belonging to Messrs. L. Manning and Jas. Stevens, were touched with the frost, and about four acres of promising grain was destroyed. The frost only touched the field where a strip of low lying black soil ran through it. The rest of the crop will realize about 40 bushels to the acre.

CORRECTION.—Owing to an error in the manuscript in the report of the Colborne competitive examination, Lavina Manning was placed third instead of second, on the honor roll of the first class in the second reader.

CLINTON.

NEW RECOVERED.—Mr. W. J. Pailley, our town constable, succeeded in recovering a buffalo robe on the 12th, that had been taken out of the vehicle of the owner at Bayfield, the same day a year previous. The holder said he had bought it, but it was doubted. He gave back the robe and $2 for the use of it.

LOST AND FOUND.—A few days ago a lady got off a Grand Trunk train here, and entered an omnibus to go up town. Intending to see the time, she felt for her watch—a fine gold one—but discovered that she had lost it. Of course she was considerably grieved at her loss, and making it known to Mr. Stratton, a general search was instituted, when the article was found lying on the track, where it had evidently fallen as the lady descended from the train.

DISTANT FIELDS LOOK GREEN.—Some time since a well to do farmer in a neighboring township, became dissatisfied, and believing the glowing accounts he had heard of the wonders of North Carolina, determined to move thither. He sold his farm, a good one, and moved into the "land of promise." But the hopes he had entertained were not to be realized, and last week his family were sent back to Canada, he soon to follow. The report given is that schools, churches, and society are decidedly inferior to those of Canada, the people are of a lower social status, and the country not to be compared to this delightful one.

STALLION FIGHT.—On the 14th inst. a stranger was taking two full-blooded stallions towards Goderich, when a fight occurred between them, which, had it not been for the timely assistance rendered, might have been much more serious. The parties had two stallions and two sallies, both horses being barefoot, but one being by the side of the other in the stalls. When opposite Mr. Martin's one nipped the other, and the latter instantly reared up and commenced [illegible] The owner was thrown off, and [illegible] and for a few [illegible] kicked and bit each [illegible] noise attracting a [illegible] they were [illegible] were seriously [illegible] some blood was [illegible] Ere.

Legal Notes.

REMOVED.—On Thursday, Aaron McBrien was removed to Kingston penitentiary to put in his term of three years. John Snow and Wm. Harvey were also removed to the Central Prison on Saturday.

MORE PRISONERS.—On Thursday Wm. Bowie of McKillop for contempt of court was committed to jail for thirty days. Jas. Jones and Jas. McDowall of Clinton were also committed on the same day, the former having failed to furnish sureties to keep the peace and the latter to await trial for obtaining money under false pretences, having secured $2 on a note purporting to have been written by Mr. Jas. Patton to Mr. David Patton requesting that the amount be paid the bearer.

SENTENCED.—Geo. Rausch, on Saturday, was sentenced by Judge Toms to one week's imprisonment for larceny.

THE SHOOTING CASE.—On Wednesday last Wm. Askin as announced last week, appeared before S. Pollock, Esq., and F. O'Dea, Esq., Justices of the Peace, on the charge of shooting at Aaron McBrien with intent. He was committed to stand his trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction, in the meantime bail being accepted for his appearance.

If a good machine you want to buy
I'll tell you where to call,
The best are sold by Fishers
So say the people all.
And they are always willing
To give every one a trial,
They sell the championsewing machine
It is the Family Royal.
If you ain't got the money
You need not fear,
If you cannot pay the cash
They'll trust you for a year,
And when the year is ended
And the money is come due
You never need to be afraid
That they will trouble you,
There are other agents
That sell the Wanzer and the Howe,
But they will never trade
On a horse or yet a cow.
But Fishers, they are willing
That the Farmer too should live
And they will take in change
Whatever they will give,
So if you want to deal with them
You need not be afraid,
For they are always willing
And open for a trade.
The blacksmiths, they have dealt with them
And now their women smile
To think their men were sensible
And bought for them the Royal.
The butchers too, who live in town
Whose women used to scold,
Have bought from them the Royal
That's worth its weight in gold.
Their women now are singing
And on their face a smile
They say that sewing is but play
Since they have got the Royal.
The bakers too have purchased one
But not to mix their dough,
They say it is the best machine
That ever was to sew.
Mr. Harney has been in town
He knows that this is true,
So if you want to purchase
We would like to deal with you.
